SUES CITY OF GENOA

ROCKFORD WOMAN ASKS $2,000 FOR INJURIES

Fell into Ditch Last July in This City—
Council Claims She Has No Cause for Action

Mrs. Mary White of South Church street, Rockford, has filed in the circuit clerk's office at Sycamore preliminary papers in a damage suit for $2,000 against the city of Genoa.

Mrs. White alleges that on the evening of July 5 she fell into a trench which had been dug in one of the streets of Genoa and which she alleges was not lighted by danger lights. She states in her declaration that she received injuries of a serious nature to the legs and hips. She is represented by R. J. Cannell of Rockford and Cliff & Cliff of Sycamore.

Members of the city council claim that Mrs. White has no cause for action and will contest the case to the end, having retained the services of Attorney Carnes of Sycamore.

Following are the real facts in the case as obtained from persons who are acquainted with all the details:

Running along the west side of the street just west of the school house is a ditch which has been in existence for many years, in fact it is well known to every man, woman and child in Genoa and has never been considered more than a necessary evil as regards appearance. It has never been looked upon as a danger owing to the fact that the street is not generally used by the public, there being no side walks or road. Practically, the street has never been opened for traffic, altho it may be down on the city plat. There are two or three houses on the west side of the street, among them being the residence of Mr. Richtner where Mrs. White was visiting in July. To reach the road the walks leading from the houses cross the ditch and were built by the owners of the property.

On the evening of the 5th of July Mrs. White left the Richtner house about nine o'clock, it being quite dark. When she arrived at the ditch she mistook it for a side walk and walked into it, sustaining a sprained ankle.

At the time, the authorities offered to reimburse Mrs. White for the time lost owing to the accident and pay expenses of medical treatment. Instead of accepting the terms, however, Mrs. White consulted a lawyer who later sent a bill for $150 to the village. This was considered exorbitant and payment was refused. Later the lawyer wrote and demanded $2,000 claiming that the injuries were more severe than at first supposed. It was quite natural that the city council would turn down such a proposition. The matter was therefore left in the hands of Attorney Carnes of Sycamore.

Members of the council are confident that Mrs. White has no case. If she has it stands to reason that every gutter and ditch in the outskirts of this city and other cities as well must be filled up or danger lights be kept up continually. Had there been no bridge over the ditch the case would have a different aspect entirely.

Mrs. White is also confident that she will win the suit. Time and lawyers will tell.

KILLED AT MARENGO

Wm. B. Sullivan Loses Life in a Runaway Accident

William B. Sullivan, a well known and prosperous farmer living about seven miles northeast of Marengo was killed Friday at noon by being thrown from his wagon against a telephone post by his runaway team.

Sullivan was driving a team of colts which became frightened. No one knows what started them. When they reached the village the wagon struck an obstruction and Sullivan was thrown out. He struck a pole with his head and the force with which he was thrown was such that he flew fully twenty-five feet beyond the post before striking the ground. His head was simply swung against the pole as he passed and was crushed into a pulp. He lived about thirty-five minutes. His wife was notified and reached him before he passed away.

He was the owner of a large farm and worked it finely. He was the father of nineteen children, seventeen of whom are alive. His first wife passed away about four years ago and he had been since married. The Sullivan Brothers, auctioneers, are his sons.

Mrs. Frances Shoop Benning

Mrs. Benning was born in Crawford county, Ohio, Aug. 8, 1843, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cudden, on Derbyline road, Genoa township, Oct. 25, 1904, being some past sixty-one years of age at the time of her death.

Mrs. Benning came to Illinois with her parents when about three years of age and first lived near Kaneville, Kane county. When a young lady she moved to Maple Park and there married William Benning, March 1, 1873. Later she moved to Esmond, DeKalb county, where she lived until her husband's death about twelve years ago, when she came to live with her daughter in Genoa township.

Mrs. Benning leaves to mourn her departure three daughters and seven grand-children. She also leaves two brothers and two sisters of her father's family. Her daughters are Mrs. Sarah Clark of Elgin, Mrs. Emil Johnson of Genoa and Mrs. Cudden of Derbyline road, Genoa township.

She was a woman of beautiful Christian character. She became a Christian when a young woman and joined the Evangelical church. Later she joined the M. E. church at Esmond and was a faithful Christian to the end of her life. For several long years she has been a great sufferer, but through it all she was patient and uncomplaining. A short time before her death she prayed "O God, open for me the beautiful gates of Heaven," and God heard her prayer for in a short time she was gone.

The funeral services were held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cudden, on Friday, Oct. 28, Rev. T. E. Ream, pastor of Genoa M. E. church, officiating. Further services were held from the Esmond M. E. church, Rev. S. A. Holms officiating. Interment at Esmond cemetery.

The Walworth Times

The first issue of the Walworth Times, published by Savery & Alden, is before us. From all indications the Times is a healthy youngster. It is full of local news and is well patronized by the merchants of that village. This first issue contains twenty-five ads, one being a half page for C. F. Bright. The Republican-Journal extends congratulations and best wishes for the future of The Times.

IN BAD CONDITION

Chas. Lovell, Hampshire Saloon Keeper, in Elgin Hospital

Charles Lovell, proprietor of a saloon at Hampshire, was found lying unconscious in the front yard of the house recently occupied by the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loos on Orange street, Elgin.

The man was found about 7 o'clock Sunday evening by two boys named Sunlin, whose parents reside at 644 Orange street, in a house owned by Lovell. He was carried to the Sunlin home and Dr. O. L. Pelton summoned. He had the patient removed to St. Joseph's hospital, where he is reported to be doing nicely.

Mr. Lovell was injured about the face. One eye was bruised. His nose and cheek were lacerated.

As he was subject to fainting spells of late it is thought perhaps he became faint and fell from the steps of the house. It was not a case of hold-up as all his money was still on his person.

RECEIVES GOLD WATCH

Young People of Lutheran Church Surprise Their Pastor

Rev. Molthan, pastor of the Lutheran church in this city, was again agreeably surprised at his home on Monday evening, when about sixty of his young parishioners called unexpectedly. It was a most jolly company of guests and only proved the esteem in which Rev. Molthan is held by the young members of his church. The host deeply appreciated the ovation, but when he was presented with a beautiful seventeen-jewel watch it just naturally took his breath. He soon recovered however and expressed his thanks. The evening passed away only too quickly, the entertainment consisting of speech making, singing and games.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Becker of New Lebanon Entertain Friends

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Becker were victims of a surprise at their home near New Lebanon last Sunday, the affair having been arranged by the sons. The celebration was in honor of a birthday anniversary. About 100 guests from Elgin, North Plato, Hampshire, New Lebanon, Genoa and Kingston were present. It is not necessary to say that the crowd had a good time. The Becker family entertained their guests royally. Music was furnished by the Hampshire German band. Refreshments were served.

A QUILTING BEE

Mrs. Kathryn Waters Entertains a Number of Guests

In the form of an old fashioned quilting bee Mrs. Kathryn Waters entertained a number of her friends last Saturday, and they all enjoyed the event to the utmost. An excellent dinner was served and later candies and fruit were at the disposal of the guests.

The following were present: Mesdames Gray, K. Jackman, Green, T. L. Kitchen, L. Robinson, Wilcox, Crocker, John Had-sall, Geo. Buck, Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, Miss Ella White.

Starks Released

The report of Mr. Shirley, recently appointed guardian of the Starks boy, has been approved by Judge Williams, and W. H. Starks of Rockford, former guardian, released from custody.

QUESTION FOR VOTERS

SHALL GENOA TOWNSHIP HAVE BETTER REPRESENTATION

It is Possible if Every Republican Will Turn Out and Vote Next Tuesday—
Important Issue

There is a question (not on the ballot) which will be settled at the polls next Tuesday and, altho it is of no vital importance to the nation, it is a question that demands the attention of Genoa voters. We want and need for our own good as a town better representation in county affairs. At present Genoa is allowed only eight delegates in county conventions, whereas if every Republican voter will cast his ballot next Tuesday there is a possibility of increasing that number to ten or more. Each township is allowed one delegate for every fifty votes cast for President. Four years ago Genoa township polled something over 400 votes for McKinley. This year there should be 500 cast for Roosevelt. That would give us ten delegates. If Republicans will make an effort to get their neighbors out to vote with them it is a foregone conclusion that Genoa will be of more importance in the next Republican county convention.

There will probably be between six and seven hundred votes cast here Tuesday. If Genoa should go solid Republican or within fifty votes of it, our representation would consist of twelve delegates. This is a question for Democrats as well as Republicans to consider. Every vote cast for Roosevelt is a vote for the advantage of Genoa in county affairs.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP RALLY

Hon. S. H. Wirsching Will Speak at the Opera House Saturday Evening

Hon. S. H. Wirsching, candidate for minority representative from the 35th district on the Prohibition ticket, will speak at the Genoa opera house on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. His address as advertised in the posters will be on "clean politics."

Mr. Wirsching hails from Prophetstown, Whiteside county, and is putting up a hard fight with hopes of defeating James Brannen of Sycamore, the democratic nominee. Mr. Brannen leans on the support of his own party alone for election while Mr. Wirsching expects to win many votes from all parties with his war cry of "local option and clean politics."

SMALL ATTENDANCE

Evidently No Political Enthusiasm in Genoa.

Judging from the crowd which attended the rally at the opera house Wednesday evening there is no more political enthusiasm in Genoa than in the rest of the state. The great questions of the day have evidently all been satisfactorily settled in the minds of the voters in this state.

Not more than have the chairs were occupied Wednesday evening when Hon. R. R. Tiffany of Freeport delivered his address. Mr. Tiffany is an able speaker, having a good voice and being well posted. He devoted considerable time to the Philippine question and explained the trust situation fully. He deserved a full house.

Memorial Services

At the Lutheran church last Sunday special services were held in memory of the reformation by Martin Luther. Persons were present from Chaumburg, Bartlett and other places.

THE GRAND JURY

Passes Resolutions Regarding Slot Machines in County

At its session in Sycamore last week the grand jury passed the following resolutions regarding slot machines:

To the Honorable Charles A. Bishop, presiding judge of the DeKalb County Circuit Court at the October term A. D. 1904, thereof:

WHEREAS, complaint has been made to the grand jury of the October term 1904 of said court that slot machines are and have been for a long time operated in said county contrary to the laws of the State of Illinois; and,

WHEREAS, we are satisfied from the information received by us that a number of the parties so operating such slot machines, are doing so without a full realization of the fact that by so doing they are violating the criminal laws of this state in relation thereto; and,

WHEREAS, considering the manner in which this practice has been permitted to grow up by the residents of the county, the people of the county are, to a certain extent responsible for this present condition and in consequence thereof in our opinion the peace and welfare of our country demand that the parties so operating such machines should first be notified to stop operating such machines before prosecutions are commenced against them,

THEREFORE, be it resolved that we as a grand jury of this court recommend to your Honor that if the operation of such machines is not stopped at once in all parts of the county, prosecution of each and every person hereafter operating a slot machine in this county in violation of law be commenced at the next succeeding grand jury of this court and such offenders be hereafter prosecuted and punished, and we further recommend that the clerk of the court send a copy of this report and recommendation to each paper published in this county to be published in order to inform all persons that such prosecutions will be instituted unless the operation of such machines is stopped at once.

RALLY AT KINGSTON

Hon. M. H. Walsh of Chicago will Address the Meeting.

A Republican rally will be held at Kingston, Saturday evening, November 5, when Hon. M. H. Walsh, of Chicago, will discuss the questions of the day. Mr. Walsh has been doing considerable campaign work this fall and is a good speaker. The speech will be made from the steps in front of Hotel McCollom. This will be the last chance to hear the great Republican principles discussed before election. Remember the date, November 5.

Butter Advances

The situation in the Elgin district has materially changed in the past ten days. The supply of product has been short, while the demand from all points has been good, and orders for more than the factorymen have for sale. One concern reports a shortage of several hundred tubs in the past two weeks. A few lots on sale early in the session. Bids of 23 to 23½ cents were quickly made. There were no further bids, and offers of 23½ not accepted. The quotation committee declared the market firm at 23 cents.

A school for the deaf and dumb is about to be established in Elgin.

Celebrated Nofs Case at Elgin Has Been Settled and Complainant Gets Judgment of $15,000

The removal of four bridges over Rock river has been demanded by the war department, as their erection was not by consent of congress.

Rockford will entertain the next annual convention of the northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin Dairymen's convention on January 10, 11 and 12.

During November all clergymen presenting proper credentials will be admitted to the world's fair free. A resolution to this effect has been adopted by the exposition company.

The largest presidential vote ever polled was 14,700,000 cast in 1896; in 1900 the total was 13,096,000. It may reach 15,000,000 this year, but probably will not, as the indications in some quarters point to a rather quiet campaign.

Frank Loos, who shot and killed his wife last Saturday in the woods near Elgin died Friday at Sherman hospital in Elgin. After shooting his wife the man attempted to commit suicide and is dead as a result of his wounds.

Marengo News: The Genoa Republican-Journal says that Mr. C. M. Chappell and Miss Vina Koch of Genoa were married in Sycamore. Mr. and Mrs. Chappell will reside in Genoa. Carl was formerly of this city, where he has lots of friends.

Charles J. W. Agrelius was sentenced last week at Monroe to fifteen years in Waupun prison. As he is now 84 years of age, the chances are that he will spend the remainder of his days in prison. Agrelius was convicted of stealing a horse from Charles Shriner, living near Monroe, Ill.

Frank Jackson, a manufacturer of candy at Sterling has made a contract with a big firm of drug dealers in Chicago to supply them a thousand barrels of hoarhound cough drops this winter says the Sterling Gazette. This kind of sweet is heavy and a barrel full weighs 200 pounds or more which puts the entire order at something more than a hundred tons. Turning out a ton a day, it will be well along toward spring before this order can be filled.

Two world's records were beaten at the Memphis track Thursday. Dan Patch, the king of pacers, circled the oval in 1:56, clipping a quarter of a second from his previous record. The first quarter was in :29, the half in :57½, the three quarters in 1:26½ and the mile in 1:56. Maud S. so long queen of the trotters to the old style high wheel sulky was dethroned the same day and Major Delmar takes the record to that kind of sulky. He stepped the mile in 2:07, Maud S. record was 2:08¾.

In the celebrated Nofs case from Elgin the supreme court has affirmed a judgment of $15,000 against the city. Louis Nofs, the complainant, was injured on the National street bridge in 1900; later he resumed work against the ad vice of physicians and has become the victim of paralysis of the lower limbs. In a suit against the city he received a verdict of $10,000; in a second suit he received $15,000 and in a third $20,000. In the last suit the higher court required a remittitur to be entered for $5,000 then affirmed a judgment against the city for $15,000 and ordered the plaintiff to pay one-half the costs in appellate court.

CORPORATIONS

In holding large corporations to strict accountability to the law the President is serving the best interests of those corporations as well as conserving the welfare of the country. All corporations which are operating on an unlawful basis should be compelled to conform to the law. If they cannot or will not they should go out of the business. This, some have been forced by the lawless conduct of their promoters and operators to do, to the great loss of their stockholders. Many formerly wealthy men are now broken in fortune because corporations with which they were connected were formed and operated in violation of law. The action of the President in enforcing the law would prevent, not promote, such losses.

One of the crying needs of America today is such respect for the laws of the nation as the President has shown. He did not make the laws, but it is his duty to obey them. He has set an example which every citizen should follow. If that be done, we shall hear no more of mobs breaking into jails, defying police and militia, and hanging or burning prisoners suspected or convicted of crime, and burning property in a wild frenzy of disorder and lawlessness.

BASELESS CHARGE

The charge that Mr. Roosevelt is "an unsafe man" is disproved by history. He was governor of New York for a full term and has been President three years. These are the two highest executive posts in the nation. In neither of them did he ever do an executive act that has turned out disastrously for the country. Where does the unsafeness come in?

The pretended alarm of Democrats on this score is really a great compliment to Mr. Roosevelt. It is equivalent to saying that he is an energetic President. We Americans are an energetic people, accustomed to doing things instead of sitting down and dreaming about them, and why should not we have that kind of a President? Mr. Roosevelt's energy is of the healthy American kind, and it has had a wholesome effect upon our own people and in other countries. A President who has spent his life doing things is greatly preferable to one who has spent his life writing judicial opinions.

CLEVELAND'S FAILURE

Ex-President Cleveland is an unimaginative man, and for this and other good reasons his recent magazine article entitled, "Why a Young Man Should Vote the Democratic Ticket," is short, pointless and unconvincing.

It takes a good deal of fervid fancy, and a knack of invention, to construct an argument upon a theme like that. Mr. Cleveland was evidently ill at ease with his subject. Probably few young men will read the article, anyway, and no one will be influenced by it. The young men of America live in the present and hope for the future. They do not care to be ever holding post-mortems on dead issues, nor to spend their days holding back the wheels of action and progress.

The young men of the United States are alive. And they will vote the Republican ticket this fall.

DEMOCRATIC TARIFF REVISION

How does the Democratic party propose to deal with the tariff? Does it say: "We assent to the principle of protection and ask the people of the United States to commit to our hands the revision of the tariff in conformity with that principle?" Far from it. It avows its unrelenting hostility to the principle of protection and asks the people to put in its hands the revision of the tariff in order that it may revise protection out of it and repeat the experiment of Grover Cleveland's second administration. According to Mr. Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that administration put 3,000,000 American workmen to walking the streets and without bread for their families. That is the kind of tariff reform revision the Democratic party proposes.

ELECT A REPUBLICAN HOUSE

Nearly every American citizen who will vote for President in the coming election will also vote for a representative in Congress. It is to be hoped that no Republican will fail to vote for the Republican candidate for Congress in his district. While the national honor and the public welfare demand the election of President Roosevelt, and while the reasons for his election are overwhelming and unanswerable, those for the election of a Republican House of Representatives are equally so. With a Democratic house Mr. Roosevelt would be almost helpless to carry out the great Republican policies to which he is committed. No Republican should be induced by any consideration not to vote for the Republican candidate for Congress in his district.

THE WORKS OF DEMOCRACY

"By their works shall ye know them." By what single work are the American people to know that the Democratic party can be safely intrusted with power? There is not a single distinctive policy of the party that, put to the test, ever worked without creating damage. The Democratic party has favored slavery, free silver and free trade, but never a single principle has it ever favored that meant greater happiness and prosperity for the American people. The Republican party freed the slaves, and it has stood and still stands for sound money and protection to American industries. It is the party of construction, not the party of destruction.

APPORTIONMENT OF STATE

There are many who are not familiar with the apportionments of the state and who do not know which counties comprise their own districts. For the benefit of those who are in doubt we publish the following. The 35th senatorial district is composed of De Kalb, Lee and Whiteside counties. In 12th congressional district are Winnebago, Boone, De Kalb, La Salle, Kendall and Grundy counties. The 16th judicial district includes De Kalb, Kane, Du Page and Kendall counties.

A number from Hampshire attended an Indian band concert given at the Elgin opera house Sunday afternoon.

The young ladies of Hampshire are royal entertainers and it was proven last Wednesday night when they gave a leap year surprise party in honor of Miss Jessie York. The young men whom they invited were as much surprised as Miss Jessie by the good time shown them and also the decorating of the hall and the fine supper that was served at the Commercial hotel. There were twenty-five couple present at the party, and dancing and games were the amusements until the wee hours of the morning. The music was furnished by Fred Robinson, piano, and Jim Hines, violin, both musicians being residents of Genoa and by the applause given them it was a sure thing that their music was the real thing. The only verdict that was expressed the next day was that everyone had a most enjoyable time, but so very tired.

Good Manners of the Children of Two Centuries Ago.

In 1701, two centuries ago, the boys and girls had most courteous manners. If comparisons were made between the "then and now," there is little doubt that the child of long ago would be accorded first place. Here are some of the instructions as laid down by the fashion of the time and published in a book for children:

Never sit down at the table until asked. Ask for nothing. Tarry till it be offered thee.

Speak not.

Spit not, cough not nor blow thy nose at the table if it may be avoided. If there is great necessity, do it aside and without much noise.

Lean not thy elbows on the table or on the back of thy chair.

Stuff not thy mouth so as to fill thy cheeks. Be content with smaller mouthfuls.

Blow not thy meat, but, with patience, wait till it be cool.

When moderately satisfied, leave the table.

Sing not, hum not, wriggle not.

When any speak to thee, stand up. Say not I have heard it before.

Snigger not. Never question the truth of it.

There is in Galloway, Scotland, an ancient ruin known as Sweetheart abbey. Within its ivy colored, storm battered walls lies buried the affectionate and devoted Dergorvil, with the heart of her husband, John Baliol, embalmed upon her breast. Lovely in their lives, in death they are not divided. The crumbling masonry is still and must ever be a romance in its symbols of death and decay, telling every day, as it has for 600 years, the thrilling story of a woman's tender love and devotion.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.
