SUIT FOR $10,000.00

Filed by John Hadsall Against Illinois Northern Utilities Co.

HEARING AT SEPTEMBER TERM

Attorneys G. E. Stott of Genoa and E. D. Shurtleff of Marengo Retained by Complainant

The Illinois Northern Utilities Co. has been made defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages, filed by John Hadsall of this city in the circuit court, thru his attorneys, G. E. Stott of Genoa and E. D. Shurtleff of Marengo. The suit is filed by Mr. Hadsall in hopes of reparation for the death of his son-in-law, George Niss, who was electrocuted at his home in this city on the fifth of September last. The case will come up for hearing at the October term of court.

Those who are familiar with the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Niss believe that his dependents have a good chance to win the suit, everything pointing to negligence on the part of the company, altho in a way the company had reasons for not having the lines in Genoa in better condition.

On the evening of the 5th of September George Niss was working on his automobile in the garage at his home and for lighting the building was using an extension cord. This cord, with lamp attached, had been handled all the evening by Mr. Niss and his wife, but at a certain moment when the latter took the lamp from his wife's hands, Mr. Niss was stricken dead on the spot. A study of the situation later disclosed the fact that the wire leading to the premises had come in contact with a high tension street lighting wire at the instant Niss had taken the lamp cord into his own hands. The result was that he received the full charge of 2200 volts.

It seems that the high tension wire was strung directly over the wire leading to the house and becoming loosened it swayed down and the fatal contact was made.

FLIRTING WITH FARMERS

Call has been issued for Conference of Union Labor and Farmers

A call has been issued for the first conference of union labor and farmers' organization ever held in Illinois says Manufacturers' News. It will be signed by President John H. Walker and Secretary Victor Olander of the Illinois Federation of Labor, and President Austin B. Hill and Secretary John P. Doyle of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union. Legislation in which the farmers and union labor have joint interest will be considered by the conference, which will be held in Quincy on October 18. The Farmers' Co-operative Union, born in Texas, has officially recorded itself against the recent railroad wage increase ordered by congress. The farmers who work long hours for small compensation object seriously to paying the higher freight rates the wage boost will entail.

RECORD PRICE FOR HOGS

Marengo Man Sells Porks for $11.60 per Hundred

The sale of a carload of hogs shipped by Omar C. Wright of Marengo, Ill., and sold on Thursday was the highest ever recorded in the Union stock yards, Chicago. These hogs averaged 236 pounds and sold straight at $11.60 per cwt. The top we have put on the market may stand as the record for some time, but hogs are scarce and should receipts continue light a few of the prime kind might sell some higher before the season arrives when the new crop will be ready.

Deputy Sheriff Married

Ex-Sheriff O. S. Holcomb, efficient deputy sheriff and balliff certainly surprised his friends on Wednesday evening when without consulting them or asking permission of any person—except one—he was united in marriage to Miss Ida Hubbard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Cleon C. Bigler, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, at the home on South Locust street on Wednesday evening, and was extremely simple and quiet, only two or three near friends being present.

SEYMOUR IDE CONVICTED

Former Genoa Man Gets Indeterminate Sentence for Killing Wife

The trial of Seymour Ide was recently concluded at Dixon, Ill., the man drawing an indeterminate sentence from one year to life for manslaughter.

It will be remembered that several months ago Ide assaulted his wife while she was in bed, not having recovered from illness due to giving birth to a child. It was also stated in the trial that the child was born dead owing to a beating the woman received at the hands of her husband prior to its birth. There were several children left motherless as a result of the awful crime. For years Ide has mistreated his family showing few of the characteristics that should distinguish the human being from the beast.

Ide comes from a highly respected family in Genoa, the members of which have the sincere sympathy of friends. The father of this man, who is now deceased, was an even tempered, good natured citizen and held in the highest esteem by everyone. His mother is a woman who has taken great interest in her children and always made her home pleasant for them. His brothers and sisters are all even tempered, jovial and friendly.

That one member of this estimable family should turn out thus is as deplorable as it is inexplicable.

REGISTER FOR ELECTION

If You Want to Vote Your Name Must Be on Registration Books

Every woman or man who expects to vote at the November 7th election must be registered or else swear to their vote says the Harvard Herald. Registration days are Oct. 17 and 31, and are biennial affairs that must not be overlooked if voters want to exercise the right of franchise without annoyance.

Registration may be effected by the election judges placing your name on the registration books if they know you are a legal voter, but it is your duty to do so yourself. New registration books are made up this year and every voter should assist the election judges in making the registration as nearly complete as possible because much time is lost on election day in filling out blanks and attending to the details of swearing in non-registered voters.

On Tuesday, Oct. 17, election judges will meet and go over the registration books, adding and erasing names as they may appear to them proper, because it is incumbent that a complete registry of all voters be made. Two weeks later the judges will meet for the last time and that date being Oct. 31, just a week before election, it offers ample time in which to see that all qualified voters are enrolled on the registration books.

Women are registered just the same as men. If married they are required to give their own name rather than that of their husband or his initials. For instance, if she is married and her husband's name is John Blank while her given name is Mary, she must register as Mary Blank.

Partition Suit Filed

Cliffe & Cliffe, solicitors for the complainant, Ed E. Dibble, of Kingston filed a partition suit in the circuit court against May McClelland. The bill seeks to divide the estate of the late Allanson W. Dibble. The allegations of the bill are that when A. W. Dibble died he willed his property to his wife by a clause in these words: "I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Jane Dibble, all my property both personal and real. That at the death of my wife whatever may remain of said property to be divided between my two children, Mrs. May McClelland and Ed E. Dibble, equally, share and share alike."

The petition asks to have this clause of the will interpreted. It also asks for an accounting, alleging that complainant from time to time has made improvements on the farm which he has occupied and leased, amounting to $2,000. The premises desired to be partitioned are the north half of lot 7 in block 2 in Kingston, and the west half of the southeast quarter and the east half of the southwest quarter of section 29, in township 42, north, of range 4, east—Tribune.

Lee County After "Pigs"

Wholesale indictments have been found in Lee county against bootleggers and blind pigs. The list includes one against Robert Nelson, secretary of the Sons of DeKalb.

PASTORS RETURNED

Rev. R. E. Pierce Comes Back to Genoa; Rev. Locke to Kingston

HAVE MADE GOOD A SHOWING

Genoa Church Property has Been Greatly Improved in Two Years—Young People Interested

The following appointments, of especial interest to people of this vicinity, were made at the Methodist Conference which closed in Chicago on Monday of this week:

R. E. Pierce—Genoa.
F. F. Farnill—Pullman.
W. H. Pierce—Trinity, Chicago.
A. T. Horn—DeKalb.
A. D. Moore—Hampshire.
W. H. Locke—Kingston.
Benjamin Hilt—Sycamore.
H. E. Rompel—Belvidere.
N. W. Devenue—Fairdale.
T. L. Parker—Kirkland.
T. E. Ream—Libertyville.
W. H. Tope—Marengo.
W. H. Tuttle—Pearl City.
W. Z. Horbury—St. Luke's, Chicago.
C. A. Briggs, Jr.—Ottawa.

Not even Jupiter can please everyone, but from observations one would believe that Rev. R. E. Pierce comes as near pleasing the majority of members of the M. E. church as any pastor who has filled the pulpit here in some time. While Rev. Pierce is not and does not claim to be an orator, he is deeply sincere in his work and commands the respect of church people and those out of the church as well. While strictly adhering to the doctrines of Methodism, still he is of liberal mind and can see that church affairs cannot be conducted in the present day as they were in the day of the circuit rider. It is thru his efforts and acquiescence that new features have been brought into the local church tending to attract and hold the attention of the young people. Rev. Pierce realizes that the future of the church as well as the future of every movement depends upon the attitude of the young people and in this directing his efforts Rev. Pierce is accomplishing real results.

During Rev. Pierce's pastorate the church property has been greatly improved and now compares favorably with any in the state outside the larger cities. Rev. Locke has established himself well at Kingston, being of a disposition that is bound to command respect and maintain a faithful following. The writer has known Rev. and Mrs. Locke for many years, in fact ever since the editor was a little freckled-faced runt, and has yet to hear anything but good from that estimable couple.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Facts and Figures Clipped from Columns of "Manufacturers News"

United States locomotives last year used 36,000,000 barrels of fuel oil. A common needle passes through eighty operations in its manufacture. The use of glue as a hog feed and hen feed is an expediency which is being adopted in Germany. The Pullman (Ill.) Free School of Manual Training was dedicated Saturday. It cost $3,000,000.

One statistician has estimated that the added cost of a six-cent loaf of Chicago will be $6,843,000 a year.

A Russian barbed wire inquiry, involving about 75,000 tons of that material, is reported to be in the market. United States has 1,392 turpentine distilleries. Last year they produced 26,980,981 gallons of turpentine valued at $10,510,407.

The world's highest powered motor ship has been built in Italy for the Brazilian navy, its oil motors developing 6,400 horsepower.

If the business in this country were kept up as it ought to be, there would be an average of more than 3,000 miles of new railroad built every year.

A ton of cheese made up in 30,000 sandwiches is to be served at Monroe's (Wis.) third annual "cheese day," which is to be held October 10. Sixteen hundred loaves of bread will be used. Monroe, Wis., is one of the principal cheese centers in the country.

The Argentine steamer Pampa sailed for New York recently with a cargo of 4,000 tons of wheat and linseed. Two other steamers loaded with wheat will follow. The newspapers call attention to the fact that this is the first time Argentine wheat has been exported to the United States.

Illinois has approximately 96,000 miles of road, of which 10 per cent is improved, according to a report of W. W. Marr, state highway engineer. The improvement, in most instances, consists of either gravel or macadam surface. There is some concrete and brick road, practically all of which has been constructed since 1913 when the state aid road law was passed.

It probably was not generally known that Chicago's production of confectionery almost doubled in the five years from 1909 to 1914. The statistical advance was from $11,222,000 to $20,349,000. This does not imply so much that Chicago's sweet tooth has grown sweeter as that Chicago has sought and found wider markets; in fact, it is rapidly developing world markets for the distribution of candy.

AMUSEMENT REVOLUTION.

Peoria's Greatest Theatre adopts a Startling Innovation

The Hippodrome, Peoria's greatest and most luxurious Theatre has adapted itself to the trend of the times and inaugurated an amusement revolution that is startling. A continuous program is given afternoons (except Sunday) and every evening. Five really great vaudeville acts features are included in the program with the latest and the best film productions of the most famous studies. The ruling price of 10 cents for afternoons and 10 and 15 cents for evenings. A full symphony orchestra furnishes the music.

Never in any theatre has anything approaching these amusement values been presented, at prices less than 25, 50 and 75 cents, these prices rule in Chicago for the film masterpieces alone, that are included in the Hippodrome bills.

Only the immense capacity of the Hippodrome (seating 2,000) and the enthusiastic appreciation of the public as shown by the crowds that fill the great playhouse make it possible to present so complete and ultra an amusement menu. When in Peoria spend an hour or two at the Hippodrome. You may enter when you please and go when you please for the show is continuous.—Advertisement.

Mrs. F. H. Oriol desires to express her appreciation for the kindness of friends and neighbors shown during the illness and after the death of her husband, and being unable to thank each one personally takes this means of reaching them.

Butter Reaches 34 1/2 Cents

The price of butter advanced another half cent on the Elgin Board of trade Saturday when Christens sold twenty-five tubs to Somerville at 34 1/2 cents. The price last week was 34 cents.

FIFTY THOUSAND

Will be Expended in Providing Home for Bishop Muldoon

An imposing residence for Bishop Peter J. Muldoon of the Roman Catholic diocese of Rockford will be erected on the Rock river front near the Country Club next spring.

Several months ago Bishop Muldoon acquired a site with a 200-foot frontage on the river north of Harlem Park and south of the Club. It extends back from the river to a depth of 500 feet. The residence will be built on a rise of ground commanding a wide view. It will measure 40 feet wide and 100 feet long on the river side. It will be of brick in modern style. W. S. Gubbins of Chicago is the architect. The plans have been completed and bids received, although the contracts have not been let, and the work will probably not be begun until next spring.

The building will contain a chantry office, a private chapel and vaults for the papers, deeds, and other treasures of the diocese, which contains 72 parishes. The grounds will be laid out by a landscape specialist, and an imposing entrance will be erected. The erection of the building will be a source of considerable pride to the Catholic people of Northern Illinois. While an estimate of its cost would at present be premature, it is said that those who are closely in touch with the plans expect the amount to be over $50,000. Bishop Muldoon has been at the head of the Rockford diocese for eight years.

China

There are only 6,000 factories in China. There are only about 6,000 miles of railway in China. The area of China is about 4,300,000 square miles, or 2,560,300,000 square acres. This is about one and one-half times the area of the United States.

According to a celebrated German geologist, "there is enough coal in Shansi Province, China, to last the world for thousands of years at the present rate of consumption."

The total area of coal lands in China is 133,500 acres. The total output for 1914 was 6,315,735 tons. Iron ore is found in almost every province in China.

DeWITT C. GREEN IS SUMMONED

Came to Illinois in the Year 1844—to Gold Fields of California in 1853

DeWitt C. Green, veteran of the Civil war, for many years a farmer near Genoa, and a good man and popular citizen, died at his home in Genoa on Wednesday morning at about 4 o'clock, immediately after having suffered a stroke of paralysis. He had been out the day before and appeared as well as usual, altho his health had not been robust the last few years and he contracted a severe cold a short time ago which caused him considerable trouble.

DeWitt C. Green was born in Luzerne County, Pa., on Jan. 29, 1839, and came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Green to DeKalb county in 1844, when these prairies were very sparsely settled. The father conducted a mill on what, for many years, was known as the Miller farm in Kingston township. He went across the plains to the California gold fields in 1853, but returned, and for some years was engaged in farming near Genoa, part of that time on what is now known as the Pond farm. His family became residents of Sycamore about 1875, and here the father died in 1887, and the mother in 1889.

DeWitt C. Green enlisted in Co. A, 105th Illinois Infantry, to which many DeKalb county men belonged at served with honor thru the Civil war. He was shot in the breast while in action, and it was thought he was fatally wounded, and altho he survived many years he never fully recovered from the effects of the wound. The war Mr. Green conducted a merchant and also a confectionery in Sycamore for many years. A number of years ago Mr. and Mrs. Green removed to Kansas City, Mo., in order to be near their son, George, and family. Last spring they returned to Genoa.

Mr. Green leaves surviving his wife, who was a member of the well known Preston family of Genoa township, their son, George Green, who is now in business in Chicago, and their daughter, Mrs. Fred M. Worcester, who is the wife of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul station agent at Genoa. He also leaves surviving a brother Benjamin Green of Rockford and two sisters, Misses Nancy and Jane Green, both residents of Sycamore.

The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence in Genoa, Rev. Mr. Pierce, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. Several automobile loads of members of Potter Post from Sycamore and Genoa veterans attended the funeral, followed the remains to Sycamore and were present at the interment which occurred in the family lot in Elmwood cemetery—True Republican.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE

GENERAL OFFICES
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

"Our country!" In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong. Stephen Deatur.

Who says that base ball as a national game is dying out? It seems to have crowded war off the front page at least.

It is not just to call President Wilson the "single track" president. As a matter of fact he has several tracks, but they are all used for "backing in."

The boom of the guns of foreign war ships at our very doors on the Atlantic coast must be an awful blow to the pacifists. Those who have felt secure with the oceans as a barrier may now wake up. Since Monday
the Atlantic looks like a mill pond.

The work of the German submarine
U 53 gives President Wilson another opportunity to "keep us out of war."
No doubt there will be another exchange of notes and a waste of considerable perfectly good paper—and the cost of paper is so high, too.

The Genoa city council has done well in the matter of economy this summer, having kept faith with the citizens. When the people sanctioned the bond issue they expected that economy would be practiced and the council has respected those expectations.

In making the Borden Condensed Milk Co. come to their terms in New York, the dairymen of the United States have just about gained that for which they have been wishing these many years. We say wishing, for until very recently that was about all that had been done. With a united front they are now insisting and that tells the story. Never again will the Borden tell the dairymen where to
"get off."

Henry Ford's suit against the Chicago Tribune for a million dollars is not worrying the publishers of that paper
so that one can notice it. The only department of the paper that does feel at all apprehensive is that of advertising.
The Tribune is getting fabulous prices for its advertising space
and it dislikes very much to be a party to the free advertising that Mr. Ford is getting out of this suit.

A. G. Kennedy fought hard for the nomination for states attorney, and lost. One will have to hand it to Mr.
Kennedy, however, for being a good loser. He made a hard run when out for the nomination for congressman
two years ago, but after his defeat
he was still a staunch Republican. Mr.
Kennedy makes mistakes during his campaigns which hurt and injure his prospects but he always comes up smiling. Mr. Kennedy is one of the county's best and most patriotic citizens will some day gain his reward, but he must first learn to control himself
in writing and on the platform.

Genoa may be lacking in some things—not many—but every city and village in the state must take a back seat in the matter of fire protection.
There has not been a serious fire in this city since the water works were put in a good many years ago. We always have the water pressure when necessary and thus far the voluntary fire department has been made up of fellows who are not afraid of getting their hair wet. If the underwriters' association would recognize the conditions
here the rate for fire insurance would be considerable lower. The rates in parts of the city at the present time are outrageous.

The passage of the eight-hour law
was not due to any clause in the platform of the Democratic party, and in forcing it thru congress President Wilson was fulfilling no obligations to the party. The idea was not formulated by any political party. His adherents are now giving the president credit for the law, but those who care to look at the matter without political bias know that the law was forced thru congress. If the Democrats were so mightily in favor of the eight-hour day for trainmen, why was it necessary for the trainmen to force legislation, with a stop watch in hand?

A man was electrocuted in Sing
Sing prison last week for murder, convicted on circumstantial evidence.
He was legally murdered by the state regardless of the fact that many prominent men who heard the testimony or read the evidence after the trial believed him innocent of the crime. He was legally murdered despite the fact that the warden of the prison (under whose charge the prisoner had been for several months) believed him innocent.
Thru the cunning of a brilliant states attorney the man was convicted.
He was relieved more than once
by the governor because there was a doubt, yet in the face of these conditions, which pointed to a probability of his innocence, the man was electrocuted. Any state commits a crime when it sends a man to the gallows or the chair when there exists a shadow of a doubt regarding his guilt.

What has become of the old fashioned farmer of whom it was said:
"They are always kicking." Like the flail and the cradle, he is a memory only. Since business methods have entered into farming, the farmer himself has learned to take all things philosophically, whether it be a gain or a loss. He takes his medicine and keeps smiling just as his brother business man in the city is compelled to do. That this condition of affairs does exist on the farm today is evidenced by the fact that the farmers have been anything but downhearted during the past two years of poor crops. No doubt they have done some worrying, and that would only be natural, but they have kept their feelings under their hats. The farmer of today is a business man and this fact is made most emphatic in the recent dealings between him and milk dealers.

The local political situation is beginning to attract some attention, despite the fact that the state and national election is only a few weeks off. That there will be several candidates for the office of mayor now seems evident
unless a few get cold feet or lose their backing before spring. The so-called wets (in other words, those who support the club proposition) will no doubt have a candidate in the field,
and the dries will also put up a man or perhaps a woman, who will fight
the liquor business from every angle.
There is another element that one must reckon with and that comprises the voters who can see both the wet and dry sides of the question without bias, the voters who will look at the affairs of the city from a purely business standpoint and work for a real business administration. There is plenty of time between this date and spring elections for the voters to make up their minds as to the stand they will take. The entire question simmers down to this: Do you want a

"dry" mayor, regardless of ability; do
"dry" mayor, regardless of ability; do ability, or do you want a mayor who is neither a dry nor a wet enthusiast, but believes in enforcing the laws and has the ability to carry out his ideas, to gather with the backbone to have convictions and support them regardless of the pressure that is brought to bear by "friends?"

We do not pretend to know just what international law stands for, but it would seem that the law is being stretched mightily if it allows a belligerent war boat to seek refuge in one of our harbors, then sneak out and sink a few boats right under Uncle Sam's nose. Being outside the three mile limit may excuse the captain of the U 53. It looks as tho the foreign powers were again inclined to tell the United States to go 'till. Perhaps they know that President Wilson will "keep us out of war." There is such a thing as being "too meek to protest" as well as being "too proud to fight" and the German government is wise to this fact. England and Mexico have also taken the president's measure. One says "we will stop your mails" and the other warns us to "move in no direction but east." If any one of the warring nations are allowed to use our ports as a place of refuge "between acts" there is bound to be trouble sooner or later between Uncle Sam and the other fellow.

On Drinking Water.
A beauty specialist once said that whenever she saw a woman with a face resembling a dried apple she knew for a certainty that that woman did not drink enough water. The same cause which results in the drying of the apple, operates in the case of the dried skin—lack of water.

Daily Thought.
To be bright and cheerful often requires an effort. There is a certain art in keeping ourselves happy; in this respect, as in others, we require to watch over and manage ourselves almost as if we were somebody else.—
Avebury.

Worth-While Quotation.
Greatness, after all, in spite of its name, appears to be not so much a certain size as a certain quality in human lives. It may be present in lives whose range is very small.—Phillips Brooks.

Fever Due to Arrested Elimination.
To the average mind fever means mainly an increase of heat in the body. As a matter of accuracy it is a condition of arrested elimination.
All schools of practice have long held this view. The body in all the fevers—essential, periodic or eruptive
—is choking up with its own sewage.
The rise of temperature is but an incident
to the poisoning of the nervous system.

Some pathologists say that the fever is an effort of Nature to "burn
up" certain poisons, as, for instance, microbes, which at the time cannot be antidoted by the defensive elements of the blood and excreted
thru the usual channels.
At any rate, the bowels become sluggish in most fevers, or if not slugh-gish they run to the other extreme of diarrhea; the urine is scanty and loaded with deposits; the skin is dry and harsh; and the lungs in consequence are working harder and quicker than usual trying to throw off retained poisons. Thus, for the most part, elimination is very much impeded. The body is steadily becoming poisoned. Up to this point osteopaths
and practitioners of drug systems agree. Soon after this the professional views digress.

The M. D.'s say that poisonous microbes, characteristic of one or another of the fevers, having gotten into the system, their secretions paralyze the cells that strain out the body's waste until the organism can no longer throw off its own filth or the microbes fill, burdens which at length become virulent systemic poisons.

Osteopaths agree up to this point
but contend that there has been a prior checking of elimination in the body, probably due to anatomical lesions in average cases, or else the microbes would have been resisted and rejected along with all other physiological poisons. That is the ordinary procedure. If this is not true then why do not all persons exposed to specific microbes come down with the characteristic fevers? Only a small percentage actually do. The osteopaths insist that their medical brethren have put the cart before the horse.—Advertisement.

The Old, Old Story

If success can be attained by the retail mail order houses, working under disadvantages, why cannot the local merchant, who has none of these disadvantages, succeed? He can by imitating their methods and practices, by allowing undisturbed inspection of goods and by polite and courteous treatment of all visitors to his store, thus creating new customers and continuing to supply old ones.

In a certain Indiana town a young man ordered a heating stove, price $8.95. When the stove came he was very much disappointed. The stove was small, while the picture in the catalog made it appear large and ornamental. Had this young man visited his local dealer and inspected the $8.95 stove he would not have bought it, but would have selected one for $12 or $14 and would have got the right kind and one that would have satisfied his needs.

A Minnesota farmer ordered five rolls of barbed wire. After it came and he had paid the freight he discovered that he could have bought the same identical wire from his local dealer and could have saved $1, also much time and trouble.

Mail Order Fence in Woodhouse.
Another man living in a village ordered some wire fencing from a picture in a catalog, and when it came it was so cheap looking that his pride would not allow him to disgrace his grounds with such a fence, so he stored it in his woodshed and bought what he wanted from his local dealer.

A lady in a little town in Missouri sent to one of the large mail order houses for a pair of shoes, including $1.97 with her order. After two weeks the shoes came by freight; charges were 25 cents which she paid. After taking the shoes home she found they did not fit, so she repacked them and sent them back by express, and after another two weeks' wait another pair of shoes came by freight with more charges attached. To the lady's dismay, these shoes were no nearer a fit than the first pair. She then gave up in despair and visited her local dealer, crediting her investment of $2.56 to experience.

We should like to suggest to the consumer that he be honest with himself; buy at home; help support his own town; make his own home more valuable. Let Mr. Mail Order Man sell his good things in his own town. Instead of his fooling you, you fool him by trading at home.

Let each community become a co-operative commonwealth to the extent that its citizens shall work together to build up and sustain that community, working with neighbors—competitors included—for the home, town, city, county and state; let civic pride and ambition be fostered; let the professional "grouch" and disturber of the public peace be frowned down; let the incorrigible offender against the principles of square dealing be thrown to the lions of public condemnation. And to the merchant we say—work; don't riddle.

Spots on Furniture.
Essence of peppermint, applied with a soft cloth, will successfully remove the white spots that so frequently mar highly polished surfaces on furniture. Furniture polish ordinarily will not do the work, especially when used on the surface of a piano or any other hand-rubbed mahogany surface. A few drops on a cheesecloth rag, rubbed vigorously, will wipe out the spots.

She Sprouts.
The bamboo sometimes grows two feet in twenty-four hours, says the Indianapolis News. There are 30 varieties of this tree; the smallest is only six inches in height, and the largest 150 feet.

Scientific Aid to Physicians.

Our city, our state and our country—to these be loyal—it means prosperity to yourself and your neighbor. Bank here and check out to home merchants. Exchange Bank.

Did you ever hear of mail order houses selling nationally advertised goods? Sure not. They could not quote those "flashy" prices on furniture of that kind. We guarantee full value. Do they? S. S. Slater & Son.

No job of teaming too large nor too small for me to handle. Your phone order to No. 24 will receive prompt attention. Pianos carefully handled. Mail orders would be too slow and unreliable. J. L. Patterson.

You would not buy bread of a mail order house if you could, would you? You would not bake bread if you knew just how good the Genoa Bakery goods are. Eating it is the proof thereof. Try it. Duncan, the Baker.

We do not and could not with hopes of doing business in Genoa long, sell jewelry and silverware of the catalog house quality. Does the M. O. house guarantee? G. H. Martin.

Place He Had Been Looking For.
The hobo from the city has different ideas from the farmer as to working hours. The Country Gentleman says that a hobo got a job from a farmer in the busy season. He worked till 9:30, then had his supper. At four the next morning he was called to get up. He ate a hearty breakfast, then started upstairs again, saying: "This is the best place I ever worked—two suppers in one night and back to bed again."

The health and comfort of your family are of vital importance to you. Coal bills are expensive. "Cold" bills are more expensive, besides incapacitating the individuals, even endangering their lives. Avoid all this by fitting each opening with a preventative, a STORM DOOR OR STORM SASH. Now is the time to look after your wants in the line of storm sash and doors. ## WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

MRS. HELEN SEYMOUR, Editor

Scott-Burroughs
The marriage of Mr. Lewis F. Scott and Miss Emily Burroughs took place at the home of the bride Saturday afternoon, Oct. 7, at three o'clock, Rev. R. E. Pierce officiating. The ceremony was witnessed only by the parents of the two contracting parties and Sydney Burroughs brother of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Chicago where they spent several days. They will soon begin housekeeping in the rooms on the second floor of the Henry Holroyd house on Sycamore street, which was recently purchased by the father of the bride and remodeled.

Most everyone knew that this event was to take place soon, but the friends of the bride and groom had been given no hint as to the date. When the announcements came later it was just like a surprise party to many.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burroughs. She is an attractive lady, refined and one who will be the queen of an ideal home.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott. He is a Genoa product and a young man of whom Genoa need not be ashamed. At the present time he is clerking in the Carmichael drug store and holds the office of city clerk, a position which he has filled with credit to himself and the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott have a host of friends who will wish them nothing but the best that this old world offers in the years to come.

Halloween Party
Miss Myrtle Gethman was hostess at a Halloween party at her home Sunday evening, given in honor of Miss Vera Stenner of Kirkland, who was a house guest at the Gethman home. Games and music formed the amusement for this party. The house was profusely decorated in the Halloween colors, orange and black, crepe paper being used for streamers. A three course chicken dinner was served in the dining room at 9:30 o'clock, during which time all lights were turned out and the dinner enjoyed by the light of two pumpkins hollowed out and made into a basket and filled with different fruits made a very appropriate as well as beautiful centerpiece for the table. Carnations were also used in the table decorations. The guests at this pretty party were: Misses Vera Stenner, Grace Vandresser, Ethel Lanan and Marjorie Patterson, Lloyd Hoover, Frank Brennan, Milton Wilson and Charles Southard of Kirkland and Ralph Mungler.

Motor Party
A party consisting of Messers and Mesdames L. J. Kiernan, C. A. Patterson, W. W. Cooper, Roy Beardsley, C. J. Bevan, W. H. Jackman, J. W. Oytz, R. B. Field, V. S. McNutt, A. J. Kohn, G. E. Stott and F. O. Swan motored to Coral Inn, the popular resort for automobile parties, situated near Marengo, Tuesday evening. An elaborate four course dinner awaited their arrival. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening. This was a happy crowd, the evening was ideal and just right for such a party.

Some Sox
Mr. Lewis F. Scott was the victim and also the recipient of a sock shower at the home of S. Abraham last Thursday evening. The affair was planned so quietly that the victim was completely surprised. On some excuse, of legal nature, he went to the home of the deputy sheriff on Thursday evening and there found the

Peterson-Eichler
Belvidere Republican: The marriage of Miss Florence C. Eichler of this city to C. Harvey Peterson, of Genoa, occurred on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, George H. Eichler, 1003 Union avenue.

It was a pretty home event in which simplicity and good taste were dominant characteristics. Under a bower composed of white roses and smilax, the bride and groom took their places, accompanied by the father, Mr. Eichler, and a cousin of the bride, Miss Ida Eichler, of Hampshire, Ill., where, in the solemn ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church, they responded to the words of the Rev. H. E. Rompel which united their lives in holy bonds of wedlock. The wedding march, the Bridal Chorus from the opera "Lohengrin," was played by a cousin, Miss Eichler. Congratulations from relatives and friends were most sincere, for the bride of today has a warm spot in the hearts of those who know her best. Since the mother's death several years ago, the care of the home and brothers and sisters, has been her main thought. To this responsibility she has responded with rare judgment, for she was but a young girl to assume so much.

Mr. Peterson, the fortunate bridegroom, is young, ambitious and highly respected for his sterling qualities of mind and heart. Farming is his chosen occupation and a pleasant home a few miles from Genoa is in waiting, after the completion of the wedding trip made by the auto route to The Dells of Wisconsin, Waukegan and Chicago.

Fortnightly Club
The Fortnightly Club held their first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Margaret Rowe Saturday afternoon. After the business had been transacted Mrs. E. C. Crawford, in her original way, gave the members. She also read a poem describing a rare treat in her talk on Florida. Her description of this beautiful spot, where she with her family spent last winter, was remarkably good. Florida, of her own composition which deserves a great deal of credit. As the conclusion to her talk, Mrs. Crawford presented each member with a souvenir from Florida in the shape of a decorated oyster shell. Mrs. E. C. Crawford will be the hostess at the next meeting and Mrs. J. J. Hammond will furnish the entertainment.

Dander-Goding
The marriage of Carl H. Dander, son of Mrs. Minnie Dander, and Miss Hazel Goding, daughter of C. A. Goding, was solemnized at the home of the groom's mother east of Genoa Saturday evening at seven-thirty

Practical Health Hint
The way to be well. A man is as healthy as he chooses to be. Ninety times in a hundred health is literally a matter of habit. Some folks instinctively develop habits that preserve their bodily functions in proper condition, where others unconsciously drop into wrong ways of living. But the right ways are now so well known that any man who will take the trouble to learn them and will use the will power necessary to practice them may be vigorous and free from pain. Those that have drifted into chronic illness need the constant guidance of a physician along the path to recovery, but the average man needs chiefly information that is available and the exercise of a little self control to make and keep him well. Besides these things, he should, of course, consult a good doctor periodically, just as he consults a good mechanic and for the same reason in order to detect and correct troubles and to correct them before they mount into serious illness.—World's Work.

house filled with his friends. At the proper time he was showered with socks a plenty. There were real socks, German socks, silk socks, cotton socks and stockings for the bride, but never mind—he will not be under the necessity of asking his wife to mend socks for several months.

After the shower Mr. Scott was presented with a beautiful smoking table and reading lamp to match, a gift that would be an ornament in any home.

After the festivities of the evening the entire party repaired to the Evans Cafe where an oyster supper was enjoyed.

Royal Neighbors Entertain
The Royal Neighbors of Genoa entertained the members of the Hampshire lodge last Thursday. A committee met the visitors at the train with automobiles and took them to the M. E. church where a bounteous three course dinner was served. The parlors were beautifully decorated with the lodge colors, purple and white, asters combined with crepe paper being used. The guests were entertained with victrola music during this splendid repast. Early in the afternoon they were taken to the Odd Fellows' hall where a regular meeting was held, after which a short program was enjoyed. It was an ideal day for such an event and the guests, numbering about forty, departed with the thought that they had been royally entertained.

Jolly Diners
The Jolly Diners and Mrs. F. O. Holtgren and Mrs. J. H. Danforth were entertained at a one o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. H. Shurtleff Tuesday afternoon. After this excellent dinner the ladies spent a most enjoyable afternoon with their fancy work.

Tischouser-Reinken
Mr. John Tischouser of Chicago and Miss Marjorie M. Reinken of Genoa were married in Chicago Monday afternoon of this week and left immediately for Pittsburgh, Pa., where they will make their home. Mrs. Tischouser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reinken of this city.

Passing of the Army Wagon
The old army wagon has probably seen its best days of usefulness. The advantages of the motor truck are obviously so superior that there is now no nation that makes any kind of pretense to military completeness that does not have them. The fate of the horse in war has always been a hard one. A naturally timid creature, the noise of the battlefield must be a crucifixion to it even before it is apportioned its share of wounds and slaughter in an affair it cannot comprehend. As a draft horse or beast of burden its life in war is hard and short. Modern warfare may be harder on the soldiers than it ever was in former days, but something is gained when the horse is spared and auto trucks perform his perilous and laborious duties.—Philadelphia Press.

Might Try This
If a shoe pinches in any particular part, a cloth wrung out in hot water and laid over the place while the shoe is on the foot will expand the leather and give relief.

Easily Insulted
Edmond About was once invited to the house of the Princess Mathilde, and before dinner, seated beside his hostess, he was sending off a brilliant display of oratorical fireworks. Looking up, he noticed that the Count Neuwekerke was coming over to join in the conversation. "Go away," he called to him familiarly. "Leave us alone, you great, jealous person!" At which the princess rose, touched her finger to the bell and said to the servant: "Conduct M. About to his carriage. He is not dining here tonight!"

Old Churchyard Inscription
The following quaint inscription is taken from a monument in a London churchyard:
"To the memory of Emma and Mary Littleboy, the twin children of George and Emma Littleboy, who died July 18, 1783: Two Littleboys lie here, Yet, strange to say,
These Littleboys are girls."

Baseball
Baseball was founded on the old English game of "rounders," but bears hardly any resemblance to it in its present form. The first regular baseball team, called the Knickerbocker club, was formed in New York in the year 1845.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 178 pounds I went to 118 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life."

Mrs. J. S. BARLOW, 1624 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weakened organs of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, a chronic invalid, recovered so completely.

It pays for women suffering from any female ailments to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The KITCHEN CABINET

It is natural that we should obtain the thing we long for with all our hearts and persistently work to obtain it, as that a stone should come to the earth when hurled into the air. The ambition, the desire, the longing, the hunger, the struggle toward the aim, these are the forces of gravitation which bring us the desired result.—O. Swett Marden.

WILD FRUITS.

Most of us for plain everyday use prefer the plain and common foods well prepared rather than explore into the uncertain and unknown, yet an occasional unexpected dish is usually welcome. There are so many berries and small fruits that are not used. It is necessary to carefully dry them and put them into paper sacks or bags that are dust and insect proof.

Wild grapes are the greatest of roadside prizes and many are the ways they may be preserved for the winter table. For green grape jam, pick the grapes just before they begin to turn. Halve and seed them if you want a delicious conserve and mix equal parts of sugar when cooking. A few pint jars of these will so delight your friends that you will forget the labor of preparing them. For jelly, wait until they are beginning to turn, then you will have a most beautiful color. If too ripe the jelly is not nearly as good in color and may lack the pectin found in the greener grapes.

Spiced grapes make another way of varying this delicious fruit; use them when you are serving venison, and be thankful for such favors. When everything else has been done with grapes that you can think of, put up a few bushels in the form of grape juice. No more delicious drink can be offered the parched and tired traveler than a glass of grape juice with tinkle ice. The elderberry is another fruit that need not be overlooked. Make a pie and add a bit of vinegar or a few green grapes to the pie to give it zest and you will surely make another very soon.

If you want knowledge you must toil for it. If pleasure you must toil for it. Toil is law. Pleasure comes through toil, not by self-indulgence and indolence. When one gets to love work his life is a happy one.—Ruskin.

SOUR CREAM FOR COOKING.

Most of us have too little cream to every worry over using sour cream, for it usually does not last long enough to become sour. On the farm, however, there is often small amounts left in the cans after being brought from the creamery and this, if saved, amounts to quite an item in the food line. Very delicious ice cream may be made from sour cream as well as from sour milk and fruit juices. Of course, by using sour fruit juices the acidity of the cream is not noticed. Salad Dressing.—Mix a cupful of sour cream, a half cupful of vinegar and water, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, a tablespoonful of mustard, a teaspoonful of salt, paprika to taste, a half teaspoonful of cinnamon, a tablespoonful of butter with the yolks of four eggs. Cook all together, then add the butter and cream. If the cream is whipped and folded in when the dressing is cold it will be much lighter and delicate.

Johnny Cake.—Take a tablespoonful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, a half teaspoonful of salt, one egg, a cupful of sour cream, a cupful of cornmeal, a cupful of flour, and a teaspoonful of soda; mix as usual and bake in a hot oven. Sour Cream Cookies.—Add two cupfuls of sugar to half a cupful of softened butter, two eggs beaten, and a cupful and a half of sour cream, a teaspoonful and a half of soda, and a teaspoonful of grated orange peel or lemon. Flour to roll soft. If the flour is added and kept on ice for a while it will roll with much less flour and the cookies will be more tender. Steamed Brown Bread.—Take a cupful of white flour, a cupful of sour milk, a cupful of sour cream, a half cupful of molasses, one and a fourth teaspoonfuls of soda and a half a teaspoonful of salt; mix and steam three hours. Raisins may be added if liked, and a few nuts are an improvement.

Sponge Cake.—Beat the yolks of six eggs until thick, add a cupful of sugar gradually, using the egg beater, add a tablespoonful of lemon juice, rind of half a lemon, a pinch of salt, and the whites carefully folded in after being beaten stiff; before the

OVER THE KITCHEN TABLE.

A bright progressive woman the other day put into words something that has bothered many a housewife in this age of "up to the minute recipes." She was speaking of the great value obtained from the articles written for the housewife but concluded by saying "they either come so early in the season that we cut them out and lose them, or they are published after such foods are out of season." Right here it is well to plan a system of caring for most such recipes. Put them carefully indexed where you may lay your hand upon them in the moment of need. Most of our publications these days make it important that all recipes should be published at a time when they can be used at once.

Some women do their work three times, in anticipation, in realization, and in retrospect. It is wise to plan work well, but after it is done let it be done and improve on the next piece of work if possible. Men as a rule are not nervous and upstrung; more women than men break down with nerves. One reason is that a woman's work has more of small details, she is often called on in emergencies, and her work is "powerful constant."

I wonder how many people realize that it is the work they don't do that wears on the nerves. One may by constant application train the mind to let go when it is time to rest, not turn things over all night with tired, unstrung mind and body, making a new day a torture.

It takes much more ability to inspire and get work out of others than to be a great worker oneself. The first is a commander, the other, one in the ranks. Cultivate the ability of getting work out of others, especially the young people. They need the training and you need the help. Young children will work happily with company, but cannot be expected at first to take tasks alone and enjoy doing them.

If the onion bed needs weeding or the cellar or wood shed needs attention, get all hands together and make quick work of it, for many hands do make light work.

Be kind to those about you. It costs you little or nothing and is the best investment you can make. The returns will come back in compound interest. Your employer, your friends, your household, even your foes, will respond to kindness.—J. W. Chapman.

EMERGENCY ROLL.

Delicious little rolls are these and may be served as such or in various forms as bread sticks to serve with soup or salad, or take the place of cake, and which are easily made, as they are leavened with baking powder, so may be prepared in a hurry. Sift four cupfuls of pastry flour and measure four cupfuls. If bread flour is used subtract two tablespoonfuls from each cup, or, better, take but three and a half-cupfuls of bread flour. The pastry flour makes a more delicate product and is a little more expensive flour. Add two teaspoonfuls of salt, one tablespoonful of sugar and four teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Sift all together. Cut into this four tablespoonfuls of cold hard butter, using two case knives, one in each hand; then moisten with one and a third cupfuls of milk. This amount may vary a little, as flour varies in moisture. Lard and water may be substituted for the butter and milk, but at a sacrifice of delicacy.

Cinnamon Rolls.—Roll out a portion of this dough until a half-inch thick, then brush with melted butter, sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar mixed, or nutmeg and sugar, using brown sugar for a change in flavor; roll up and cut in slices two-thirds of an inch in thickness. Place the rolls on a greased pan, leaving as much space between them as their own diameter, as they swell in all directions. Bake in a hot oven.

For maple rolls prepare them in the same way, substituting maple sugar for the white or brown. Honey and lemon peeling grated is another flavor well liked.

Most delicious pin wheels are made by using various kinds of fruit and spices, mixed and sprinkled over the buttered roll. Dates, figs, raisins and nuts singly or in combination with spice, orange peel, lemon peel, citron cherries and any kind of preserved fruit may be used to vary this little cake. Bake as above.

In Woman's Realm

One of the most interesting gowns among those displayed at the season's initial style show tempered the airy frivolity of net skirts with a rich overgarment of embroidery. This overgarment was a bodice and panel combined, and was sleeveless. The colorings were in the blues, greens, bronze and black of the peacock feather, which inspired the designer in a courageous effort to imitate the gorgeous achievement of nature. The effect was splendid, and a big peacock feather

As to the general style features of the new coat: First, they are long, in many cases quite covering the dress; they are made of heavy material, and the most interesting innovations in cut and decoration are to be found in the back of the garment. In colors, besides the staple, standard shades that are always correct, there are popular and stylish new colors. Among them the dark, purplish reds, mole, and certain peculiar greens are important. choice, this wide variety in design promises a becoming coat for every type of figure, and the newer colorings may be experimented with, at least to test their effect upon the complexion.

Two very practical coats are shown in the illustration. Besides coats of this kind there are those that hang free from neck to hem, and cape coats, to be considered. The detachable cape is featured on some of the smart late models. Comfort to the wearers is assured in the large turnover collars and the ample pockets that are everywhere in evidence.

Except for buttons, there is very little in the way of ornament on the tasteful coats designed for everyday wear, and even these are sparingly used. But this is because ornaments are not needed. Attention is centered on new departures in the cut of col-

SIGNALS USED ON THE SEA

Vessels Have Their Own Methods of Imparting Information Which is of Importance.

There are various ways in which ships signal at sea. The most general method in daylight is by code flags and pennants, these being arranged according to an international system of signals. But sometimes, owing to weather conditions or distance, it is not easy to distinguish the colors, patterns or shapes of the flags, and then other methods have to be adopted. Chief among these is a system of exhibiting cones, balls and drums, various orders and positions representing different things according to the recognized international code. Here are some examples: No. 1 means, Show your ensign; No. 2, Is war declared? No. 3, War is declared; No. 4, Beware of torpedoes, or Channel is mined; No. 5, Enemy is in sight; No. 6, Keep a lookout; enemy's ships reported about, disguised as merchantmen.

How It Happened. "Mr. Jibway seems to know a great deal about Mrs. Dubson's affairs."

"Quite true." "How does that happen, when they are not on speaking terms?" "The explanation is very simple. On a certain spring morning of this year some workmen more or less familiar with electrical appliances called at Mrs. Jibway's home, installed a telephone and connected it with a party wire."

Psychological Phenomenon. "Do you believe that everybody can be hypnotized?" "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "In my campaign experience I have found that with the proper words and gestures you can hypnotize everybody. The trouble is that you don't know what minute they're going to wake up."

New Telephone-Telegraph. A new telegraph instrument has been invented by means of which any telegraph operator may send messages in the Morse code over an ordinary telephone. This new instrument can be attached to any telephone and the connection between it is purely mechanical. It does not require any additional electric circuits. The telephone key has a pivot at the end. It produces a sharp distinct sound and is connected with the metal case of the telephone by two clamps. It is claimed that Morse signals sent by this instrument carry longer distances than the human voice over long distance telephones, so the telephone-telegraph can be of great value in both supplementary and in verifying telephonic conversation.

War Displaces Indian King.

The little king of Annam, a French possession in farther India, who is distrusted because of alleged friendliness to Germans, has been dethroned. Paris papers have been discussing the question of what is to be done with him. His father and his suite, as well as himself, must be placed in a home far from the comic opera throne that he occupies. France has many and widely scattered possessions beyond the seas. There has been much hesitation as to whether he should be sent to Martinique, Guadeloupe, Senegal, Madagascar or Reunion. All these places have set forth the advantages that attach to each one separately, and the disadvantages of the others. This for the reason that the exiles will have money to spend, over 100,000 francs yearly. It is quite likely that the Reunion isle, in the Indian ocean, will receive the royal boy and his retinue and receive the benefit of the royal that will be expended for his "and keep."

Well Known Newspaper Man Obtains Relief From "Master Medicine." WAS MUCH RUN DOWN

Men and women of prominence in almost every capacity are endorsing Tanlac and telling of the great benefit they have derived from the use of the "Master Medicine." J. W. Hale, a well known newspaper man, who is proprietor and editor of the New Berlin Tribune and who has resided for a great many years in New Berlin, Ill., made a most interesting statement regarding Tanlac, Mr. Hale said: "I have been troubled with nervousness for some time past. My condition worried me considerably, owing to my loss of sleep and my inability to give my business the proper attention. I had very little appetite and the food that I could eat did not agree with me. "I have tried a great many remedies but nothing has given me the relief that Tanlac offered. Although I have used but one bottle my appetite is much better and I am getting the sleep at night that I have so much needed. Those troubled with nervousness or liver trouble should give Tanlac a trial for it has relieved me greatly and I am sure it will do the same for them." Many others in Illinois like Mr. Hale, men and women of undisputed honor and veracity are testifying daily to the efficacy of Tanlac the "Master Medicine." It is being used by thousands with the most beneficial results for stomach, kidney and liver trouble. It is helping those who are taking it for nervousness, catarrhal and bronchial troubles, loss of appetite, run-down system and lack of ambition. It is especially good as a tonic at this time. Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," is now being sold in Kingston and Genoa at the drug stores of I. W. Douglass. —Advertisement.

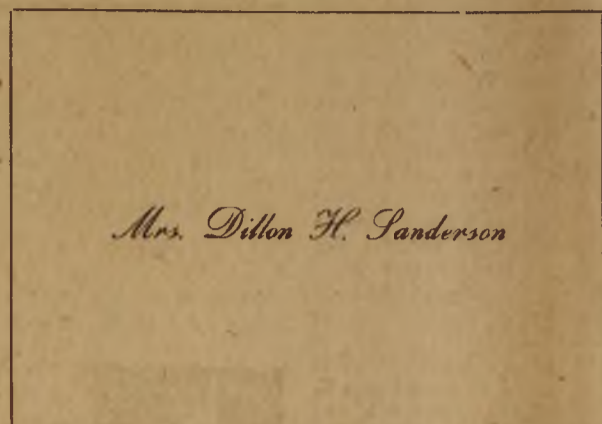

Scientific Explanation. Prof. E. E. Barnard called attention to the discovery of many dark objects on the photographs taken with the Bruce telescope of the Yerkes observatory, often in regions of the sky where there is no ordinary nebulosity and where the stars are too few to form a luminous background for their relief. The appearance of these objects in black relief on the plates can perhaps be explained on the assumption that space itself possesses a feeble luminosity sufficient to affect the sensitive photographic plate with very long exposures.

Truth Better Than Flattery.
