The authorities of larger cities have discovered that moral conditions do not improve where the one who condones immorality is making the mighty dollar as a result of allowing immoral conditions.

The League controversy is not a partisan question, if the division which is developing in the senate is any criterion. President Wilson is now very busy explaining those six votes allotted to England to the one which has been granted the United States.

Despite the fact that scientists of the state and government health department are giving out warnings of a return of influenza, the public drinking cup is in evidence in some places. Even in the home, where any disease of a communicable or contagious nature is evident, the common drinking cup or glass is decidedly objectionable. A thousand times more foolhardy is the common drinking cup in a public place.

With all the trouble and heartaches that are bound to follow in the wake of the steel strike, it may be that it is all for the best. An understanding between capital and labor for all time must come, and it is just as well, perhaps, that the definite struggle should be between the greatest employer in the United States in the greatest industry and the powerful unions among the employes. This fight will no doubt be to a finish and many questions will be settled that have been a stumbling block for both employer and employe. One important thing is being discovered at the start, and that is that not all the men who walked out are favoring the ends are even now begging for work. As in the case of practically all the late strikes the minority has ruled, the majority following the lead of the minority thru fear rather than thru desire. The Republican does not attempt to criticize the strikers nor the steel companies, because we do not know all the details of the controversy, any more than do many of the men who have walked out. We do know that thousands of these men are drawing enormous wages, have large families and want nothing better than to be left to enjoy the prosperity that is now theirs. It is not so much a question of wages, but a question of the rights of capital and labor, a question that might as well be settled now as later.

78 CONGRESSIONAL MEDALS of HONOR to A. E. F.

By John Dickinson Sherman

Oh, the English an' the Irish an' the 'owlin' Scotties, too. The Canucks and Austro-uns an' the 'airy French polu— The only thing that bothered us in all our staggerin' ranks Was wot in 'ell would 'appen w'en the 'Uns 'ad 'it the Yanks.

THE United States of America is preparing an illustrated history of the great war which will tell exactly what happened when the Huns hit the Yanks. In the meantime congress has picked out a few sample fighting Yanks and awarded them the Medal of Honor, not for doing their mere duty, but for "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty." Incidentally, this list could be easily doubled and trebled. Again: The names of American soldiers who wear other American, British and French decorations are legion; six of the 12,000 Americans who fought with the Canadians were awarded the Victoria Cross, the British decoration corresponding to the Medal of Honor. One out of 15,400 soldiers in action received the Medal of Honor.

I would like to see the official citations setting forth the acts of supreme courage of each of these 78 medalists printed in full in every newspaper in the land. I would like to see these citations made into a text-book and put into the public schools. I am not bloodthirsty, but I approve efficiency, even in killing Huns. And I think such a book would be an incentive to patriotism to every red-blooded American boy and girl—our future citizens.

As it is, there is space for little here besides the names of the medalists. Study the list and find out many interesting things for yourself. You will note, for instance, that 21 are officers and 57 enlisted men. Nineteen paid the price with their lives. New York leads with nine; Illinois is second with seven, and California, Missouri, New Jersey, South Carolina and Tennessee share third honors with six each.

Military experts have long regarded the Marines the most efficient fighting men of all the armies of the world. Nevertheless, 39 of the medals go to the men of the National Guards; 23 to men of the selective draft organizations, 13 to regular army and marine units, 2 to the tank corps and 1 to the air service.

By divisions, the Thirtieth leads with 12 medals; it is the National Guard organization of the Carolinas and Tennessee. Second honors go to the Eighty-ninth division, which is the selective draft unit of western Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, South Dakota and New Mexico. The third is the Thirty-third or National Guard Division of Illinois. Fourth honors go to the famous Second division of regulars, which includes the marines, while fifth place is shared by the two New York divisions, the Twenty-seventh and the Seventy-seventh.

Sergeant Ellis, a regular, put in a whole day far in advance of the first wave of his company reducing machine-gun nests single-handed. He killed many of the enemy and captured ten machine guns and more than 50 prisoners.

Lieutenant Woodfill, also a regular, reduced three separate machine-gun nests, killing at least 12 of the enemy with rifle and pistol and finally two with a pick.

Lieutenant Luke, an eighteen-year-old volunteer aviator, destroyed 18 enemy aircraft in 17 days. Wounded and forced to make a landing, he killed attacking Germans with his pistol until he fell.

Sergeant York was originally a sincere conscientious objector. He was convinced from the Bible that "blessed are the peacemakers." So he went over to help make peace. He killed 24 of the enemy with rifle and pistol, put a whole machine-gun battalion out of business and marched 132 prisoners back to the American lines.

Every possible kind of courage was shown by these medalists. Roberts, when his tank slid into a flooded shell hole, deliberately gave his life to save his gunner. Blackwell gave his life in a volunteer attempt to get through heavy fire with a message. Whittlesey is the "Go to hell" officer of Argonne fame, who would not surrender. Loman wears also the Victoria Cross, Legion of Honor, the Medaille Militaire and the Croix de Guerre.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet. A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.

PAT EVIDENTLY MADE GOOD

News From America Seemed to Prove Irishman Had Not Misjudged His Capacity.

Pat Finnegan had left his wife in Ireland and gone to America to try his fortune and establish a home for his family in the new world. It was some two or three weeks after Pat's departure that his wife stood in the meager garden in front of her home, looking down the road her man had gone, and moodily speculating on his success. She was rudely startled by the harsh voice of Mrs. O'Leary calling her over the fence.

"Have you heard the news from America, Mrs. Finnegan?" "Faith, an' OI have not."

"This in the paper this mornin'. Read it fer yourself. 'America gone dry. Last alcoholic drink sold at midnight, June 20.'

Mrs. Finnegan looked doubtful for a minute; then, swelling with pride and casting a triumphant glance at Mrs. O'Leary, she shouted back: "Faith, an' Pat always said, give him two weeks an' there was not a country in the world he couldn't drink dry."—Life.

A Born Optimist.

"That fellow Jones is a born optimist—most hopeful fellow I ever knew."

"Yes?" "He certainly is. No matter how hard a job you've got, nor odds how difficult, you can be worrying yourself to death, but he won't; no, sir! He'll just smile, and tell you to keep on, dear heart; behind the sun the clouds are darkest; never say die; until you could almost waste a brick on him!"

He's Lucky at That.

My youngest boy and I were in a restaurant and the waiter asked what we would have. The boy said: "Anything but ham and eggs; that's all I ever get at home."—Chicago Tribune.

Doubt and fear mean failure; faith is an optimist, fear a pessimist.

Experts or Theorists—Which?

The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.

Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.

Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.

Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.

Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.
