April.

Those who in April, date their years. Diamonds shall wear, lest bitter tears For rain repentance flow. This stone, emblem of innocence is known.

Local News in Brief

Oats are coming. Corn planting begins this week. C. A. Goding was home over Sunday. Chas. Holroyd was in Belvidere last Friday. Mrs. Susan Brown was at Sycamore Friday. E. H. Browne says his wife has her garden made. Alderman Lon Holroyd spent Sunday in Chicago. George Hill will occupy the E. L. Abraham house. Ira Metler and wife visited Kirkland friends last Friday. George Lanman spent Sunday at home with his parents. Charles Winters visited his parents at Belvidere last Sunday. Dr. Austin and W. A. Eiklor had business in Elgin Monday. J. T. Parish of East Plato was in town on business Monday. The Female Mason was honored with a $38 house last Friday evening. Browne's Fried Cakes are good for business and ingrowing toe nails. For Rent—A splendid residence on Main street. Inquire D. S. Lord. This paper and the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean for $1.50. Ask us about it. Epworth League entertainment May 9, will be worth your time and money. S. S. Slater is selling some fine lines of wall paper at very moderate prices this week. F. R. Rowen, wife and daughter, of Kingston, were seen on our streets Monday. Charles Whipple was in Chicago Monday, having a carload of beefers on the market. Miss Emma Sonderregger has been a guest the past few weeks with Mrs. Freda Kunzler. Miss Bertha Nilson and brother, Edward P., of Sycamore, were in town Monday on business. Rev. Eargney, presiding elder of this district, preached at the M. E. church last Sunday morning. Oliver Christanson and wife returned to Chicago last Sunday, after a week's visit with Genoa relatives. The famous Henry Jones of Kingston was in Genoa Monday evening, expanding his lungs to still greater proportions. Rev. J. August Smith of Rockford passed through Genoa Monday evening enroute home from Aurora, where he preached Sunday. Those from Genoa who attended Geo. Hausline's funeral at Elgin last Monday were: Geo. Eichler, Stout and John Hepburn. John Albertson has rented the Henry Holroyd property, formerly occupied by Lon Holroyd, and has moved his family here from Belvidere. The Issue of last week contained the fire marshal's report and the township treasurer's report, but we looked in vain for the special tax collector's report. Jim Hutchison, Sr., has been successful in buying a church at Burlington. The next in order will be to secure a congregation and then his chance for a good job will be apparent.

Horse for sale; inquire at this office. Another cold snap Wednesday morning. Piano for Sale.—Inquire at Journal office. Snowballs the year round at E. H. Browne's. If in want of job printing this shop's the place to get it. Mrs. Tillie Bagley was in Chicago Tuesday on business. Julius Rudolph of Belvidere was a Genoa caller Friday. Another cargo of Browne's Fried Cakes for the Filipinos. Seeders—the Quaker City and the Royal—at K. Jackman & Son's. The Woodmen are to have a May Ball on Friday evening, May 2nd. F. O. Swan and wife were shopping in Chicago on Thursday of last week. Jimmy Winn of Rockford was a guest last week of his aunt, Mrs. E. B. Millard. Work on the Elgin branch of the electric road to Chicago is now being pushed rapidly. Mesdames W. H. Sager and Judith Patterson and Miss Maud Sager were Sycamore visitors last Monday. Prof. Stout of the Sycamore High School and Beulah Blagden were calling on Genoa friends last Monday. Rev. H. G. Hawthorne of St. Luke's church, Chicago, will be a guest with Mrs. Persiew a few days next week. The Misses Belle Cliffs and Gretchen Marquart visited over Sunday in Belvidere, with their aunts, Mrs. Ida and Titia Hancock. Grinding.—During the month of April we will only do feed grinding on Tuesdays and Saturdays of each week. Hecht & Abraham. Mesdames Susan Shippe, Dellian Totten and Edna Goding and Mr. Shippe were business callers at the county seat Friday. Now is the time to paper cheap. August Tyler offers to close out a lot of the best grades of wall paper at a big reduction in prices. D. F. Pea-e of Malta, who had been suffering from cancer for several years past, succumbed to the disease on Monday, the 14th inst., aged 76 years. Samson Roseltaw, the demented Jew who a number of years ago was living with various people at Charter Grove and New Lebanon, was in Genoa Tuesday. Mrs. Charles S. Hunt died at her home in DeKalb on Wednesday of last week, at the age of 68. She had been a resident of the county for over forty years. Mrs. John Pratt was a passenger last Wednesday for Chicago, where she will make a few weeks' visit with relatives. No wonder John wears an apple face now. Mrs. Dusenberre will leave today for Chicago, to remain until Sunday, where she will purchase all the latest styles in millinery goods for the May trade, and solicits a share of your patronage. Not many people are aware that not many moons ago Ed Kunzler sent a full blooded Holstein cow to Switzerland as a wedding present to a loved sister. The cow went by express and arrived in good shape. Fletcher Hannah will take contracts of putting in concrete walls, cement barn floors, cellar bottoms, cisterns, etc., and will guarantee satisfaction. For terms and particulars, apply to F. Hannah, Genoa, Ill. We have heard numerous complaints lately of a number of youngsters who are making a practice of shooting song and other birds that are protected by law. We wish to drop a word of warning to such, before an officer of the law is called to take a hand in the matter. The Epworth League have arranged to give the people at the M. E. church on Friday evening, May 9, an eloquent entertainment. They have secured assistance from out of town that will be of the highest order and the people are assured of a first-class entertainment. J. S. Lawyer has secured the handling of a large tract of very desirable land in Marinette county, Wisconsin. Parties desiring to secure new homes will do well to investigate and secure his inducements which are very entertaining. Prices range from $7.50 to $12.50 and very easy terms. Office at Journal printing office. School election passed off last Saturday and resulted in the re-election of D. S. Brown as president of the school board for another year, and J. M. Harvey and C. H. Smith as members for three years. For an hour or two after the polls opened everything seemed to be very tame but at about 3:30 another ticket, with J. S. Lawyer at the head, made its appearance and had the effect of calling several lively rigs for the purpose of conveying the ladies to the polls. There were 168 votes cast, of which there were 13 for Mr. Lawyer and 153 for Mr. Brown.

"Faust." Watch for "Faust." Houses to Rent.—D. S. Lord. Calling cards at the JOURNAL office. Mrs. Catherine Donahue is quite sick. There will be no choir practice this week. Try the latest, sugar Pretzels at E. H. Browne's. S. S. Slater was in Chicago on business Wednesday. Mrs. Charles Aurner of Kingston was a Genoa caller Monday. For Rent.—A pleasant cottage. Milt and Jesse Geithman were looking at the steeps in Chicago Tuesday. Charley Holroyd and Fred Anderson had business at Belvidere Wednesday. Be sure to see that new line of baby shoes at Olmsted's. All colors, and beauties. Mrs. Sarah Chapman of Kingston visited her sister Mrs. Ursula Porter on Wednesday. A car load of Snow balls for the heatbens of the Sandwich Islands, from Browne's. You can get your seed sweet corn at wholesale price by ordering it at the Journal office early. Chas. Geithman and wife were in Sycamore Tuesday evening in attendance at a theatre. Mrs. Clara Cooper returned from Chicago Tuesday evening after spending a week with friends. Fred S. Hall was out from Chicago last Wednesday evening and visited with his mother a few hours. For linoleum, oil cloth, matting and carpets go to A. Teyler. A large stock on hand and prices right. No new block will be built on the Wilkin's block this season, and a high board fence now surrounds the ruins. K. Jackman & Son are overstocked on Oliver and Grand DeTour walking plows and are closing them out at low prices. A. B. Clefford has rented the Howard Reun residence property on Genoa street and will soon bring his family here from Chicago. E. L. Abraham was home Sunday, and on Monday moved his household goods to Elgin, where he is working at the carpenter trade. Every farmer should leave word at the Journal office how many acres of sweet corn he will raise this summer for our canning factory. Fletcher Hannah has on hand a carload of Portland cement and can furnish the same to people at right prices and also take contracts for all kinds of concrete and cement work. On Tuesday, April 15, two horses strayed from my place. One was a dark brown horse, branded; the other, a sorrel mare colt. Liberal reward for information regarding them. Harry Luxton, Creston, Ill. A large amount of real estate was literally soaring in the air Monday and Tuesday, but a glorious April shower, the best of the season, which came Tuesday afternoon, brought the flying dirt back to earth again. While Fred Schuur was in town last Tuesday one of his horses was taken sick and the assistance of Dr. Danforth was necessary. The animal was taken into Tishler's shop and slung up and ministered to, and yesterday it was much better. The horse is a fine one, five years old, for which a good price has been offered. Some one has been destroying rural mail boxes which belong to farmers on the routes running out of Genoa and the government has said that it would make an everlasting example of any one guilty of doing the like. The eyes of the law are watching and our advice to every one is, "don't monkey with Uncle Sam or his tools." Genoa is up to date, surely, for we have an auto-mo-bubble. It has been under construction for the past six months and finally last Monday Mal Miller came out and spun off with it as slick as a new tin whistle. Mal has his machine all complete with the exception of an engine, but no such deficiency would keep him from testing his machine, so he hoisted a sail and found that the wind was ample power; but he came back with his sail under his arm. George Hauseline, son of M. Hause line died last Saturday, from a stroke of paralysis which he sustained the next day after Easter, since which time he has gradually declined until last Saturday when he died. The funeral services were held in Elgin last Monday. He had been and was at the time of the stroke a practicing attorney in Chicago. Hauselines were once Genoa people and lived on the farm now occupied by Alfred Corson.

Vitæ - Ore

The Ore of Life

Price $1.00 per package. 3 for $2.60, 6 for $5.00

Send for our 64-page Vita-Ore book. A complete history of Vita-Ore.

AFTER you have tested all nostrums, drugs, and doctors, only to grow older and worse, try VITÆ-ORE—the Ore of Life—and learn that it is the Best Thing in, on, or out of the earth for the afflicted. Its unequalled Antiseptic, Tonic Powers will remove the nidus of any ill. Proof at our expense. It challenges comparison. It is the original that all imitate. It is a discovery never downed by quacks, who thrive on a man's ills being protracted. Like gold, it cannot be analyzed or synthesized. It is a puzzle to the scientist, an enigma to the medical student, a boon to the afflicted. It is a positive specific for all the troubles, ailments and disorders and should be used in all diseased conditions.
