The Republican-Journal
Genoa, Ill.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 THE YEAR

By C. D. Schoonmaker

"Our country!" In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong. — Stephen Decatur.

The people of Genoa truly regret that the recent school question has caused any ill feeling with the townspeople of Kingston and trust that all concerned will forget the unpleasantness as soon as possible. There never was any intention on the part of Genoa "better school boosters" of spilling the chance of that town of ever having good school advantages also. If the plan had been carried out as desired by the so-called promoters, every district would have had to come into the deal of its own free will. Genoa people appreciate the old friendship that has always been evident between the two towns and desire nothing better than to make that bond more enduring, rather than sever it. It was for the sole purpose of getting close together that the delegation of Genoa people went over to Kingston last year. This agitation has at least been a benefit in that most everyone in both towns will hereafter take a deeper interest in the matter when the question of consolidation comes up again. The Republican-Journal would like nothing better than to see the entire town of Kingston consolidate in one good school. We are for good and better schools anywhere, no matter whether it be in Genoa, Kingston or any place in the state. When the citizens of the village of Kingston get ready for a consolidation campaign, The Republican-Journal is at their service in boosting the proposition.

Did you ever stop to consider the inconsistency of some folks... For forty years the saloons in the city of Chicago were allowed to run wide open on Sunday, despite the prohibiting law. The many mayors during those years were rarely taken to task by the temperance workers for their intentional negligence or for ignoring the law. The press of Chicago never censured the mayors for this. Now comes Bill Thompson, a man who has the backbone to put the law into effect. What does he get? Hot shots from the press because he cannot make everyone of the 7,000 saloons keep closed and the dislike of many of the temperance workers for the same reason. This condition of affairs is not only inconsistent, but decidedly unjust. What man in the world could keep tab on 7,000 saloons with the assistance of a police force that has been "rotten" for years? If "Big Bill" stays in the chair long enough he may some day have a police force that does not receive more salary from the saloons and underworld than it does from the city. Harrison was always a popular mayor with all classes. Why? Because he let things slide. He never tried to clean up and for that reason there was never an opportunity for comparison between what he should have done and what he tried to do. This same condition exists down thru the list of officials in municipalities, lodges, clubs, corporations, etc. The man who attempts some good move out of the ordinary run of events is "side-swiped" by the very ones who should be assisting him instead of "knocking."

The man who openly advocates "trade at home" and as openly buys out of town himself, is a greater menace to the stability of home institutions than the man who sends out on the quiet. It would make a vast difference in the life of Genoa (and other cities too) if everyone in that city would patronize home industries whenever possible to secure the goods wanted. But the man who preaches must practice.

The election Tuesday did not "go" to suit all of us, but as true American citizens the defeated must take their medicine and make the best of the bargain which does not look good to them. The president during the next four years will need and must have a united nation behind him.

Much Improved
Says Showman

"Billy" Martin of Peoria, Ill., Makes Interesting Statement.

HIGHLY PRAISES TANLAC

"Yes, I feel a great deal better," said "Billy" Martin, the well known showman, who resides at 412 Hubbard street, Peoria, and who has a host of friends in this city. Mr. Martin was recently discussing Tanlac, the new preparation now being introduced in Kingston and Genoa, and was telling of the great benefit which he derived from the use of the "Master Medicine." He continued:

"I have suffered for some time past with stomach trouble and indigestion. I failed to digest my food properly and felt languid and listless most of the time. It was hard for me to sleep soundly and I was forced many times to get up in the morning feeling all worn out and with hardly energy enough to go about my work."

"I had very little appetite and the few dishes that I did relish did not seem to give me the proper nourishment. I watched the introduction of Tanlac in this city with interest and I was finally so impressed with the statements of prominent people whom I knew and who had been benefited by the use of the medicine, that I decided to try it myself."

"As I said before I am feeling greatly improved. My stomach is in better condition than it has been for a long time and I now enjoy an excellent appetite. I can eat with relish most anything on the 'menu card' and without suffering afterwards. I seem to have new strength and energy with which to carry on my work which makes everything easier than heretofore. Tanlac has proved the best relief that I have had for a long time and I am greatly indebted to this medicine for my greatly improved condition."

"Tanlac, the 'Master Medicine,' is now being sold in Kingston and Genoa at the drug store of I. W. Douglas.

County of DeKalb, ss
In the Circuit Court Thereof,
Libbie Olmsted, complainant, vs
Nettie Wyde, et al. defendants.
Gen. No. 19370.

Public notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a decree entered by the said court in the above entitled cause on the 30th day of October, A. D. 1916, I, W. J. Fulton, Master in Chancery of the Circuit Court of DeKalb County, will, on Saturday, the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1916, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon of said day at the South Front Door of the Court House in the City of Sycamore in said County, sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder, all and singular the following described premises and real estate mentioned in said decree, situated in the County of DeKalb and State of Illinois, to-wit:

Parcel One: A house and lot situated in the Village of Genoa, DeKalb County, Illinois, described as follows: Commencing at a point where the west line of the alley on the west side of Stott's Addition to Genoa, where the alley intersects the Main street, running thence North on the West line of said alley 142 feet; thence in a westerly direction 35 feet; thence in a southerly direction 136 feet; thence in an Easterly direction on the North line of Main street 55 feet to the place of beginning, being otherwise known as Lot ten (10) in Block one (1) in Patterson's Second Addition to the Village (now city) of Genoa, as platted and recorded in the Recorder's Office of DeKalb County, Illinois, situated in the County of DeKalb and State of Illinois.

Parcel Two: The North half of the South west Quarter of Section fifteen (15), in Township forty-two (42) North of Range five (5), East of the Third Principal Meridian, containing 80 acres, more or less;

Parcel Three: The South half of the South West Quarter of Section fifteen (15), in Township forty-two (42) North of Range five (5), East of the Third Principal Meridian, containing 80 acres more or less;

Parcel Four: The West half of the South East Quarter of Section fifteen (15), in Township forty-two (42) North of Range five (5) East of the Third Principal Meridian, containing 80 acres more or less;

Parcel Five: The North East Quarter of the North West Quarter of Section twenty-two (22), in Township forty-two (42) North of Range five (5), East of the Third Principal Meridian, containing 40 acres, more or less; all of said four parcels of real estate last described being situated in the Township of Genoa, in DeKalb County, in the State of Illinois.

Parcel One was the homestead of Lorin M. Olmsted, and will be sold subject to the dower interest of the widow, Libbie Olmsted, therein, said interest being represented by an annual payment to said Libbie Olmsted each year during her lifetime by the purchaser, and those claiming under him (on each anniversary of the said Master's sale) of a sum equal to the one-sixth part of the year's net rents, income and profits of a portion of said Parcel One worth One thousand Dollars less than said whole Parcel is worth at time such payment is due.

Parcels 2, 3, 4 and 5 compose what is known as the Lorin M. Olmsted farm composed of about two hundred and eighty acres of farm land lying about three miles northeast of the City of Genoa and will be offered in parcels and as a whole in order to receive bids aggregating the greatest amount. Said farm property will be sold subject to the tenancy of the present tenant, Leonard Strack, ending March 1, 1917, and rents until that time to go to the present owners. The sale will be made provided the bids upon said real estate shall be equal to two-thirds of the valuation put upon the same as shown by the return of the commissioners heretofore appointed by the court to make partition thereof. Abstracts of title will be furnished to the respective parcels. TERMS: 15% in cash to be paid

Noise and Hearing. There are two distinct meanings to the word "sound"—one the sensation produced in the brain, the other the external vibration which produces the sensation. The physical cause may exist where there is no ear; the sensation cannot exist unless there is an ear to hear it. Suppose two men—one totally deaf, the other with a normal sense of hearing—are in the same closed room in which a third man beats upon a piece of iron with a hammer. Is there no physical vibration because the deaf man cannot hear it? The sensation may be ear splitting to the one and totally nonexistent to the other. The same vibrations beat through the air. The same sound exists in the room, but the sensation exists for only one of the men.—Philadelphia Press.

The "Bad News" Bell at Lloyd's. The bell of the British frigate Lutina, which sank off the Dutch coast in 1799 with a cargo of coin and specie valued at $6,000,000, is the "bad news" bell at Lloyd's. Whenever news is received that a ship is overdue or when definite news comes of the loss of a ship the bell is rung by the "caller." At its tolling all transactions are suspended until the news it heralds is read.—London Mirror.

Confused. A flustered woman was seen running wildly about in the corridors of a large railway station. "What are you looking for, madam?" questioned an officer. "I—I am looking for the entrance to the outside!" responded the woman nervously.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

LOCAL MERCHANT BENEFACTOR

(Copyrighted, 1914, by Thomas J. Sullivan.)

I would rather be right than president is the principle followed by many retail merchants.

There is no liberty without a parallel duty, no liberty without the supremacy of the law, no high destiny without earnest perseverance, no greatness without self denial.

As a dispenser of important services in any town none compares with the retail merchant.

Perhaps the first benefit of importance is the endless accommodations which he extends his customers. His books show that where misfortune, sickness or loss of occupation overtakes his customers he is frequently obliged to carry them for many months.

Honest Men Get Credit The man who has not established a reputation for unreliability or dishonesty is reasonably sure of securing credit for the asking. And the extension of credit is equivalent to making loans without interest. And who would ask or expect any such favor of any one but a merchant or a very close and dear friend?

The local town to be a desirable place to live in must have police and fire protection, it must have bridges, improved streets, water, sewers and good schools. To secure these necessary improvements and to maintain them taxes must be levied. The local merchant pays a large share of the taxes.

Among other things, the local merchant is continually forced to contribute to all manner of charitable enterprises, both public and private. He is the local benefactor, inasmuch as he is the employer of labor. Numerous young men and women find employment in his store, and as the result of his investments and efforts many dollars find their way to the pocket of the doctor, the dentist, the editor, the druggist and the banker, all of which contribute to the social and financial prosperity of the community.

Faith in the Community. He aids the farmer by buying from him his products to the extent of his needs, thus increasing the profits of the farmer.

He has shown his faith in the community by investing his capital there, consequently his interests center there; upon him, in a measure, depends the social, religious, educational and commercial existence of the town, and he is ever willing to do his part.

All this being true, why is he not entitled to the same amount of consideration as that exacted by the farmer, the wage earner and the other factors of the community that are always crying for "fair treatment" and "the right to live?"

Destroy Local Markets. All he asks is that which is rightfully his—the opportunity to display his goods and compare prices with those shown in the misrepresented "picture albums" of the catalog houses before you send your money away from home to buy something of the same quality which he can sell just as cheaply as does the big city merchant prince.

Take away from the community one of the most important elements of prosperity, the medium of exchange, and the effect is inevitable—a weakening of the organism. And that is precisely what the great mail order retail houses are doing. They are bleeding the local communities. They are destroying local markets, weakening local credits, reducing the volume of deposits in small local banks, starving out local business men who are consumers of farm products as well as dealers, driving to the large cities thousands of consumers who can no longer find employment in small towns, and the men who are aiding them in their work of destruction will soon pay the penalty in the shrinkage of the value of their property, as well as the loss of their markets.

A Gigantic Monopoly. That the managers of these gigantic enterprises understand what they are doing is amply demonstrated by a remark recently made by one of their number in Chicago. He said, "Give us a few more years and we will make every city outside of Chicago a town, every town a village, every village a hamlet, and every hamlet we will wipe off the face of the earth."

What will the customers of the mail order houses do then, poor things? They will have given aid and comfort to the enemy that has destroyed their prosperity. They will have assisted in building up a gigantic monopoly. Seduced by pretty picture books, they will have in their innocence starved out their own best customers. Deserted villages will then mark the places where prosperous communities formerly thrived, and the population of the country will be divided between the farms and the large cities. The prospect is not a pleasant one to contemplate.

Our city, our state and our country—to these be loyal—it means prosperity to yourself and your neighbor. Bank here and check out to home merchants. Exchange Bank.

Did you ever hear of mail order houses selling nationally advertised goods? Sure not. They could not quote those "flashy" prices on furniture of that kind. We guarantee full value. Do they? S. S. Slater & Son.

Eat Butter-Krust Bread, 5c a loaf. Household Tin at 10c a loaf. Kind's cakes, 10c in boxes. At the Evans Restaurant. The Kind Bakery Goods are unequalled.

The mail order house will not look after your sole, but I will. Shoes repaired promptly and satisfaction guaranteed. I use the best of leathers and always finish the job. Thos. Cornwell.

We know that it will pay you to come to us for your winter's coal. Unlike mail order merchants, it is where you can see it before buying. Zeller & Son.

No job of teaming too large nor too small for me to handle. Your phone order to No. 24 will receive prompt attention. Planos carefully handled. Mail orders would be too slow and unreliable. J. L. Patterson.

You would not buy bread of a mail order house if you could, would you? You would not bake bread if you knew just how good the Genoa Bakery goods are. Eating it is the proof thereof. Try it. Duncan, the Baker.

Had Been There Before. The man of great financial prominence had met with an accident. "We'll have to probe," said the doctor. Just at that moment the man recovered consciousness and exclaimed: "If it's a surgical operation go ahead, but if it's another investigation, give me an anesthetic."

WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

ACRS. HELEN SEYMOUR, Editor

Suffragette Autumn Party

The Autumn Party given by the Suffragette Club at Slater's hall last Friday evening was one of the prettiest events of the season. Bright colored autumn leaves and Japanese lanterns made the hall very attractive and a beautiful back ground for the dancers. There were also several cozy corners which the dancers made good use of. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Scott followed immediately by the members of the Suffragette Club. There were about seventy couples in the march and it made a pretty picture with the ladies in their evening gowns and the gentlemen in their best. The programs were very appropriate for this occasion with autumn leaves and a sheaf of golden wheat on the cover. They were filled out by the ladies this being a custom followed by the "Suffragettes" and it was indeed amusing to see them hurrying from one gentleman to another while the latter stood serenely about rather enjoying the treat. In one corner frappe was served by two young ladies and between dances this seemed to be the most popular place in the hall. The music, which was exceptionally good, was furnished by Patterson's six piece orchestra. There were guests from Elgin, Rockford, Belvidere, Marengo, Fairdale, Aurora, Sycamore and Genoa.

Jolly Eight

Mrs. F. O. Swan entertained the Jolly Eight Card Club Saturday afternoon. Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. Maude Kunkle served as substitutes for Mrs. J. A. Patterson and Mrs. J. H. Danforth. Five hundred was the game played Mrs. Swan making high score. A dainty two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miscellaneous Shower

The Misses Clara Krueger and Christina Sprigler entertained in honor of Miss Agnes Holsker at the home of the latter last Thursday afternoon. The guests numbered sixty. Miss Holsker received many beautiful gifts, among them were cut glass, silver ware, linen and hand painted china. A delicious luncheon was served in cafeteria style.

Fortnightly Club

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph H. Browne. The roll call was responded to by our "Latest Inventions." Mrs. Rutherford Patterson gave a very interesting talk on the subject of Music. At the conclusion of the program the club sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

Kitchen Shower

Miss Mabel Brown of Belvidere entertained at her home Saturday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Agnes Holsker, who is soon to be a bride. The dining room was artistically decorated in pink and white. A dainty two course luncheon was served. Miss Holsker was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Overly-Pauling

Mr. Oxel Overly and Miss Mabel Pauling were quietly married by Rev. J. Molthan at the German parsonage Saturday evening. The young couple are well known here and have many friends who wish them joy in their matrimonial life. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple went to their newly furnished home in the Tyler building on Sycamore street.

Priscilla Club

Mrs. Roy Stanley entertained the Priscilla Club Tuesday afternoon. The ladies spent a delightful afternoon preparing Christmas gifts, after which a dainty luncheon was enjoyed.

Mrs. C. L. Nelson is suffering with an attack of quinsy.

Mrs. Herbert Abbott is confined to her home with a bad case of grippe.

A parcel post convention between the United States and Russia soon may be effected for the benefit of the merchants of both countries.

H. J. Glass is installing the new motor at the pumping station. He also installed the motor in The Republican-Journal press room last week.

Regular Epworth League meeting Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock. A complete report of the District convention held at Sycamore the 3d, 4th and 5th of November will be given.

The Genoa Cash Grocery will soon have another 500-pound cheese on display in the show window. A few days previous to Thanksgiving last year one of these "self-binders" was put on sale and practically all sold before the festive day.

While out hunting rabbits last week, Ernest Geithman shot a fine specimen of the fox family. A fox in this day and age is a rare thing in Northern Illinois. There are many people well along in years who have never seen one in the wild state.

It will pay you to talk to Martin regarding that jewelry or silverware purchase. A talk with him may save you dollars now and disappointment later. Remember the guarantee.

J. R. Kiernan & Son and Ralph Patterson will have another car load of Minnesota potatoes in a few days. If you have not already put in your winter supply, you had better get busy right now and leave your order. No one dares predict what the market will be after freezing weather sets in.

H. J. Glass is a real electrician. No job too small nor none too big and complicated for him to handle. Will install anything from a button light switch to a fifty-horse motor and guarantee satisfaction in any case.

The young people of Genoa and many surrounding cities are anticipating with pleasant memories of the first event, the second dance and cabaret which is billed for Friday night of this week at the opera house. Copeland's Arcadia Orchestra of Chicago will again furnish the music.

Chas. Altenberg has purchased the residence of the late Della Ann Totten on the corner of Main and Sycamore streets. H. J. Glass, who occupies the house at present expects to move his family into the rooms in the rear of his electrical shop, being unable to get a suitable house.

Charles C. Schoonmaker is here from Champaign, having been called to the bed side of his mother who is very low. Mrs. Schoonmaker, who has been confined to her bed for four years, lacking two months, can battle the inevitable only a few days longer. Altho practically helpless at the present time, she is not suffering any pain.

The Restaurant Bluffer

"Of all the bluffers one meets socially and in business, and their name is legion," remarked a minor cyclic, "none amuses me more than the restaurant bluffer. This brand is numerous. I met one today, and his embarrassment was ludicrous.

"This chap, you know, is a living lie. He lodges in a rather high priced house, but occupies a cheap little room up under the roof, to which he is careful not to invite any acquaintance. He's an underlark of high finance. He pretends to be on friendly terms with influential men who wouldn't know him from Adam.

"Several evenings ago he was in pressing me with the frequency with which he lunches at one or two places famous in the Wall street section. When I met him today bending over coffee and rolls in a place where his check was 10 cents you should have seen his face. It was a study.

"Of course I wasn't surprised, but he wasn't."—New York Globe.

Spies In Revolutionary Days

A curious and unfamiliar page in American history shows that the treatment of the spy in Revolutionary days was painfully prompt and rigorous. Every American schoolboy knows the fate of Major Andre, but few know of any others, with perhaps the exception of Nathan Hale, executed by the British as a spy. In the second year of our Revolutionary war General Israel Putnam caught a man lurking about his post at Peckskill, on the Hudson. A flag of truce came from Sir Henry Clinton, claiming the prisoner as Lieutenant Palmer of the British service. The answer of the stout old general was brief and to the point.

Headquarters, Aug. 7, 1777. Edmund Palmer, an officer in the enemy's service, was taken as a spy lurking within our lines. He has been tried as a spy, condemned as a spy and shall be executed as a spy, and the flag is ordered to depart immediately.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Reception Gown, the Idea of a Western Designer, Is Worth Comparison With Any That Has Been Sent to This Country From Paris—Some of the Latest Ideas in Bags Are Simple but Extremely Pretty.

From a western designer came this splendid reception gown and royal scarf, along with several others of equal rank in the realm of clothes. Comparison would not be odious to its creator, even in the establishments of Paris, where everyone expects to find the utmost in evening dress.

The under-petticoat of white chiffon has a fringe of beads, and the hem is bordered with rows of narrow silver ribbon with picot edge. Small bows and ends are placed at intervals holding little chiffon roses, in pale tints, to place. This petticoat is full, but the beads weight it so that it hangs straight. Panels of white brocade fall over it, finished at the bottom with a deep fringe.

The bodice is of chiffon and the V-neck is outlined at the back and front with festoons of the finest chiffon roses. There is not much to the bodice except the extremely wide girdle of white brocade wrought with beads and silver threads.

Mrs. Wyckoff, Demanding Divorce, Describes Thrilling Trip From Coast.

Greenwich, Conn.—In a bill of particulars filed in the supreme court at Bridgeport, Mrs. Vera E. Wyckoff, whose suit for divorce against Spofford F. Wyckoff of the Wyckoff Pipe and Creosoting company, New York, now pending in the higher court, alleges many cruelties.

Mrs. Wyckoff says she was forced to ride across the Arizona desert in an automobile against her physician's advice, with the temperature 107 degrees, while her infant clamored vainly for milk. She also says she was compelled, while in delicate health, to sleep on a bathroom floor behind locked doors, because her intoxicated husband paced up and down her bedroom with a loaded shotgun on his shoulder.

Other alleged instances of her husband's cruelty are the throwing of a $20 gold piece at her in Salt Lake City and telling her she could make her way East as best she could with that money; choking her when he found her reading a letter his mother had written advising him to get a divorce, and throwing the contents of a beer bottle over her, striking her and threatening her with death.

Mrs. Wyckoff says her husband declared he would kill her and commit suicide. This inhumane treatment was suffered, Mrs. Wyckoff says, in Stamford, Salt Lake City, South Norwalk and other places.

A sensational attempt to kidnap their twenty-month-old child, and take him from the custody of his father, was made last December, when Mrs. Wyckoff brought the child in an automobile to the house of Miss Minnie F. Held, at Indian Harbor, closely pursued in another car by her husband, who had an injunction served on her. Later she went to the home of her mother in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. Wyckoff is the son of the late Frank T. Wyckoff and is rated a millionaire. He was educated at Yale for the law. He received a large estate left by his father. His mother, Mrs. A. T. Mitchell, lives in Stamford.

 Mrs. Newcomb—Good morning. Is this Miss Wise's private academy?
 Mrs. Binks (hotly)—No, it is not! This is a private house, and these are my own children.
 Mrs. Newcomb (hastily)—Why, I thought it must be a school, because the children looked so educated and scholarly and—refined, you know.
 Mrs. Binks (genially)—Oh, yes, of course. Come in and sit down. Lucy, call your six brothers and five sisters, and introduce them to the lady, while I just put on my hat to show her where Miss Wise's school is.—Tit-Bits.

Important to Mothers
 Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria. Call a man a diplomat, instead of a liar, and he will be pleased. Yet it amounts to the same thing.

Table Dainties from Sunny Climes

From tropical Hawaii, home of the sweetest, most luscious pineapple, comes the one; and California, where the tenderest asparagus grows, supplies the other. The Libby care and cleanliness back of both is a warrant of a product that will please you.

 Auto Dealer—Do you know how many cars I have sold this week?
 New Clerk—Seventeen.
 Auto Dealer—See here, have you been looking into the books?
 New Clerk—No, sir.
 Auto Dealer—Then how did you guess it exactly?
 New Clerk—Because there have been just that many looking for you this afternoon with blood in their eyes.—Puck.

SPLENDID RECEPTION GOWN IN WHITE.

bows and ends are placed at intervals holding little chiffon roses, in pale tints, to place. This petticoat is full, but the beads weight it so that it hangs straight. Panels of white brocade fall over it, finished at the bottom with a deep fringe.

The bodice is of chiffon and the V-neck is outlined at the back and front with festoons of the finest chiffon roses. There is not much to the bodice except the extremely wide girdle of white brocade wrought with beads and silver threads.

DOG LIMPS TO A HOSPITAL

Holds Up Crushed Paw to Surgeon and Thanks Him for Dressing Wound.

Kansas City, Mo.—A forlorn little fox terrier limped on three feet up the driveway to the General hospital here. Unobserved he followed orderlies as they carried an injured man into the receiving ward.

It was not until after Dr. J. C. Lynch had finished treating his patient that he heard a whining and whimpering at his feet.

The little dog, holding up a crushed forepaw, was looking appealingly at the doctor. Pathetic brown eyes seemed trying to explain.

Doctor Lynch anointed the dog's foot with liniment and bandaged it.

After a grateful lick of the doctor's white shoes, the fox terrier limped away.

THIEF'S COAT BLAZING COMET

Elaborate Plan to Capture Chicken Thief Succeeds in Scaring Him Badly.

Appleton, Wis.—Using a little Sherlock Holmes system in order to discover how his chickens disappeared, Harry Stroeb concocted a plan to capture the chicken thief. He placed a gun loaded with powder in such a position that when the visitor entered the coop it would discharge.

Early in the morning when all was quiet on Stroeb island and Mr. Stroeb was deep in slumber, a loud report was heard. Ah, thought Mr. Stroeb, my scheme has worked. He immediately proceeded to the scene of action to find a coat tall brilliantly illuminated speeding to safety.

As far as the eye could see the burning coat tail sped on. The thief did not take a chick that time.

Here is a better rubber boot than Father ever owned—it is a "HIPRESS"

WITH THE RED LINE 'ROUND THE TOP

Father wore black boots. So did you until about 3 years ago when Goodrich—after spending $1,000,000—perfected "HIPRESS" Brown Boots, made the new way, like a Goodrich Auto Tire, out of tough new auto tire rubber. Dad's boots never wore half so long—neither do other makes even today compare with "HIPRESS" because a "HIPRESS" boot is one solid wear-resisting piece. All styles—38,000 dealers.

The ORIGINAL Brown Rubber Boots and Heavy Shoes

20,000,000 pairs sold without advertising—that's how good Goodrich "STRAIGHT-LINE" Rubbers are!

A fit for every foot

The rubber in them is tough, almost, as rawhide. It wears twice as long as the rubber others use. And "STRAIGHT-LINES" fit snug, feel light and look neat. They are everything that a man, woman or child could desire—that is why 20,000,000 pairs were sold on merit alone—without advertising. At 38,000 stores.
