DIVORCE GRANTED

Famous Case of George Preston vs. Eleanor Preston Decided

True Republican: In the DeKalb county circuit court on Tuesday Judge Slusser granted a divorce in the case of George Preston vs. Eleanor Maude Preston on the grounds of extreme cruelty. The right of jury trial was waived and the case was placed before the judge.

Mrs. Preston was formerly Miss Eleanor Touche of Chicago. Mr. Preston is a member of the well known family of that name which settled in Genoa township in the formative period of the county, and for many years he had been a resident of Sycamore, where he was engaged as a merchant and in other pursuits. He is now about 75 years of age. He met Miss Touche at a sanitarium in Chicago where he was taking treatment and where she was employed as a nurse. Following a brief courtship they were married on Feb. 27, 1913. They lived together until September 1, 1915, on which date, he charged, a series of cruel acts caused them to separate.

Preston's testimony was very emphatic. He stated that he had been subjected to inhuman treatment and put in fear of his life. "On one occasion," he said, "I was lying on the bed and heard her coming. I made out like I was asleep and thought I'd see what she'd do. She came over and looked at me and I commenced snoring; then she put down the window turned on the gas and went out and shut the door. Whenever I went to sleep after that I piled up chairs against the door, so if she came in she'd turn them over and I'd wake up. One time she run a broom-stick down my neck and I thought she'd shove it through me!"

Mrs. Effie Lloyd, Preston's daughter, testified that she had witnessed cruelties inflicted upon her father by Mrs. Preston, and had once found it necessary to call City Marshal Stroberg to restore quiet and order.

The court found from the testimony that Preston had always conducted himself toward his wife, as a kind and indulgent husband and had tried to make matters run more smoothly.

The former orders of the court for temporary alimony, suit money and solicitor's fees were set aside, the complainant to pay the costs.

Butter Up Three Cents

Butter sold at 43 cents on the Elgin board of trade Saturday, an increase of three cents over the price bid the week previous. Twenty tubs were sold. Forty-three and one-half cents was asked for fifty tubs but they were not sold.

"The price is remarkable for this time of the year," declared Charles H. Potter, president of the board. "The advance corresponds with the increase announced from New York and Chicago."

According to Potter the shortage of butter is responsible for the boost. He explained that it showed that the quantity of storage butter is rapidly decreasing.

One Epidemic Follows Another

Fifteen new cases of measles broke out in one day at Crystal Lake, making a total of 21 cases in all as reported last Thursday by the Crystal Lake Herald. The epidemic of scarlet fever there has subsided, no new cases having been reported in the last month. All who have been ill with the disease have recovered and the visiting nurse has been dismissed.

Elburn Stores Robbed

Elburn, a town of almost 1,000 persons with no night watchman, woke up Saturday morning to find that burglars had robbed seven stores. City Marshal M. A. Johnson reported that the following places had been broken into: F. R. Knox, jewelry, $400 of gold and silver stolen; R. E. Thompson, tailors, few pennies taken; Gilbert Claar, barber, nothing missing; William McCabe, barber, 95 cents taken; Clyde & Morris, general store, few pennies and some cigars stolen; A. W. Wilson, barber, $30 taken. Store building not used, broken into.

"Just Livin' Along."

Frank L. Stanton of the Atlanta Constitution is one of the best known newspaper men in America. Likewise he is one of America's sweetest poets. One of his dainty lyrics is entitled "Just Livin' Along."

Let us be thankful that we're just livin' along.

Life, joyous, jubilant, vital and thrilling, is all about us. Birds, beasts, plants and flowers live and love and pass to the great change.

Indeed, is there anything other or greater than life in its myriad manifestations? It doesn't much matter how we designate the forms and aspects of being. Let us be thankful that we're just livin' along.

Let us join in the song of the optimist and be happy forever that we are just livin' along.—Dayton Herald.

We have some things to tell you about furnishing your house

Home-making is the greatest of arts. The woman who makes her house attractive is an artist.

And it is so easy to be one today. When customers come to this store we like to feel that by our advice we are helping to make a home, not merely selling something.

That is the way confidence in

Dependable Merchandise Only The House of Quality

the store and its goods is built up. Today we are in a position to advise every woman in the selection of handsome, sturdy furniture for her home — for every room in the house.

The famous Simmons line is the foundation of our stock. If there was anything better at any price, we'd have it here.
