ASSEMBLED IN CONVENTION

Epworth Leaguers of Rockford District Met Here Last Week

85 DELEGATES WERE PRESENT

Rev. Charles Briggs, Jr. of South Elgin Is President of the Rockford District Epworth League

To say that the semi-annual convention of the Rockford district Epworth League, which was held at the M. E. church last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, was the most successful one yet held is an exponent of the expression of all who availed themselves of the privilege to attend.

REV. CHARLES BRIGGS, JR.

President of Rockford District Epworth League.

When Genoa was voted upon last year as the place for the next semi-annual meeting there was great rejoicing in the hearts of the local Epworth Leaguers. Genoa is easily reached by railroad, hence the large attendance. The delegates from the towns farthest away came as early as Friday afternoon, others arriving early Saturday morning. There were eighty-five delegates present representing twenty-three leagues.

During the three days' session Rev. Charles Briggs, Jr., president of the Rockford District Epworth League, had entire charge. Friday evening at 8 o'clock, an informal reception was given by the Genoa Epworth League at which time an hour was spent with an interesting program of twelve numbers. It is as follows: Singing by Epworth Leaguers... Prayer... Rev. T. E. Ream Address of Welcome... Rev. J. E. DeLong Instrumental Solo... Louise Stewart

Vocal Solo... Rev. Chas. Briggs Whistling Solo... Flossie Kellogg Address... Rev. Earngey Vocal Solo... Alice Davis Reading... Miss Moore Vocal Solo... Raymond Strawick Duet... Mr. and Mrs. Black Instrumental Solo... Florence Clefford

From 9 to 10 o'clock, refreshments were served in the Epworth League rooms.

The following is a list of the delegates:

Belvidere—Mrs. George Sager, Mrs. Amos Turner, Martha Lindquist, Vera Laing, Eva Jardine, Ethel Stowe, Minnie Prentice, Andy Hanter and Earl Sellard. Elgin—J. M. Schneider, Clara Wicklund, Lulu Remmer, Hattie Wicklund, Ruby Goddard, Mrs. C. Schmidt, Mr. Meister, Jacob Elliot and Rev. Farmiloe.

Woodstock—N. A. Sunderlin, Albert Deitz, Clarence Coonrad, Mary Lee and Mrs. Edith Eichlberger.

Hebron—Mrs. Edgar Prouty,

Ruth Gilbert and Avice Luce. Garden Prairie—Lulu Parmeley, Ada Haight and H. C. Gooch.

Poplar Grove—Blanch Dimond, Carrie Lovering, Agnes Ericson, Mabel Hammon and Frank Anderson.

Herbert—Mrs. R. Morris. Fairdale—Lois Woodward, Mr. Duncan and Blanche Schoonmaker.

Barrington—Hattie Tuttle and Hattie Freye.

Kingston—Mrs. R. C. Benson, May Taylor, Lillian Mitchell and May Heckman.

SATURDAY MORNING

The convention for Epworth Leaguers was opened at 8:30 o'clock and a half hour spent in a devotional meeting. Rev. N. A. Sunderlin of Woodstock was in charge of the meeting and song service, and the congregation at large offering prayer.

At the conclusion, a business meeting was held about thirty minutes being given over to the several reports from the different departments of the league. Meeting was opened by prayer by Rev. J. M. Schneider of Elgin. The annual report was not read owing to the fact that this was read at Epworth Grove, Illinois, during the camp-meeting last August.

Reports from the first vice president, Mrs. Turner of Belvidere, second vice president, Frank Anderson of Poplar Grove, third vice president, Miss Florence Pratt of Genoa, and fourth vice president, Miss May Stewart of Rockford, were read and accepted by the league. The reports from many of the chairman contained suggestions for the social and literary departments of the league and to a certain degree were helpful. Miss Clara Wicklund of Elgin, district secretary, read a good report of the league for the past year, showing a constant increase in the number of members the total of which now is 806. An interesting report was also read by the district junior superintendent, Miss Carrie Ades of Rockford.

The close of this meeting was marked by discussions and a question box, Rev. Anderson being in charge.

At 9:30 o'clock, Mrs. Gertrude Arthur of Rockford talked for twenty minutes upon the subject, "The Omnipresent President." In her discussion, Mrs. Arthur pointed out clearly the need of committees to assist the president of a league in securing a better organization. "We must live close to Jesus Christ, at all times being a true Christian and an active one." As a captain must know and understand all the minor details of the departments of his ship so also must the president of the Epworth League be thoroughly acquainted with every movement to secure the best of results.

A paper from O. E. Roecker, state secretary, of Chicago on the secretary's department was read, as was also a paper from S. J. Curlee of Salem on the treasurer's department. Following these readings, a song service was conducted by Mr. Landis of Elgin.

From 10:30 to 11:20 o'clock, three papers were read. The first was "The first vice president and the leaders for the month or year" by Miss Emma Hayes of Rockford; the second, "The leader's preparation of himself" by Earl Sellard of Belvidere; and thirdly, "Bible study methods" by R. E. Diffendorfer of Chicago. Papers from the state treasurer and district and state secretary were also read.

Twenty-four tubs of butter were offered on the board of trade Monday, but no sales were made. The market was declared firm at 23 cents. The price last week was 23 cents and a year ago it was 22½c. The output for this district is 474,000 pounds. The president appointed John Tetzner sergeant-at-arms, vice A. M. C. Todson, resigned.

The New York market was steady at 23 cents.

Experienced Trouble

After the play here on April 20, the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde company has fallen into disgrace. Not only has the manager, D. A. Meade, been reported to have taken French leave, but also local gossip has it that many bills were left unpaid. Here is what the Elgin Courier says:

"Concerning the rumor affecting Dwight Meade's disappearance, Miss Haight, leading lady, has this to say:

"Myself and other members of the company received their expenses for the trip to Genoa, which was all we were entitled to. Mr. Meade had assumed all the expenses connected with the production.

Mr. Meade gave up his position with a local shoe firm, and after the last performance at Genoa he went to Chicago, where he has hopes of strengthening the play."

A Great Sensation

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures for consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Hunt's Pharmacy. Trial bottles free.

Three knights of the road, Joe Norden and George Goodman of Rockford and Richard Coffey of Beloit, were arrested by the village marshal, F. I. Fay, Tuesday evening when in the act of stealing two plush robes valued at $25 from the buggies of Will Duval and Jacob Kunzler.

Officer Fay had a careful watch over these robbers during the day in question and later in the evening saw Norden and Goodman pass the rigs near John Lembke's store. While he was directly across the street he saw them make away with the robes and meeting them at the corner of Mr. Lembke's store placed them under arrest. They were taken to the village jail, remaining there until the following morning at 10 o'clock when they were given a hearing before Police Magistrate D. S. Lord. G. E. Stott represented the state for A. G. Kennedy and S. Abraham represented the prisoners. Norden and Goodman waived examination and were bound over to the grand jury in default of $200. Coffey was released. The prisoners were taken to the county jail by Officer Fay Wednesday forenoon.

BELOIT TO HAVE PICNIC

M. W. of A. Picnic to Be Held in Wisconsin Town in 1905

The Woodmen picnic of this section will be held in Beloit in 1905, the convention at Madison last Thursday so deciding.

Freeport and Beloit were the contestants for the honor of entertaining the picnic next year and the latter won out. The picnic this year will be held at Madison and the local lodges have been allowed to name the officers of the association for this year. The picnic this year will be held June 1, and the capitol city hopes to entertain an immense crowd as is usual with such events.

EUREKA NOTES

I. J. Mahler called at the factory Thursday.

V. H. Messenger spent Thursday at the factory.

Robt. Mitten attempted to visit Sycamore Sunday.

Homer Glass returned from a visit to Chicago Thursday.

H. W. Foote moved his family here Monday where they will make their future home.

Robt. Jamieson, formerly in the employ of Stromberg-Carlson, started to work at the Eureka Monday.

Mr. White, traveling salesman for the White-Good Steel Co., visited the factory Monday in the interests of his firm.

C. A. Barnes of Waddams Grove, Ill., spent Saturday afternoon at the factory and left a nice order for telephones.

The sales last month were by far the largest the Eureka company has had since moving to Genoa, and the month of April promises to be even better.

Miss Marie Hadik, formerly employed by the Kellogg Switchboard company of Chicago arrived Monday to accept a similar position in the winding department.

Messrs. Pitcher and Glasgow of the Pitcher Telephone Co., Galena, Ill., visited the factory one day last week and placed a contract for a large switchboard at that place. Orders for switchboards were also received this week from the Henry County Telephone Co., New London, Iowa, Union Telephone Co., Birmingham, Iowa, and the Bluffton Telephone Co., Bluffton, Ohio.

I. J. Kusel accompanied four Japanese to the factory Thursday who are in this country for the purpose of purchasing electrical goods, ammunition, etc., for a large commission house in Japan. They left a very substantial order for telephone supplies with the Eureka. While in Chicago last week they invested in two million dollars worth of powder which is intended for their government.

While on a fishing expedition one morning this week, Chas. Canman, assisted by Will Gnekow, succeeded in landing a twenty-seven pound pickerel, the largest of its kind caught in the Kishwaukee for a number of years. Will Adams reports having caught 113 of various kinds. Phil Lenz displayed to his friends one trim little shiner. With the exception of the calliope, the display equalled that of the J. I. Case Co. on Saturday. The success of the other members of the expedition has not been reported.

Relative of J. K. Gross

Joseph Gross, an uncle of J. K. Gross of Kingston, died at his home in Tower City, Illinois, last Sunday. He was about 92 years of age.

FARM PROPERTY RUINED

Near Genoa and New Lebanon by Insane Man

AUGUST HALT TRIED IN ELGIN

This Man Believes He is Pursued by His Brother Who He Says Has Threatened to Kill Him

Farmers in the vicinity of Genoa and New Lebanon who have suffered great damage because of the depredations of the crazy man who has burned straw stacks, cut harness, tipped over milk and attempted to fire dwellings, have at last been successful in capturing the man. Monday he was taken to the police station in Elgin by Deputy Sheriff Fritchie. Suffering from a hallucination in which he believes that he is pursued by his brother who, he says, threatened to kill him while he was in Iowa, the man was able to give only a disconnected account of his wanderings.

Following is the list of his latest depredations:

A. J. Flory, straw stack burned and several sets of harness cut to pieces.

Chas. Porter, two sets and one single harness cut to pieces.

William Dumolin, harness cut to pieces.

D. W. Swanson, milk cans tipped over.

These are but a few of the man's misdeeds in this vicinity. It is said that he has a record at Harmony and that he is also known at Huntley and Marengo. At the police station he gave his name as August Halt. On Wednesday he was committed to the asylum for the insane.

From 11:20 to 12 o'clock, Rev. E. D. Hull, pastor of the M. E. church at Belvidere, gave a stirring address on the theme, "Intemperance," the greatest enemy of the church. A report by Miss Ruby Goddard, a solo by Master Raymond Strawick and a few remarks by Gertrude Moore, a deaconess from Lake Bluff closed the morning session.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The opening of the afternoon exercises was at 1:15 by special music, followed by roll call by chapters in which representatives responded by quoting verses of scripture. Miss Agnes Erickson, a popular young lady of Poplar Grove, took an active part in the song service, delighting the audience with her sweet soprano.

At 2:50 o'clock, Prof. Geo. N. Sleight of Elgin gave some practical suggestions for a lecture course. He was followed by an address by Frank Anderson on "The New Department or World Wide Evangelism." The meeting was closed by a few brief remarks by J. H. Elliot of Elgin.

SATURDAY EVENING

Rev. Earnest Oneal of Aurora delivered his popular lecture, "Seers of Visions," at 8 o'clock. Owing to the severe rain storm at this time many were compelled to remain at home but those who braved the storm were amply repaid for their efforts. Rev. Oneal spoke in part:

"Thomas Carlyle said that in every object there is inexhaustible meaning the eye sees in it, what the eye brings means of seeing." This sentence contains the gist of the lecture. It is the seer back of the eye, the heart back of the ear, the intelligence back of the mind, the spirit within the heart which determines what is seen and heard and comprehended and felt.

"The speaker illustrated the thought by showing the effect of knowledge on what is seen. There is nothing in which we differ more than in our powers of observation. Not all bring the means of seeing in external objects the beautiful. It requires the artistic spirit back of the eye to discern the fine elements of nature.

"To such a mind as Ruskin's, how different does the world appear than to the dull soul which never felt the thrill which the perception of nature's glory brings. The optical picture of flower, valley, mountain, forest and sea will be the same with both, but how much more one will really see than the other. There is something more than earth in the spot where great deeds are done. The surveyor cannot give the true dimensions nor the financier the accurate value of Bunker Hill and Santiago. The opening of a man's eyes to the beauties and glories of the world is one of the chief ends of education. Even deeper than the sense which perceives the grandeur of the universe is another sense which enables the eye to see the spiritual in material things.

"A primrose by the river's brim
A yellow primrose to him
And nothing more."
"But as Mrs. Browning says in that fine vein for which she is remarkable—
"There's never a flower can grow upon the earth,
Without a flower upon the Spiritual side
Earth is full of Heaven,
And every common bush alive with God."
And yet this feature is to many a sealed book. It is not enough that these should be the poetic instinct that is keenly alive to all the sublimities of nature. There is no better illustration of this thought than the contrast between Coleridge and Shelley. Both saw and found words to describe the most delicate and the most magnificent phases of nature. But Coleridge had spiritual perception while Shelley had not.

"The mind is not dependent upon the presence of external conditions for its visions. It makes for itself pictures independent of all outward objects—pictures which are seen alike in day or night. It has the power of giving the semblance of the real to the unreal. The mind sees what it brings an eye to see. The state of the soul determines the character of the things seen and things done.

"Again and again, Shakespeare emphasizes this thought and especially so the character of Lord and Lady Macbeth. And if it is true that the evil heart and mind see evil sights it is just as true that the pure heart and minds see visions of glory. In one way or another we are all prophets of the ineffable, dreamers of dreams, seers of visions. We are forever anticipating coming events, forever unrolling mysterious scrolls, forever falling into the trance of expectations, forever gazing into the invisible."

SUNDAY SERVICES

Services for the Sabbath day opened at 6:30 o'clock with a sunrise prayer meeting. At 9:30 o'clock, the love feast was led by Rev. T. E. Ream, pastor of the M. E. church of Genoa. The church was comfortably filled at this time, many Christians offering testimonies and partaking of the sacrament of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Rev. F. D. Sheets, D. D. of Rockford preached to a large congregation at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. His theme was "The Use of Power." Rev. C. F. Kleihauer of Chicago occupied the pulpit during the afternoon, the subject of his address being, "My Relationship." His was an interesting subject, the comparison of the growth of the religions being most vividly portrayed.

Epworth League which convened at 6:30 o'clock was led by the president of the Rockford district of the Epworth League, Rev. Chas. Briggs. The pastor of the M. E. church at Dundee, Rev. J. E. Fluck, delivered an eloquent sermon at 7:30 o'clock. The church was packed to the utmost. He took for his text, "Fight the good fight of faith," Timothy 6th 12v. The meeting was closed by a revival session—prayers and a service of song characterizing the termination of one of the most successful meetings of this nature ever held in the Rockford district.

The following resolutions were read:

Resolved that we the delegates of Rockford District Epworth League in convention assembled hereby express our gratitude.

First—For the generous hospitality and the unflinching interest in our comfort as is manifested by the Epworth League chapter and the friends who have so kindly opened their homes and the pastor for his thoughtful oversight in providing for our wants, also the trustees in granting to us this beautiful edifice.

Second—We express our sense of obligation to the friends outside of our district who have contributed to the success of the program.

Third—We voice our appreciation for the courtesies shown us by the press of Genoa.

No Such Word as Impossible

An incident occurred at a country school the other day that goes to show that the average youth knows no such word as impossible. A class in arithmetic was wrestling with subtraction and the teacher was explaining that the thing subtracted must be the same kind of denomination as the thing subtracted from. She said you cannot take five peaches from six apples, five lemons from six oranges, etc., when up went a hand from a boy in the class. "What is it, Johnnie?" said the teacher. "Please can't you take five quarts of milk from six cows?" And the teacher collapsed.

Robbed the Grave

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Hunt's Pharmacy.
