

THE GENOA REPUBLICAN-JOURNAL

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER, SEPTEMBER 16, 1904, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT GENOA, ILLINOIS, UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF MARCH 3, 1879

PUBLISHED BY C. D. SCHOONMAKER

GENOA, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1913

NEW SERIES } VOLUME IX, NO. 8

ANNOUNCEMENT.

TO OUR MANY CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS:

We wish to announce the organization of the "EXCHANGE BANK" of Genoa under the laws of the State of Illinois, with a Capital Stock of $50,000.00 and personal responsibility of directors $300,000.00.

On next Monday November 17th. we will transfer our business to the new bank and commend the services and security which its added facilities will afford.

The officers and directors of the Exchange Bank elected are:

D. S. BROWN, President CARL J. BEVAN, Cashier
C. A. BROWN, Vice Pres. E. W. BROWN, Asst. Cashier and Attorney

DIRECTORS:

Christopher Awe Lewis F. Knief E. W. Brown
James R. Kiernan C. A. Brown J. L. Kelly
D. S. Brown Almond M. Hill Carl J. Bevan

While continuing our connections with the new institution we thank you for your kind consideration in the past years and invite a continuation, assuring you that all business will be appreciated and will receive the most careful and efficient attention of the management.

BROWN & BROWN.

Don't Give Anybody the Satisfaction

To Say:

"I TOLD YOU SO!"

Save money and Dissappointments—don't send out of Town for anything you may need in our line, our stock is complete, our prices right, the ethics of our profession permit you to come to us in full confidence, and we are at home to make good. This is not a "knock"—a "warning." We believe in the Golden Rule Always.

L. E. CARMICHAEL
REGISTERED PHARMACIST
Genoa, Illinois

CEMENT

TILE

That the Cement Tile is one of the greatest boons to land owners is acknowledged by everyone who has investigated. They are far more absorbent than the clay tile and will never rot. In fact the cement tile will grow harder and more durable as the years pass. We make them in all sizes. Investigate today. It will pay you.

Remember, we also make the everlasting.

Monolithic Cement Silos

GLAD TO GIVE YOU FIGURES

P. A. QUANSTRONG

No Sunday Work

No residents of Aurora will be allowed to work on Sunday or keep any place of business open on Sunday, excepting those who conscientiously observe some other day of each week as the Sabbath. The ordinance exempts street cars, theatres, tobacco stores and restaurants. The new city law was passed through the efforts of the barbers, most of whom favor Sunday closing. Citizens who oppose the new ordinance will take action to test the constitutionality of the act. It is claimed the ordinance is the first of the kind ever passed.

Special sale at Olmsted's. Dr. Barber, optician, is in Genoa every two weeks at Dr. Mor-doff's office. His next date is November 19. All work guaranteed.

IS THROWING DIRT

A. M. Lanyon, Contractor, Begins the Genoa Sewer this Week

MACHINERY ON THE GROUND

Trenching Machines Dig from Three to Five Hundred Feet Each Day, According to Depth—Some Hand Work at Outlet

A. M. Lanyon, the contractor who will put in Genoa's sewer system, arrived in the city last week and the first dirt was thrown Monday morning. Mr. Lanyon brought twelve men with him and will probably take on more help as the work progresses. The first work is being done just west of the piano factory where it will all be done by hand, it being impossible to start the machine on account of cramped quarters. However, the trench will not be deep at that point and it will not take long to complete the job there.

At a point near the east end of the piano factory the machine will be started. In most of the excavation the machine will do the bulk of the work, it being adjusted to dig to a depth of ten feet. Thru ordinary soil this machine will make it possible to dig trenches, lay the pipe and cover again from two to three hundred feet a day. In digging alone the machine will travel about five hundred feet in ten hours. Ordinarily the pipe is covered as fast as it is laid, thus eliminating the danger of accidents.

Under present weather conditions the work will progress. If a snow storm or heavy rains followed by freezing weather sets in nothing can be done. Mr. Lanyon expects however, to have considerable of the work done before the weather conditions stop him. If he finished in the low places down by the river this fall it will be a big help, for during the spring months the high water would be a handicap.

Several car loads of the eighteen inch pipe are now on the ground, being scattered from the piano factory down to the river.

The original plans of the board of local improvements do not call for septic tanks, but it is now the sentiment that such tanks should be installed. It would be only a matter of time before the state would demand that the tanks be put in, and it can be done no cheaper than at the time. The tanks will eliminate all possible damage suits and really complete the sewer system as it should be. In view of the fact that the sewer is costing some thousands less than the estimate, the cost of the tanks will not be a hardship.

AN INSURGENT LECTURE

Peter M. Mac Arthur of Marseilles, Ill., Will Address Genoa Woodmen on 13th

Peter M. Mac Arthur of Marseilles, Ill., will lecture to the local camp of Modern Woodmen this (Thursday) evening, his subject being the insurgent cause. Mr. Mac Arthur, is full of statistics, facts and figures and has at his tongue's end all the details of the fight being put up by the insurgents and why they are fighting. All Woodmen should attend this meeting.

Big Profit in Feeding from a Silo

Full information and illustrated catalogue by mail FREE. Want a wide awake young farmer to act as special agent. I will help him make some money this winter. Excellent opportunity. Address A. A. JACK, General Agent, Oregon, Ill. 5-14

Advice.

Go to the aunt, thou new wife—consider her ples and be wise.—Judge.

KERTCHNER GETS OFF EASY

Man Arrested in Genoa for Slashing Companion is Fined $75.00

The DeKalb county circuit court met on Monday morning pursuant to adjournment from Friday of last week, the second week of the October term.

Judge Irwin presided, and the petit jury men were present. It was the day set for the hearing of the criminal cases.

Charles Kertchner, who on June 1 last, stabbed John Powell, a fellow lineman temporarily employed at Genoa, and was indicted at this term of court on the charge of assault with attempt to commit murder, plead guilty and was fined $75.

All four of the cases on the docket in which Dr. L. A. Westgate of Aurora, formerly of Sycamore, was plaintiff, were dismissed by her attorney F. R. Sillsbee of Chicago, as was also the motion for a new trial in Dr. Westgate's case against H. C. Whittemore, in which case she was assessed the costs.

Seven cases against L. R. Sanford were continued.

No more cases being ready for trial before the jury, the jurymen were discharged for the term.

Court adjourned until this Wednesday morning, when Judge Irwin will preside. The case of Harry E. McGuire against Anson Avery has been set for a hearing at that time. Chancery cases will be heard by Judge Irwin.

Judge Slusser is presiding at the murder trial of Mildred Allison Rexroat, the "tango girl," at Wheaton, but it is announced that he will preside in the DeKalb county circuit court beginning Thursday, Nov. 20—True Republican.

THE CHICAGO STOCK SHOW

Record Smashing Entries are Being Made for Annual Event

Entries vastly exceeding in number any list heretofore compiled indicate growing interest in the International Live Stock Exposition, which occurs this year at Chicago, November 29th to December 6th. No such list of exhibits has ever before been prepared, nor for that matter have the live stock producers of the North American continent previously manifested such concern in the future of that industry. Every department of the exposition will be full; interest being manifested alike in horses, cattle, hogs and sheep.

The spectacular side of the exposition will be as prominent as the practical. A series of evening attractions of unique character have been prepared and there will be no lack of entertainment to maintain the essential equilibrium. Equipoise has always been a characteristic of the "International," and the management intends to attain the standard of perfection in every department on this occasion.

Interest in the draft horse, instead of waning, is growing and the nightly horse fair will excel even the superb equine display of former years.

In swine and sheep the breeders of the United States and Canada promise to eclipse all previous efforts. Wisconsin and Ontario, as usual, will make a stellar display, and the Western grower will again demonstrate the merit of range product.

Current and threatened beef scarcity renders the fat cattle display of more than usual interest this year. That the beef industry is "coming back" will be effectively demonstrated, and feeders will be furnished with numerous object

THE CASE SETTLED

Supreme Court Decides that Kline Shipman was Elected Alderman

AFTER A LONG CONTROVERSY

Election Held in Spring of 1912 Ends in Friction in the Third Ward, C. H. Altenberg Being Seated by the City Council

The third ward election case, which started in the spring of 1912, came to a head last week in the supreme court when Kline Shipman was declared the legally elected alderman from that ward, C. H. Altenberg, his opponent at the time and later declared elected by the city council, having held the office for eighteen months.

The entire trouble hinged on one ballot and it was the interpretation of the voter's intentions on that ballot that was up to the supreme court.

There were three parties represented on the ballot, and only one name under each party heading. The voter placed a cross in the square in front of Shipman's name and a cross in the circle above Altenberg's name. The election board declared the vote for Shipman and made the result a tie vote. At the regular meeting of the city council following lots were cast, according to the provisions of the law in case of tie, and Shipman was declared the winner.

Altenberg contested the election and the votes were recounted by the city council. Both Mr. Altenberg and Mr. Shipman were represented by lawyers at the meeting. After long deliberation and several displays of oratory by the lawyers the council threw out the ballot as defective, thus seating Altenberg. Since that time the case has been in the courts. The decision of the supreme court was in confirmation of that in the lower.

Now what? Give it up.

GETTING POWER SITE

Utilities Company Secure From the Borden Title To River Bed In Belvidere

Belvidere Republican: With the transfer by the Borden company of certain rights to the river bed just east of Main street to the Illinois Northern Utilities company, the latter concern will have title to all of the property which they have desired in connection with their proposed erection of their big central power plant estimated to cost about a quarter of a million dollars.

Owing to conditions in the money market, however, the big electric light and power corporation have curtailed their expenditures, the tightness of the money market necessitating that they retrench all along the line, and they are making no large extensions at this time. This means, in all probability, that they will not go forward with their plans to build the big power plant for at least another year.

Novelist Misquoted Scripture. Novelists do not seem to be very strong in their knowledge of the scriptures somehow, and Sir Walter Scott in "The Heart of Midlothian" attempts to point a moral with the words: "Our simple and unpretending heroine had the merit of those peacemakers to whom it is promised as a benediction that they shall inherit the earth." The fact is that the peacemakers did not receive any such promise, but it is said that "the meek shall inherit the earth."

lessons on the subject of economy in production. In other words, the master feeders of the country will show and tell how they do it. If you miss the 1913 International Live Stock Exposition you will be the loser.

For All Farm Animals

The Wormicide and Conditioner

Our farmer customers tell us SaltOne is the greatest worm destroyer and conditioner they ever used. They are pleased beyond measure the way their animals "clean up" and put on flesh with its use. It is a medicated salt that farm animals run to like common salt. We stand right behind every package of SaltOne with our "money back" guarantee. How long are you going to keep on trying to do without it? If you have farm animals you need SaltOne.

JACKMAN & SON
GENOA, ILLS.

2 Great Educational Expositions

to be held in Chicago

UNITED STATES LAND EXPOSITION
November 20th to December 8th

Shows the agricultural and horticultural development and resources of lands. Exhibits and lectures, illustrated with stereopticon pictures, present an unusual opportunity to obtain information about farming opportunities first hand. At the Coliseum, Chicago.

INTERNATIONAL LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION

November 29th to December 6th

In the International Amphitheatre and twenty adjoining buildings, Union Stock Yards, Chicago. Slaughter Tests; Packing-House Exhibits; Stock-Judging Contests; Public Daily Sales; Stockmen's Meeting; Brilliant Evening entertainments; Displays of Many Thousand of Finest Breeding cattle and horses.

BEST REACHED BY THE FAST AND EFFICIENT TRAIN SERVICE OF THE

ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Railroad Tickets, reservations, train time, and specific fares from your station may be had of your local agent.

H. J. PHELPS, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. 6-4t.

For HIS Birthday

Wouldn't HE be pleased to receive a pretty pair of Military Brushes for his birthday? Indeed he would! Suitably monogrammed, in order to give them that touch of individuality. Articles of toilet ware make a useful and charming gift for either sex.

Military Brushes

We have completed our fall purchases of new toilet ware and new things are arriving daily. Many nifty and pleasing things may be selected in these lines. We also carry a very complete line of Parisian Ivory Toilet Ware, which when monogrammed in colors makes a highly satisfactory line to choose from.

Prices are Entirely Reasonable

ROVELSTAD BROS.

Jewelers of Elgin

Established 1883

Rushing Madly Through Life Without a Thought of what will become of those dependent upon you in case of your death is almost criminal. AN INSURANCE POLICY in one of our reliable companies costs but a trifle and yet what an immense amount of suffering it may prevent. Life, Fire Insurance may be procured here.

LEE W. MILLER, GENOA.

SITUATION IS GRAVE

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN TWO ARE VERY NEAR THE BREAKING POINT.

HUERTA WILL NOT RESIGN

Provisional President's Statement Received in Washington—Wilson Admits to White House Callers That Nation Faces Crisis.

Mexico City, Nov. 11.—Diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico are so near the breaking point that arrangements are being made for Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy and Special Envoy John Lind to leave the country.

When the American embassy is closed its affairs will be turned over to the Norwegian minister. It was at first understood that Admiral Von Hintze, the German minister, would act for the United States here, but the admiral pointed out that Norway's interests in Mexico were much smaller than those of Germany and that it would be better for the last named country's representative to assume no more responsibilities.

Rushing War Preparations.

War preparations are being rushed by the Mexican government with all possible speed. General Huerta is still playing for time and is likely to delay for some time his formal reply to the United States' demand that he retire from office. The statement issued to the diplomatic corps here, however, leaves no further doubt as to his attitude. It is within the bounds of possibility that he will never answer the United States at all, but the American government will bring all negotiations summarily to an end.

Huerta's Defy in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 11.—General Huerta's statement to the diplomatic corps in Mexico City declaring he will remain in office until new elections are held was received by the state department from Charge O'Shaughnessy, the American representative in Mexico City.

Secretary of State Bryan declined to give out the statement here, but admitted that it was "correctly stated in the press dispatches."

As carried by the press dispatches from Mexico City Huerta's statement is a direct defiance of the United States demand that he resign.

President Wilson admitted to callers at the White House today that the Mexican situation is grave. No immediate action is expected from the administration, however.

London, Nov. 11.—Premier Asquith, speaking at the Guildhall banquet in honor of Sir T. Van Sittart Bowater as lord mayor, referred briefly to the Mexican situation, saying there could never be any occasion for interference by Great Britain in the affairs of Mexico.

SPENCER YELLS IN COURT

"Take Me Out and Hang Me!" Shouts Confessed Slayer in Wheaton (Ill.) Court.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Sensational utterances and announced contempt for court rule, kept Henry Spencer firmly in the spotlight when he was put on trial in the circuit court at Wheaton for the murder of Mildred Allison-Rexroat, tango teacher. Spencer shouted his hate of "red tape" with an accompaniment of curses, breaking up the examination.

Charles Hadley, state's attorney of Dupage county, questioned the prospective jurors, one of his questions seeking to learn the attitude of the veniremen toward a plea of insanity. Spencer rose to his feet and waved his arms wildly.

"Cut out that bunk," he shouted. "Just get twelve men to hang me. Just go outside now and build a scaffold and string me up."

MAIL ROBBED BY EMPLOYE

$10,000 Registered Mail Pouch Rifled by Chicago Collector—Man Confesses to Wife.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The mysterious robbery of a bag of registered mail was solved and the postoffice authorities sent out orders for the arrest of Albert P. Tardy, driver of a mail collection wagon. Tardy, according to the authorities, obtained papers and money worth fully $10,000.

Mrs. Tardy, wife of the fugitive mail collector, told postoffice inspectors that her husband had confessed to her that he robbed the mail pouch, and that he would write to her as soon as he crossed the Canadian border. She said that he left home early in the morning and that when he returned for the first time at 11 o'clock at night he was wearing several large diamonds and new clothes and that he displayed a large roll of bills of large denominations.

WILSON WON'T NAME PINDELL

Peoria, Ill., Editor Has Interview in Washington With the President.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Wilson will not appoint Henry M. Pindell of Peoria, Ill., ambassador to Russia. This was the accepted view of the situation taken here following a conference at the White House between President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan and Mr. Pindell. The latter declined to discuss his interview with the president, but it was evident that the conference was a highly disagreeable one for him.

ROBERT T. FRAZIER

Robert T. Frazier, recently appointed by President Wilson as assistant commissioner of patents, has been connected with the patent office since 1887. He is from Tennessee, and is a graduate of a law school and of the United States Naval academy.

FIVE PERSONS LOSE LIVES WHEN FIRE RAZES HOME

Passengers on Train Blazing to Rescue of Persons in Rushing House at Browning, Ill.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 12.—Five persons were burned to death, three others seriously burned, two perhaps fatally, in a fire at Browning, near Beardstown, before daylight.

The dead: W. D. Laseter, fifty-four years old; Pauline McPetridge, aged one year; Mary McPetridge, aged three years; Mrs. W. D. Laseter, Geneva McPetridge, aged five years. Harmon Laseter, aged nineteen years, badly burned, will recover.

When persons on a passing train saw the two-story home burning, they stopped the train and rushed to the rescue. The lower floor was a mass of fire through which some of the trapped residents tried to make their escape.

Awakened at 4:15 a. m. by the crackling flames, Laseter rushed up stairs to warn his wife and grandchildren and help them to safety. Gathering the children in their arms, Mr. and Mrs. Laseter fought their way to the open air with their night clothing in flames. Laseter remembered that the little Mary was still in the burning home and he again fought his way through the smoke and flames, only to find her burned to a crisp.

Harmon Laseter, nineteen years old, was the only member of the household who is still living. With his clothing in flames, he leaped from a second-story window. He was badly burned, but is expected to recover.

NEED NOT LICK YOUR STAMPS

Postoffice Will Attend to Matter During the Rush Season Under New Orders.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Christmas gift givers this year will not be compelled to lick their own stamps when they affix postage to their parcels for mailing, for the postoffice department announced that postmasters and their assistants would attend to that duty if requested. The innovation is in the interests of better mail service during the holiday rush and is expected to facilitate the movement of the vast crush of matter that will tax the resources of the department's many employees. The stamps will be precanceled and the plan is expected to prevent great waste of time by postoffice patrons while waiting in line to buy postage and mail their packages.

"Under such organization," declared Postmaster General Burleson, "when a parcel is presented for mailing the clerk receiving it, after collecting the required postage, may endorse on the parcel the amount of the postage, which will be affixed later by an employe of the postoffice."

RAISE GRANTED RAIL MEN

Board of Arbitration Awards Employes of 41 Eastern Roads an Increase Totaling $6,000,000.

New York, Nov. 11.—An increase of $6,000,000, amounting to seven per cent. of the total annual wages of the conductors and trainmen on 41 eastern railroads, became effective today. The award was announced by the board of arbitration organized under the Erdman act.

The original demands of the men, who number approximately 20,000 conductors and 80,000 trainmen, was for an increase of 20 per cent., or about $18,000,000. All parties to the controversy signed the final agreement, which will be accepted as a solution of the wage differences which have for months threatened to tie up traffic on the great trunk lines.

Wife Confesses; Man Kills.

Lewistown, Mont., Nov. 10.—John Crawford, aged twenty-eight, was killed by Edward Tanquary, aged twenty-one, following Tanquary's confession of Mrs. Tanquary.

BLIZZARD KILLS TEN

CLEVELAND, O., CUT OFF FROM WORLD—CITY IS THREATENED BY FAMINE.

STREETS BLOCKED BY RUINS

Many Perish on Vessels Wrecked by Gale on the Great Lakes—Twenty-Three Persons Saved From the Steamer Waldo.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 12.—Cut off from the world from Sunday until last night, Cleveland is still struggling with little success to recover from the effects of the most disastrous blizzard in its history.

Ten are known to be dead, while scores are injured and dozens missing. Bodies have been left in the streets, which are covered with 21 inches of snow, as it is impossible to hold funerals.

Wires and poles have fallen in an impenetrable mass all over the city, half of which has been left in darkness.

Trains, which could not operate at all before, are moving only slightly. Few street car lines are open. Interurban lines are paralyzed. Electric light plants are shut down and the gas pressure is falling.

Famine Threatens City. Food is at a premium and famine threatens the city unless streets can be opened for deliveries, which are impossible now. There is no milk to be had at any price.

The property loss will run into millions. Water pressure has failed and the danger of fire is imminent. One fire alone did $1,000,000 in damage. Many power plants have been shut down to prevent conflagrations and electrocutions from live wires which are dangling everywhere.

Three hundred persons were imprisoned in four interurban cars southeast of Cleveland towards Chardon, without food or drink or heat since Sunday afternoon. The snow there is eight feet deep. Scores of transients are marooned in the city.

Business at Standstill.

All the city schools have been closed. Many grocery stores were not open, having exhausted their supplies. Office buildings are dark and deserted and business has come to an almost complete standstill.

The snowfall, which had been continuous and heavy for 48 hours, let up at three o'clock in the afternoon, and the terrific gale has somewhat abated.

Five Bodies Recovered.

London, Ontario, Nov. 12.—Five bodies were found near St. Josephs on Lake Huron. Four had on life belts marked "Wexford" and one "London." It supposed that the freighter that sank in the blizzard was the Wexford.

Lightship Reported Wrecked.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Lightship No. 82, carrying a crew of six persons, and stationed in Lake Erie, off Point Abino, fifteen miles west of this city, is reported lost by incoming vesselmen, and is believed to have foundered during the recent storm.

Wreckage of the lightship floated into Buffalo harbor and was picked up on the beach at the foot of Michigan street.

The ship's crew consisted of the following: Hugh M. Williams, captain, Manitowish, Mich.; Charles Butler, engineer, Elyria, Ohio; Andrew Leahy, mate, Elyria, Ohio; William Jensen, seaman, Muskegon, Mich.; Peter Mackey, cook, Buffalo.

Steamer Upset; Forty Believed Lost

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 12.—When the tug Sarnia City returned after an all-night watch over the big steel freighter which lies upside down in Lake Huron, it brought no additional information as to the identity of the unfortunate vessel, on which a crew of about forty is supposed to have perished.

Many Ships in Distress.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 12.—There seems little doubt that many sailors have perished in the storm on the great lakes. A dozen or more stanch freighters have been driven ashore, one steamer capsized in the tremendous seas and scores of other craft have been driven to shelter in widely scattered harbors.

Twenty-Three Saved From Ship.

Capt. J. W. Duddleson, his crew of 21 men and two women, were rescued from the wrecked steamer L. C. Waldo on Gull Rock, Manitowish island, and brought into Houghton by the tug Hebard, which had assisted the Portage Lake and Eagle Harbor life saving crews in the rescue.

None of the crew was injured. The Waldo went on a reef at Gull Rock and broke in two, after all of her upper works had been washed away and the crew had been driven by the force of the waves to take shelter forward in the windlass room, where they huddled for three days and three nights until rescued.

Fourteen Believed Drowned.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 12.—Fourteen lives are reported to have been lost when the steamer Northern Queen went ashore on Kettle Point, near Port Huron. Seven bodies have been washed ashore, and seven more are to be seen on the watery decks. Efforts are being made to reach the vessel.

Wealthy Banker Is Shot.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 11.—Ferdinand Palma, a wealthy banker and former police detective, was fatally wounded by an unidentified assassin who fired at him with a saved-off shotgun through the window of his bank. His assailant escaped. The motive for the shooting is unknown.

DAVID I. WALSH

David I. Walsh, lieutenant governor of Massachusetts, was elected governor at the recent election. His home is in Fitchburg.

NINE OFFICIALS INDICTED AS GRAFTERS IN ILLINOIS

Charged Ex-Treasurer Clings to Money Successor Claims as the Public's —Ex-Mayor Accused.

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 10.—Fifty-nine indictments were returned against nine officials and former officials of East St. Louis by the grand jury that has been investigating municipal graft. Altogether twenty-four men have been indicted as a result of the investigation. The defendants in the new indictments are:

Charles S. Lambert, mayor in 1911 and 1912, charged in thirteen indictments with the embezzlement of $6,215 from the city.

E. Fred Gerold, city treasurer during the Lambert administration, accused of withholding $50,000 of city funds from his successor, of embezzling $16,215 and of unlawfully engaging in city contracts.

John J. Faulkner, former comptroller, charged with embezzlement of $2,410 of the $16,215.

William R. Rodenberger, who succeeded Faulkner as comptroller, charged with the embezzlement of $3,815 of the $16,215.

Lester J. Grigsby, chief of detectives, charged with robbery by force and intimidation.

Fred Moore, secretary to chief of police, charged jointly with Grigsby.

Rudolph Huesche, Claus E. Tietje and William H. Degen, members of city council, accused of unlawfully engaging in city contracts.

The embezzlement indictments against Lambert, Gerold, Faulkner and Rodenberger were based on allegations of over payment by the city on special street improvement bonds and on interest coupons.

It is charged that Gerold, when he relinquished the city treasuryship May 5, 1913, did not turn over to his successor city funds amounting to $50,000. Half of this, it is believed, Gerold seeks to keep as commissions on tax collections under his administration.

Grigsby and Moore are accused of extorting $14 from Alex Kowalsky with a threat of revocation of his saloon license. Kowalsky has been arrested with two other men after a robbery in his saloon, and the two officers, it is charged, obtained from Kowalsky as the price of his release the amount the robbery victim lost.

TRAIN HITS BUGGY; 3 DIE

Father and Two Children Killed; Mother Badly Injured Near North Judson, Ind.

North Judson, Ind., Nov. 10.—Henry Brenlen of Bremen, Ind., and his two children—Otto, ten years old, and Norman, three months old—are dead and his wife, Mrs. Henry Brenlen, is in a serious condition, the result of a blow from the buggy in which they were riding being struck by west-bound Erie fast train No. 3 at Angle Crossing. The train was said to have been running more than fifty miles an hour.

The engineer did not know he had struck anything until the train stopped at Crown Point, when he noticed pieces of clothing and wood hanging about the front of the engine. It was three hours later when the dead bodies were discovered. The woman will recover.

MORRIS LEAVES $20,000,000

Packer's Estate Divided Among Widow and Children—Charities Receive $315,000 in All.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Edward Morris, the packer, left an estate valued approximately at $20,000,000, according to a petition filed by the executors in the probate court here.

Two hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars is left to charities direct and the widow, Mrs. Helen Swift Morris, is given $50,000 to dispense among such charities as she may designate and $5,000 for distribution among the servants.

Mrs. Morris is given control of the executors' board by a stipulation that she shall have the deciding vote on all the votes.

Ships Collide in Pacific.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—The steamship Pleiades, which sailed for Ancon, Panama, was in collision with an unidentified vessel at night 15 miles south of San Francisco lightship, according to a wireless message received by the Merchants' Exchange. The Pleiades asked for assistance, as it was seriously damaged. It is commanded by Capt. H. C. Armstrong.

TO EXTRADITE THAW

MILLIONAIRE FUGITIVE LOSES FIGHT FOR LIBERTY IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

APPEAR BEFORE U. S. COURT

Pittsburgher Must Make Appearance in Federal Tribunal on Habeas Corpus Proceedings 'Ere Being Taken to New York.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 10.—Governor Samuel D. Felker ordered the extradition of Harry K. Thaw to New York in response to requisition papers charging him with the crime of conspiracy. The decision of the governor was written and copies were handed to the Thaw lawyers, to Thaw himself, to Bernard L. Jacobs, representing W. T. Jerome, and to the newspapers.

After agreement between counsel, Governor Felker ordered Sheriff Holman A. Drew not to seize Thaw until November 17. This gives the lawyers on each side until then to prepare their cases for the federal court.

Governor Felker refused to comment on his action beyond referring inquirers to the written decision. This decision designates Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess county, to take Thaw back to New York Sheriff Hornbeck was named in the requisition papers filed by William T. Jerome.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings to Come. The decision does not mean that Thaw will be returned immediately to Matteawan, from which he escaped on August 17. He has pending in the United States district court a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. It is improbable that a hearing will be held for a least three weeks.

When the decision was made there were waiting in the governor's office about fifty persons, including the members of the governor's council, the newspaper men, and attorneys. Thaw himself stayed in his room at the hotel.

Governor Felker entered his office, nodded to the crowd that had gathered and said:

"I have five copies of my decision. How many newspaper men are here?"

Reporters Given Decision. Reporters went to him and he handed them the five copies. The attorneys for both sides then pressed up to the newspaper men and asked what the decision was.

"Extradition," said the reporters after hastily scanning the thousand-word decision. The attorneys left. The Thaw counsel decidedly gloomy. The decision had been expected but they had hoped until the end.

Governor Felker in his decision bases the extradition order on a written opinion from Attorney General Tuttle. The governor's decision is strictly in accord with interstate compact. Governor Felker ignored all questions of New York's good faith which had been attacked by the Thaw counsel. He discussed simply the question of the form of the papers and their validity.

Thaw Undisturbed by Decision. Thaw was apparently not disturbed by the blow to his chances. He issued the following statement:

"It has been my opinion that Governor Felker would order the extradition. The people of Concord thought so and I was naturally moved by their belief.

"It is also my impression that Governor Felker did what he believed to be right. I think he merely considered whether the documents were technically correct and that he did not inquire into the motive which inspires the persecution of me.

"I am not disheartened. My strongest hopes lie now in the federal courts."

The Thaw lawyers will wait now for Jerome to make the next move.

ZELIE EMERSON IS DYING

American Girl Felled by Policeman While Leading English Suffragettes.

London, Nov. 11.—Miss Zelle Emerson, the American militant suffrage leader, formerly of Chicago, is believed to be dying from concussion of the brain, the result of a blow from a London policeman's club.

Five days ago Miss Emerson led an assaulting band of women against a battalion of police at the Old Bow church where they were trying to arrest Sylvia Pankhurst. The charge was successful. But when the ground was cleared Miss Emerson was found unconscious.

She is now under the care of a member of the home medical staff.

Miss Zelle Passavant Emerson is a Chicago girl twenty-four years old. Her mother lives in Michigan. She is wealthy and a granddaughter of the founder of the Passavant hospital.

Fashionable amusements did not interest her, however. She studied social questions at first hand. She worked as scrub woman in an office building, although her income was $10,000 a year. Lately she has devoted her life absolutely to the militant suffrage cause.

LIVE NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD

Mme. Pallier of France made an aeroplane flight of 174 miles. This is a new record for women.

Twenty thousand persons attended religious services in Joliet, Ill., as a result of the agitation of "go to church" day.

Sir John M. Gibson, lieutenant governor of Ontario, presided over the opening session of the National Municipal league in Toronto.

Mrs. Charity Rusk Craig, daughter of Jeremiah Rusk, former Wisconsin governor and cabinet officer, died at Asheville, N. C., of pneumonia.

The national debts of the world now aggregate $42,000,000,000, having increased 20 per cent. in the last decade and doubled in the last 40 years.

Nearly 3,000 surgeons gathered in Chicago for the annual clinical congress and the new president, George Brewer of New York, was inaugurated.

A revenue cutter has gone to the relief of Captain Townsend of the bark Magna Reva, whose crew mutinied after leaving Philadelphia and made him prisoner.

Twenty-five frame buildings, including a number of yacht club houses, were destroyed by fire in the Sand bay section of Canarsie in southeast Brooklyn. The loss was $150,000.

The tango has received the indorsement of the George Washington university faculty, but the turkey and bunny bug still are barred from the dances of the collegians, by special order.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who claims to be the discoverer of the North pole, arrived in Washington to ask congress to make an investigation to determine who really reached the farthest north.

Robert S. Hudspeth of Jersey City, N. J., a member of the Democratic national committee, has announced he will decline the appointment proffered him by President Wilson as judge of the United States district court for New Jersey.

Clad in eagle feathers and beaded buckskins, Indian chiefs danced at the wedding of Andrew Sockalexis, the Penobscot Indian marathon runner, and Pauline Shay, daughter of Sebastien Shay, one of the leading tribesmen, at Old Town, Me.

Edward Arneson of Janesville, Wis., a tailor sentenced to one year at labor under a new state law, was hired by his wife, who made the complaint against him, and he will work for her for a year. The sheriff will draw Arneson's wages and pay them to Mrs. Arneson.

The London stock exchange directors ordered the suspension for five years of Messrs. Heyborn and Craft for their methods in placing the shares of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America on the exchange, and which created a big scandal in Europe.

ELECT MRS. GRACE W. TROUT

Chicagoans Heads Illinois Equal Suffrage Association—Number of Resolutions Adopted.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 10.—Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout was re-elected president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association at its forty-fifth annual convention here following the greatest ovation ever given to a president of the organization.

The resolutions passed were: A special session of the legislature to consider the framing of a new state constitution, with the full franchise for women.

A law establishing the status legally of illegitimate children.

A Hague peace conference in 1915.

A measure for the appointment by Governor Dunne of a woman on the park board.

A resolution indorsing the nonpartisan of the women of the state suffrage association.

Colorado Bridges Burn.

Walsenburg, Colo., Nov. 10.—Four or five bridges on the branch of the Denver & Rio Grande between Chucharas Junction and the main line were burned.

THE MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 11.

LIVE STOCK—Steers	85 1/2 @ 9 00
Hogs	8 25 @ 8 50
Sheep	8 25 @ 8 50
WHEAT—No. 1	4 35 @ 4 50
WHEAT—No. 2	4 25 @ 4 40
WHEAT—No. 3	4 15 @ 4 30
CORN—No. 1	3 15 @ 3 30
CORN—No. 2	3 05 @ 3 20
OATS—No. 1	2 15 @ 2 30
OATS—No. 2	2 05 @ 2 20
CHEESE	11 1/2 @ 12 1/2

CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Choice Steers	9 00 @ 9 40
Pending Steers	8 50 @ 9 00
Choice Cows	7 75 @ 8 15
Stockers	6 00 @ 7 25
Choice Yearlings	8 50 @ 9 75
HOGS—Packers	7 70 @ 7 90
Butcher Hogs	8 00 @ 8 25
Pigs	5 50 @ 5 70
BUTTER—Creamery	22 @ 23 1/2
Packing Stock	20 @ 21
EGGS	32 @ 37
LIVE POULTRY	1 1/2 @ 1 1/4
POTATOES (per bu.)	65 @ 75
FLOUR—Spring Wheat, Sp 1	5 10 @ 5 30

Easy Lessons in Cooking and Baking

By EMILY RIESENBERG

HOW TO BAKE GOOD BREAD.

Nothing is better than a good loaf of home-made bread, and once the simple rules for bread baking have been mastered, light rolls, and all kinds of coffee cake can be baked at home.

(When baking with compressed yeast it is well to immerse it in a cup of cold water over night, or at least long enough to dissolve. This eliminates the strong odor without impairing its strength, as the yeast germ lies dormant while under water. When ready to use, pour off the water; the yeast will have settled in bottom of cup. Now add a spoonful of sugar. This at once awakens the process of fermentation and when yeast is added to the warm liquid you have a reliable, sweet raising power, which if treated right will never fail you. All ingredients must be luke warm and dough kept in a warm place while raising. All measurements are level. Use a graded half-pint measuring cup, and sift flour before measuring. Do not pack flour into cup, just slide it in lightly and level off.)

PLAIN BREAD ROLLS.

Method.
Take a part of the bread dough and divide into small pieces, roll these into little balls, and set side by side in a flat greased pan. When quite light, bake until well done and light brown. Rub tops with a little butter before breaking apart. These are best eaten fresh.

ALMOND LOAF CAKE.

Ingredients for Sponge.
Two and one-half cupfuls of sifted bread flour.
One teaspoonful of salt.
One cupful of warm milk.
One-half cupful of warm water.
One cake of compressed yeast.
One teaspoonful of sugar.

Method.
Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of butter or good buterine.
One cupful of fine granulated sugar.
Three eggs.
One-half cupful of blanched and shredded almonds.
One-half teaspoonful of lemon extract.

Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of butter or good buterine.
One cupful of fine granulated sugar.
Three eggs.
One-half cupful of blanched and shredded almonds.
One-half teaspoonful of lemon extract.

Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of butter or good buterine.
One cupful of fine granulated sugar.
Three eggs.
One-half cupful of blanched and shredded almonds.
One-half teaspoonful of lemon extract.

Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of butter or good buterine.
One cupful of fine granulated sugar.
Three eggs.
One-half cupful of blanched and shredded almonds.
One-half teaspoonful of lemon extract.

GERMAN CINNAMON CAKE.

Ingredients for Sponge.
Three cupfuls of sifted bread flour.
Two cupfuls of warm milk and water (three-fourths milk).
One teaspoonful of salt.
Two cakes of compressed yeast.
One tablespoonful of sugar.

Method.
Prepare yeast and set sponge as directed for almond cake. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of lard and butter.
Two-thirds cupful of sugar.
Two eggs.
Three cupfuls of sifted flour.

Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of lard and butter.
Two-thirds cupful of sugar.
Two eggs.
Three cupfuls of sifted flour.

Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of lard and butter.
Two-thirds cupful of sugar.
Two eggs.
Three cupfuls of sifted flour.

Soak yeast over night, or long enough to dissolve in cold water. When ready to use, pour off the water and add sugar to yeast, add salt to flour, add yeast to warm liquid and beat into flour, cover and set aside until it has raised to double its bulk. Ingredients for Second Mixing.
One-half cupful of lard and butter.
Two-thirds cupful of sugar.
Two eggs.
Three cupfuls of sifted flour.

APPLE CAKE.

Method.
When dough is ready for pan, smooth a very thin covering into a flat, well greased pan, pare and core good tart cooking apples, cut each quarter into two or three even slices, lay them in overlapping rows, close together to cover the dough, strew sugar and cinnamon over, then bake until apples are tender and crust is done.

CUSTARD FOR APPLE CAKE.

Ingredients.
One whole egg or two yolks.
One cupful of rich milk.
Two tablespoonfuls of sugar.

Method.
Beat egg well, add to rest of ingredients and beat smooth, then pour over apples after they have been sugared. Omit cinnamon.

PEACH CAKE.

Skin and stone good tender peaches, cut into quarters and press the round side of fruit well into dough, sugar and bake plain with custard.

BLUE PLUM CAKE.

Stone but do not skin blue free stone plums, place skin down or dough and sugar very heavily. Bake as directed for peach cake.

(Copyright, 1913, by Joseph B. Bowler.)

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR MEN AND WOMEN

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY.

The immense variety in ribbons permits an unending variety in fancy bags, and they will play their usual prominent part at Christmas time. The rich brocades and heavy weaves in plain ribbons are used for opera bags and for the handsome shopping bags which city women find it convenient to carry with them when they have small purchases to make and intend carrying them home. Ribbons in lighter weight, such as the Dresden, in taffeta, which are found in so many beautiful designs, are chosen for all those bags that form accessories to the furnishings of the home. Among these, those with flowered patterns on a plain silk ground having wide borders of gauze are the newest and most beautiful of the season's offerings. Such a ribbon is shown here in the pretty corset bag pictured.

A new design in a shopping bag which may be made long enough to

When it comes to selecting things for men two facts should be borne in mind. Men appreciate whatever adds to their personal comfort and they are attracted by things that are conven-ent and useful rather than by mere prettiness.

Here are pictured a few of the many attractive things, made of cretonne, which will be appreciated by the men folks.

The closet bag shown in the picture is made of cretonne having a white ground with red roses and green foliage. White tape serves to bind the edges and fasten the compartments to the back. A yard of cretonne is required for it. It is fourteen inches wide and the remainder of the yard will make the compartments with enough left over to cover a pin cushion.

The waste paper basket is made by pasting cretonne to a heavy pasteboard foundation and the lining may be of cambric or paper. Four sides are cut out and covered with cretonne. The lining is pasted over in one piece, holding the sides together. Or the pieces may be covered separately and afterward tied together with narrow ribbon.

The small box for handkerchiefs or ties is made by pasting cretonne over a strong pasteboard box. The top is padded with a sheet of cotton wadding. A set of three boxes for ties, gloves, handkerchiefs, with a larger one for shoes, makes an elegant present where one wishes to give so much. But one single box will be appreciated.

The traveling case is cut from rubber cloth first and compartments are sewed to it for the wash-rag and soap, tooth and nail brush. White tape is used to bind the several pieces. The case is then covered with cretonne bound to the rubber cloth with tape machine-stitched over the edges. This convenient case fastens with a snap fastener such as is used on gloves.

TIGER AND HIPPO IN BATTLE TO DEATH

Two Natural Enemies Stage Fight Never Before Known on Western Hemisphere.

St. Joseph, La.—On the banks of a swollen southern bayou two natural enemies of the jungles of the far east staged a battle the other day which never before was known on the western hemisphere.

No one witnessed the encounter, but posses of citizens led by attaches of a circus, searching this and other counties for a tiger and a hippopotamus, escaped from the circus menagerie, came upon the battleground.

The tiger was found floating on the bayou, dead, its body nearly a pulp, and for a distance of a hundred yards along the water's edge the ground and small trees were torn up. The water of the bayou was discolored with blood. On the opposite bank the trail of the hippo was picked up again. It had been the victor, but at a terrible cost, for blood followed its every step.

The fight must have raged for hours. Each animal had bled profusely and the hippo must have been near exhaustion when it forced the tiger into the water and drowned it.

The Fight Raged for Hours.

Many negro residents in the neighborhood of St. Joseph were fleeing in terror to the city, fearing the hippo would kill them and destroy their homes. They know the alligator, but a hippo is too strange a beast for them to chance as a neighbor.

DIG UP ELEPHANT'S BONES

Must Have Been Twenty Feet High—Animal's Tusks Are Eighteen Feet Long.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Further details of the greatest discovery of prehistoric animal remains made in Southern California since the finding of the first saber-tooth tiger skeleton have been made public by F. S. Daggett, director of the County Historical museum in Exposition park. The bones of a gigantic imperial elephant, the largest of the species in past or present times, were discovered 24 feet below the surface at Athens-on-the-Hill, and are being unearthed by a crew of miners engaged by the county museum.

Some idea of the gigantic proportions of this enormous beast may be gained by the fact that the tusks which are being uncovered are 13 feet long and more than ten inches in diameter at their greatest thickness. One seven-foot section of a tusk already raised to the surface weighs nearly 400 pounds. The animal alive must have stood more than twenty feet in height, and have weighed as much as half a dozen modern elephants.

The longest tusk known to science is now in a museum in the City of Mexico. It is seven inches in diameter, or a third smaller than the massive tusks now being taken out by the county museum.

HOPS ON THE CISTERN LID

Would Show His Wife That the Cover Was Perfectly Safe, Then Kerchug!

Petoskey, Mich.—Mrs. V. R. Wade told her hubby, who is manager of a local telegraph office, that he had better repair the board cover to their cistern.

"What?" shouted Wade. "Why, I just put that cover down the other day. It's new."

"But," protested his wife, "the boards are rotten. Your father stepped on them the other day and they cracked. First thing you know some child will be drowned there."

"Bosh! I'll show you that cover is safe," said Wade, and jumped on the boards over the well.

A good, warm fire in the kitchen stove finally dried him out, but that couldn't heal the wound in his right hand the result of a nail ripping him as he was "going down."

Mrs. Wade said "I told you so."

Mr. Wade's remarks are omitted.

Two Weeks Old, Entertains.

New York.—Because little Frances Kerr, aged two weeks, had a head of black curly hair, weighed ten pounds and had two teeth, her mother had to have a party to entertain the curious.

NEWS BREVITIES OF ILLINOIS

Peoria.—Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout of Chicago was re-elected president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, which held its forty-fifth annual convention here.

Wacker.—Eighty-five citizens shoveled gravel on the Mount Carroll-Wacker road, with 25 teams doing the hauling. The women of Wacker provided dinner for the workers.

Eldorado.—A man supposed to be W. Robinson from Johnson City was found dead about one mile north of Texas City on the New York Central railroad.

Bloomington.—When their automobile struck a cow Harry Peckert of Stronghurst was killed and Miss Madalene Curtis of La Harpe received three broken ribs.

Peoria.—John Weismantel, an insurance man, prominent in business circles, was shot and killed by his brother-in-law, Leo Beck, when he denied Beck's accusation that he did not support his wife properly.

Springfield.—Governor Dunne issued a requisition on the governor of Nebraska for the return to Harrisburg, Saline county, of Joseph Davis, who is under arrest in Omaha, and who is wanted in this state on the charge of killing William Devine.

Mount Vernon.—The robber who was captured here after locking the Jefferson State bank officers in a vault and stealing $1,412, gave the name of James Watson of Knoxville, Tenn., and said he came to Mount Vernon. He later was identified as the man who registered at a local hotel as E. L. Bryan, St. Louis.

Danville.—F. H. Heffeman, a well-known citizen of Dana, Ind., died in a local saloon here. He entered the place, gave $50 to the bartender to keep for him, took some lunch and went to the rear of the saloon. He was found dead shortly afterward seated upright in a chair. The lunch was untouched.

Ingallton.—Edward Chapman, expert electrical engineer of Wheaton, was fatally injured, and Henry E. Egger, electrical foreman of Wheaton, was seriously injured when a gasoline speeder on which they were riding jumped the track of the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago third rail line here. The men are employes of the railroad.

Monticello.—Martin Leshar of Cerro Gordo township was adjudged insane in the county court this week and sent as a voluntary patient to the Bartonville State hospital. Mrs. Etta Downs of Unity township also was adjudged insane and committed as a private patient to the Peoria State hospital at Bartonville.

Springfield.—Charles Rice, a negro, held as a suspect for the murder of James Martin, special deputy sheriff, has confessed that he committed the murder. When confronted by members of the sheriff's force Rice broke down and told the story of the shooting. Rice said the reason he shot was that he thought the deputy, who had just arrested George Anderson, a side partner of Rice's, was going to shoot him.

Rock Island.—Thirty-eight indictments against Sheriff O. L. Bruner were quashed in the circuit court by Judge E. C. Graves upon motion of the defendant's counsel. The judge sustained the contention of Bruner's lawyers that all of the indictments were faulty in legal construction, and would not stand before a court. State's Attorney F. L. Thompson immediately entered a motion to recall the grand jury. Bruner is alleged to have accepted pay for releasing prisoners from the county jail.

Aurora.—A girl deputy sheriff, Miss Cora Kuhn, athletic, and wearing a star, is in complete charge of the DuPage county jail in Wheaton. Among the prisoners is Harry Spencer, confessed slayer of Mrs. Mildred Rexroat. "Spencer hasn't behaved badly since coming to the jail," she said. "Of course, he has demanded that he be hanged, but the stories of his ravings aren't true. I take his food to him." Cheering news for Henry Spencer, confessed murderer of Mrs. Rexroat, came from New Orleans. The inventor of a new embalming fluid has bought the prisoner's body for future delivery, and is coming, he says, to see there is no miscarriage of justice at the trial.

Mount Vernon.—Fourteen hundred and twelve dollars was stolen and recovered a few minutes after a daylight robbery at the Jefferson State bank here. While one of the robbers acted as lookout the other, with a revolver, forced the cashier, his assistant and the bookkeeper into a vault and turned the combination. The robbers then fled with all the cash in sight. While a posse gave chase, Dr. L. C. Morgan, president of the bank, released the men imprisoned. One robber, who had the money, was caught by a crowd of citizens and beaten before he was turned over to the sheriff. The lookout escaped.

Pana.—Mrs. Caroline Windsor, widow of Dr. J. P. Windsor, mayor of Mount Auburn, who was killed last May by Editor Fay Slate of that place, now under $22,500 bond on indictment for murder, filed suit in the circuit court against the American Bankers' insurance company of Chicago for $500 accident insurance. The policy was originally written by the State's Accident company and was taken over one year ago by the American, which refuses to pay on the ground that Windsor was engaged in an unlawful act when he met his death. Slate is to be tried for the killing next month.

NEWS OF ILLINOIS

ITEMS OF GENERAL STATE INTEREST FRESH FROM THE TELEGRAPH.

SON OF EX-GOVERNOR DIES

Richard James Oglesby of Elkhart Passes Away Suddenly in St. Louis—Had Been an Invalid for Many Years.

Springfield.—Richard James Oglesby, second son of the late former Gov. Richard J. Oglesby, died suddenly in St. Louis, where he had been receiving medical attention. He had been an invalid for many years. He was thirty-eight years old.

Ridgeway.—A three days' meeting of the Gallatin County Farmers and Teachers, just closed here, was attended by many. State Road Engineer A. N. Johnson spoke on "Road Building," C. C. Purvier of Sheffield on "Soil Improvement" and Dr. E. B. Rodgers on "Education." The display of farm products at the Kaufman building was very complete, practically every vegetable, grain and fruit produced in Gallatin county being shown. Art and needlework also were exhibited.

Sullivan.—Sullivan has just accepted the park site which it recently bought from J. B. Titus, Charles H. Monroe and David L. Enslow, with the money left by the late Albert Wyman. Mr. Wyman, in his will, left $30,000 to the city to be used in purchasing a park site and beautifying it. The site consists of 40 acres, all but a very little being purchased from Mr. Titus, who donated five acres for an athletic ground.

Fritz Heidkamp, twenty-seven years old, coal miner, was struck by a Big Four passenger train and killed here when he drove his buggy upon the tracks in front of the train, which was running at fifty miles an hour. John Herman and his son, Erich, eleven years old, escaped injury, but the buggy was wrecked and the horse and a hunting dog in the buggy were killed.

Casey.—Samuel Beasley, age twenty, single, entered an oil tank at the Leader Oil company's plant near the city limits here to clean the tank. He did not reappear, and two men named Yalley and Downey, entered the tank. They found Beasley dead, and were themselves overcome by gases. They were rescued with great difficulty. Yalley probably will recover, but Downey's condition is serious.

Sumner.—While attempting to enter the home of Barnett Shoup, four miles south of this city, Sherman Meyer was shot by Mrs. Shoup, who mistook him for a burglar. He died two hours later. At the inquest the jury found a verdict of justifiable homicide. Meyer was demented and had escaped from his keepers at Bridgeport. He was an oil driller and he came here from Belmont, O.

Eureka.—The Christian church extended a unanimous call to Rev. H. W. Blair of North Tonawanda, N. Y. Doctor Blair has been holding a series of meetings here and the church has been highly pleased with his efforts. He is a graduate of Butler college and Yale university and held pastorate in both Indiana and New York. He is expected to begin here in a month or six weeks.

Calro.—A fine baby was born on Illinois Central passenger train No. 4, soon after the train passed over the Calro bridge. The mother, who took the train at Memphis to go to Effingham, had four children traveling with her. She was not in affluent circumstances, and as a birthday gift to the new baby the passengers took up a collection of $19.

Danville.—A human cushion saved the life of Louis Huntley, when he was struck by a Wabash switch engine near Tilton. Switchman Able, who was standing upon the front foot-board of the engine, received the impact of Huntley's body, which was shunted to one side of the track and escaped the wheels. Neither is fatally injured.

Decatur.—Thomas White, a Fayette county farmer, met death near his home when he was buried alive in a gravel pit. He saw the earth giving way above him, but was unable to escape.

Decatur.—Thomas A. Gordon, who shot and killed Roy Dixon in a revolver duel here some time ago, has been convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to from one to fourteen years in the penitentiary.

Bloomington.—John Lawson of Slater, Mo., a trainman, was killed while entering the Chicago & Alton yards at Roadhouse. He was knocked from train by the bridge and killed.

Atlanta.—The new Christian church here, costing $30,000, was dedicated. Clergyman and laymen from many central Illinois churches participated.

Champaign.—The sessions of the executive board of home missions of the Methodist Episcopal church opened here.

Bloomington.—Elmo Winkelpeck, a prominent young farmer of Lexington, was accidentally killed by his cousin, Owen Jordan of St. Louis, while they were rabbit hunting.

Decatur.—Joseph Austin, aged seventy-eight, prominent farmer living near Blue Mound, died in the home where he was born, having lived there his entire life.

Decatur.—Nearly $30,000 had been raised in the two-day campaign to raise funds for the new Macon County hospital. Leading citizens of Decatur are participating in the campaign.

FACTS OF INTEREST

Items Clipped from Exchanges—Loss of Hogs at Harvard

A loss estimated at $100,000 is being sustained by farmers residing in the vicinity of Harvard thru the death of their hogs by cholera or some kindred disease. Hogs have been dying thru the summer and fall months, but it was assumed that with the approach of cold weather the disease would be less destructive. This, however, does not seem to be the case.

Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, seems to fit nicely into the role of a man without a country. He is intensely unpopular in France, so much so that he is having a difficult time to get anything like a lucrative engagement in the Paris prize rings. The big black is having the truth forced home to him with a vengeance that it pays to be decent.

William Randolph Hearst, owner of the Chicago Examiner, has purchased a home at Powers Lake and will spend several thousand dollars in making it the most beautiful summer home in that section of the country.

Serving refreshments at Sunday school is a new method being adopted by some churches to increase the attendance. That will not be necessary for the next few months, however, as there is always a good attendance as Christmas approaches.

Constant, systematic and intelligent use of the road drag at this season of the year will put the country roads in good shape for the winter. It is inexpensive work, but great good can be accomplished thereby.

With a conspicuous lack of office holders and an abundance of office seekers, progressives of Kane county gathered in Elgin for the first of a series of county banquets.—Elgin News.

The Bank of McHenry, operated for many years by James B. Perry and O. N. Owen, has been purchased by Fremont Hoy of Woodstock and his son, C. F. Hoy of Crystal Lake.

It is claimed that the average salary of 3,000 Methodist Episcopal preachers during the past year was less than $500. In the face of all this it is likely that there is no class of people which could be named which has done less kicking about the high cost of living.

Fashionable Tailored Suits at a Saving of One Third at Theo. F. Swan's

We're offering our entire stock of the newest style suits at a saving of one-third from our usual low prices. Fine broadcloth suits with jackets in the newest cutaway models, usually $24.98 are now reduced to $16.98, the regular $19.98 suits are reduced to $14.98 and the regular $16.98 suits are reduced to only $10.98. Splendid values in coats too, all in the very latest styles.

THEO. F. SWAN,
"Elgin's Most Popular Store."

Easy to Tell What He Thought.
Little Jerome, aged five, heard his mother read from the beauty column of the paper that eating raw carrots would make one beautiful. A short time ago he was called into the room to view his baby sister for the first time. His mother asked him what he thought of her. Taking a good look at her, he answered in a disgusted tone, "Let's give her a carrot."—Chicago Tribune.

To Mend Hard Substances.
Melted alum will mend hard substances like metal or glass so that it will remain firm for years. Melt the alum over an intense heat and apply when very hot. Excellent for mending ivory-handled knives.

Certificate of Organization
We, the undersigned, being desirous of forming a LIMITED PARTNERSHIP, under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, hereby make and execute the following:

"CERTIFICATE OF ORGANIZATION"
FIRST. The name of the partnership shall be "EXCHANGE BANK."

SECOND. The nature of the business to be transacted, shall be that of general banking, and the capital stock shall be Fifty Thousand ($50,000) Dollars, divided into shares of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each, and the place of business shall be at Genoa, DeKalb County, Illinois.

THIRD. The names and residences of the GENERAL PARTNERS are:
Christopher H. Awe, Genoa, Illinois; James R. Kierman, Genoa, Illinois; Dillon S. Brown, Genoa, Illinois; Louis F. Knief, Burlington, Illinois; Carl J. Bevan, Genoa, Illinois; C. A. Brown, Genoa, Illinois; Almond M. Hill, Genoa, Illinois; J. L. Kelley, Bartlett, Illinois; E. W. Brown, Genoa, Illinois.

FOURTH. The names and residence of the SPECIAL PARTNERS, and the amount of Capital Stock contributed by each are:

A. G. Stewart, Genoa, Illinois, Three shares; H. A. Perkins, Genoa, Illinois, Five shares; C. A. Stewart, Genoa, Illinois, Two shares; James J. Hammond, Genoa, Illinois, One share; A. B. Stray, Golvin Park, Illinois, one share; H. C. Hattendorf, Burlington, Illinois, Three shares; J. W. Brown, Genoa, Illinois, one share; L. E. Carmichael, Genoa, Illinois, One share; Asa R. Atchison, Atlanta, Illinois, Twenty shares; John L. Bevan, Atlanta, Illinois, Thirty shares; Laban Hoblit, Atlanta, Illinois, Ten shares; Albert H. Bookert, Atlanta, Illinois, Ten shares; C. H. Turner, Atlanta, Illinois, Twenty shares; Horace Cribfield, Atlanta, Illinois, Twenty shares; E. F. Verry, Arlington, Illinois, Ten shares; T. C. Harry, Atlanta, Illinois, Ten shares; George Verry, Atlanta, Illinois, Ten shares.

FIFTH. The period at which said partnership shall commence shall be November 17, A. D. 1913, and the period when it shall terminate shall be November 17, A. D. 1921, unless sooner dissolved by the action of the partners owning two-thirds or more of the capital stock of said partnership, and notice thereof being given as in such case made and provided by statute.

SIXTH. The sale and transfer of stock by, or the death of a general partner, shall not work a dissolution of the said partnership, but the heirs, or legal representatives thereof, shall stand in relation to the partnership as a special partner.

WITNESS our hands and seals this 29th day of October, A. D. 1913.

Asa R. Atchison	(SEAL)
John L. Bevan	(SEAL)
Laban Hoblit	(SEAL)
Albert H. Bookert	(SEAL)
C. H. Turner	(SEAL)
Horace Cribfield	(SEAL)
E. F. Verry	(SEAL)
T. C. Harry	(SEAL)
George Verry	(SEAL)
Carl J. Bevan	(SEAL)
Dillon S. Brown	(SEAL)
C. A. Brown	(SEAL)
James R. Kierman	(SEAL)
Christopher H. Awe	(SEAL)
J. L. Kelley	(SEAL)
Louis F. Knief	(SEAL)
A. G. Stewart	(SEAL)
H. A. Perkins	(SEAL)
A. B. Stray	(SEAL)
James J. Hammond	(SEAL)
H. C. Hattendorf	(SEAL)
C. A. Stewart	(SEAL)
J. W. Brown	(SEAL)
Almond M. Hill	(SEAL)
E. W. Brown	(SEAL)
L. E. Carmichael	(SEAL)

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
County of Logan,

I, R. F. Ouisenberry, a Notary Public, in and for the said County in the State aforesaid, do hereby certify that Asa R. Atchison, John L. Bevan, Laban Hoblit, Albert H. Bookert, C. H. Turner, Horace Cribfield, E. F. Verry, T. C. Harry and George Verry, who are personally known to me to be the same persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing instrument, appeared before me this day in person and acknowledged that they signed, sealed and delivered the said instrument as their free and voluntary act, for the uses and purposes therein set forth.

Given under my hand and Notarial seal, this 29th day of October, A. D. 1913.
(Seal) R. F. OUISENBERRY,
Notary Public.

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
County of DeKalb,

I, Bessie Bidwell, a Notary Public in and for the said County in the State aforesaid, do hereby certify that Christopher H. Awe, James R. Kierman, Dillon S. Brown, Louis F. Knief, Carl J. Bevan, C. A. Brown, Almond M. Hill, J. L. Kelley, E. W. Brown, A. G. Stewart, H. A. Perkins, C. A. Stewart, James J. Hammond, A. B. Stray, H. C. Hattendorf, J. W. Brown, and L. E. Carmichael, who are personally known to me to be the same persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing instrument, appeared before me this day in person and acknowledged that they signed, sealed and delivered the said instrument as their free and voluntary act, for the uses and purposes therein set forth.

Given under my hand and Notarial seal, this 7th day of November, A. D. 1913.
(Seal) BESSIE BIDWELL,
Notary Public.

Filed and recorded in the County Clerk's office of DeKalb County, Illinois, on the 13th day of November, A. D. 1913.

Obituary
Joseph Martin Naker was born in the town of Genoa, Nov. 12th, 1871, and died at his home east of Hampshire, Oct. 31st, 1913, after only three days of illness. He was a devoted husband, a kind and loving father and leaves to mourn, the bereaved widow and two children, Harry and Leone. One sister, Mrs. Caroline Listy of Charter Grove and four brothers, Fred and Elmer of Charter Grove, Ed. of Elgin and Charles of Genoa. Also several sisters and brothers and a host of friends by whom he will be sadly missed.

Puritans Fond of Lace.
In Puritan times, though the bobbins were carved with texts warning the workers against the poms and errors of this wicked world, lace was still worn to a great extent, the family of Oliver Cromwell in particular having a decided penchant for the more costly varieties, and after his death his body was clothed in a garment more richly trimmed with lace and ermine than that of any king before him.

Recipe for Happiness.
Do not give up. Do not allow the black waters of melancholia to close over you. Hold your head high. Live your life beautifully in the face of failure, loneliness and contempt. Happiness is high art. Be a great artist.—Helen Woljeska.

The Chas. V. Weise Co.

117-121 West State Street
ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS

Every Suit in Stock Must Be Sold
Great Clearance of all Ladies' and Misses'
NEW FALL SUITS

A Bona Fide Sale with genuine savings coming at the season when you can use a suit to advantage and at a reduction of from $5 to $15 on every suit. And it is a well known fact that our regular prices are the lowest in the city, quality considered.

The Famous "Wooltex" Suits are offered without reserve in this Sale and the two season's guarantee just the same as if you paid the regular price.

- $14.75 for Ladies' and Misses' Suits that sold up to $22.50
- 19.75 for Ladies' and Misses' Suits that sold up to 30.00
- 23.75 for Ladies' and Misses' Suits that sold up to 35.00 and 39.50
- 29.75 for Ladies' and Misses' Suits that sold up to 45.00 and 49.50

This is a Sale of our high grade stock and not a sale of Suits bought for the occasion

No Better Time...

Than Right Now--At This Store--To Buy Your Fall Clothes.

FITFORM

WITH THE BEST dressed men, who really know and appreciate good values, this store has always been a great favorite. We aim to give them good service; are always ready to go out of our way to please them.

Honest Merchandise
Honest Advertising
Honest Prices

have played an important part in the popularity of this store. Remember these facts when you read our advertisements from week to week. We expect you to read them and respond to them, because we never make a statement that the merchandise will not back up; and if something bought here should go wrong, we will make it right.

Everything that you need in Fall Wearables, Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Sweaters, Underwear, Shirts, Mackinaws, Hosiery, Shoes, all of dependable quality, is here in large variety, at reasonable prices.

We want you to see the new things for Fall and Winter.

XTRAGOOD

You Are Welcome Here Whether You Buy or Not

Erickson & Johnson, Sycamore

JUNK!

IRON - RAGS - PAPER

always in the way and unsightly about the premises, but they represent money.

I PAY CASH

for junk and the highest prices possible. Call me up any time and I will see you.

SEE MY IRON FENCE BRACE

J. GOODMAN, GENOA, ILL.

PHONE 146

Land History Repeats

(Private Car Excursion Tuesday, November 18th)

- IN 1613 farms in America sold for beads or trinkets.
- IN 1713 for tobacco.
- IN 1813 for $1.00 or less an acre.
- IN 1913 as high as $500 to $1,000 per acre.

From 1613 TO 1913 every generation has said: "Oh! If we could only have the opportunity to get land our fathers had." Some who saw the opportunity in their own day bought land and laid the foundations for some of the world's greatest fortunes.

YOUR GRAND DAD had some excuse for neglecting land opportunities, because 75 or 100 years ago the "unearned increment" came slowly and there was seemingly an endless amount of land to be had. In this generation we find men kicking themselves (and they ought to) because they did not buy even ten years ago and now be enjoying double and treble returns on the investment. THUNDER AND LIGHTNING could not trumpet forth and emblazon more plainly to the thinking man the fact that when any agricultural land in this country is worth $500 to $1,000 per acre, that any other good farm land that can be bought for $10 to $35 per acre is a great opportunity.

A HUNDRED YEARS may have been required to double land values in medieval times when men fought for land with the lance and sword; but in these times, when peace reigns practically throughout the world, it has taken less than ten years, as is shown by the census statistics. Since the multitude went from Egypt to the promised land, land history has been repeating itself, and as surely as the price of land in the U. S. has doubled in the last ten years, just so surely will $10 to $35 land in the Swigart Tract double in value in the next ten years. It ought to do far better. Much of this land is now selling at $17 and $18 per acre and is ridiculously under priced, and I believe will sell for $150 per acre in the year 1920. You can see it right now producing staple crops that bring as much money per acre as the average $150 land in Illinois.

THERE'S A CLAIM ON YOU, Mr. Investor. Mr. Home Seeker, Mr. Farmer, Mr. Fruit Grower, in this tract, because it has things you want. Plants take their food, 1,000 parts of water to one of dry matter. A pound loaf of bread takes two tons of water from the time of planting the wheat. A ton of hay pumps 500 tons of water through the soil. You want pure water and plenty of it. This land has it. Good markets, short hauls, good transportation are things you want. This tract is worth more because it is only 170 miles from Chicago, and is nearer Grand Rapids, Milwaukee and Detroit. It has four railroads, several steamship lines and no 40 acres more than five miles from a shipping point, and 30,000 people to buy its products in Ludington and Manistee, cities located on the edge of the tract. You want a healthful climate; doctors recommend ours. You want good schools, churches, roads and telephones. We have them. You want good crops; we have plenty. If you know the productivity of rich, warm, sandy loam. Now is the time to come and see splendid crops that have been harvested of clover, rye, alfalfa, hay, beans, potatoes and all vegetables. I want doubters and seekers—those who find it hard to believe that such low-priced land will produce such good crops—to come and be convinced. IT IS EASY TO READ the past. It is an open book. Knowing the same things will happen over again, why do you not act? The terms on the land permit of your taking hold at once. They are as low as $10 to $50 down and $5 to $10 per month on 40 acres. While paying for the land, if you should die it will be deeded to your family free from any further payments. 5 per cent off for all cash, or annual payments if preferred. WHAT ARE YOUR future prospects? What are your plans? Ever feel the independence of owning a piece of land you could call your own and make your home? I want you to send me your address so I can send you a booklet telling about this district and showing photographic views of the lands and things of interest, also literature showing the development and improving going on, including electric power dams that are being built in the center of the tract at an expenditure of millions of dollars. MY NEXT PRIVATE CAR excursion will be Tuesday, Nov. 18, by P. M. R. R., leaving my offices at 11:30 a. m. Fare $8.30 round trip to Wellston, rebated on purchase. You get back to Chicago at 7:20 a. m. Thursday or Friday of the same week. Automobiles and guides free.

Full particulars can be had by addressing George W. Swigart, owner, M 1247 First National Bank Building, Chicago, Ill., or his agent,

FRED C. AWE,

New Lebanon, Illinois

GREAT SHOWING OF ELGIN SHIRTS

We Are More Than Proud of this elegant line of DRESS SHIRTS which now fill our shelves and show cases. The Elgin Shirt is made to FIT and WEAR. There is plenty of goods used in making the length right.

The display of patterns is almost limitless. We can please the taste of the youngest young man or the oldest old man.

WE WANT YOU TO SEE THE NEW LINE OF HOSIERY, NECKWEAR, GLOVES, COLLARS, HATS, CAPS, SHOES AND UNDERWEAR

WE CAN CLOTHE MAN OR BOY FROM HEAD TO FOOT AND PLEASE EITHER ONE OF THEM

F. H. Holtgren, Genoa, Illinois

"A WILD RIDE," a two-reel Selig production at the Petey Wales show on Wednesday night. A young girl escapes from a band of Zulus on the back of an ostrich. A more thrilling ride could not be imagined. Four other great reels too.

W. H. Leonard is in Black Buck, Minn., this week.

Miss Lila Chamberlain of Chicago spent Sunday with her mother.

Miss Lois Keyes of Hampshire spent the week end with Miss Mabel Johnson.

For street and stable blankets see Cooper. He has a big line and prices are right. 5tf

Geo. Beers is confined to his home on account of sickness, having suffered a slight stroke of paralysis.

I have some choice thoroughbred Duroc Jersey and Poland China boars for sale. William H. Graham. Phone 922-14. 8-tf

Wanted—two car loads of new milkers and springers. Highest market price will be paid. Wm. H. Graham. Phone 922-14. 8-tf

Leslie Ruback and Erwin Leckler, both pupils of the Lutheran school, are on the sick list. The former has the mumps and the latter tonsillitis.

Rev. J. Molthan left Tuesday for Chicago to attend the fall conference of this district of the Lutheran church. Conference will last three days.

Next Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. the Lutheran church will have services conducted in the English language. All who wish to attend are welcome.

REV. J. MOLTHAN.

Lee W. Miller, the local insurance man, succeeded in landing the writing for the sewer contractor, A. M. Lanyon. A policy covering the employes according to the liability law was issued and a bond in accordance with the provisions of the contract.

Mrs. John Canavan was a Chicago visitor Monday.

Mrs. T. M. Frazier visited in Elgin the first of the week.

Mrs. F. O. Swan visited her mother in Elgin, Monday.

Otto Bargaquist transacted business in Elgin Monday.

Mrs. T. N. Austin and daughter were in Elgin Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Slater of Beloit spent Sunday with home folks.

Mesdames C. A. Patterson and W. H. Jackman were Rockford visitors Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Doty motored to Chicago Tuesday.

Miss Kittie Hinds of Winslow, Ill., spent Saturday with her cousin, Mrs. Edna A. Eells.

Misses Cora Watson and Esther Smith of DeKalb Normal spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Rockford were week end guests at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Jas. Pierce.

Howard Stanley, who is attending the Chicago University, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Stanley.

Miss Flossie Kellog, who has been in poor health for several months, has gone to Chicago where she will be treated by a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rehder of Valparaiso, Ind., visited Genoa friends over Sunday. Mrs. Rehder was formerly Miss Belle Cliffe.

Mrs. G. J. Patterson submitted to a minor operation at Sherman Hospital in Elgin last Saturday morning. She recovered nicely from the ordeal.

Last Sunday Rev. Molthan of the Lutheran church of Genoa, held services at Burlington in the place of Rev. H. Schoos, who had been called to the bed side of his married daughter, residing in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Harvey of Chicago were visiting Genoa relatives this week.

J. E. Stott visited in Des Plaines several days this week, his brother being seriously ill.

Jackman & Son have buckwheat feed at $18.00 per ton, also bran, middlings, red dog and malt.

Miss Mary Jordine, who is attending DeKalb Normal, was a guest of Miss Irma Perkins over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchison of St. Charles were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's parents.

Seward & Driver are fully equipped to drill your well, repair wells and do any work along that line on short notice. Phone No. 1225. 5-tf

Glasses fitted at Ward Hotel, Sycamore, every Thursday instead of Tuesday. Eyes examined free. H. U. Meyers, Oph. D. All other days at my office in DeKalb. 50-tf

For sale, pure bred Rhode Island Red and Orpington cockerels. Mrs. R. W. JOHNSON, at Drake's Corner, west of Genoa. 8-tf

J. E. Bowers and family left Wednesday evening for their new home in Colorado where they will occupy Rev. Bellamy's farm.

Don't forget, Young's Home Bakery is the place to get good things to eat. Strict attention paid to children. 32-tf Contractor John Seymour is tearing down the old construction locomotive "58" this week and will send it to the scrap heap. He expects to exchange it for a smaller engine.

A dance will be given at the opera house on Friday evening of this week, Vandresser's orchestra to furnish the music. "Chib" gives assurance that you will be given a good time. Remember the date is Friday night of THIS week, Nov. 14.

Last Monday, Rev. John Molthan attended the silver anniversary of Rev. F. Kroger at Hinkley. The congregation held a divine service and presented the minister a single seated buggy and a horse. Rev. Kroger was installed twenty-five years ago in West Virginia, and from there was called to New Holland, Ill. From New Holland he went to his present charge.

J. E. Bowers and family were completely surprised at their home in the country last Thursday evening by about forty of their neighbors and friends. The surprise was complete too. They were presented with a beautiful silver sugar shell and meat fork by the guests. The family left on Wednesday evening for Colorado, the best wishes of neighbors going with them.

W. H. King has given up his position with Pickett the Clothier and left Monday for Chicago, having taken a position with the Spenny Motor Car Co. of Holland, Mich. Charles A. Speeny, former general manager of the Woodstock & Sycamore Traction Co. and one of the promoters, is president of the new motor company. At the present time no machines are being made, but the forces are out selling stock. The car will sell for about $2500.

Houses for rent or sale, all well located in city of Genoa. Now is the time to buy if you want real bargains. Inquire of Exchange Bank of Brown & Brown. 48tf is not difficult if it is gone about systematically. For instance a few in the Exchange Bank will grow into a goodly sum in a surprisingly short time. If you want to have money you must save it. You'll never have any if you spend all you make.

PILING UP MONEY

DOLLARS DEPOSITED REGULARLY

EXCHANGE BANK OF BROWN & BROWN Genoa, -- Illinois

A dance will be given at the opera house on Friday evening of this week, Vandresser's orchestra to furnish the music. "Chib" gives assurance that you will be given a good time. Remember the date is Friday night of THIS week, Nov. 14.

Last Monday, Rev. John Molthan attended the silver anniversary of Rev. F. Kroger at Hinkley. The congregation held a divine service and presented the minister a single seated buggy and a horse. Rev. Kroger was installed twenty-five years ago in West Virginia, and from there was called to New Holland, Ill. From New Holland he went to his present charge.

J. E. Bowers and family were completely surprised at their home in the country last Thursday evening by about forty of their neighbors and friends. The surprise was complete too. They were presented with a beautiful silver sugar shell and meat fork by the guests. The family left on Wednesday evening for Colorado, the best wishes of neighbors going with them.

W. H. King has given up his position with Pickett the Clothier and left Monday for Chicago, having taken a position with the Spenny Motor Car Co. of Holland, Mich. Charles A. Speeny, former general manager of the Woodstock & Sycamore Traction Co. and one of the promoters, is president of the new motor company. At the present time no machines are being made, but the forces are out selling stock. The car will sell for about $2500.

Houses for rent or sale, all well located in city of Genoa. Now is the time to buy if you want real bargains. Inquire of Exchange Bank of Brown & Brown. 48tf

See Dr. Barber, optician, at Dr. Mordoff's office, Tuesday, November 19

Granite ware as good as the best at a less price at Perkin's & Rosenfeld's.

Mrs. D. S. Brown is seriously ill with neuritis and inflammatory rheumatism.

It's worth your while to read F. W. Olmsted's add and see the special bargains.

Want a heating stove? Perkins & Rosenfeld are in position to give you a few pointers on this subject and quote prices which are right.

Alex. Wagner of Sac City, Iowa, and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Gneiss, of Chicago spent several days last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Emma Olmsted.

Charlie Maderer is again employed at F. W. Olmsted's store. Every one knows his ability as a salesman. He will have special charge of the shoe department.

It is not necessary nor advisable to go out of town to get a watch. Martin will sell you an Elgin movement, 15 jewel, 16 size, in a twenty year case for $12.00. This is a rare bargain and cannot be duplicated elsewhere. Also remember that Martin's unqualified guarantee goes with the watch. He'll be glad to talk to you about it.

Last Friday evening the Rebeckahs held a "shower" at the Odd Fellow hall for Mrs. E. C. Oberg, she being presented with many articles of use in the household. On Saturday the Eastern Stars also presented Mrs. Oberg with numerous articles. The Oberg home at Fairdale was recently destroyed by fire, every article of furniture being consumed.

Agents Wanted

Highest cash paid weekly and part expenses. Outfit Free. Home territory. Experience unnecessary. Under our plan you can make $20.00 per week and up, over and above expenses. Write at once. Hawks Nursey Co. Wauwatosa, Wis. 84t *

Agents Wanted

Highest cash paid weekly and part expenses. Outfit Free. Home territory. Experience unnecessary. Under our plan you can make $20.00 per week and up, over and above expenses. Write at once. Hawks Nursey Co. Wauwatosa, Wis. 84t *

Highest cash paid weekly and part expenses. Outfit Free. Home territory. Experience unnecessary. Under our plan you can make $20.00 per week and up, over and above expenses. Write at once. Hawks Nursey Co. Wauwatosa, Wis. 84t *

Highest cash paid weekly and part expenses. Outfit Free. Home territory. Experience unnecessary. Under our plan you can make $20.00 per week and up, over and above expenses. Write at once. Hawks Nursey Co. Wauwatosa, Wis. 84t *

Millinery Sale

75 hats worth $4. and $5, all $2.98 on sale for

25 Ladies' Coats

Put on sale at $10.00

50 Dress Skirts

Last seasons' wool Dress Skirts, 2.98 $6 and 7.50 values, on sale at 2.98

New Is Your Time To Get A Good All Wool Skirt at 1-3 Price

WHAT YOU WANT FOR COLD WEATHER:

Underwear for women, children, boys. In Union Suits for 50c 75c $1.00 $1.25 and $2.00 With long, short or half sleeve.

Pants and Vests each 25c to $1 Extra Sizes a Specialty

Blankets Heavy fleeced Blankets, a good assortment at from 98c to $2

Shoes and Rubbers Shoes in Suedes, Velvets, Dull Kids, Patent, with low, medium and high heel. The new Baby Doll Shoe in all sizes, Children's School and Dress Shoes, for boys and girls. Rubbers for everyone.

Furs New $3 to $15 Muffs from $3 to $15 Fur Sets at ALL PRICES Our Furs come direct from manufacturers.

Hosiery, light, medium and heavy Hosiery for children and women, also the extra sizes. Wool and fleeced Hosiery.

Bath Robes, heavy valu. special $2.48 Dressing Sacks, House Dresses etc.

Flanneletts a new assortment in light and dark shades. Tennis Flannels in heavy gray and Light 10 12 14c

Gloves and Mittens for Ladies and Children. Come and see our assortment. Sizes for every one.

Furs New $3 to $15 Muffs from $3 to $15 Fur Sets at ALL PRICES Our Furs come direct from manufacturers.

Hosiery, light, medium and heavy Hosiery for children and women, also the extra sizes. Wool and fleeced Hosiery.

Dress Goods New Brocades in Wool Materials, per yard 98c

Fancy Black and White Checks, 50c

Wool 54" 1.29 $1.75

25c 50c $1.

Infants Wear See our line of Coats, etc.

New Waists Black Messaline, lace Waists. The very latest

Dresses in all Wool. See Every week we have a new assortment and our line is new and up to date.

Batton, Curtain Materials, Basement bargains.

F. W. Olmsted, GENOA ILLS.

WE SELL
The Best Lumber
You Ever Sawed!

We Are Trying To
Hammer Home
The Fact

That We want Your Trade!
We Have Tried to Make it Plain in Our ADZ

That We Will Treat You Square!

That Augurs Well
For Our Patrons
And You Will Find That

Our Statements
COME RIGHT UP

To the Chalk Mark

We Sell at Right Prices

Lumber, Lath,
Post, Shingles,
Sash, Doors,
Blinds.

Cement, Lime,
Plaster, Roofing,
Drain Tile,
Brick, Etc., Etc.

Tibbits, Cameron Lumber Co., Genoa, Illinois.

FRAN

BY JOHN BRECKENRIDGE ELLIS

ILLUSTRATIONS BY O. IRWIN MYERS

(COPYRIGHT 1912 BOBBS-MERRILL CO.)

SYNOPSIS.

Fran arrives at Hamilton Gregory's home in Littleburg, but finds him absent conducting the choir at a camp meeting. She repairs further in search of him, laughs during the service and is asked to leave. Abbott Ashton, superintendent of schools, escorts Fran from the tent. He tells her Gregory is a wealthy man, deeply interested in charity work, and a pillar of the church. Ashton becomes greatly interested in Fran and while taking leave of her, holds her hand and is seen by Sapphira Clinton, sister of Robert Clinton, chairman of the school board. Fran tells Gregory she wants a home with him. Grace Noir, Gregory's private secretary, takes a violent dislike to Fran and advises her to go away at once. Fran hints at a twenty-year-old secret, and Gregory in agitation asks Grace to leave the room. Fran relates the story of how Gregory married a girl at Springfield while attending college and then deserted her. Fran is the child of that marriage. Gregory had married his present wife three years before the death of Fran's mother. Fran takes a liking to Mrs. Gregory. Gregory insists on her making her home with them and takes her to her arms. The breach between Fran and Grace widens. It is decided that Fran must go to school. Grace shows persistent interest in Gregory's story of his dead friend and hints that Fran may be an impostor. She threatens to marry Bob Clinton and leave Gregory's service, much to the latter's dismay. Fran declares that the secretary must go. Grace begins making tactics in an effort to drive Fran from the Gregory home, but Mrs. Gregory remains staunch in her friendship.

CHAPTER X.—Continued.

Miss Sapphira was highly gratified. "I wish you'd talked this reasonable at first. It's always what people don't see that the most harm comes of. I'll give a little tea out here on the veranda, and the worst talkers in town will be in these chairs when you bring Fran away from Abbott's office. And I'll explain it all to 'em, and they'll know Abbott is all right, just as I've always known."

"Get Miss Grace to come," Bob said sheepishly. "She doesn't like Fran, and she'll be glad to know Abbott is doing his duty by her. Later, I'll drop in and have a bite with you."

This, then, was Bob's "idea," that no stone might be left unturned to hide the perfect innocence of the superintendent. He had known Abbott Ashton as a bare-legged urchin running on errands for his widowed mother. He had watched him through studious years, had believed in his future career—and no, no bold adventures, though adopted into Hamilton Gregory's home, should be allowed to spoil Abbott's chances of success.

In his official character as chairman of the board, Robert Clinton marched with dignity into the superintendent's office, meaning to bear away the wilted Fran before the eyes of woman. Abbott Ashton saw him enter with a sense of relief. The young man could not understand why he had held Fran's hand, that night on the footbridge. Not only had the sentiment of that hour passed away, but the interview Fran had forced upon him at the close of a recent school day, had inspired him with actual hostility. It seemed the irony of fate that a mere child, a stranger, should, because of senseless gossip, endanger his chances of reappointment—a reappointment which he felt certain was the best possible means of advancement. Why had he held Fran's little hand? He had never dreamed of holding Grace's—ah, there was a hand, indeed!

"Has she been sent down?" Bob

"Did I Get—What?" He Returned With a Puzzled Frown.

asked, in the hoarse undertone of a fellow-conspirator.

"No," Abbott was eager to prove his innocence. "I haven't seen a sign of her, but I'm looking every minute—glad you're here."

Confidences were impracticable, because of a tousled-headed, ink-stained pupil who gloomed in a corner.

"Why, hello, there, Jakey!" cried Clinton, disconcerted; he had hoped that Fran's subjugation might take place without witnesses. "What are you doing here, hey?"

"Waitin' to be whipped," was the defiant rejoinder.

"Tell the professor you're sorry for what you've done, so you can run along," said the chairman of the board persuasively.

"Naw, I ain't sorry," returned Jakey, hands in pockets. Then bethinking himself—"But I ain't done nothin'."

Abbott said regretfully, "He'll have to be whipped."

Clinton nodded, and sat down solemnly, breathing hard. Abbott was restlessly pacing the floor, and Bob was staring at him unblinkingly, when the door opened and in came Fran.

Fran walked up to Abbott hesitatingly, and spoke with the indistinctness of awed humility. "You are to punish me," she explained, "by making me work out this original proposition—showing the book—and you are to keep me here till I get it."

Abbott asked sternly, "Did Miss Bull send me this message?"

"She is named that," Fran murmured, her eyes fastened on the open page.

From the yard came the shouts of children, breaking the bonds of learning for a wider freedom. Abbott, gazing severely on this slip of a girl, found her decidedly commonplace in appearance. How the moonlight must have bewitched him! He rejoiced that Robert Clinton was there to witness his indifference.

"This is the problem," Fran said, with exceeding primness, pronouncing the word as if it were too large for her, and holding up the book with a slender finger placed upon certain italicized words.

"Let me see it," said Abbott, with professional dryness. He grasped the book to read the proposition. His hand was against hers, but she did not draw away, for had she done so, how could he have found the place?

Fran, with uplifted eyes, spoke in the plaintive accents of a five-year-old child. "Right there, sir . . . it's awful hard."

Robert Clinton cleared his throat and produced a sound bursting with accumulated h's and r's—his warning passed unheeded.

Never before had Abbott had so much of Fran. The capillaries of his skin, as her hand quivered warmly against his, seemed drawing her in; and as she escaped from her splendid black orbs, she entered his brain by the avenue of his own thirsty eyes. What was the use to tell himself that she was commonplace, that his position was in danger because of her? Suddenly her hair fell slantwise past the corners of her eyes, making a triangle of smooth white skin to the roots of the hair, and it seemed good, just because it was Fran's way and not after a machine-turned fashion; Fran was done by hand, there was no doubt of that.

"Sit there," Abbott said, gravely pointing. She obeyed without a word, leaving the geometry as hostage in the teacher's hand. When seated at a discreet distance, she looked over at Bob Clinton. He hastily drew on his spectacles, that he might look old.

Abbott volunteered, "This is Mr. Clinton, President of the Board."

"I know," said Fran, staring at her pencil and paper, "he's at the head of the show, and watches when the wild animals are tamed."

Clinton drew forth a newspaper, and opened it deliberately.

Fran scribbled for some time, then looked over at him again. "Did you get it?" she asked, with mild interest. "Did I get—what?" he returned, with puzzled frown.

"Oh, I don't know what it is," said Fran with humility; "the name of it's 'Religion.'"

"If I were you," Clinton returned, flushing, "I'd be ashamed to refer to the night you disgraced yourself by laughing in the tent."

"Fran," Abbott interposed severely, "attend to your work."

Fran bent her head over the desk, but was not long silent. "I don't like a-b-c and d-e-f," she observed with more energy than she had hitherto displayed. "They're equal to each other, but I don't know why, and I don't care, because it doesn't seem to matter. Nothing interests me unless it has something to do with living. These angles and lines are nothing to me; what I care for is this time I'm wasting, sitting in a stuffy old room, while the good big world is enjoying itself just outside the window." She started up impetuously.

"Sit down!" Abbott commanded. "Fran!" exclaimed Robert Clinton, stamping his foot, "sit down!"

Fran sank back upon the bench. "I suspect," said Abbott mildly, "that they have put you in classes too far advanced. We must try you in another room—"

"But I don't want to be tried in rooms," Fran explained, "I want to be tried in acts—deeds. Until I came here, I'd never been to school a day in my life," she went on in a confidential tone. "I agreed to attend because I imagined school ought to have some connection with life—something in it mixed up with love and friendship and justice and mercy. Wasn't I silly! I even believed—just fancy!—that you might really teach me something about religion. But, no! it's all books, nothing but books."

"Fran," Abbott reasoned, "if we put you in a room where you can understand the things we try to teach, if we make you thorough—"

"I don't want to be thorough," she explained, "I want to be happy. I guess all that schools were meant to do is to teach folks what's in books, and how to stand in a straight line. The children in Class A, or Class B have their minds sheared and pruned to look alike; but I don't want my brain after anybody's pattern."

"You'll regret this, Miss," declared Clinton, in a threatening tone. "You sit down. Do you want the name of being expelled?"

"I don't care very much about the names of things," said Fran coolly; "there are lots of respectable names that hide wickedness." Her tone changed: "But wonder's another wild animal for you to train; did you come to see him beaten?" She darted to the corner, and seated herself beside Jakey.

"Don't You See That You Are Holding Up Ignorance as a Virtue?"

"Say, now," Bob remonstrated, pulling his mustache deprecatingly, "everybody knows I wouldn't see a dog hurt if it could be helped. I'm Jakey's friend, and I'd be yours, Fran—honestly—if I could. But how's a school to be run without authority? You ain't reasonable. All we want of you is to be biddable."

"And you!" cried Fran to Abbott, beginning to give way to high pressure, "I thought you were a school-teacher, not just, but also—a something very nice, also a teacher. But not you. Teacher's all you are, just rules and regulations and authority and chalk and a-b-c and d-e-f."

Abbott crimsoned. Was she right? Was he not something very nice plus his vocation? He found himself desperately wishing that she might think so.

Fran, after one long glowing look at him, turned to the lad in disgrace, and placed her hand upon his stubborn arm. "Have you a mother?" she asked wistfully.

"Yeh," mumbled the lad, astonished at finding himself addressed, not as an ink-stained hulk of humanity, but as an understanding soul.

"I haven't," said Fran softly, talking to him as if unconscious of the presence of two listening men, "but I had one, a few years ago—and, oh, it seems so long since she died. Jakey—three years is a pretty long time to be without a mother. And you can't think what a fault-blinded, spoilingest, candiest mother she was. I'm glad yours is living, for you still have the chance to make her proud and happy."

No matter how fine I may turn out—do you reckon I'll ever be admired by anybody, Jakey? Huh! I guess not. But if I were, mother wouldn't be here to enjoy it. Won't you tell Professor Ashton that you are sorry?"

"Fran—" Abbott began.

Fran made a mouth at him. "I don't belong to your school any more," she informed him. "Mr. School Director can tell you the name of what he can do to me; he'll find it classified under the E's."

After this explosion, she turned again to the lad: "I saw you punch that boy, Jakey, and I heard you say you didn't, and yet it was a good punch. What made you deny it? Punctures aren't bad ideas. If I could strike out like you did, I'd wait till I saw a man bullying a weaker one, and I'd stand up to him." Fran leaped impulsively to her feet, and doubled her arm—"and I'd let her land! Punching's a good thing, and, oh, how it's needed. . . . Except at school—you mustn't do anything human here, you must be an oyster at school."

"A-wright," said Jakey, with a glimmering of comprehension. He seemed coming to life, as if sap were trickling from winter-congealment.

Bob Clinton, too, felt the fresh breeze or early spring in his face. He removed his spectacles.

"The first thing I knew," Fran said, resuming her private conversation with Jakey, "I had a mother, but no father—not that he was dead, oh, bless you, he was alive enough—but before my birth he deserted mother. Uncle turned us out of the house. Did we starve, that deserted mother and her little baby? I don't look starved, do I? Pshaw! If a woman without a cent to her name, and ten pounds in her arms can make good, what about a big strong boy like you with a mother to smile every time he hits the mark? Tell these gentlemen you're sorry for punching that boy."

"Sorr," muttered Jakey shamefacedly.

"I am glad to hear it," Abbott exclaimed heartily. "You can take your cap to go, Jakey."

"Lemme stay," Jakey pleaded, not budging an inch.

Fran lifted her face above the tousled head to look at Abbott; she sucked in her cheeks and made a triumphant oval of her mouth. Then she seemed to forget the young man's presence.

"But when mother died, real trouble began. It was always hard work, while she lived, but hard work isn't trouble, is it, now, trouble's just an empty heart! Well, sir, when I read about how good Mr. Hamilton Gregory is, and how much he gives away—to folks he never sees—here I came. But I don't seem to belong to anybody, Jakey, I'm outside of everything. But you have a home and a mother, Jakey, and a place in the world, so I say 'Hurray!' because you belong to somebody, and, best of all, you're not a girl, but a boy to strike out straight from the shoulder."

Jakey was dissolved; tears burst from his confines.

One may shout oneself hoarse at the delivery of a speech which, if served upon printed page, would never prompt the reader to cast his hat to the ceiling. No mere print under bold headlines did Abbott read, but rather the changing lights and shadows in great black eyes. It was marvelous how Fran could project past experiences upon the screen of the listener's perception. At her, "When mother died," Abbott saw the girl weeping beside the death-bed. When she sighed, "I don't belong to anybody," the school director felt like crying: "Then belong to me!"

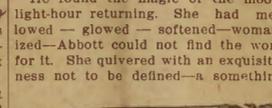

Fran now completed her work. She rose from the immovable Jakey and came over to Abbott Ashton, with meekly folded hands.

He found the magic of the moonlight-hour returning. She had melted—glowed—softened—womanized—Abbott could not find the word for it. She quivered with an exquisite tenderness not to be defined—a something hours. You may have heard a great lawyer in action in a crowded courtroom. What was the secret of his power? It was that he would not let the jury's attention or the witness' tongue wander from the relevant facts. He kept insistently to the straight line that is the shortest distance from point to point. He curtly dismissed all that was superfluous, immaterial and calculated to blur the salient outlines of the matter in controversy.

Anesthetized Rejection Slip. Elizabeth Jordan said that with all the manuscripts the late Margaret E. Sangster had occasion to refer, not one ever carried a heartache with it.

She saw everyone who wanted to see her, receiving all callers. She was greatly interested in young writers. And when they had no writing gift, tactfully she would set them going on in some other direction. Perhaps some woman who had brought her poor little efforts to Mrs. Sangster could bake sweetmeats, though she couldn't write. Then would Mrs. Sangster work around among the club women she knew until she got sufficient orders for sweetmeats to give that woman employment.—Christian Herald

YOUR MIND ON YOUR WORK

Man Who Makes Good Is One Who Can Shut Out of Mind All but One Thing.

The man who makes good is the man who can shut out of his mind all but one thing. An unsuccessful principal of a school once said that every teacher ought to be able to do three things at once. Of course, he was wrong. The teacher who does one thing at a time and does it well is giving the pupil the best possible object lesson in concentration.

We have to learn to think clearly amid distracting noises, to go forward on a straight and narrow way without diversions and excursions that waste our time and our substance, and to keep at work regardless of the "tired" feeling, the "spring" feeling, and whether the fishing is good or not. When the soft breeze comes in at the window we stiffen the moral fiber against its allurements. We must pin our attention firmly to the turgid and dry geometry of a legal brief, or the scribbled figures of the daybook, or the busy system of a mercantile establishment, and let every other thought await its turn at the end of office

HOLD UP A TRAIN; FORGET DYNAMITE

Bold Bandits Stopped the Express All Right, but Missed the Booty.

MEMORY'S LOSS FATAL

Explosive, Most Important Item in Train Robbers' Equipment, Lay a Mile Away When Time Came to Blow Up the Safe.

Homestake, Mont.—Residents of this town are laughing over the discomfiture of three bold bandits, who, after holding up a train and preparing to dynamite the express car safe, discovered that the explosive had been left behind. Firing a few shots to convince the chuckling engineer and fireman that they were real brigands, despite their poor memories, the men rode off into the forests to hide their shame.

The train holdup itself was of the regular frontier order. The denouement, however, proved the greatest farce ever enacted in that robber-ridden region of pioneer days. In the tall grass a mile and a half west of Homestake, the bandits had deposited half a wagonload of paraphernalia when no one was looking. There were torpedoes, masks and automatic pistols, but most important of all, dynamite.

Equipped as they thought for final action, the men awaited the arrival of a limited train on the Northern Pacific. Torpedoes were exploded at the opportune time. When the engineer and fireman blithely skipped down the locomotive step the robbers were there to meet them and give orders. Within a minute the express car was uncoupled from the rest of the train and with masked bandits aboard, the locomotive was run through the tunnel.

Four hundred feet beyond the tunnel exit, the highwayman chief commanded the engineer to stop. The order was obeyed and the engineer turned to face his "superior officer." By the light of the firebox he saw the bandit was perplexed.

"What's the matter, boss?" he asked. Ignoring the inquiry, the robber chieftain said to his confederates: "I've forgotten the dynamite; it's back with the train."

"Tee hee," twittered the engineer. "A fine specimen you are," said the fireman. "We'll go back and get it for you."

"Make 'em run back," said one robber, but his chief objected. "Everybody in those cars will be awaiting with cannons," he said. "The job's near tragedy. A Pittsburgh millionaire stood beside his $500,000 automobile wondering where to go next.

A woman whom he had known rushed out of the hotel and sought to solve this problem for him in a hurry. She shot at him, but, of course, she did not hit him.

Instead the bullet punctured the chauffeur's leg.

"Great guns, that was a narrow escape!" exclaimed the millionaire. "She might have punctured a tire!"

Mrs. Meekton's Position. "Supposing," said Mr. Meekton, "that you were a voter."

"Well?" rejoined his wife. "And suppose I were a candidate." "You want to know whether I would vote for you?"

"That was the question I had in mind."

"Yes, Leonidas; I should vote for you. But if I caught any other women voting for you I should consider their action very forward and impertinent!"—Washington Star.

Seedy Looking, But Oh My! Rebukes Fresh Clerk Who Asks: "How Much Do You Want, 35 Cents' Worth?"

San Francisco, Cal.—Trailing a heavy, soiled canvas sack, a seedy-looking individual, whose name is withheld, sauntered into County Treasurer McDougald's office and asked if the bonds recently voted to extend San Francisco's municipal railway had been placed on sale. A youthful clerk waited on the stranger.

"Yeh," said the clerk, sizing up his questioner. "How much do you want, about 35 cents' worth?"

The man slammed his sack down on the table. Then he began stacking up $20 gold pieces.

"I reckon, young feller," he said, "that I want about $25,000 worth, but I won't do business with you."

Treasurer McDougald closed the deal within fifteen minutes.

"Now if you will turn over to me about $1,000,000 worth more, I will take them. I have application on file now for that amount."

"All right," said McDougald; "call around Tuesday and get 'em."

Indict Surgeons. Philadelphia.—Four surgeons in the University of Pennsylvania were indicted by the October grand jury, charged with unnecessary cruelty to dogs in experimental work.

W. B.

Elastine
Reduso
CURSES
GIVE
STOUT FIGURES
SLENDER LINES without discomfort
$3.00 UP

Guaranteed to reduce hips and abdomen 1 to 3 inches. Elastic girths provide comfort and ease.

W. B. Nuform Corsets

Low bust—extreme length over hips; giving long figure lines. Selected materials, delicately trimmed. Guaranteed not to rust. Price, $1.00 up. At your dealers or direct, postpaid. Art catalogue free for dealer's name.

WEINGARTEN BROTHERS, Chicago, Ill.

Perfect Digestion

depends upon the integrity of the liver.

IF YOUR LIVER IS TORPID

WILL WAKE IT UP AND YOUR SYSTEM WILL NOT RUN DOWN.

W. N. U., CHICAGO, NO. 46-1913.

A woman with big feet is partial to long skirts.

Every guest who cannot play always tries the hotel piano.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children's teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, 25c a bottle.

The Reason. "A musical comedy is a gamble." "I guess that is why they have book-makers in that, too."

During the Spat. "John, there's just one thing I want to say to you!"

"What's the matter, M'ria? Aren't you feeling well?"—Puck.

Willing to Oblige. Lady of the House (to persistent peddler)—If you don't go away immediately, I shall whistle for the dog.

Peddler (calmly)—Then let me sell you a whistle, mum.—Lippincott's.

Not Fit, But Fitting. "She must dress in all the latest styles."

"What makes you think so?" "I just overheard her telling a friend that she hadn't a thing fit to wear."—Detroit Free Press.

Near Tragedy. A Pittsburgh millionaire stood beside his $500,000 automobile wondering where to go next.

A woman whom he had known rushed out of the hotel and sought to solve this problem for him in a hurry. She shot at him, but, of course, she did not hit him.

Instead the bullet punctured the chauffeur's leg.

"Great guns, that was a narrow escape!" exclaimed the millionaire. "She might have punctured a tire!"

Mrs. Meekton's Position. "Supposing," said Mr. Meekton, "that you were a voter."

"Well?" rejoined his wife. "And suppose I were a candidate." "You want to know whether I would vote for you?"

"That was the question I had in mind."

"Yes, Leonidas; I should vote for you. But if I caught any other women voting for you I should consider their action very forward and impertinent!"—Washington Star.

Seedy Looking, But Oh My! Rebukes Fresh Clerk Who Asks: "How Much Do You Want, 35 Cents' Worth?"

San Francisco, Cal.—Trailing a heavy, soiled canvas sack, a seedy-looking individual, whose name is withheld, sauntered into County Treasurer McDougald's office and asked if the bonds recently voted to extend San Francisco's municipal railway had been placed on sale. A youthful clerk waited on the stranger.

"Yeh," said the clerk, sizing up his questioner. "How much do you want, about 35 cents' worth?"

The man slammed his sack down on the table. Then he began stacking up $20 gold pieces.

"I reckon, young feller," he said, "that I want about $25,000 worth, but I won't do business with you."

Treasurer McDougald closed the deal within fifteen minutes.

"Now if you will turn over to me about $1,000,000 worth more, I will take them. I have application on file now for that amount."

"All right," said McDougald; "call around Tuesday and get 'em."

Indict Surgeons. Philadelphia.—Four surgeons in the University of Pennsylvania were indicted by the October grand jury, charged with unnecessary cruelty to dogs in experimental work.

Toasted to a Golden Brown!

Sounds "smacking good," doesn't it?

That's

Post Toasties

Tender thin bits of the best parts of Indian Corn, perfectly cooked at the factory, and ready to eat direct from the package—fresh, crisp and clean.

There's a delicate sweetness about "Toasties" that make them the favorite flaked cereal at thousands of breakfast tables daily.

Post Toasties with cream and a sprinkling of sugar—

Delicious

Wholesome

Easy to serve

Sold by Grocers everywhere

Pain in Back and Rheumatism

are the daily torment of thousands. To effectually cure these troubles you must remove the cause. Foley Kidney Pills begin to work for you from the first dose, and exert so direct and beneficial an action in the kidneys and bladder that the pain and torment of kidney trouble soon disappears.

Magnificent Crops in All Western Canada Is 1913 Record

All parts of the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, have produced wonderful yields of wheat, oats, barley and flax. Wheat graded from 30 to 45 bushels per acre; 22 bushels was about the total average. Mixed Farming may be considered fully as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses full of nutrition are the only food required either for beef or dairy purposes. In 1912 at Chicago, Western Canada carried off the Championship for beef steers. Climate excellent for the grower. Canada offers the biggest opportunity of any place on the continent. Apply for descriptive literature and reduced railway rates to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or C. J. Neumann, 412 North LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill. M. J. McLean, 170 Jefferson Ave., Detroit.

Raw Furs

We want shipments of Raw Furs from those who have tried other houses and were disappointed. Trapping is hard work and you should get every cent your furs are worth. That is what we give you. "You sent me $20.43 more than my old situation for my raw furs," writes H. S. Gray, Gray, Mich. Ask him.

Mr. Geo. J. Thiesen, well-known author of trapping articles and guides. These work you have read in the magazines, is our Consignment Manager. Write him about your shipments. Woman's "Trapper's Guide" and a bottle of Thiesen's Animal Attractor Free to our shippers on request.

Your Liver Is Clogged Up

That's Why You're Tired—Out of Sorts—Have No Appetite. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will put you right in a few days. They do their duty. Cure Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and Sick Headache. SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE. Genuine must bear Signature.

THICK, SWOLLEN GLANDS that make a horse Wheeze, Roar, have Thick Wind or Choke-down, can be reduced with ABSORBINE. also any Bunch or Swelling. No blister, no hair gone, and horse kept at work. Concentrated—only a few drops required at an application. $2 per bottle delivered. Book 3 K free. ABSORBINE, JR., antiseptic liniment for mankind, reduces Cysts, Wens, Painful, Knotted Varicose Veins, Ulcers. $1 and $2 a bottle at dealers or delivered. Book "Evidence" free. W. F. YOUNG, P. O. F., 310 Temple St., Springfield, Mass.

BOOK BARGAIN CATALOG HOLIDAY BOOKS & BOOKS IN SETS AT UNHEARD-OF PRICES. Send postal today for Catalog 50 THE TABARD INN BOOK COMPANY 1302 Filbert St. Philadelphia

WANTED We will pay you a splendid salary or liberal commission and give you a share of our profits. Make $5.00 to $10.00 daily. Customers buy eagerly when shown remarkable advertising plan and 10 low priced articles with which you give valuable premiums. Now, up-to-date, beautifully illustrated, 12 page catalog with your name on cover supplied for distribution among your customers. Our new plan brings you orders by mail. Grow rich, fast, reason now. Write quickly for absolutely sure money-making opportunity. BEST MFG. CO., Box 555, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

READERS of this paper desirous of buying any article advertised in its columns should insist upon having what they ask for, refusing all substitutes or imitations. PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Wash. D.C. Books free. High-fee references. Best results. Pettitt's Eye Salve TONIC FOR EYES Farm Bargains Famous St. Charles Co. grain and stock farms; richest Missouri lands. Send for list. Percy Alexander, St. Charles, Mo.

PISO'S REMEDY Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by Druggists. FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

WORK IN THE GARDEN IS NOT YET OVER

Place Cold Frames in a Sunny Spot in the Garden and Get an Early Start With the Spring Vegetables.

Just because frost has come, it is no sign there is nothing more to do in the garden. If a good thick coating of mulch is put over the asparagus, rhubarb and other plants of this nature, they will make a much earlier start in the spring than if left bare during the winter.

Leave the mulch on until all danger of freezing is over in the spring, but do not remove on a bright, sunny day. The cold frame is a great thing for getting an early start with vegetables in the spring. They should be placed in a sunny spot in the garden, well protected from the north wind, and filled with loose soil under-laid with about four inches of half rotted manure.

Sow the seeds of lettuce, radishes and other vegetables of this kind in the fall and cover very lightly with earth. Over this, place a deep cover of litter and lay it on thick enough to keep out the frost.

Next spring you will be surprised to see these vegetables coming up through the ground when you take off the mulch. They will have from one to two weeks' start over those started in the spring.

Come to think of it, this is pretty near the way nature takes care of seeds in winter. They fall from the plant, bury themselves in the soil, and the wind covers them with a mulch of leaves and grass.

For the window boxes in which to start vegetables next spring, take up now a quantity of loose rich soil and burn it to kill all vegetable life. This can be done by burning wood over the soil before it is taken up, or the soil itself on a piece of sheet iron over a fire. Put this in a barrel and keep in a perfectly dry place. When your seeds come up from this soil next spring, they will be free from weeds. Many people do not believe in plowing their gardens in the fall, but we do. If plowed deeply in the late fall in very narrow furrows, all that will be necessary in the spring is a thorough disking or spading.

The garden should be disked as early as possible and allowed to lie a few days until the weeds get a good start and then they may be killed by vigorous raking. If this could be repeated two or three times before seeding, it would save many a backache during the summer.

A thin coating of coarse manure spread over the fall-plowed ground, will prevent leaching of its fertilizers and keep the garden in good condition.

Well rotted manure ought to be put on the ground in the fall just before plowing. If applied liberally, it is better than putting it on in the spring when the seeds are planted.

The strawberry bed ought to be prepared right now if you have not done it before. Spade the ground deeply, rake it thoroughly, and spade again, applying plenty of manure after the first spading.

Better by seed potatoes now. They are cheaper than they will be next March, and there is a larger stock to select from.

Turnips and carrots can be kept by packing in damp sand and placing them in the cellar. This prevents them from shriveling up.

Leave parsnips in the ground all winter. Freezing does not hurt them, but on the contrary, improves their flavor.—E. V. B.

GOOD PLANS FOR CONCRETE BUILDINGS

First Consideration Is to Determine Proper Proportion of Materials Needed.

(By O. P. PENNOCK, Colorado Agricultural College.)

The first thing to consider in any concrete structure is the proper proportion of materials. A simple method for determining the amounts necessary, is to apply the "water measurement."

Take a washtub and a small bucket and determine the number of buckets of sand necessary to fill or nearly fill the tub. Next determine the number of buckets of water that are necessary to entirely fill the voids in sand, being careful in this measurement to bring the water just to the surface of the sand. The number of buckets of water determines the amount of cement for the amount of sand measured. Next measure the broken stone or gravel into the tub the same as the sand in the first step, apply the water measurement, and this gives the amount of mixture of sand and cement necessary for the amount of broken stone used.

For example: Suppose we put 18 buckets of sand into the tub and it takes six buckets of water to fill the voids, then the proportion of cement to sand is six to eighteen, or one to three. Again, we put fifteen buckets of broken stone into the tub and find that it takes nine buckets of water to fill the voids, then the proportion of sand to broken stone is nine to fifteen or three to five. Our total mixture, therefore, would consist of one part cement, three parts sand and five parts broken stone.

Sour Food Kills Chickens. If you have lost a good many young chickens during the past season and can find no other reason, it may be you will remember they had access to sour food. This will kill them quickly.

Sows for Breeding. Select the largest, most perfectly built sows for breeding purposes. These are usually the ones we sell just because they will bring a dollar or two more.

Success With Grapes. Success with grape culture requires that a variety be selected that is adapted to the locality in which it is to be planted.

WILD MUSTARD IS HARMFUL NUISANCE

Solution of Granulated Iron Sulphate and Water Will Prove Quite Effective.

(By C. S. MILLER.)

What a nuisance mustard can be if it gets a good start. Here is a way to kill it. To cover an acre, empty a hundred pound sack of granulated iron sulphate (costs $11 per ton) into a fifty-two gallon barrel and fill with water; stir vigorously for a few minutes until the sulphate is in solution.

The solution can be put in a sprayer tank and used immediately or kept until the desired time for using.

Spray on a clear day. If rain follows soon, maybe you will have to spray again.

Daisies, cockle-burr, bind weed, rag weed, sheep sorrel, yellow dock and many other weed were partially or wholly eradicated from the fields where the tests were made for the extermination of mustard.

The grain fields should be sprayed when the mustard plants are in the third leaf or before the plants are in blossom in order to have the spray do the most effective work.

ALFALFA CROP IS VERY DEEP ROOTED

When Once Started Plant Needs Little Encouragement, Working All the Time.

Gasoline and oil help us to plow deep, but there are depths far beyond their reach needed by the plant roots. Just think of the alfalfa. It works for you all the time, day and night, through a long growing season, and the while pays a good rent for the land.

Alfalfa burns no oil, needs no harness, oats or driver; once started it continues its work till you plow it up, and gives you a field filled with nitrogen, and humus piped far deeper for any other crop roots than you could possibly accomplish with great cost. These things are worth considering before the alfalfa field is plowed up to make way for other crops which call for lots of work and expense.

RAN INTO A BIG SCHOOL OF SHARKS

Sea Captain's Tail of Thrilling Escape From Monster Man Eaters.

New York.—Capt. James J. Clarke of the steamship Advance brought his ship to port from the isthmus the other morning and unfolded a thrilling tale of sharks in the tropic sea. Captain Clarke has figured in many moving incidents in those southern waters. In 1908, when he captained the Colon, he brought the ship and her 500 passengers safely through a terrific tropical storm, simply by sailing into the geographical center of the storm. There is a lot more, but the shark story is the best as well as the freshest of the lot.

Well, stranger, Captain Clarke was sailing a small boat away out in Limon bay at four o'clock in the afternoon. That was about the time the sharks had finished their siestas and were thinking of lunch.

The captain sailed and sailed and these sharks looked at the gathering clouds and smiled and smiled and stuck around. Suddenly a squall hit the small boat and capsized it, hurling Captain Clarke into the water as the police slip said.

Paddled Ashore on His Overturned Boat.

The captain weighs 200 pounds and as he climbed astraddle of the center-board he regretted that he had flattered the fact in the faces of those who might now be expected to make the usual slurs about fat men.

The captain discovered that he had run into an inter-oceanic convention of sharks. They grinned and mowed, and flicked water on him until he was goaded to desperation and beyond. If Captain Clarke did draw his knife and slit the impertinent noses of ever so many of his tormentors one must allow that they brought it upon themselves.

A native who was battling about the bay in a cayuca saw what Captain Clarke was doing and had compassion on the sharks. He put out to restrain the captain. The best way, of course, was to get hold of Clarke and take him ashore. But the cayuca was so frail that the native could not get the big sailorman into it. So he gave the captain a paddle and reminded him of the cock fight that was coming off back of Celestino Reyes' cantina in Port Limon.

Then the captain paddled ashore on his overturned boat. And if those sharks ever bite again it will be with far less teeth.

SHE CLUCKS AS SHE SLEEPS

If This Nice Girl Were a Hen It Would Be the Proper Thing.

Los Angeles, Cal.—The case of little Anna Samaroff at the children's hospital has baffled not only the nurses, but physicians who attend that institution. In the daytime Annie is just as hale and hearty as can be, but before she has been asleep five minutes she is clucking like a hen.

Hour after hour Annie, apparently sleeping peacefully, will be heard uttering indescribable sounds, which are best conveyed as a monotonous "cluck, cluck, cluck." The night nurse, whose attention was first drawn to Annie's peculiarity, reported the matter to Miss Vannier, superintendent of the children's hospital, and it was then brought to the attention of the house physicians. For several nights following this discovery a careful watch was maintained over Annie, and every night the monotonous clucking would be repeated before the girl had been asleep five minutes.

She does not say the word cluck, but actually makes the same sound in her throat that a hen makes. Her mother was questioned upon her last visit to the hospital as to whether she could give any reason why Annie might have had this habit "thrust upon her." Mrs. Samaroff, however, could remember no circumstances that would lead to such a mysterious habit, and stated that she had not observed the clucking noise until after her daughter had been returned home from the county hospital, where she had been sent to have a broken leg treated.

MAN HE WAS LOOKING FOR

Mr. Cutlets Could Give Steady Job to Applicant With Such Qualification.

Mr. Underdone Cutlets, proprietor of the Speedy cafe, was notoriously hard-hearted. The most weeping widow who ever graced a melodrama could not have wept a slice of stale bread out of his restaurant without the price. So, when a pale and timorous man approached the desk and made a faltering appeal, it was no surprise to the lunch fiends to hear a curt "Nothing doing. Beat it." "I'm not a beggar," retorted the hungry man. "I'm willing to scrub floors or wash dishes. I'm just out of prison and nobody will give me work. I'm starving." The proprietor portrayed a faint interest. "What were you in for?" he asked idly. "I'll tell you the truth," explained the ex-convict. "I was a kind of a counterfeiter. I used to take a $100 bill and split it in two with a razor. Then, I'd paste the halves together, so I'd have two centuries, if the sucker didn't look on both sides. It took 'em five years to catch me." Mr. Cutlets beckoned the ex-prisoner behind the bar. "Order what you like on the house," he whispered. "I've got a steady job for you. I'll give you thirty a week to slice the ham for my sandwiches."—Lippincott's.

Needed Only the Beginning.

Anatole France once agreed to write an essay on Mollere. He repeatedly broke his promise to his publisher, who finally threatened him with legal proceedings unless a certain number of pages were delivered within a specified time. France hurried off to his lawyer, who was none other than Raymond Poincare, now president. M. Poincare heard his story and said that the author would better comply with the publisher's demand. "It's impossible," said France. "But you're a genius," was the reply. "Genius is infinite patience. I can't possibly do it in the time," said France. "Nevertheless begin," replied the advocate, "and we'll see." So Poincare dictated the first sentence, "Mollere is a Parisian," and added, "Go on from there." France was complacent, perhaps inspired by the suggestion of the words, and the brilliant piece of criticism was easily done in time.

Where He Was Lucky.

Two Little Rock negroes engaged in a quarrel, when one struck the other on the head with a wagon spoke. The negro that had received the blow rubbed his head for a moment and then said:

"Look yere, Stephen, dar's one thing dat is er powerful blessin' fur you."

"Whut's dat?"

"De fact dat my hair is ez thick ez it is. W'y, ef my hair wa'n't no thicker den de common run 'er hairs, dat lick would er killed me, an' den you would er been tuck befo' er justice 'o de peace an' fined mighty high $20. You'd better thank de Lawd dat I ain't got one dese yere aig shell hairs."

He Kept His Seat.

The suffragette was speaking. "I'll bet there ain't a man in this audience who ever did anything around the house for his wife. If there is a man in this room that ever made the fire, milked the cow, cleaned the windows and made the beds every day without a kick I'd like to see him, that's all."

But she forgot her husband was at the meeting. And he didn't dare stand up!

WHEN RUBBERS BECOME NECESSARY

And your shoes pinch, Allen's Foot-Ease, the Antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, is just the thing to use. Always use it for breaking in new shoes. Sold everywhere. Sample FREE. Address: A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. Don't accept any substitute. Advt.

Got Through Weighing.

"She weighed his words for some time."

"Yes, and then?"

"The scales fell from her eyes."

Mixed Up.

"Did that play make out in its run?"

"Yes, indeed! Why, it was a walk-over."

An English insurance company issues a policy covering damage done by militant suffragettes.

The most effective, yet simplest remedy for coughs is Dean's Mentholated Cough Drops—5c at Drug Stores.

But a woman doesn't care to boss the job if she can boss the boss.

JOHN ALSO NEEDED MONEY

As It Turned Out, Wife Need Not Have Been Afraid of What His Might Say.

It was Christmas eve. A beautiful woman sat staring dolefully at the embers of the fire. "Christmas eve," she murmured, and no money to buy baby a Christmas gift." Slowly her eyes wandered round the room until, with a guilty start, they rested on something standing on the mantelpiece.

It was baby's money box. Her hands clutched the chair convulsively. "If I only dared!" she murmured. "But what would John say?"

For a few moments she stood debating the awful question in her mind, and then she took the box in her hands. "John need never know," she whispered.

Then, with guilty face, she broke open the box and emptied on to the table a collection of—tin tacks, nails, etc. John had been there first.

Persuasion.

"No," said the timid man, "I don't want any flying machines today. I'm afraid of them."

"Why, sir," said the persuasive salesman, "a flying machine might save your life."

"How?"

"You might be out riding in one when an earthquake takes place."

Washington Star.

Any Way He Wanted.

The Professor—Boy, get me a fly.

New Page—Yes, sir. Dead or alive, sir?—Punch.

Have You a Bad Back?

Whenever you use your back, does a sharp pain hit you? Does your back ache constantly, feel sore and lame? It's a sign of sick kidneys, especially if the kidney action is disordered too, passages scanty or too frequent or of color. In neglect there is danger of dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Use Doan's Kidney Pills which have cured thousands.

AN IOWA CASE

Mrs. J. Hunt 106 South Sixth St., Fairfield, Ia., says: "My back was so lame and sore I couldn't do my housework. I was restless and the pains were awful. I had to go to bed and I couldn't turn over without help. My limbs were terribly swollen and I thought I was going to die. When I had almost given up, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They permanently cured me and today I am in the best of health."

Get Doan's at Any Store, 50c a Box. DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS FOSTER-MILBURN CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

AGENTS! BIG PROFITS AND BEAUTIFUL PREMIUMS

for selling the old reliable Japanese Oil (now called En-Ar-Co Oil) and our other standard Remedies. No Money Required. Write us at once for terms. NATIONAL REMEDY CO., 130 Charlton Street, New York City.

RAW FURS BUGHT—Write for it today

A. E. BURKHARDT International Fur Merchant IN BUSINESS SINCE 1907. Cincinnati, O.

900 DROPS CASTORIA ALCOHOL—3 PER CENT Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of INFANTS & CHILDREN Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral NOT NARCOTIC. Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK. 4 to 6 months old 35 Doses—35 CENTS. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act. Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hutchins In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

The Best Light for Any Home

Any authority on "eye-matters" will tell you that kerosene lamps are best for reading and studying. And the Rayo is the best of all Oil Lamps. Rayo Lamps now light three million American homes—the best evidence of their superiority. Let your dealer demonstrate and explain. Illustrated booklet free on request. Standard Oil Company, Chicago (AN INDIANA CORPORATION)

For PINK EYE DISTEMPER CATARRH FEVER AND ALL NOSE AND THROAT DISEASES Cures the sick and acts as a preventive for others. Ligated given on the tongue. Safe for brood mares and all others. Best kidney remedy; 50c and $1 a bottle; $5 and $10 a dozen. Sold by all druggists and horse goods houses, or sent, express paid, by the manufacturers. SPOHN MEDICAL CO., Chemlats, GOSHEN, INDIANA

CHEW AND SMOKE MAIL POUCH THE QUALITY TOBACCO

KINGSTON NEWS

FRED P. SMITH, CORRESPONDENT

Arthur Phelps was a Sycamore visitor last week.

Miss Clara Ackerman spent Saturday in Rockford.

F. H. Wilson was a Rockford visitor one day last week.

Clyde Ottman was home from Belvidere a few hours Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs. F. P. Smith entertained Charles Hoag of DeKalb Tuesday.

Frank Bradford was a caller in Belvidere Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Stark was a Chicago visitor Wednesday.

Robert Heldson was home from Chicago last Friday and Saturday.

Miss Hilma Swanson of Kirkland was a visitor in Kingston Tuesday.

Miss Edith Aurner came home from Stockton to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Georgia Walker was a guest of relatives in Sterling Saturday and Sunday.

Ralph Ort of Rockford visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ort, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Phelps and son Walter visited with relatives near Belvidere Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Burton and son Robert from Kirkland were Kingston callers Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. Heldson and sons from Belvidere, visited with relatives in Kingston Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Olson and son, Argyle, from Aurora, have been visiting at the Chell-green home for a few days.

Miss Florence Lilly of Durand, has been the guest at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Vickell for a few days.

Notice to Farmers—All wishing pulverizers sharpened for spring work—now is the time. I am prepared to do the work satisfactorily. JOHN S. HOWE. 817

Diphtheria cases have again developed in the vicinity of Kingston. Miss Dora Bell is now sick with it at the home of Chas. Gust avison north of Kingston. She has been teaching at the Arbuckle school, and the school is now closed. They are quarantined and every precaution is being taken.

Ray Uplinger visited at the homes of A. G. Prentice and Rev. E. K. D. Hester in Chicago last week. He also visited other friends while in the city.

There was no school held in Kingston last week Friday, on account of the teachers Misses Georgia Walker and Ada Lilly and Prof. H. A. Cross attending a Teachers Institute in Rockford.

Mrs. Lottie Whitney and daughters, Lila and Blanche, and Miss Rachel Slater of Belvidere, were calling on friends in Kingston Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. A. Myers returned to her home in Spring Valley Tuesday evening. She has been spending the past several months with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Smith in Kingston.

"The Cities of Refuge, a Type of Christ" will be the text of Rev. J. J. Pease's sermon at the Kingston Baptist church for next Sunday morning, Nov. 16. On last Sunday the same subject was preached on, and it is to be continued this Sunday. Mrs. C. G. Chellgreen will sing a solo. Everyone invited.

THE THANKSGIVING SALE BEGINS SATURDAY IN ELGIN'S MOST POPULAR STORE

This is our annual Thanksgiving Sale in which we usher in the Holiday season with offerings of Thanksgiving and Winter needs in most complete assortments and at most favorable prices, in many cases specially reduced for this occasion. Thanksgiving is above all other occasions the time when the careful housewife wishes her home to look bright, spick and span, and whatever she needs for the setting of the Thanksgiving feast. Fine linens, china, crystal and cut glass, silverware, and in the kitchen, roasters, pots, pans, etc., and for beautifying the home, furniture in sets and separate pieces, rugs, curtains, bedding—everything needed will be found in this good store in large assortments and at prices which make it to your advantage to purchase now. Practically every department in the store participates in this event with timely offerings of seasonable merchandise. Come NOW—it is your best time to purchase your needs for the entire winter season in wearables and articles for the home. We refund your carfare according to the amount of your purchase and serve luncheon FREE to our out-of-town patrons. THEO. F. SWAN.

Elgin's Most Popular Store.

Heating stoves at Perkins & Rosenfeld's.

THEO. F. SWAN.

Elgin's Most Popular Store.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THE THANKSGIVING SALE BEGINS SATURDAY IN ELGIN'S MOST POPULAR STORE

This is our annual Thanksgiving Sale in which we usher in the Holiday season with offerings of Thanksgiving and Winter needs in most complete assortments and at most favorable prices, in many cases specially reduced for this occasion. Thanksgiving is above all other occasions the time when the careful housewife wishes her home to look bright, spick and span, and whatever she needs for the setting of the Thanksgiving feast. Fine linens, china, crystal and cut glass, silverware, and in the kitchen, roasters, pots, pans, etc., and for beautifying the home, furniture in sets and separate pieces, rugs, curtains, bedding—everything needed will be found in this good store in large assortments and at prices which make it to your advantage to purchase now. Practically every department in the store participates in this event with timely offerings of seasonable merchandise. Come NOW—it is your best time to purchase your needs for the entire winter season in wearables and articles for the home. We refund your carfare according to the amount of your purchase and serve luncheon FREE to our out-of-town patrons. THEO. F. SWAN.

Elgin's Most Popular Store.

Heating stoves at Perkins & Rosenfeld's.

THEO. F. SWAN.

Elgin's Most Popular Store.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THE THANKSGIVING SALE BEGINS SATURDAY IN ELGIN'S MOST POPULAR STORE

This is our annual Thanksgiving Sale in which we usher in the Holiday season with offerings of Thanksgiving and Winter needs in most complete assortments and at most favorable prices, in many cases specially reduced for this occasion. Thanksgiving is above all other occasions the time when the careful housewife wishes her home to look bright, spick and span, and whatever she needs for the setting of the Thanksgiving feast. Fine linens, china, crystal and cut glass, silverware, and in the kitchen, roasters, pots, pans, etc., and for beautifying the home, furniture in sets and separate pieces, rugs, curtains, bedding—everything needed will be found in this good store in large assortments and at prices which make it to your advantage to purchase now. Practically every department in the store participates in this event with timely offerings of seasonable merchandise. Come NOW—it is your best time to purchase your needs for the entire winter season in wearables and articles for the home. We refund your carfare according to the amount of your purchase and serve luncheon FREE to our out-of-town patrons. THEO. F. SWAN.

Elgin's Most Popular Store.

Heating stoves at Perkins & Rosenfeld's.

THEO. F. SWAN.

Elgin's Most Popular Store.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

THEO. F. SWAN.

Auctioneer

FARM SALES A SPECIALTY

My record speaks for itself. Ask those who have engaged my services in the past. Am well acquainted with values of live stock and machinery and give the best there is in me at every sale. If you intend to have a sale call me by phone or drop me a card and I will look you up.

CHAS. SULLIVAN, MARENGO, ILL.

Warnings!
Hints! Reminders!
..on..
A Burning Subject!

You'll Not Get Stung

IF YOU BUY OUR COAL
Unless It Be By the Stinging Heat,

And That's a Pretty Good Thing

To Offset the
STINGING COLD OF WINTER WEATHER!

JACKMAN & SON

TELEPHONE 57

C. A. Patterson
DENTIST
Hours: 8:30 to 12:00 a. m.
1:00 to 5:00 p. m.
Office in Exchange Bank Building

Dr. J. W. Ovitz
Physician and Surgeon
Office over Cohoon's Store.
Hours: 10:00 to 12:00 a. m.
2:00 to 4:30 p. m.
Phone No. 11 7:00 to 8:30 p. m.

J. D. Corson D. V. M.
Veterinarian
Office and Hospital
Stott and Main Sts.
Phone 1762

EVALINE LODGE
No. 34
Meet 4th Tuesday of each month in L. O. O. F. Hall
J. W. Sowers, Prefect
Fannie M. Heed, Secy

Genoa Camp No. 163
M. W. A.
Meets second and fourth Thursdays of each month.
Visiting neighbors welcome
B. C. Awe, V. C. A. R. Slater, Clerk

SAW DENTIST
A. D. HADSALL
X cut saws 10c per lineal foot.
Hand and Buck saws, price according to condition of saw.

GENOA LODGE NO. 288
A. F. & A. M.
Meets second and fourth Wednesdays of each month
O. M. BARCUS, W. M.
T. M. Frazier Secy.

GENOA LODGE
No. 768
I. O. O. F.
Meets every Monday evening in Odd Fellow Hall.
W. L. ABRAHAM, J. W. Sowers, Sec.
N. G.

GENOA ENCAMPMENT
No. 121
Odd Fellows Hall
2nd and 4th Friday of each month
E. C. OBERG, Chief Patriarch
A. R. SLATER, Scribe

Genoa Nest No. 1017
Order of Owls
Meets 1st and 3rd Tuesdays Each Month
M. MALONA, Pres.
F. L. KOHLBURNER, Sec.

EASY LICE KILLER
Not Easy on The Lice, But EASY TO APPLY
Simply hang the open bottle of "LICECIL" in the chicken house and the fumes will put the lice out of business. It is the greatest insect killer on the market. Call and look over the directions and you will never again be pestered with the insect powder nuisance. It keeps the lice out of the nests and off the roosts.
IRA W. DOUGLASS Genoa, Illinois.
PHONE NO. 67

EGGE
"MAKES HENS LAY"
EGGE is a good, honest, reliable compound containing the most potent known medicine and tonic for poultry. It contains Embrace Phosphate, Blood Root, Calcium Phosphate, Alum, Sulphur, Sulphate of Iron, Bismuth, Charcoal, Gentian, Etc. It keeps poultry healthy and increases egg production, supplying the necessary albumen for the egg and phosphate for the shell. Egg is composed of 60 parts egg-forming material. 194 parts liver, kidney and bowel regulator. 14 parts tonic and food assimilator, 175 parts blood solvent and purifier. In each package is a booklet telling in simple every day language how to feed eggs, how to feed baby chicks, and the easiest way to treat poultry diseases—worth many dollars to poultry men. EGGE GUARANTEES cholera, roup, canker, limberneck, dip, green diarrhea, etc. If it does not cure your chickens grow like weeds. Very economical to use. Money back if it fails. Price $1.00 for large pkg. Your dealer will supply you. If he refuses send $1.00 per pkg., express prepaid. AGENTS WANTED Dept. W. H. METZGER MFG. CO., QUINCY, ILL.

I. W. DOUGLASS
General Merchandise and Drugs
Genoa, Illinois

Given Away
Gratis
The FREE SEWING MACHINES
In the Indiana and Ohio floods, the cyclone at Omaha, the Mississippi overflow and other disasters of the year 1913, thousands of were destroyed and new machines given away without cost to holders of The FREE insurance policy.
See Pictures in our Windows
Buy The FREE Sewing Machine and secure policy which protects the machine against loss by flood, tornado, cyclone, fire, breakage or any other cause. The only insured machine.
WE SELL IT

S. S. SLATER & SON
GENOA, ILLINOIS

W. H. BELL
AUCTIONEER
NINETEEN YEARS EXPERIENCE

I guarantee satisfaction. My past work speaks for itself. The fall season is now approaching. For dates and terms call or address
WM. H. BELL
Kingston, - Illinois.
County Phone No. 13.

AUCTION

Having rented her farm, the undersigned will sell at public auction on the premises, 3 miles east of Genoa and 7 miles west of Hampshire, on commencing at 1:00 o'clock p. m., the following described property:

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 19

- 4 heifers coming 3 yrs. old; 2 yearling heifers; 10 heifers, 8 mos. old, 1 red bull, 1 Hereford bull.
- 2 black mares, coming 5 yrs. old; grey mare, coming 4 yrs. old; black mare, 9 yrs. old; black gelding, 10 yrs. old; 3 mares, coming 3 yrs. old; sucking colt; family mare.
- 50 shots.

Farming implements consisting of binders, plows, seeders, cultivators and other machinery too numerous to mention.

Free lunch at noon.
Terms: 6 months at 7 per cent.
MARY E. HARRIS
Frank Yates, Auct.

Rather a "Tall" Yarn.
Ralph of Coggeshall, an English abbot of the thirteenth century, told a staggering yarn: The Orford fishermen brought up one day in their nets a sea man who had no hair on his head, but a long ragged beard. Kept in Orford castle, he ate fish and meat both raw and cooked, but could not be made to speak. Yet, when the fishermen took him out one day for a swim, though he dived under the nets which they spread to prevent his escape and grinned derisively at them, he followed them back to land and captivity. At last, however, the "wild man" had had enough of it, managed to escape to sea and disappeared.

Underwear Sales

Factory lots. Bargain values. Come and feel the goods. We try to explain and describe and what we say is dependable but feeling is believing.

- Men's heavy ribbed fleeced Underwear, in tan, blue, cream, 50c makes from the Royal mills, sale... 39c
- 2 garments... 75c
- Men's grey, all wool ribbed Shirts and Drawers, Hope mills, $1.00 makes at... 75c
- Ladies' fleeced Union Suits, all sizes... 39c
- Woman's heaviest fleeced Underwear... 40c
- Children's fleeced Underwear, sizes 26 10c
- 30 dozen Men's extra heavy all wool Buckskin Flannel Shirts and Drawers, bargain lot... $1.00
- Men's White, all wool Union Suits... $1.87
- Fall Hosiery Bargains
- Men's gray or black, light wool Hose 10c
- Infants pink, blue, white or black Hose, in wool... 5c
- Extra heavy Wool Socks, greys only 15c
- 4 pairs for... 50c
- Children's good weight Fleeced Hose... 10c
- Children's black Wool Hose, heavy, sizes 6 to 7 1/2... 15c
- Ladies' ribbed top hose... 10c
- Special-Ladies' black or grey, Wool Ribbed top Hose... 15c

Special 50c Sale

- Note Widths
- 40 in. Fancy Silkoline... 8c
- 36 in. goods... 5c
- 54 in. all wool Home-spun Suitings... 40c
- 54 in. Wool Basket Cloths
- 54 in. light weight, black wool serge
- 54 in. Bedford Cords; blues, tans, wines, reds, etc... 38c
- Silk Velvets: $1.25 and $1.50 grades good range of colors, including blacks 69c
- Silk Poppins, 36in. wide... 87c

Men's Values

- Overcoats
- Made by L. Abt, Chicago, and Bober Bros. New York. 3 to 10 coats of a kind, 53 lots, including Kerseys, Tibets, Chin-chillas, and Novelty Wools, shawl and military collars. Prices in many cases less than regular wholesale cost. $7.95 $10 12.95 $16

Women's second, ribbed top cotton hose 5

We show in all 62 varieties of hosiery.

Price making which will surprise every posted buyer. See the qualities.

- Yard Goods
- 27 size, mixed wools. Choice... 50c
- Gloves and Mittens
- 200 dozen mismatched Gloves and Mittens, all styles 20c 38c 40c
- The best at... 60c
- Special Sweaters
- An unusual offering of Ladies', Men's and Boys' Sweaters. Prices as low as ever made during any clean up sale. Over 300 Sweaters in this lot.
- Ladies' White Wool V-neck Sweater... 90c
- Ladies' extra grey wool Fleeced Sweaters... $1.50
- Ladies' and Misses' dark brown sweaters worsted... 80c
- Infants' Sweaters, assorted colors 50c 79c to $1.39
- Men's grey, red trimmed, Worsted Sweaters... 75c
- Men's plain grey, heavy weave cotton Sweaters... 50
- Boys' Maroon colored heavy knit Shawl Collar Sweaters... $1.30 $1.75
- Ladies Department
- Note values offered this week.
- Ladies' extra heavy, blue Chinchilla Cloaks, velvet collar and cuffs, latest cut-away style... $7.98

2-tone full satin lined

Boucle Cloaks... $11.87

Finest quality Ural Lamb Cloaks, full length, or cutaway styles, best of everything... $20.00

Special cloak offerings in tailored styles, full length, medium sizes... $1.98

Waists

Manufacturers' lot, all fall samples, 3 big lots: Lot 1... 25c

Lot 2... 50c