

A Light weight

Overcoat or Slip-on

It's a little early to wear a heavy overcoat, in fact some fellows do not care for a heavy coat at any time of the year. For the early wear and for the one who wants a light coat for the entire season, we are prepared. Our line of light coats is not the largest in the country, but it has been carefully selected and embraces the latest styles and patterns. If we have nothing in stock that pleases you, it will be a pleasure to take your measure for a coat. In any event you may be assured of a perfect fit at a price entirely satisfactory. The Slip-on Coat is ideal for fall wear. It not only sheds water but keeps out the cold wind. Come in and let us show you the two lines.

Prince Albert gives smokers such delight, because

- its flavor is so different and so delightfully good;
- it can't bite your tongue;
- it can't parch your throat;
- you can smoke it as long and as hard as you like without any comeback but real tobacco happiness!

On the reverse side of every Prince Albert package you will read:
"PROCESS PATENTED JULY 30th, 1907"
That means to you a lot of tobacco enjoyment. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

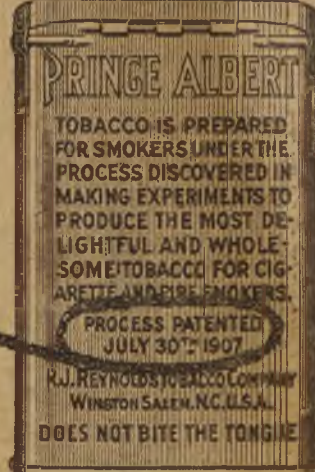

the national joy smoke

in goodness and in pipe satisfaction is all we or its enthusiastic friends ever claimed for it!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

Will you invest 5c or 10c to prove out our say-so on the national joy smoke?

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

This is the reverse side of the Prince Albert tin. Read this "Patented Process" message-to-you and realize what it means in making Prince Albert so much to your liking.

The Quality is not sacrificed in Low Prices

Do you know that the Genoa Cash Grocery sells staple and fancy groceries just a little cheaper than the other fellow? This is made possible by our eliminating the expense of maintaining a delivery wagon and carrying a lot of bad accounts on our books. And do you know that the quality of goods is not sacrificed the least bit in making the low prices? A glance at our shelves will convince you that our goods are all standard, nationally advertised brands. Below are a few prices and only a few of the many money saving opportunities offered here:

Baker's Chocolate, per lb.	35c
Good Head Rice, per lb.	8c
Baker's Cocoa, one-half lb.	22c
Good Oatmeal, 25 cent package.	20c
Kellogg's Corn Flakes.	12c
Monarch Catsup, 25c bottle.	15c

Things you Don't see

when you buy a mattress, are its most important features

For instance there is a stuffing called "linters," which is made up of left over wads of cotton, seeds and dirt. You can buy one very cheaply. The ticking may be the same as on a high priced mattress, but the bumps will come soon and nobody on earth can take them out.

A good mattress, made of layers of white, fluffy cotton, absolutely pure and clean, is worth every penny you pay for it. It will last a life time and "come back" fresh and new every time you use it. In our mattresses we pride ourselves on cleanliness and big value. A mattress of the right kind is one of the best investments you can make. Come in and get more facts about them. We will fit any bed.

Earl Sedgwick and Harold Ross of Kirkland are attending the Genoa public school, being enrolled in the grades.
Miss Mary Canavan, who has been on a two weeks' vacation, part of which she spent in Chicago, returned to her duties as chief operator at the Telephone Exchange Monday.

The Methodist Sunday school will have a "Get Together," social in the church parlors on Friday evening, Sept. 29. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is cordially invited, especially the young people.

In connection with the regular monthly banquet at the Odd Fellows meeting next Monday evening, a good entertainment will be given. All members of the Odd Fellow lodge and Rebekahs are requested to be present.

The young people are rejoicing over the fact that Herman Eickstadt is advertising another barn dance for Saturday night of this week, Sept. 23. The floor is still in excellent condition and good music is assured.

Those who have employed him in making repairs or doing a job of wiring say that H. J. Glass knows his business. He guarantees that his work will be satisfactory in every way. Nuf ced.

The Epworth League will meet at the M. E. church on Sunday evening at seven o'clock, with Roy Pratt as leader. Miss Nina Patterson will render a vocal solo. All young people are invited.

In a recent article The Republican Journal stated that Miss Cora Watson had been engaged to teach the seventh and eighth grades in the Oak Park schools. Of course in a school the size of Oak Park's this would be impossible. Miss Watson teaches a part of the seventh only.

Rev. J. Moltan will preach at the Mission Feast to be held at the German Evangelical Lutheran church in Thornton, near Chicago, next Sunday. There will be no services here in the morning. In the afternoon at 2:15 o'clock Rev. School of Hampshire will occupy the pulpit.

At a meeting of the local branch of the Milk Producer's Association last Thursday evening, Ray Crawford was elected president to fill the unexpired term of A. V. Pierce. The local board elected is composed of John Gray, Fred Floto and Geo. Schandlmeier.

The first frost of the season visited this section of the country last Friday night, but did little damage. Another followed on Sunday night which finished the growth of vegetation and put a stop to the maturing of corn. Most of the latter was out of the way, there being only a few pieces, here and there, which would have been better if given another week or two.

WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

MRS. HELEN SEYMOUR, Editor

Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Holmes
Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Holmes were very pleasantly surprised by a number of relatives from Rockford, Lindenwood, Esmond, Kirkland and Sycamore last Saturday. It was a very happy surprise when Mrs. Holmes saw six automobiles drive into her yard bringing the party of relatives to spend the day. The Holmes family have a picnic in Ogle county every year, but Mr. and Mrs. Holmes were unable to attend this year and so this picnic was planned. A bounteous picnic dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes proved to be able entertainers and the company departed for their respective homes in the late afternoon feeling that they had indeed spent a happy day.

Miss Emily Burroughs Honored
Mrs. D. S. Brown entertained at a one o'clock dinner on Friday for Miss Emily Burroughs, a bride of the near future. The table decorations were in pink and white, pink asters being used. Miss Burroughs was presented with a beautiful French mirror. The guests were: Mrs. Henry Burroughs and daughter, Miss Emily, Mrs. Fred Wynant of Chicago, Mrs. Charles Pond of Sycamore, Mrs. John Butzow of Marengo, Mrs. Frank Scott and daughter, Mrs. Donnelly Gray and Miss Beth Scott, Mrs. Minard Scott and Mrs. E. W. Brown and children.

Literary Club
Mrs. Henry Burroughs and daughter, Miss Emily, entertained the Literary Club Wednesday afternoon at their home south of the city. Mrs. Burroughs gave an exceptionally good talk on the life and habits of "Domestic Animals," a subject which was handled ably and it proved to be a very interesting lesson. Miss Emily, who will become the bride of Lewis Scott in the near future, gave the club a rare treat in showing the contents of her cedar chest, which is always interesting to a party of ladies. The hostesses served a dainty lunch.

Buck Family Reunion
The Buck family held a reunion Sunday, Sept. 16th, at the old home of the late Jerusha Buck Gray, this being the first time in seven years since the entire families have met. An appetizing dinner was enjoyed.

Work and Leisure.
There is room enough in human life to crowd almost every art and science in it. If we pass "no day without a line"—visit no place without the company of a book—we may with ease fill libraries, or empty them of their contents. The more we do, the more we can do; the more busy we are, the more leisure we have.—Hazlitt.

The Feminine Way.
After a girl hypnotizes a young man into buying her a solitaire she begins to wonder what she could do with some other chap if it were not too late.—Exchange.

Snubbing a Grand Duke.
When the Russian Grand Duke Sergius, who was blown to pieces with a dynamite bomb, was governor of Warsaw he thought it would be a good idea if the people of that city would contribute to a fund with which to buy sunflower seeds to be given to the Russian soldiers, who are very fond of chewing them. Sergius announced that every one sending money would be given a receipt, but those sending 1,000 rubles ($510) or more would be thanked personally by himself. It is said that the response was excellent; but, though no one sent in 1,000 rubles and asked to be thanked personally by the grand duke, many sent in 990 rubles and asked for the receipt.—London Telegraph.

An Eye Test.
Most people believe that they see the same with both eyes. That this is not the case one can easily convince himself by the following simple experiment: Cover one of the eyes with a hand or bandage and let the experimenter attempt to snuff out a candle suddenly placed within a few feet of him. He will almost invariably miss the flame, either overreaching, underreaching or putting the fingers too far to the right or left of the flame. With both eyes normal and open the accommodation for distance and direction is instantaneous.

Both Satisfied.
"The best thing that ever happened to me," sneered the young man to his former employer, "was when you fired me. I went out and got a regular job."
"That's all right," replied the old boss. "I'm glad you're satisfied. Firing you didn't hurt our firm a particle."
—Detroit Free Press.

Mercy Is Not Strained.
He (brutally)—Women have no sense of humor, anyhow. She (pointedly)—Oh, yes, they have! The reason they don't laugh at the funny things they see is because they don't want to hurt the poor things' feelings.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Might Work.
"Wife, why don't you hire a better cook?"
"We can't offer enough salary to entice one away from our rich neighbors."
"Well, can't you draft one from the minors?"—Exchange.

Genuine Faith Cure.
Towne—Do I understand you to say that Spencer's case was really a faith cure? Brown—Yes. You see, the doctor and the druggist both trusted him.—Exchange.

Celebrate Their Birthdays
The members of the Ladies Aid of Burlington, in a most pleasant way, helped Mrs. Sarah Shefner and Mrs. Ada Smith, the latter from Burlington, celebrate their birthdays last Friday at the home of Mrs. Shafter's daughter, Mrs. Frank Wallace. The guests of honor have been life long friends and are both in the sixties. They have been members of the Aid for a great many years. A delightful lunch, brought by the ladies, was served in the dining room which was tastefully decorated in autumn flowers. There were twenty-five members present.

Gift from W. C. T. U.
Mrs. A. C. Reid was somewhat surprised last Thursday afternoon when the members of the W. C. T. U. met at her home for what she thought was to be the regular business meeting, but which proved to be a house warming. The different committees of the last club year gave in their final reports, after which a social time was enjoyed. A dainty lunch was served and the ladies presented Mrs. Reid with two beautiful pictures. The presentation speech being made by Mrs. R. E. Pierce.

Party for Miss Alys Sowers
Misses Marjorie and Lenore Reinken entertained for Miss Alys Sowers of Elgin at their home east of Genoa Wednesday evening. Music and dancing were enjoyed through the evening. A four course luncheon was served, covers being laid for six. The table was beautifully decorated in red roses and ferns. Miss Alys Sowers of Elgin Charles Kelly, James Arlington and Ray Merley of Marengo were present.

Blankets and Robes

I have the mail order houses on the run when it comes to the horse blanket and lap robe proposition, and if you will call and investigate you will find this to be absolutely true. As a matter of fact the mail order house does not handle the quality of goods you will find here and for that reason a comparison of prices merely would not be fair. Without doubt I carry the biggest line of blankets and robes in this section of the country and those who have been my regular customers will vouch for the prices being right always. Call today and see this fine line. If I have not just what you want and at the right price, you will not be urged to buy.
