EXCHANGE GLEANINGS

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST TO GENOA AND VICINITY

Mighty Clock for Elgin Watch Factory Tower—Church Parsonages Exempt from Taxation

Elgin will again have Tuesday evening band concerts, for which Hecker's band has been employed this season.

The man who invented Duke's Mixture is dead. Many of those who rolled it into cigarettes beat him to the happy hunting grounds by several years.

The contract for butter to be used for the next six months at the Northern Insane Hospital has been let to the John Newman company at 22 cents a pound.

Patrick Gleason who was injured by the falling of a tower at Woodstock, brought suit against the C. & N. W. railway company for damages and was given a verdict of $4,750.

Sterling claims the honor of oldest Woodman in the jurisdiction, Fred Shaale. Mr. Shaale was 85 years of age last Saturday. He has been a Woodman for 26 years. It's now up to some town to produce somebody that can beat the Sterling record.

Terrified by the puffing of a motor-cycle ridden by Joe Montgomery, a confectioner of Sycamore, a horse driven by Albert and Andrew Peterson jumped into a ditch near Elburn Tuesday evening and crushed the life out of Andrew. The dead man was on his way home to Elburn to Lily Lake.

The Pullman Car Co. at Pullman, Ill., is building 2,000 box cars for the Burlington line in their shops. The cars are a rush order, and the company is working extra men on them. The Burlington wishes them to handle the heavy grain traffic, which will commence within a few weeks.

Under a new law passed by the last legislature and effective July 1, parsonages used in connection with churches in the state of Illinois are not to be assessed for taxes. This will be of a great deal of interest to church members. Parsonages were assessed for the last time last year and now the law has again been changed so they will not have to pay taxes in the future.

Dixon is putting on the market at the rate of 30 a day a radical departure in lawn mowers. This machine has a vibrating sickle like that in an ordinary horse mower, but the sickle works in front of the two wheels of the Dixon mower. It is claimed that it is lighter, simpler and more durable and that it will cut closer, and equally as easy in grass or weeds, tall or short. Jas. Kiernan has these machines on hand.

The iron bob of the pendulum of the new clock ordered by the Elgin National Watch Company, weighing 330 pounds. The regular hours are not struck, but at 6 o'clock, when the factoryites ought to be up and getting ready for a day with Father Time, the clock strikes seventy-eight blows on a large bell with an eighty-pound hammer; at 6:50 thirty-seven blows; at 7 o'clock one blow; at noon one blow, at 12:50 thirty-seven blows; at 1 o'clock one blow; at 5 one blow after which it is silent until 6 a. m. the next day. This makes 156 blows in two revolutions of the count of the wheel each twenty-four hours of the working days, except on Saturday when its last blow is given at 4 p. m. instead of 5.

OBSERVANCE OF LAW

President Roosevelt Setting an Example that is Followed

There is a tidal wave passing over this continent demanding a stricter observance of the law. It is preached from the pulpits; the newspapers are full of it. Some 10,000 to 20,000 commencement essays and orations in this country have united in sounding the popular alarm.

Theodore Roosevelt has received the hearty endorsement of the people of all parties for his strenuous opposition to wrong doing and law breaking. Governors of states, mayors of cities are much talked about and become popular idols for the bold stand against wrong doing. Law and order are the most sacred heritages of a free people says the DeKalb Review. The man, the combination of men, the mob who violates established laws are enemies of the Republic. There are laws that are unjust, but the way to correct them is to enforce them and if they do more harm than good, the people will soon realize the mistake and correct them. Any law that cannot generally be enforced in the locality to which it applies should be repealed. Goody-goody people err in demanding laws that they know will not be enforced. On the other hand people should have a just regard for the opinion of others, law or no law; especially should they have regards for matters of conscience.

Some people seemingly have no conscientious scruples about breaking horses on Sunday, but such a man should not do so in front of a church door. Neither should the man in the church pew on Sunday do things that are more wicked in the sight of the All Wise Judge. One man may believe that there is no harm in out of door sports on Sunday but he should use the utmost discretion in such pleasures in such a way that they will not annoy those who have conscientious scruples against such customs.

It is the little infraction of law that lead us on to the greater. No man becomes a fierce anarchist at one fell swoop. The law breaking habit is just as enticing as any other habit. We commence by some slight disobedience and gradually grow bolder and look for greater laws to break until we become a full fledged anarchist ready to commit arson or murder to carry our point. One of the worst forms of law breaking commences in what is termed graft, which is a polite word for theft. Graft habit, like all others, is usually a matter of progression. It may commence with a gift cigar and stealing a million. It has caused disaster in municipal governments, in banking enterprises, insurance companies, in social and fraternal orders. No station in life, especially in the wicked cities, seems to be free from it. Employers and employed both have been scandalized.

The grand juries of many localities are busy, but not busy enough. A skeptic might predict the downfall of our country, but the wisdom of the great body and right will prevail. When awakened to their duty all will unite and correct these evils in a manner that will be a credit to the world.

Butter remains firm at 20 cents on the Elgin board of trade. Nineteen and one half cents were bid on 20,000 pounds but there were no offerings.

"WILD JIM"

The Best of His Kind That Has Ever Hit Genoa

A character who styled himself as "Wild Jim" and claimed to be a Texas cowboy of wonderful prowess with the rifle, pistol and lariat drifted into Genoa last Saturday and on Monday evening gave a "free" exhibition of his skill.

Of course Jim took up a collection of 25 cents a throw before the entertainment and gathered in the shekels like a fakir at a country fair. Jim had used so much hot air, advertised so extensively and dressed so much like a real bad cowboy that the people expected to see a little of the genuine Western life. But after Jim had the silver stowed away in his leather breeches he failed to make good. He did manage to hit a few bricks through ten or fifteen feet into the air, using a heavy rifle, but made a sad failure when picking off the smaller objects. His work with the lariat was nearly as wonderful as the shooting.

But in spite of all, no one can say that "Wild Jim" does not know his business.

SECURES A JUDGMENT

Against the I. C. R. R. For Not Stopping Train at Station

A verdict for $1,000 was rendered against the Illinois Central Railroad two days ago in Freeport in favor of the heirs of Mrs. Wm. C. Kerr. The case was a peculiar one, being based upon the failure of the company to stop its trains at stations to which passengers had purchased tickets.

Mrs. Kerr had been receiving medical treatment in Freeport during November, and left on the morning train for Waddams Grove. The train did not stop at her destination, and her efforts to have the train backed to Waddams Grove is said to have been unheeded. Mrs. Kerr died three days after she had been carried past her station, and allegation was made, that she was frightened at the thought, and was compelled to spend several hours at Nora, from where she drove to her home. A suit for damages to the amount of $10,000 was instituted against the company, and many medical expert testimonies were given on both sides resulting in the verdict as previously stated.

GENOA-DUNDEE

A Good Game Promised for the First Day of July

The lads from Bonnie Dundee will cross bats with Jack's Goats next Saturday on the local diamond. The Dundee team has always had a reputation for doing things, but with Rorabaugh behind the bat and Ackerman in the game for Genoa Dundee stands a good chance of losing a few honors. Ladies should bear in mind that they will be admitted to the grandstand free if they wear last season's base ball souvenirs.

WHITE SOX MONDAY

The Genoa White Sox, the second team, will play the All Drops of Chicago on the local diamond next Monday, July 1. The Sox have a good line-up. See them.

THE GOATS SHUT OUT

GO UP AGAINST LOADED TEAM AT UNION

Genoa High School Team Defeats Rockford High School Juniors—Score 6 to 2—Small Crowd

Jack's Goats were up against a one-sided umpire and an imported battery at Union Sunday and as a result were presented with a string of goose eggs, while Union managed to secure two runs. The Genoa bunch only connected for two hits during the entire game, even the mighty Sager, who headed the batting list, taking a tumble. Lauman, whose name appears at the tail end of the list surprised his team mates by making a two bagger, the other hit being made by Kirby.

It is said that the umpire was anything but fair and had not the least idea of what constitutes a strike. If he did know he was decidedly working for Union. The score follows:

GENOA H. S. VS. ROCKFORD

Those who witnessed the ball game last Saturday between the Genoa and Rockford Highs were not disappointed. It was a good game and exciting. The rooters were at their best and the players on both teams did more rag chewing than usual. Of course all this caused excitement and gave the people the worth of their money.

In the second inning Stott's finger was knocked out and John Downing took his place behind the bat. John put up a good game considering that he has not been playing that position this season.

The Rockford pitcher was easy and the Genoa lads landed on him for twelve safe hits. Evans held his opponents down to seven hits and struck out nine men. The score follows:

CORMACK IN MILWAUKEE

Says He Will Never Give up the Boy He Kidnapped

Rev. J. M. Cormack is now in Milwaukee with his son stopping at the home of Rev. Joseph Schneider at 397 Forty-second street. The Milwaukee Sentinel says that he will not remain there long but will return to Illinois and take the penalty for his act, but not until he has placed the child beyond the jurisdiction of any court in this state. Mr. Cormack gave out the following at an interview with a Sentinel reporter:

"It is true that I kidnapped my own child," said Mr. Cormack last night. "The difficulty between me and the child's grandparents is primarily due to our divergent opinions on the bringing up of children and a solemn promise I gave to my wife who died in giving birth to this child. Before she passed away she made me promise that I would personally look after its bringing up and I am satisfied that the ideals of its grandparents are not those of its mother.

"Meanwhile the child did not receive that careful training that a child has a divine right to expect. Conditions become unendurable. I had married a second time and my wife was more than willing to assist me in taking proper care of the child. She enjoyed the esteem of the grandparents also. Still they refused to give up the child, so I hired an automobile, called at the school, asking the obliging teacher to see the child. My request granted I picked him up before the eyes of the teacher and carried him to the automobile and drove at a sixty mile clip. We did not stop until we were beyond the state line. Mr. Schneider is on old classmate of my first wife, and having been granted a vacation by my congregation I came up here to perfect my plans. The child shall never leave me. I shall try to make amends for the deficiencies it has burdened with by its neglect. The grandparents did what they thought was best, but their ideas, as I have said before, are not sound, lead to perversion.

"The case has cost me several hundred dollars. The principal proceedings were taken in Sycamore, Ill., forty miles from where I was stationed. I had to pay the expenses of my witnesses and the heavy costs of the trials, but I am pleased to say that the people who are conversant with the case are all on my side, including the relatives of the child's mother. The grandparents stand alone, but they have vast sums of money as they are among the richest farmers in DeKalb county."

The above, of course, is only Mr. Cormack's side of the story. Those who are intimately acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall have an entirely different view.

"The case has cost me several hundred dollars. The principal proceedings were taken in Sycamore, Ill., forty miles from where I was stationed. I had to pay the expenses of my witnesses and the heavy costs of the trials, but I am pleased to say that the people who are conversant with the case are all on my side, including the relatives of the child's mother. The grandparents stand alone, but they have vast sums of money as they are among the richest farmers in DeKalb county."

PLACE FOR SERVICES

BEING FITTED UP BY CATHOLICS OF GENOA

Congregation Has Outgrown the Private Dwelling Meeting Places During the Past Few Years

The Catholic congregation of Genoa, which has for some years been holding its services at private dwellings, will in the near future have a home of its own which will be much more convenient. The rooms over Jas. R. Kiernan's implement store will be utilized for the purpose. The partitions have been torn out and contractor Hammond has a gang of men at work now putting in seats, altar and other fixtures. The room will have a seating capacity of about 100 people and will meet all the requirements of the congregation for the present. There has been a steady growth during the past few years, however, and it may not be long before a church will be erected in Genoa. In such an event many who now attend services at Sycamore, Hampshire and Belvidere would find it more convenient to come to Genoa.

MAY CHOOSE LOWDEN

COLONEL Frank O. Lowden is being mentioned as a possible successor to Paul Morton as the secretary of the navy, and in regard to this the Rockford Republican has the following to say: "The Washington dispatches mention Col. Lowden as possible successor to Paul Morton as secretary of the navy. Illinois will have no member of the cabinet when Morton relinquishes the navy portfolio if President Roosevelt should not come to this state for his successor.

"Practically Illinois has no representative in the cabinet in the Santa Fe railroader as he has not been a distinctive Illinoisan. as Shaw, for instance, is a distinctive Iowan. Morton was unknown to the people of this state when he was made one of the president's official family, Illinois knowledge of his existence being confined almost entirely to railroad circles. Events have proven the selection a mistake.

"Col. Lowden is an Illinoisan who is known to the people of the state from the Wisconsin line to the Ohio river and by them is regarded as big enough to hold any office in the government. It is doubtful if the allurements of the navy portfolio would tempt Col. Lowden from his Ogle county farm at this growing season of the year; he refused the first assistant postmaster generalship at the hands of President McKinley.

"One thing certain is that the president cannot find for Morton's successor a man of greater popularity among his fellow citizens than the Rock River valley's distinguished public man."

Statistics prove that there are larger numbers of women compelled to till the soil in Europe than in America. In some countries of Europe women do a large part of the agricultural work. This is thought to be degrading and showing a poor state of civilization. At the same time there is no doubt that four American women could live more in the open air they would be stronger and healthier.

Young girls are often crowded into poorly ventilated schools. Later in life they suffer from backache, spine-aches and headaches. They are not fitted to take up the burden of married life.

To get at the real source of her trouble, a woman should consult a good specialist in the diseases of women. Perhaps the physician who has had the widest practice in this class of disease in all the United States, is Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. You can get a medical opinion of your case from him free of charge, and your letter will be treated in the strictest confidence. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the drains and weaknesses of women, and the manufacturers offer to pay $500 reward for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial.

"I feel it my duty to write a few words that may be of help to some sufferer," writes Mrs. Minnie Richmond, of Howard City, Mich. "For years I suffered with weakness and doctored with several physicians, receiving little help. Two years ago was taken so bad that I could not do my work. Went to a doctor and he said I had ulceration of womb. I doctored for months, but got no better, then wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for advice. I followed his directions and after taking his medicines (three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' two vials 'Pleasant Pellets,' and using one box of your 'Lotion Tablets') was cured. I would say to those suffering, consult Dr. Pierce; it costs but little compared with expense of other physicians, and his treatment will do more good in one month than others will do in one year."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the best laxative for old people. They cure constipation and biliousness.

For the second time within six weeks the chair factory of P. Derby & Co., New York city, was damaged by fire to the extent of nearly $100,000.

NOTABLE DEATHS.

Frank Champlin, president of the City bank at Boone, Ia., and a widely known member of the Order of Railway Conductors, dropped dead of apoplexy.

Andrew Onderdonk, well known throughout the country as an engineer and contractor, is dead at his home in Oseawanna, N. Y., aged 56 years.

News of Kingston and Vicinity as reported for the GENOA REPUBLICAN-JOURNAL, of the week Ending June 30, 1905

TWO WEDDINGS

Former Kingstonites Take Vow this Week

The marriage of Miss Florence M. Kepple to William Haines occurred Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride in Belvidere. A number of relatives were present. Her many friends extend congratulations.

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 the wedding of Joseph D. Taplin and Miss Miriam D. Richardson was solemnized.

The ceremony was performed in Marengo by Rev. E. D. Hull at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Holland W. Richardson, parents of the bride. The couple will be unattended.

Those who witnessed the ceremony were the immediate relatives of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Taplin will reside at Marengo.

Cuban Diarrhoea

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's colic cholera and diarrhoea remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Huut's Pharmacy.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The process of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture both to victim and to friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Hunt's Pharmacy, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

Wine of Cardui Cured Her.

219 South Prior Street, ATLANTA, GA., March 21, 1903.

I suffered for four months with extreme nervousness and lassitude. I had a sinking feeling in my stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, and losing my appetite I became weak and lost my vitality. In three weeks I lost fourteen pounds of flesh and felt that I must find speedy relief to regain my health. Having heard Wine of Cardui praised by several of my friends, I sent for a bottle and was certainly very pleased with the results. Within three days my appetite returned and my stomach troubled me no more. I could digest my food without difficulty and the nervousness gradually diminished. Nature performed her functions without difficulty and I am once more a happy and well woman.

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Inside facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—DR. G. G. GREEN.

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration.

But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.
