AN EXCELLENT SCHOOL

GENOA IS FORTUNATE IN ITS CORPS OF TEACHERS

Attendance Greater Than Ever Before
With Enrollment of 227 Pupils—New Improvements

It has been truthfully said that the school, press, church and home should co-operate in developing the minds of rising generations. Believing in this it has always been the policy of the writer to give unlimited space to the school question and it will continue to be the policy of the Republican-Journal to act as an agency in keeping the home in touch with the school work.

Genoa has a school that is rapidly forging to the front as one equal to any in the country. For these conditions we are indebted to a thoroly capable school board, a board that is fully awake to the needs of modern education. That it has used good judgment in selecting instructors is evident from the activity at the school. The superintendent, Mr. Stout, is boiling over with energy and he has succeeded in filling the entire school with a portion of his surplus enthusiasm. He is assisted by an excellent corps of teachers who work in harmony with his ideas.

The attendance at the opening of this school year was greater than ever before. Two hundred twenty-seven are enrolled against about two hundred ten a year ago. The increase is largely in the high school. School started last year with thirty-two in the high school and two dropped out very soon after school started so there were only thirty enrolled a year ago. Now there are forty-nine. This is an increase of over sixty per cent. Several others are really eligible to membership in the high school who are sitting in the grammar room. Their work is partly in one room and partly in the other. All the pupils who were in the high school and grammar room at the close last spring are back in school excepting three. Two of these graduated and one moved away. Besides this seven new pupils are enrolled in the high and grammar rooms and several who left school before its close last year have returned.

There are various reasons for this increased attendance. One is that the high school room has been newly decorated and the hallways as well. The hallways have been an eyesore for some time and the improvement is very marked.

The comfort of the pupils has been further provided for by new seats in the high school and seventh grade. Over fifty have been put in this year and now only two rooms, namely the high school and grammar have any of the old uncomfortable double seats left. One row is left in the high school and about half the grammar room is still seated in that manner. It is hoped that another year the last vestige of these ancient landmarks, many of which bear the initials of the fathers and mothers of this generation, will be removed.

At least five young men are kept in the high school this year on account of the additional year which has been added to the course of study. The work added consists of one year of mathematics (one-half each of advanced algebra and solid geometry) one year of Latin, one year of commercial work (one-half each of commercial arithmetic and book-keeping), and one year of history

(one-half each of English and U. S. history).

It is hoped by another year that the school will not only offer the present course but will have a well equipped chemical laboratory and at least two years in German. At present we have two teachers well equipped to teach German but no time for them to devote to it.

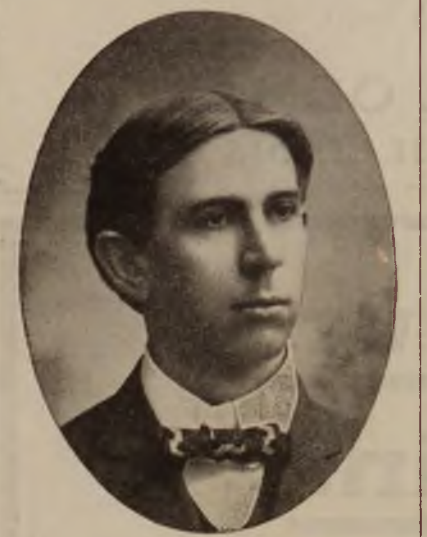

A course in systematic music has been added to the grades and high school. We had some music last year but without any organized system of texts the efforts were not so effective as if the work were more thoroly organized and systematized. The work in the two lower rooms consists of chart work and rote songs. In the third and fourth rooms they purchase a book costing thirty cents. In the grammar and high school rooms pamphlets are used for a time but later a more expensive song book will be furnished.

Considerable improvement has been made and is being made in the laboratory. A case has been built in the lower hallway which will hold much of the laboratory material and is used to keep such material and to relieve the much overcrowded condition of the laboratory. This case fills a great need and also adds to the looks of things.

City water is soon to be piped upstairs so that the pupils of the upper rooms may have access to a drinking sink on the upper floor. This water will also be piped into the laboratory for use there.

The board of education has recently purchased a fine set of physical apparatus at an expense of—well, we won't say just how much for fear the taxpayers will vote down our present excellent board on the ground of extravagance. However, the apparatus was much needed and will be used to the best advantage.

The course in drawing has been improved in two ways. There has been more material placed in the hands of pupils than last year so that better work can be accomplished in the grades. In the high school a course in mechanical drawing has been offered. This has been offered as a substitute for the more purely decorative work. The material is very expensive, costing about two dollars per pupil to properly fit for it. No one is allowed to take this work who has not had or is not now taking geometry but it is the only course that receives university credit. Notwithstanding this great expense and the strict requirements, fifteen have selected this work. This is encouraging since it shows that parents and pupils realize they have to pay well for valuable things, and also tends to show that many of the high school pupils are broadminded enough to see that the high school is not the end but the beginning of an education.

A piano has been rented for the use of the high school. Later they hope to purchase it. It is a very beautiful instrument and its tone is very pleasing to all who have heard it. It is going to be a big undertaking to buy it but it is thought that the public will be willing to assist a little if it is needed when the time comes to buy it. A man who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow recently said that he would be willing to give two or three dollars if necessary to help purchase it. When a hard working man will do this much out of interest for the school how much more willing ought our more wealthy men be to help.

While speaking on the subject of instruments it is in order to say that the Misses Colton, who have charge of the lower rooms, have brought an organ of their own nearly thirty miles with a team, for use in their rooms this year. When teachers have this much interest in their work how can they help succeeding? This instrument will help them very materially in their music work in school. If anyone else has a first class organ he wishes to donate to the use of the school, the school is just looking for that kind of people. Athletics have not begun yet in earnest for the season. Basketball will probably begin about December 1. There was not enough heavy material for football. More will be written about athletics later.

The high school will give a musical farce "Old School Days" in the near future. The high school chorus will begin rehearsal this week.

A lecture course has been arranged for Genoa but more about it and the Tabard Inn Library we're going to have, next week.

GENOA WINS RUBBER

Hampshire Defeated Saturday by Score of 7 to 6

The last game of the season was played on the Genoa base ball grounds last Saturday when Genoa defeated the Hampshire White Stockings the score being 7 to 6. This gives Genoa the best of the argument, having won two out of three games. It was a hotly contested battle and was nobody's game until the last man had been retired. Christianson pitched for the visitors while Neurator toed the rubber for the Genoas. Several good plays were made and judging from the sounds that came from that end of town during the progress of the game there were some exciting situations.

Fire Department Out

An incipient blaze at the home of Bruce Fellows last Thursday afternoon brought the people up on their toes and caused the fire department to hustle out with hose hook and ladder. Before many had arrived at the scene, however, the fire had been extinguished after a few shingles had been scorched. Altho the fire department did not have an opportunity to show its ability at a fire, it did prove its efficiency in getting out in a hurry. The fire company would have been at the house in less than five minutes after the alarm had been turned in. In less than two minutes fully two hundred people were on their way to the fire and it is safe to say that the small boys were sadly disappointed.

Barn Burned

The barn on the McArthur farm, two miles south east of Burlington, was struck by lightning Tuesday night and burned to the ground.

DAMAGE BY WIND STORM

CORN LEVELED IN THE FIELDS SUNDAY NIGHT

The Goose Family North of Genoa Has Peculiar Experience—Windmills and Burns Down

The worst storm which has visited this vicinity since last March struck the country Sunday night and wrought havoc in some sections, the farms northwest of Genoa suffering mostly.

The storm broke about 7:30 Sunday evening with a down pour of rain accompanied by wind which was little less than a tornado. In this immediate vicinity no damage was done other than blowing a few branches from trees. The farmers northwest of the city, toward Belvidere, did not fare so well however. All the corn that was in the path of the storm in that vicinity was leveled to the ground. Farmers state that the cost of harvesting will be doubled and that in the majority of the fields it will be impossible to use a binder.

Two windmills on the Newton Stanley farm are flat on the ground. Mr. Stanley had a young orchard which was just beginning to bear fruit, giving promise of being a good source of revenue. Nearly every tree in the lot was destroyed. On the Will White farm a windmill was blown over.

On the Oscar Clayton farm the barn was torn to pieces, killing two cows. The loss will be heavy. The barn on Chas. Rosenke's place was also blown in and wrecked.

On the Cy Ratfield farm the frame of the barn was carried away leaving the hay standing as if there had been no disturbance.

The most peculiar accident, and probably being the nearest to a fatality, happened at the farm occupied by Mr. Goose. When the family felt the house moving they all made a rush to the door and leaped out into the darkness. They were too late however, and did not land just where they expected to. The house had moved around on the foundation considerably before they found the door and instead of striking the surface of Mother Earth they all picked themselves up in the cellar. Mrs. Goose was somewhat bruised, but no one else was injured.

Two barns were destroyed on the S. A. Crissey farm and it is reported that two cows were killed.

Small outbuildings and trees by the dozen were destroyed thruout the section and the total loss will reach into thousands of dollars.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Supervisor Siglin's House Near Charter Grove Damaged

Lightning struck Joshua Siglin's residence at Charter Grove Sunday and did considerable damage besides giving the family a fright. The bolt struck the corner of the house tearing away part of the cornice and siding. A few layers of shingles were also ripped off the roof. It was probably due to the heavy down-pour of rain that the house did not catch fire. As it was the tin on the roof showed signs of intense heat.

One too Many

DeKalb Advertiser: C. D. Schoonmaker has purchased both the Genoa papers and consolidated them under the name of Republican-Journal. He formerly lived in Genoa, knows the people and knows the business and should do well in his venture. Two papers in Genoa is just one too many.

WILL WORSHIP IN SONG

Conference Year of M. E. Church Will Close Sunday Evening

The conference year of the M. E. church will close next Sunday evening with a splendid song service.

There will be several selections sung by the choir and congregation. The choir will render several anthems; the Genoa male quartette will sing two selections; there will be some duets; the ladies quartette will render two selections, and in addition to this, Summer Miller of Rockford Ill., who is one of the leading singers in the Presbyterian church of that city, will sing several pieces.

The public is most cordially invited to enjoy this service. At the last "Quarterly Conference" of the church, the following officers and committees were appointed for the coming year:

Trustees of the church—W. F. Eiklor, T. L. Kitchen, H. M. Crawford, F. W. Olmsted, A. V. Pierce, H. J. Merritt, S. S. Slater, Mrs. Judith Sowers, Mrs. A. J. Patterson.

Stewards—J. R. Furr, Lewis Anderson, E. H. Olmsted, Geo. DeWolf, Mrs. Sarah Sumner, Mrs. Della Stewart, Mrs. Belle Wyld, Mrs. Mary Buck.

Committee on music—S. S. Slater, F. W. Olmsted, A. V. Pierce.

Committee on missions—Mary J. Patterson, Geo. DeWolf, Miss Cassie Burroughs.

Committee on temperance—Mrs. Mary B. Crawford, Mrs. Abbie Patterson, Mrs. Mary J. Patterson.

Committee on Sunday-schools—John Pratt, J. R. Furr, Mrs. Lucretia Kitchen.

Committee on Parsonage—Mrs. Frances McCormick, Mrs. L. Robinson.

BUTTER IS FIRM

Creamery Men Urged to Attend St. Louis Convention

Butter advanced half a cent, the official price being 20 cents firm. Seventy-five tubs were offered. There were no sales.

Chicken Pie at Ney

Those who did not or could not partake of the chicken pie dinner at the church in this city Wednesday have another opportunity to satisfy the wants of the inner man in that particular dish. The Ladies Aid Society of the Ney church will hold a bazaar and serve chicken pie dinner at the home of Mrs. Joe Corson Saturday. Everyone is cordially invited to be present. Go at noon and stay all day. There will be enough good things there to serve for both dinner and supper. Many fancy and useful articles will be on sale.

If you want to buy a house or a lot or a farm worth the money, call on or address D. S. Brown at the Exchange Bank, Genoa, Ill.

GLEANED FROM EXCHANGES

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST TO GENOA AND VICINITY.

One of Gualano Brothers Admitted to the Bar—To Build Barn of Cement at Belvidere

The combined attendance of the Normal, high school and grades in DeKalb is 1527.

S. C. Miller has rented the Marengo Hotel, E. H. Sears retiring from the business.

There has not been a prisoner in the DeKalb county jail for three months. DeKalb always was a moral county.

Nathan Lattin, formerly mayor of Sycamore and for many years a prominent business man, died in that city last Saturday.

Batavia is to have a $10,000 concrete dam, that will be up-to-date, valuable and substantial and be the means of furnishing great power to the factories.

Fred Jones has purchased the eighty acre farm near Belvidere formerly owned by Dell Davey for which he paid the fancy sum of $110 per acre or a gross amount of $8800.

Petitions are being circulated throughout McHenry county asking Judge Gillmore to submit to a vote of the people at the next general election the question of paying the state's attorney a stated salary rather than fees.

The Board of Review of McHenry has closed its sessions and reports the addition of a half million dollars to tax lists in the county. The board has been at work since July 5 and during its sessions summoned 850 people.

Whiskey is going down, having dropped 1 1/2 cents on the Peoria board of trade last week. It is "going down" in other places as well and will continue to "go down" without respect to the Peoria board of trade.

Fred Tolyne, who resides on a farm a short distance from Belvidere on the Rockford road is building a barn entirely of cement with exception of roof and window casings. The structure will be 32 x 86 feet with 20 feet elevation. It will cost about $2,000.

No trace of Wm. Heiderman of Garden Prairie has yet been found. The Republican-Journal said that the aged man had wandered from home and left no clew of his whereabouts. He has been lost nearly two weeks despite the fact that parties of 50 and 100 have been hunting for him.

Sycamore Tribune: 'Twas only a month ago, the Tribune chronicled the wedding of Miss Viletta McBain of Sycamore to Edward Hare of Kirkland. Now the groom has appealed to the court for a divorce from his bride of such a short duration, claiming she has deserted him.

Belvidere Northwestern: D. M. Hinman, an extensive dairyman, living north of this city, is erecting a substantial milk house 12x16 feet, at his home, in which he will install a gasoline motor and a separator, with some other dairy appliances. He will be in a position to work up the product of his cows into butter on his own place when he has his plans worked out.

Alberto N. Gualano, senior member of Gualano orchestra, of Sycamore and who has been recently admitted to the bar, has opened an office for the practice of law at 331 Milwaukee avenue, Chicago, in which vicinity there is a large Italian colony. As he is well educated in that language his services will be in demand with people who speak Italian, there being only three lawyers in Chicago who are familiar with the speech of Italy.

First Voters

In his address to the first voters at Rockford last week, Hon. C. E. Fuller of Belvidere said in part: "To the young men of America is given the bravest, the noblest, the greatest task ever given to man; a task the responsibilities of which are as great as its honors and rewards are sure to be, if they but act well their part. It is the task of taking the control of this government from the hands of their fathers as they pass on, and not only keeping it up to its present high plane but building it still higher and better and greater. It is to be their government, for them and theirs to hold forever. It will be what they make it, and I have faith to believe they will make it more grand and great and glorious than it ever has been. The flag of this Union will be in their hands; they may, if they will lead in the march of the world's civilization and progress. They cannot do this by being reactionists or by joining with a party opposed to all progress and living only in a dead and buried past. They should join and take possession of the party of progress; the party that does things; the party that has made and is making glorious history; the party of whose record in all its past they will ever be proud; the party of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield McKinley and Roosevelt. With the principles of this party inscribed upon their banners the world's history will have added to it its most glorious pages; and other young men to follow them will take up the work where they leave it, and the highest civilization, the greatest liberty, prosperity and happiness shall prevail wherever the flag of this Republic may float untarnished over the millions of people owing and yielding to it a grateful allegiance."

First Voters, Read This
Roosevelt and Fairbanks are both young men, as are a majority of the leaders of the Republican party. If you believe in progress, if you want to see our country the richest and its people the most contented and prosperous on the face of the earth, if you believe in throwing open the doors of opportunity to young men, if you do not believe that smoke-stacks are a proper place for cob-webs and birds' nests, if you would rather hear the whirr of revolving wheels than the murmur of discontent, if you believe in happiness instead of unhappiness, if you believe in courage and honesty, if you believe in frankness instead of secrecy, if you believe in deeds rather than promises, if you believe in reason rather than ignorance, then cast your first presidential vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

part. If they would stop to give the matter serious thought there would be no more of it.

RUNNING horses on the streets of Genoa may be great fun for those driving the horses and a few spectators, but such sport should not be allowed. Some day a grave accident will happen and then someone will repent his rash act. There are always little children playing in the street who are not usually looking out for running horses. It is probably thoughtlessness on the drivers' part.

THE Pullman and International Harvester plants have again opened for work, taking on thousands of hands. This is a hard blow for the Democratic papers which have been using the closing down of the shops as an argument in denouncing the Republican administration. They will have to look for better ammunition with which to load their campaign guns.

THE general prosperity the country has enjoyed under the republican administration during the last seven years has profited the farmer as much if not more than any other one class. The farmers know it, and should and undoubtedly will vote to continue conditions as they are and have been.

CHINA and India are "cheap" countries. Commodities are cheap. It is also a fact that human labor is held very low in these lands and the result is that the masses are constantly steeped in poverty and menaced by starvation. In spite of the so-called cheap things people do not get things.

ACCORDING to astronomers it is about 25 trillions of miles, as the crow flies, from the earth to Alpha Centauri, the fixed star. It is about the same distance from Esopus to the White House by the Democratic route.

THE New York Herald has printed a facsimile of Judge Parker's gold telegram. It should furnish a companion piece by printing a facsimile of his silver ballot in 1896 and 1900.

HISTORY shows that a Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity and a Republican tariff by business prosperity. Why not accept the verdict of history?

GENOA could organize a rattling good Republican club. Why not get things moving at once?

A Fatal Accident at DeKalb
O. W. Sickels, a prominent citizen of DeKalb was instantly killed Friday afternoon by falling from a scaffold. The accident occurred shortly after 1 o'clock. Mr. Sickels returned to his work that of a carpenter, immediately after dinner and went to the scaffold. When he reached the second floor the structure broke and he fell with it, expiring six minutes afterward. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

The Mosquito Plant.
The "mosquito plant," a species of basil, is attracting a great deal of attention in England just now. An army officer who secured one of these plants in Nigeria says it is well known as a mosquito defense there, and the natives use an infusion of its leaves to cure malarial fevers. As soon as a hedge of this shrub was planted about the Victoria gardens, Bombay, India, the workmen, who had previously been almost unable to work because of the swarms of mosquitoes, had no further trouble with either these pests or the scourge of malaria from which they had been suffering.—Chicago Post.

Lord Avebury's Secret.
The uniform dignity, urbanity and large mindedness which mark the manner and mind of Lord Avebury were under discussion, and some one "wondered how he did it." "That is Lord Avebury's secret," said some one else. "Not exactly a secret," another said, "or, rather, an open one, for he has been heard to say that he watches over and manages himself as if he were somebody else, a rule of conduct that most of us could follow with profit to ourselves and benefit to others."

'Twas bad, that everybody knows, Especially in rainy weather. But to Fransen's shoe shop she went, Now Mary, she feels quite content To think her shoes have been well mended, And goes there altogether.

East of H. H. Slater's.
A large number partook of the chicken pie dinner at the M. E. church parlors Wednesday. The table looked tempting enough for a king and his household. It is a positive fact that many who were present will be ashamed to look a chicken in the face for some time to come. The Ladies Aid has a reputation for doing things well and they evidently intend to hold the honors. They are deserving of the best of success. Their labor for the noble cause is not light.

A good story is told on V. E. Whitney of Sunnyside, Wash., and the people of that village have been having all kinds of fun with him. He recently went into town on business and for some time could not imagine why the people laughed. He finally looked down and discovered his feet in a pair of felt boots. Other people were in their shirt sleeves. It seems that Mr. Whitney had put on felts in lieu of rubber boots and forgot to remove them. He was formerly a resident of Genoa.

Cracked Crockery.
To make cracked crockery last put two or three pieces of sugar into the cracked vessel with one-third of a tumblerful of water; then place it on a very brisk fire. Spread the sirup liquid over the cracks. The melted sugar will ooze through the cracks and soon grow hard, completely stopping the fissures. Vessels employed for cooking food can be mended in this manner. The burned sugar does not give any unpleasant flavor.

Hanging Clothes to Dry.
When hanging clothes to dry, first hang up by the thickest part, waist or neckband, etc., because if hung by the thinner part the water would run into the thick part, lodge there and take longer to dry; second, hang up everything wrong side out, so that any accidental soil will not do so much damage as if it appeared on the right side.

A Hint For the Cook.
It is said if four or five large clean marbles are dropped into the kettle where fruit is cooking there will be no burning on the bottom of the dish since the marbles are kept in motion by the boiling. This simple device is worth trying with jam or catchup.

Cleaning the Bread Pan.
The mixing pan is quickly cleaned if a little boiling water is poured into it for a few minutes and a close cover put over—an inverted pan will answer. The steam softens the dried dough so it will readily wash off.

A Kitchen Hint.
The fishy taste can be removed from canned salmon or lobster by putting it in a colander, pouring boiling water over it and then letting it stand long enough to drain and cool.

Strange Pets on Warships.
The privilege of keeping pets is very much appreciated by bluejackets, who lavish their spare time and cash on some very strange animals. The Centurion once had a monkey that used to eat with a spoon from a plate and drink from a glass, with a dinner napkin tucked under his chin the while. The Caesar had a pet goose some time back. Cats and dogs of course are common on board ship. The French warship Mareau had a bantam cock named Boulanger as a pet which crowed whenever the guns were fired. The German Prinz Wilhelm had a gray stork, and the United States Chicago had a pig. Doves, pigeons, black-birds and peacocks are popular with Italian seamen, and the unfortunate Almirante Oquendo of Spain had a pair of cassowaries as pets.—London Tit-Bits.

Substitutes For Butter.
A German chemist, Dr. Heuner, proposes to buy up all cocoanut oils and transform them into "vegetable butter," a savory, inodorous and succulent substitute for true butter. Cocoanut oil, like butter, contains 7 per cent of soluble acids—namely, butyric acid and capric or decylic acid, which give a pleasant aroma to butter and have a taste of hazelnut. Cocoa butter contains less water than true butter and will keep fifteen or twenty days without showing any acid reaction. Therefore it is useful in making pastry. Cocoa butter has also been found by trial the better antiseptic against infection by microbes, and as it is quite digestible the various boards of health have not objected to it.—London Globe.

THE FRENCH FRONTIER.

Not less than ninety-three fortified places of modern type, some of them being nearly impregnable, guard at present the French frontier from Dunkerque to Nice. Most of them have been built since the Franco-Prussian war at a cost of $400,000,000. France has to appropriate annually about $1,000,000 for the maintenance of these fortresses. Of late there are not a few military men, and among them General Pierron, the former commander of the Fifth army corps, who express grave doubts as to the value of this chain of fortifications in time of war. They point to the fact that it would take about 600,000 men to garrison all the fortresses, including Paris and Lyons, an army which would undoubtedly be of more value in the field. General Pierron predicts a "total collapse" in case of a new war with Germany if the numerous fortifications are to be retained.

Scraping the Tongue.
In olden times the mother always had in the cabinet a silver hoe—a little thing with a long handle—with which to scrape off the coated tongue of her child, and there were phlebotomists in those days who let a few ounces of blood from a plethoric patient. I understand that there is to be a return to those familiar practices. Good! The other day an old friend of mine had his life saved by a generous bleeding at the nose, and another fellow was cured of neuralgia in the face by scraping his tongue with one of his wife's whalebones. This bone was taken from a corset and bent into the shape of a letter U, much elongated. The neuralgia had been rabid for weeks, and physicians had been appealed to in vain. An hour after the tongue was scraped for the first time an improvement was noticed, and in a few days the neuralgia was gone, never to return.—New York Press.

TO AMEND GAME LAW

Several Changes in Present Statute Are Proposed

At the coming session of the general assembly an effort will be made to amend the present game law materially. It is proposed first to take the game wardenship out of politics entirely. The abolition of all politics from the enforcement of the laws to preserve the game of the state is demanded. Another amendment to be urged provides that the game warden shall be appointed by the state superintendent of public instruction and that the enforcement of the law shall be a part of the duties of that office. Bird day and Arbor day are particular factors in the work of the educational department and it is proposed now that the enforcement of the game protecting laws be placed in its power.

The third change will provide that all the fees under the game law over and above the expenses of salaries and enforcement shall be turned into the state school funds for distributable purposes. The game law as at present formed produces a large amount of money over and above what the department costs. The law provides that this money shall be kept intact as a game fund. The money cannot be turned into the state treasury as a part of its revenue to be used again in the payment of state expenses. It simply lies there idle. If it could be used for school purposes no wiser disposition could be made. These and several other changes of minor character would serve greatly to popularize the law and at the same time to assist a most worthy cause.—Springfield News.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief, and soon cured him. He writes, "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, coughs, colds and grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Hunt's Pharmacy.

BELVIDERE-ELGIN LINE

Work on Electric Line to Begin Early Next Spring

The plans of the proposed electric line from Belvidere to Elgin have developed so far that it is an assured fact. The work of surveying the route will be done this fall and winter so that everybody will be in shape to begin the laying of track and road bed building by next spring.

The present plans are to build a road from Belvidere to Elgin passing through Marengo, from which place a branch line will extend to Harvard. By the completion of this line the following cities would have connection with Chicago, the goal of all electric roads: Rockford, Elgin, Beloit, Janesville, Freeport, Madison, Harvard, Belvidere and Marengo, and passengers from these cities would have electric car service to the following cities, through Chicago: Milwaukee, Racine, Waukegan, Hammond, Joliet, Aurora and Evanston.—Belvidere Northwestern.

Kingston Happenings

Wm. Aurner was at the county seat Saturday.

Sylvester Shoemaker was home from Roselle Sunday.

Jacob Heckman returned last week from his Wisconsin trip.

Nathan Baker of Davenport was calling on friends here Monday.

Rev. C. S. Clay visited with Rev. Stickleman of Fairdale last Monday.

Mrs. George Maderer of Genoa was visiting in town Friday and Saturday.

L. C. Shaffer has purchased his old stock and is again a Kingston merchant.

Attorney James Finnegan of Sycamore was in town a short time Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Clark spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Joel Davis, of Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howe spent a part of last week visiting friends and sight seeing in Chicago.

Thomas Gathercole, who has been quite sick for some time, was reported better Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ashelford of Sycamore are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watson.

Otto Worcester, who has been very ill from blood poisoning, has so far recovered as to be in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell are rejoicing over a 10-pounding girl who came Sunday evening to reside with them.

At A. G. Anderson's sale northwest of town Tuesday, W. H. Bell was auctioneer and L. C. Shaffer clerk.

Thomas Clark of Sycamore was here Sunday and Monday. He was called here by the serious illness of his mother.

Mrs. Ira Bicksler was called to Quasqueton, Iowa, last week by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. D. Boise.

Mrs. Brainard and son Charles of Belvidere were guests of Kingston friends Saturday night returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Clark, southwest of town, has been seriously ill, but even though she is of advanced age, her recovery is anticipated.

The final services of the Methodist church for this conference year will be observed next Sunday, Rev. Clay occupying the pulpit.

Clayton Gibbs and wife of Edgewater spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gibbs. Miss May and Miss Ross were also at home.

A meeting of the directors of the Kingston Mutual Fire Insurance company was held at the office of the secretary Tuesday to adjust recent losses.

The representative of the Glazier Lyceum Bureau was in town Tuesday interesting our people in providing entertainment for the coming winter.

Rev. R. M. Bennett of Fairbank, Iowa, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning and Monday evening. At the latter meeting it was decided to give him a call to the pastorate, which he accepted and expects to come here soon.

J. Heckman, while on a recent trip to Oneida county, Wis., opened some ancient mounds near Tomahawk Junction containing skulls, but no entire skeletons. Also, in packages done up in buckskin with an outer covering of birch bark, were six copper tomahawks, a large pipe, a horn of some animal with eagle quill through the tip, two large pieces of sea shell, some paint balls, etc.

This makes a fine addition to Mr. Heckman's valuable collection of relics and is highly prized by him.

Public Recital

There will be a public recital in the M. E. church next Tuesday evening by the pupils of Miss Edith Tindall of Kirkland, assisted by local talent. There will be a small admission charged. Miss Tindall has done most excellent work during the past year, and the concert promises to be a most interesting one. The public is most cordially invited to come and hear our musicians play.

NEW CORN HUSKER

Central Illinois Farmers Have Machine That Does All the Work

Farmers in central Illinois are experimenting with a new corn-husker—one of the kind that will really husk corn. The machine is crude as yet, but the farmers are hopeful that it will be perfected. It works in the field, taking one row of the corn at a time as fast as the horse can walk. The corn is cut any length desired below the ears and is then carried to a set of rollers which snap off the husks at the ears, from which the latter are elevated into a wagon adjoining. The entire outfit is operated by three horses. The machine gets all of the corn in the field, even to the smallest nubbings. With the outfit in smooth running order, from eight to twelve acres can be husked in a day.

Emergency Medicines

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Hunt's Pharmacy.

Opportunities—Good openings for all lines of business and trade in new towns. Large territory thickly settled. Address Edwin B. Magill, Mgr. Townsite Department, Chicago Great Western Railway, Ft. Dodge, Ia

What Is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Hunt's Pharmacy.

WORLDS FAIR

ANTHRAX KILLS CATTLE

Fred Weed of Hampshire Lost Four Springers Last Week

Anthrax has again made its appearance among cattle in the vicinity of Pingree Grove and Hampshire.

Four cattle have died on the Fred Weed farm and several others are ill of the disease, but will probably recover.

The cows infested were springers, and not pastured with the dairy herd; therefore it was not necessary to place a quarantine, but the sick cattle were isolated and every precaution taken by Dr. Teyler of this city.

The cattle belonging to W. C. Suhr, tenant on the Kirk farm, were also infected, and two of them died. The disease is now under control, and the herd is now recovering. A quarantine is still maintained on this farm.

Stevens, tenant on the Donovan farm, near Pingree Grove, also had some cattle affected by the disease. The cause is said to be from the cattle grazing on low pasture land, the same as caused the trouble on the A. J. Mann farm a few weeks ago.

It has been the general belief and many will continue to believe that disease of any kind in cows will affect the milk. H. C. Gloves in charge of the state agricultural experiment station at Elgin thinks otherwise and says:

"Although anthrax has made its appearance in this vicinity, I do not believe it will poison the milk in the least. Several herds near Elgin have been quarantined, but the disease will not affect the milk they produce.

"Disease of cattle does not necessarily injure the milk. Even if a cow has a tuberculosis its milk would be good. There is no need for the Chicago people who receive and use our milk to fear it."

This may be all true, but it would be more advisable to drink milk that comes from the healthy cow.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies. "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for liver and kidney troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Hunt's Pharmacy.

Special Reduced Excursion Rates Will be in effect from all points on the Chicago & North-Western Railway for the occasions named below:

MUST HAVE MORE THAN HALF

"A good many people have not stopped to think that in order to win the next presidential election the Democrats will have to get one more vote than the Republicans," said Judge W. B. Alexander of Chicago.

"How do you make that out, Judge?" "Well, it's easy enough. The total vote of the electoral college is 476. If it should by any rare chance happen that each party got one-half this total—in other words, if the election resulted in a tie, the Democrats getting 238 and the Republicans the same number, the contest would then be thrown into the hands of representatives. The Republicans in that body, having a large preponderance in the number of states under their control, would proceed of course to the election of their candidate.

"So you will observe that in order to win the Democrats will have to secure 239 votes, or just one more than half the college, while the other side can make out on 238,"—Washington Post.

American Trousers in London. I notice that visitors from the United States this summer, and especially the younger men, are wearing very loose trousers, and while there is at present no tendency in this country to depart from the rather close fit which has been for a long time prevalent, possibly this may eventually lead the way to a change in British fashion.

I hope, though on this it is possible I may be disappointed, that the American visitors who have brought wide trousers with them will take back a preference for our own decidedly superior cut instead of infecting us with a taste which cannot be critically approved. In any event, the creased front is rather an absurd accompaniment of loose trousers. If we are eventually to have loose trousers, they will look a good deal better if not thus creased, at least so thinks the present writer.—London Men's Wear.

A Nervy Little General. General Esteban Huertas, commander in chief of the army of Panama, is believed to be the youngest and smallest general in the world, as his country is the youngest, if not the smallest, of republics. He is about twenty-nine years old, has been a soldier since he was eight or nine and is proud of the fact that he has risen from the lowest ranks. In one of the revolutions of a few years ago, when he was fighting on the side of the government, his right arm was hit by a shell. It is said that when he found his arm was nearly severed he hacked off the rest with his own knife, had the short stub bound and resumed his work in the field. Now, for his services to Panama during the critical period of its birth he has been granted $50,000 to pay the expense of a trip to study the military organizations of the leading nations.

President Polk in Boston. Charles J. Bateman, a descendant of President Polk, asked to tell of some anecdote concerning his distinguished ancestor, told the following story: "It is said that when President Polk visited Boston he was impressively received at Faneuil Hall market. The clerk walked in front of him down the length of the market, announcing in loud tones: "Make way, gentlemen, for the president of the United States! The president of the United States! Fellow citizens, make room!" "The chief executive had stepped into one of the stalls to look at some game when Mr. Rhodes, the secretary, turned around suddenly and, finding himself alone, promptly changed his tone and exclaimed: "My gracious! Where has that confounded idiot got to?"—Louisville Herald.

A Careless Dresser. Camille Pelletan, French minister of marine, has a disregard for the niceties of dress which makes him a favorite with cartoonists. His white hair and beard seem to be absolutely unacquainted with a comb, his trousers are nearly always too long, and he delights in frock coats several sizes too large for him. Huge boots, faded necktie and cuffs that are generally on the verge of fringe are other parts of his unique make-up. His friends remonstrate with him regarding his carelessness, but M. Pelletan responds calmly, "What matter so long as I am comfortable?"

Carbolic Acid in Warfare. Among the supplies that are being affected by the war is carbolic acid. That popular nerve scarifier is not, however, in such great demand for Red Cross purposes, but for the manufacture of explosives. Lyddite and melinite are both manufactured from picric acid, and picric acid is merely a form of carbolic acid.—Singapore Straits Times.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The Summer Man Had the Best of Recommendations.

"Pardon me," said the seaside resort girl, "but are you not presuming somewhat on a short acquaintance?" "Fortunately," replied the young man, "I prepared myself for just that objection. So much of the early part of the season is wasted in getting acquainted, you know."

Here he produced a card on which the following recommendation was written: "This is to certify that I used Mr. Percy McDermott for seashore flirtation purposes during the latter part of the summer of 1903 and found him equal to all the requirements. He has the necessary qualifications for the role, including the wisdom not to regard the 'affair' too seriously. I am dismissing him from my temporary service with regret and heartily recommend him to any girl who may be in need of a little diversion."—Daisy Miller.

Antenuptial Precaution.

Amelia—I understand that Mr. Henry and his fiancée have had a quarrel? Jane—Yes, but it is nothing serious. She is a prudent girl and wants to make sure that she can manage him when he is angry.

Slight Distinction. Young Spoonmore (drawing a little nearer)—Such a beautiful moonlight evening as this, Miss Jucie, is enough to make anybody love everybody. The Young Woman (moving a little farther away)—Yes, but it isn't quite enough to make everybody love anybody.—Chicago Tribune.

Her Gentle Hint. "This room," he said, "is rather close." "That's not all that's close," she returned somewhat pointedly. Then he recalled that she had brought up the subject of ice cream soda three times in the last ten minutes, and he had failed to respond as became a man.—Chicago Post.

No Countin' on 'Em. Greene—Yes, my wife's upstairs getting ready to go out. Oh, here she comes! I'll bet anything she'll ask Aunt Jane if her hat's on straight. Mrs. Greene—Aunt Jane, I wish you'd see if my skirt hangs even.—Boston Transcript.

Sure Enough. "Of course I don't want to criticize, but I don't think it was altogether right for David to say 'all men are liars.'" "Well, at any rate, it was safer than to pick out one man and say it to him."—Philadelphia Press.

A Neighborhood Tragedy. "Mrs. Chipperton took care of my palm while I was away and ruined it." "How?" "It was one of those varnished palms, and she watered it every day."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Expression. "They tell me, Grimley, that your daughter sings with great expression?" "Greatest expression you ever saw. Her own mother can't recognize her face when she's singing."—Boston Traveler.

Explained. Gentleman—You can't work on account of paralysis! Nonsense! You look as strong as I do. Tramp—Well, ye see, boss, it's paralysis of de will dat I'm troubled wit'—Brooklyn Life.

Making Pickles. I never liked the looks of the scum that appeared on my cucumber brine, but I did not know what to do about it. This season I learned that it is caused by a gum in the cucumbers and that they should first be put in a weak brine till this is extracted, then into the strong brine where they are to remain.—Good Housekeeping.

Odor of Fish and Onions. Nothing is more unpleasant than to find that a knife, fork or spoon smells and tastes of fish or onions, and yet it very often occurs. The speediest method to remove the disagreeable odor is to put the articles to soak in a basin of cold tea and leaves. Let them soak for ten minutes or so; then wash them in the ordinary way.

The Hot Footbath. The hot footbath is one of the most effective methods of breaking up a heavy cold, and in case of chill or severe headache it will often be found beneficial, as it draws the inflammation from the head. It should preferably be taken before going to bed.

Potato Water For Silver. Water in which potatoes have been boiled is very effective in keeping silver bright. It can be bottled for use, and if required to be kept a long time a tenth part of methylated spirits will do this.

Invisible Cement. An almost invisible cement for mending glass is made of isinglass boiled in spirits of wine.

"AUNT" CHARLOTTE A. LANE

Well Known Resident of Charter Grove, Passes From This Life

The deceased, Charlotte A. Lane, was born at Yorktown, West Chester county, N. Y., on Oct. 6th 1817, and died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Abbie Story, near Charter Grove, Sept. 24. She was 86 years, 11 months and 17 days old at the time of her death.

Miss Lane came from New York State in 1855 and first settled in Plato township, Kane county. Since coming from the East she has made her home more or less at Sycamore.

She was a trained nurse and was much sought after in her line of work in her younger days.

Several years were spent in Minnesota and Chicago, but she finally settled at Sycamore, where she had made her home until about ten years ago she went to Charter Grove to live with her niece.

She was the surviving member of a family of ten children, eight of whom were brothers and one a sister. A nephew, Cyrus Cronk, of Estherville, Ia., and nieces, Mrs. Abby Story, Charter Grove; Mrs. Adeline Babcock, Sycamore; Mrs. Mary Ann Fassett, Santa Clara, Cal.; Mrs. Julia Maynard of Vail, Iowa, are the only surviving relatives.

Miss Lane was of a beautiful character, always kind and helpful, good to the poor and needy, and trusting in God even to the end, and many are the families in this part of DeKalb county, who remember "Aunt Charlotte," as she was called, as the beautiful nures who eased their pains and restored them back to life. She has always been a believer in God and has led a life of prayer from her girlhood days to the end of life.

About twenty years ago, when she settled at Sycamore, she united with the M. E. church and continued as a faithful member of the same up to the time of her death. "And now she rests from her labor and her works follow her."

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of her niece in Charter Grove, Rev. T. E. Ream of the Genoa M. E. church, officiating. The burial was at Elmwood.

From Mt. Vernon, Indiana

E. Rosenfeldt, who bought out A. B. Clefford's share in the hardware business, returned from Mt. Vernon, Ind., last Saturday accompanied by his family. His household goods will arrive this week and will be moved into the Joe Smith house at the south end of Genoa street. In commenting on Mr. Rosenfeldt's departure the Mt. Vernon Western Star says: "Emil Rosenfeldt and family, leave to-day for Genoa, Ill., where he has purchased an interest in a hardware store. While we regret to see Emil and his family leave, we most cheerfully recommend them to the good citizens of their new home, and may they never have cause to regret having made the change".

Sycamore Tribune: Andrew Carnegie has approved of the deed of the lot on the northeast corner of State and Main streets, which was a gift from F. B. Townsend, and notified the city authorities that they may proceed with the library and the money will be forthcoming from him.

HE MAY LEAVE CHURCH

Rev. Farmiloe of Elgin May Take up Undenominational Work

In all probability Rev. F. F. Farmiloe will not be returned to Grace M. E. church, Elgin, by the Rock river conference when it convenes in October says the Belvidere Northwestern.

Rev. Farmiloe has been pastor of Grace church for four consecutive years and he feels he has outlived his usefulness in the Watch city, and expects to be transferred to a new charge.

It has been hinted that he thinks somewhat of retiring from Methodist ministry and entering upon undenominational work.

If Mr. Farmiloe does not return to Elgin, it will create a change at the Northern Hospital for the Insane, where he has held services every Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Farmiloe is well known in Genoa and throughout this district. He has always been a prominent figure in campmeetings and other gatherings and is considered one of the best platform managers in the country. He was pastor of the Genoa church some years ago.

Select Delegates
