

The Genoa Republican-Journal

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER, SEPTEMBER 16, 1904, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT GENOA, ILLINOIS, UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF MARCH 3, 1879

PUBLISHED BY C. D. SCHOONMAKER

GENOA, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1916

NEW SERIES } VOLUME XI, NO. 21

WORTH AN EFFORT!

Only Special Period Prize of Republican-Journal's Big Contest is Announced Today

$25.00 IN MERCHANDISE

To be Awarded to Contestant Turning in the Most Money in New Subscriptions Between Now and March 22, at 8 o'clock p. m. on that Date--Increase Vote Schedule

The Republican-Journal announces today the first and only special period prize that will be given away during the entire contest, and here is the offer: We have made arrangements with S. S. Slater & Son, furniture dealers, and F. W. Olmsted, dry goods, for a merchandise order to the amount of $25.00, the choice of an order on either store to be given to the contestant who turns in the most money in NEW subscriptions between Thursday, March 2, and Wednesday, March 22, at 8 o'clock p. m. In addition to the merchandise order we will give a lot of extra votes during this period. Here is the schedule of extra votes: Beginning on Thursday, March 2, and closing Wednesday, March 8, at 6 o'clock we will give 100,000 extra votes for each and every club of $20 in NEW subscriptions turned into this office. Beginning Thursday, March 9, and closing Wednesday, March 15, we will allow 60,000 extra votes for each and every club of $15 in NEW subscriptions turned into this office. From Thursday, March 16, until Wednesday, March 22, at 8 o'clock p. m. we will allow 30,000 extra votes for each and every club of $10 in NEW subscriptions turned into this office. We will allow one-half the above number of votes for each club of old subscriptions turned into this office during each period between the above dates, but, NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS only will count toward winning the $25.00 merchandise order. The real activity of a subscription contest starts with the announcement of the SPECIAL PERIOD PRIZE and from today until Wednesday, March 22, at 8 o'clock will be a busy three weeks for everybody. Not only does it give people who have hesitated up to date a fair and impartial chance with those who have entered earlier, but the inducements are such as to interest even the most timid to go out and try their best.

A $25.00 merchandise order will be awarded to the contestant who turns in the most money in NEW subscriptions during the next three weeks and in addition to the merchandise order we will allow thousands and thousands of extra votes. Now is the time for all contestants to get busy during a special period time.

It is now up to you to make the most of your time. Three weeks are long, but at the same time they are mighty short when past. Don't let a single day pass without getting a few votes. Be among the winners now and you will be hard to beat later on.

Standing of Contestants

Name	Votes
Wilber Gibbs, Genoa	16225
Lewis F. Scott, Genoa	16175
Rev. R. E. Pierce, Genoa	15325
Miss Erma Renn, Herbert	15700
Miss Lenora Schmidt, Genoa	15250
Miss Helen Duval, Genoa	15000
Miss Irene Mackey, Riley	6250
Charles Chapman, Burlington	5000
Miss Alice Stout, Burlington	7125
Merle Evans, Charter Grove	5000
Mrs. James J. Ryan, Genoa	5275
Mrs. Harry Medine, Kingston	5000
Mrs. Robert Worden, Kirkland	5000
Mrs. C. A. Patterson, Kingston	5200
Mrs. Will Engle, Ney	5000
Miss Gladys Kellogg, Ney	5000
Miss Sadie M. Vosberg, Kingston	16000
Miss Jennie Coffey, New Lebanon	5000
Miss Mary Sullivan, Kingston	6250
Elsie M. Brooks, Kingston	5000

A. E. Pickett Married

A. E. Pickett, who closed out his business here recently and went East, returned to Genoa last Saturday with a bride. The ceremony was performed at Washington, D. C., on the 24th of February by the Rev. Edward Downs. The bride, whose maiden name was Gertrude Else, is a cousin of Mr. Pickett's former wife, now deceased. After a short visit in Genoa the couple left for the state of Washington where they will locate permanently. Mr. Pickett contemplates purchasing a farm at Davenport, Wash.

TO PAY SEWER BONDS

At Last Meeting City Council Orders Transfer of Funds to and from Treasurer

Genoa, Ill., Feb. 24, 1916
Adjourned regular meeting of the city council called to order by Mayor Quanstrong, the following members being present, Durham, Smith, Duval, Noll and Shipman. Absent, Danforth.

Motion made by Noll seconded Duval that the city collector, Orrin Merritt, be instructed to turn over to the city clerk on February 29, 1916 all funds in his hands as such collector. Motion carried. Motion made by Smith seconded by Durham that the city clerk draw an order on the city treasurer for the sum of $1400.00, that being the amount of bonds series C—Nos. 15, 16; series D—Nos. 24, 25; series E—Nos. 9, 10; series F—Nos. 22, 23; series H—12, 24, 20; series I—Nos. 6, 18, 19, called in for payment on sewer bonds March 1, 1916. Motion carried.

Motion made by Shipman seconded by Noll that the city clerk draw an order on the city treasurer for the sum of $2360.00 the same being the payment for sewer bonds $1700 and interest, $660.00, maturing March 1, 1916, and being series B—Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 17, 22, 23, 24 and 25. Motion carried.

Motion made by Smith seconded by Durham that the city clerk draw an order on the city treasurer for the sum of $140.00 being the payment of water bond series B—No. 1; $100.00 maturing March 1, 1916 and interest $40.00. Motion carried.

Motion made by Duval seconded by Noll that the city clerk be instructed to notify the city treasurer to transfer from the General fund to the sewer fund and to the water fund an amount sufficient to pay the bonds and interest this date ordered paid by the city council. Motion carried.

Moved by Shipman, seconded by Duval, that the polling place of third ward changed from T. J. Hoover's to pumping station. Motion carried.

Moved by Noll, seconded by Shipman that council adjourn. Motion carried. L. F. Scott, city clerk.

Butter Advances

Butter prices advanced on the Elgin board of trade Saturday. A week ago, the sales were at 32½ and 33 cents. Saturday Somerville bid 34 cents for 50 tubs but could find no sellers at that price. No sales were made.

Previous prices are as follows: Feb. 27, 1915—29 cents. Feb. 28, 1914—30 cents. Feb. 24, 1913—34½ cents. Feb. 26, 1912—28 cents. Feb. 27, 1911—25½ cents.

For Assessor

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of assessor for the township of Genoa and will appreciate your support at the election to be held on Tuesday, April 4.

J. W. SOWERS, - 20 tf

TRIM MAPLE PARK

Kane County Basket Ball Players not in Same Class with Genoa Five

The Maple Park five came over to Genoa last Friday evening and suffered a defeat at the hands of the Genoa highs to the tune of 46 to 10. The visitors were not in the same class with the locals, the game being played about Genoa's goal nearly every minute of action. If the Genoa team were as strong in throwing baskets as floor work, the score would have been nearer 146 to 10. The visiting team was composed of smaller boys and they were handicapped in not having had the necessary practice during the past few months.

The DeKalb county basket ball tournament will be pulled off at DeKalb on Saturday of this week, starting at nine o'clock in the morning. The Genoa team has been placed in the "heavy" class and will have to play their best. Unfortunately the Genoa boys, in the drawing, must play the first game of the morning and with the strong DeKalb team at that. If they can win this game they will be in direct line for winning the honors of the tournament. If they lose, it is all off. However, they are going into the fight to win and expect to give DeKalb a fight worthy the name.

POND ON BIG CASE

DeKalb County Judge will soon Take up the Boulevard Case in Chicago

It has been all settled that Judge W. L. Pond of DeKalb is to try the famous Boulevard Link case in Cook county says the DeKalb Chronicle.

This is quite a feather in the cap of the DeKalb jurist and incidentally quite an honor to DeKalb county. The amount of property involved is between eight and ten million dollars and the suit is the largest case for amount of value involved that has ever been held in this state.

There were some 200 attorneys involved in all the ramifications of the case and the presiding judge was chosen by consent of all of the lawyers engaged. There were three men whose names were considered for the difficult task of trying the case and Judge Pond was the only one whose name was unanimously agreed to.

It is expected that the work of trying the case will commence about March 15 and it will last for several months. The case is about the proposed plans for beautifying Chicago and for linking up the boulevard systems as at present established by the construction of a big connecting boulevard which will necessitate the condemnation of a big lot of Chicago's present business property.

For Tax Collector

I am a candidate for township collector for Genoa township and would appreciate the support of voters at the coming election.

J. H. ATLEE, - 20 tf

KINGSTON TO VOTE

Will Decide Single Highway Commissioner Question Next Saturday

IS SUCCESS IN OTHER TOWNS

Superintendent Miller Advises Adoption of the Plan and Points to Advantages Gained in Other DeKalb County Townships

Since the single highway commissioner plan will be voted upon in Kingston township March 4, 1916, it would perhaps be well to discuss certain features of the law relating to this proposition.

So far in DeKalb county three townships have the single highway commissioner system—DeKalb, Clinton and Squaw Grove. They are more than convinced that it is the better method of road administration, after having given it a two years' trial. One commissioner can devote more time to the maintenance and construction of highways and bridges. In the above townships the one man receives $3.50 a day for each day he is employed on the roads.

This is cheaper than three men at $2.00 a day. The law states that the town board of auditors shall fix his salary not to exceed four dollars per day for each day so employed. As a rule the town board has usually decided on $3.50 a day as in the cases mentioned above.

The commissioner, upon a sworn statement to be filed in the office of the town clerk showing the number of days he has worked, can then receive his salary. Any township can withdraw from this single highway commissioner system at any time by the same method as it was brought to a vote at a special election. If the voters decide not to have a single highway commissioner system, no election of such a nature can again be held for three years. Superintendent Miller, in an interview, states that the single commissioner system has more than come up to expectations in the matter of efficient administration of township roads due to the fact that in all cases a good business-like man has held the office. In two of the townships where this system has been in vogue, all the bridge work has been practically completed, and all structures replaced by reinforced concrete. One needs but go to Clinton, Squaw Grove or DeKalb township to see what the single highway commissioner system has done. Women can vote at this election.

COMING EVENTS

In this column each week will be found a list of coming events in Genoa, showing the various dates taken to date. If readers know of any future entertainment and the date they will confer a favor by telephoning the information to the Republican-Journal office.

March 6—Mystic Worker Dance at auditorium.

March 10—Fireman's ball at the opera house.

March 14—City primary election.

April 4—Annual township election.

April 8—The Republican-Journal contest closes at eight o'clock in the evening.

April 15—Annual school election for members of board of education.

April 18—Annual city election. Aside from the above are the regular picture show nights at the opera house and "Grand" also the regular Saturday night dances at the auditorium and roller skating at the opera house.

"RURAL LIFE PROGRESS"

Club Organized at Ney for Purpose of Bettering Individual, Farm and Community

A number of farmers and their wives met at Ney on the 17th of February and organized the "Rural Life Progress Club," with thirty-eight members. The following officers were elected: N. H. Stanley, president.

F. R. Rowen, secretary.

G. C. Kitchen, co-operative agent.

The object of the club is for the development of higher social, educational, agricultural and moral conditions of the community, the following platform being adopted:

"Every Farmer a better farmer.
"Every farm a better farm.
"Every home a better home.
"Every community a better community."

Any person may become a member of the club by paying an admission fee of 25 cents and complying with the by-laws and constitution. The next meeting will be held at the Ney church on Wednesday, March 15. A lunch will be served at noon, followed by a short program. You are welcome. F. R. Rowen, Secy.

Lee Co. Soil Expert

L. S. Griffith, of McNabb, Ill., has accepted the offer of the Lee County Soil Association to become soil adviser for Lee county. Mr. Griffith, a young man, is given the full endorsement of the state board of agriculture. At present he is farming near McNabb and assisting his father in the scientific growth of corn and the handling of seed corn.

Married at Sycamore

Fred Wolter, son of Fred Wolter, Sr. of Genoa and Miss Edna Bauman, daughter of the late Lawrence Bauman, were married at Sycamore on Saturday, Feb. 26. They will make their home in Genoa.

A model 15 Linotype will soon be installed in The Republican-Journal print shop. When this wonderful machine is installed full notice will be given and a cordial invitation extended to our readers to visit The Republican-Journal office and see the machine in operation.

These machines, which until recently were beyond the reach of the country shop, are now sold on such terms that one can not afford to be without one. The payments and cost of maintenance being far less than the money paid out for hand labor. We can pay for the machine and at the same time pay out less money every month than under present conditions. It will also make it possible to print a far greater amount of news matter without half the effort exerted at present and give better service generally to reader and advertiser. The illustration herewith gives but a faint idea of this wonderful machine. While the Linotype is called a typesetting machine it is really a composing machine, and today is standard everywhere. It is a machine operated by finger keys, like a typewriter, which operation assembles a line of matrices from which matter is composed. Instead of producing single type characters it casts metal bars, or slugs, from hot metal each complete in one piece and having on the upper edge the characters properly justified to print a line.

The Linotype is controlled and operated by one operator who produces the finished slugs ready for the press. It does away with worn out type and assures our readers of a clear, new type each issue.

NOMINATION BLANK

Good For 5,000 Votes

I Nominate M.....
City.....County.....
Nominated by.....
Address.....

Only the first nomination ballot received for each candidate will count 5000 votes. The name of person making the nomination will not be given.

Our Greatest Contest Offer!

Pictorial Review

and Republican-Journal

The two one year for only $2.00

Sale of this club gives the candidate 1000 extra votes. Order now

CUT THIS COUPON

Fill out as directed and send to the Contest Manager, The Republican-Journal, Genoa, Illinois

50 Good for 25 Votes in The Republican-Journal's Grand Automobile Contest 50

Name.....

Address.....

Trim around heavy line, put in neat flat package, with number of votes written on top.

THE BATTLE-CRY

By CHARLES NEVILLE BUCK
AUTHOR OF "The CALL of the CUMBERLANDS"
ILLUSTRATIONS by C. D. RHODES

COPYRIGHT BY CHARLES NEVILLE BUCK

SYNOPSIS.

Juanita Holland, on her journey into the heart of the Cumberlands to become a teacher of the mountain children, faints at the door of Fletch McNash's cabin. She overhears a talk between Bad Anse Havey and one of his henchmen that acquaints her with the Havey-McBriar feud. Cal Douglas of the Havey clan is on trial in Peril, for the murder of a McBriar. Juanita and Dawn McNash become friends. Cal Douglas is acquitted. Nash Wyatt is killed by the Haveys. Milt McBriar and Bad Anse declare a truce, under pressure from Good Anse. Talbot, Juanita thinks she finds that Bad Anse is opposing her efforts to buy land and build a school. Milt McBriar breaks the truce by having Fletch McNash murdered. Jeb McNash begs Bad Anse to tell him who killed his father, but he not only refuses but Bad Anse further misunderstands each other. Bad Anse tells Juanita he does not fight women and Juanita gets her land and cabin. Jeb refrains from killing Young Milt McBriar, as he is not sure Young Milt is the murderer. Young Milt and Dawn meet several times, resulting in a demand from Bad Anse that Dawn leave Juanita's cabin. Juanita and Good Anse go to see Bad Anse, who again says that the school has been started by Juanita in the wrong way. She begins to understand Bad Anse's dream of regeneration for his people. Young Milt and Bad Anse lay aside the feud for the time to prevent the burning of the new school-house. Dawn remains with Juanita. Bad Anse finds himself drifting dangerously near Juanita. Roger McGowan of Philadelphia comes to woo Juanita and to investigate the mineral possibilities of the district. Bad Anse gives his vetoed warning. Young Milt comes openly to see Dawn while she is at Jeb's cabin. The two men see a new precedent by fighting with fists and then shaking hands on a personal truce. Milt McBriar plots to have Bad Anse killed. The school prospers. Bad Anse agrees to friendship with her though he knows that on his part it is hopeless.

CHAPTER XIX.

Once, when Anse Havey had been tramping all afternoon through the wintry woods with Juanita, he had pointed out a squirrel that sat erect on a branch high above them with its tail curled up behind it, and had stopped her with a touch on the arm; then, with a smile of amusement, he handed her his rifle with much the same manner that she might have handed him a novel in Russian, and his eyes said banteringly: "See what you can do with that."

But to his surprise she took the gun and leveled it as one accustomed to its use. Bad Anse Havey forgot the squirrel and saw only the slim figure in its loose sweater; only the stray wisps of curling hair and the softness of the cheek that snuggled against the rifle-stock. Then, at the report, the squirrel dropped.

She turned with a matter-of-fact nod and handed back the gun.

"I'm rather sorry I killed it," she said, "but you looked so full of scorn that I had to show you. You know, they do have a few rifles outside the Cumberland mountains."

"Where did you learn to shoot?" he demanded, and she answered casually: "I used to shoot a rifle and pistol, too, quite a good bit."

He took the gun back, and unconsciously his hand caressed the spot where her cheek had laid against its lock. He had fallen into a reverie out of which her voice called him. They had crossed the ridge itself and were overlooking his place.

"Why are they clearing that space behind your house? Are you going to put it in corn?"

"No," he laughed shortly. "Corn would be just about as bad as laurel."

He was instantly sorry he had said that. He had not meant to tell her of the plans he was making—plans of defense and, if need be, of offense. He had not intended to mention his precautions to prevent assassination at his own door or window.

But the girl understood, and her voice was heavy with anxiety as she demanded: "Do you think you're in danger, Anse?"

"There's never a day I'm not in danger," he replied casually. "I've got pretty well used to it."

"But some day," she broke out, "they'll get you."

He shrugged his shoulders. "Maybe," he said.

As Juanita's influence grew with Bad Anse Havey, so it was growing at the school. She had to turn away pupils who had come across the mountains on wearisome journeys because as yet she had only limited room and no teachers save herself and Dawn to care for the youngest.

At the front of the hall which led into the main school building was a rack with notches for rifles and pegs for pistols. She told all who entered that she made only one stipulation, and that was that whoever crossed the threshold must leave his armament at the door.

At first some men turned away again, taking their children with them, but as time went on they grudgingly acquiesced, and at last, with a sense of great victory, she persuaded three shaggy fathers, who were coming regularly with their children, to ride back home unarmed.

Disarmament was her idea for the great solution, and when Bad Anse came over—and he came every night now—she led him with almost breathless eagerness to the rack and showed him two modern rifles and one antiquated squirrel gun.

"What's the idea?" he asked with his skeptical smile. He found it very difficult to listen always to talk about the school in which he felt no interest and to regard his vow of silence as to herself whom he dumbly worshipped.

"Look around you, Anse," she commanded. "Do you see any dirt or dust anywhere? No; we are teaching cleanliness and sanitation, but there is just one place here where the spiders are welcome to come and spin their webs unmolested. It's that rack of guns. Did you ever hear of the shrine at Lourdes?"

"I reckon not," he confessed uneasily. Of late he had become a little ashamed of the things he did not know.

"Well, this is going to be like it, Anse. It is told that when the lame and halt and blind came to Lourdes to pray they went away straight and strong and clear of vision. There hang at the shrine there numberless crutches and canes, discarded because the men who were carried there went away needing them no more. Some day your old order of crippled things here in the mountains is going to become straight and strong, and these guns will be the discarded crutches."

He looked at her, and if no response was elicited by her prophecy, at least he could not contemplate without a stirring of enthusiasm the flushed face and glowing eye with which she spoke. It was all worth while if it could bring that sparkle of delight to her countenance.

"It's right pretty, but it won't hardly work," he said. "These men will leave their guns just so long as they don't need 'em. I'm glad to see ye pleased—but I don't want to see ye disappointed."

A little before Christmas old Milt McBriar went to Lexington, and there he met a heavily bearded man in rough clothes who had arrived that morning from the West. They conferred in a cheap eating house which bears a ragged and unwholesome appearance and is kept by an exile from the mountains.

"It's right pretty, but it won't hardly work," he said. "These men will leave their guns just so long as they don't need 'em. I'm glad to see ye pleased—but I don't want to see ye disappointed."

"Now tell me, Milt," suggested Luke Thixton briefly, "what air this thing ye wants me ter do. I'm done with these year old flat lands that they talks so much about."

But Milt McBriar's eyes had been vacantly watching the door. It was a glass door, with its lower portion painted red and bearing in black letters the name of the proprietor.

"Damn!" he exclaimed violently, but under his breath.

"What's the bitin' ye?" asked his companion, as he bolted his food.

"I just seed Brock Havey pass by that door," explained the chief. "But I reckon he couldn't hardly recognize you this fur back. I don't want no word of yore comin' ter go ahead of ye."

"What is it I'm a-goin' back ter do?" insisted the exile doggedly.

"Oh," commented Milt McBriar, "we've got ter talk that over at some length. Ye're a-goin' back ter git Anse Havey, but ye ain't a-goin' list yet."

One morning as he sat over his breakfast at the kitchen table, Anse's cousin, Brock Havey, rode up in hot haste to rouse him out of apathy and remind him that he must not shirk his role as leader of the clan.

The Havey from Peril came quickly to the point while the Havey of the backwoods listened.

"I was down ter Lexin'ton yesterday, an' as I was passin' Jim Freeman's deadfall I happened ter look in. That war old Milt McBriar an' Luke Thixton, that heads as close together as a pair of thieves. Luke has come back from the West, an' I reckon ye kin figger out what that means."

Anse grew suddenly rigid and his face blackened. So his destiny was crowding him!

"What air ye goin' ter do?" demanded Brock with a tone of anxious and impotent pleading. Anse shook his head.

"I don't know—quite yet," he said.

"Let's see, is the high cote in session?"

Brock Havey nodded his head in perplexed assent. He wondered what the court had to do with this exigency.

"All right. Tell Sidering to have the grand jury indict Luke for the McNash murder an' Milt McBriar as accessory—"

"Good God, Anse!" burst out the other Havey. "Does ye realize what hell ye turns loose when ye tries ter drag Old Milt ter cote in Peril?"

"Yes, I know that. The answer was calm. "I'll give ye a list of witnesses. Tell Sidering to keep these true bills secret. I'll ride over and testify myself, an' I'll tend to keepin' the witnesses quiet. I don't know whether we'll ever try these cases, but it's just as well to be ready along every line."

Brock Havey stood gazing down at the hearth with a troubled face. At last he hazarded a remonstrance.

"Anse," he said, "I hain't never questioned ye. I've always took yore counsel. Ye're the head of the Haveys, but next to you I'm the man they harkens to most. If any man has got ter dispute yer, I reckon ye'd take it most willin'ly from me."

"What is it, Brock? I'm plumb willin' to listen to yore counsel."

"Then I'll talk outspoken. Ter try ter convict these men in cote means to take a desperate chance. Ye can't hardly succeed, an' if ye fails ye've lost yore hold on the Haveys—ye're plumb, eternally done for."

"I don't aim to fail."

"No; but ye mought. Anse, no man hain't never questioned yore loyalty till now. I mought as well tell ye straight what talkin's goin' round."

Anse stiffened. "What is it?" he demanded.

"Some folks 'low that ther Haveys don't mean as much ter ye now as ther furrin' schoolteacher does. Them folks'll be pretty apt ter think ye ain't tryin' ter please them so much as her—if yer attempts this."

Anse stood for a long minute silent, and his bronzed features grew taut. At last he inquired coolly:

"What do you think, Brock?"

"I'd trust ye till hell froze."

"All right. Then do as I tells ye, an' if I fails I reckon you'll be head of the Haveys in my place."

Down at the school there was going to be a Christmas tree that year. Never before had the children of the "branch-water folks" heard of a Christmas tree. The season of Christ's birth had always been celebrated with moonshine jug and revolver. It was dreaded in advance and mourned over in retrospect.

Now in many childish hearts large dreams were brewing. Eager anticipations awaited the marvels. The honored young fir tree which was to bear a fruitage of gifts and lights had been singled out and marked to the ax. Anse Havey and Juanita had explored the woods together, bent on its selection. Perhaps Juanita and Dawn were as much excited as the children, but to Dawn it meant more than to anyone else. She was to accompany Juanita to Lexington to buy gifts and decorations and would have her first wondrous glimpse of the lights and crowds of a city.

Milt was there at college and would be returning about the same time, so the mountain girl secretly wrote him of her coming. And even facing so grave a crisis, Anse Havey thought of that tree and hoped that Luke would not come back before Christmas.

That night, while he was sitting with Juanita and the fire was flashing on her cheeks, he said moodily: "I'm afraid ye'll have to start despisin' me all over again."

She looked up in astonishment.

"Why?" she asked.

"I've got to kill a man."

She rose from her chair, her face pallid.

"Kill a man?" she echoed.

"God knows I hate to do it." He rose, too, and stood before the hearth. "But I reckon it had better be me than Jeb."

"Do you mean—" she broke off and finished brokenly, "that Fletch's murderer is back?"

"He's comin'. He's comin' to kill somebody else. Most likely me. It's a question of settlin' scores with a murderer that kill Fletch for a ticket young Jeb McNash go crazy an' start in the feud all over again. I reckon ye sees that I ain't no choice."

She came nearer and stood confronting him so close that she felt her breath on his face. She broke out in a low, tense voice: "Suppose he kills you?"

"He'll have his chance," said Anse Havey shortly. "I ain't 'lowin' to shoot him down from ambush."

The girl leaned forward and clutched his hands in both her own. Under the tight pressure of her fingers he felt every nerve in his body tingle and leap into a hot ecstasy of emotion, while his face became white and drawn.

"Don't risk your life," she pleaded. "Your people can't spare you; I can't spare you. Not now, Anse; I need you too much."

The man's voice came in a hoarse whisper.

"Ye needs me?"

"Yes, yes," she swept on, and for an instant he was on the verge of withdrawing his hands and crushing her to him, but something in his face had warned her. She dropped the hands she had been holding and said in an altered tone: "It's not just me; it's bigger than that. It's my work. We've come to be such good friends that I couldn't go on without you. My work would fail."

For a while he was silent, then he said very slowly and very deliberately:

"Oh, it's just your work that needs me?"

"But, Anse," she argued, "my work is all that's biggest and best in me. You understand, don't you?"

For a moment his voice got away from him and he rose fiercely:

"I don't give a damn for your work!" he blazed out. "It's you I'm interested in. That's the sort of friend I am."

She looked up at his gleaming eyes, a little amazed, and he went on, quietly enough now:

"If I fails to hang Luke Thixton I'll be right now what ye prophesied for me twenty years hence—the leader of the wolf-pack that goes down an' gets trod on. I ain't never put no such strain on my influence as this is goin' to be. I've got to hold back the Haveys an' the McBriars whilst this court foolishness dawdles along, an' if I falls down Jeb is goin' to kill Luke anyway. I'm doin' this because ye asks it; an' now I'll say good night to ye."

Juanita Holland stood looking at the door he had closed behind him, a wild sense of tumult and uneasiness in her heart.

"That's the sort of friend I am," she repeated to herself.

CHAPTER XX.

There still remained the task of winning young Jeb's assent to his plan, and Anse Havey foresaw a stubborn battle there. Jeb had been reading law that winter; reading by the light of a log fire through long and lonely evenings in a smoke-darkened cabin.

When Anse Havey called from the stilt one night, the boy laid a battered Blackstone on his thin knee and called out: "Come in, Anse, and pull up a cheer!"

Anse had been rehearsing his arguments as he rode through the sleet-lashed hills, and he was deeply troubled.

The man and the boy sat on either side of the fireplace. Penetrating gusts swept in at the broken chinking and up through the warped floor until old Beardog, lying at their feet, shivered as he slept with his forepaws stretched on the hearth and the two men hitched their chairs nearer to the blaze. By the bed still stood the rifle that had been Fletch's; the rifle upon which the boy's eyes always fell and which to him was the symbol of his duty.

As Bad Anse Havey talked of the future with all the instinctive forcefulness that he could command, the boy's set face relaxed, and into his eyes came a glint of eagerness, because he himself was to play no small part in these affairs.

Into his heart crept the first burning of ambition, the first reaching out after a career. He saw a future opening before him, and his grave eyes were drinking in pictures in the live embers.

Then, when ambition had been kindled, the older man broached the topic which was the crux of his plea.

"The man that can do things for the mountains must be willin' to make a heap of sacrifices, Jeb," he said.

Jeb laughed, looking about the bare room of his cabin.

"Mek sacrifices?" he repeated. "I hain't never knowed nothin' else but that. I reckon I hain't skeered of it."

"I didn't mean that way, Jeb," Anse spoke slowly, holding the boy with his eyes, and something of his meaning sank in so that the lad's lean face again hardened.

"Nothin' kaint stand between me an' what I've got ter do, Anse," he said slowly. He did not speak now with wild passion, but calm finality. "I've done took ther oath."

For a while Anse Havey did not reply. At last he said quietly: "I reckon ye've got rid of the idea that I was aimin' to deceive ye, Jeb. I told ye that when Fletch's assassin came back to the mountains I'd let ye know. I'm goin' to keep my word."

Jeb rose suddenly from his chair and stood with the fire lighting up his ragged trousers and the frayed sleeves of his coat.

"Air he back now?" he demanded.

Anse shook his head.

"Not yet, Jeb; but he's comin'." He saw the twitch that went across the tight-closed lips which made no comment.

"Jeb," he continued, "I want ye to help me. I want ye to be big enough to put by things that it's hard to put by."

The boy shook his head.

"Anse," he replied slowly, "ask me ter do anything else in God Almighty's world, but don't ask me that, 'cause if ye does I've got ter deny ye."

"I ain't askin' ye to let the man go unpunished. I'm only askin' you to let me punish him with the law."

Astonishment was writ large in every feature of Jeb's face. He stood in the wavering circle of light while the shadows swallowed the corners of the cabin, and wondered if he had heard rightly. At last his voice carried a note of deep disappointment, and he spoke as though unwilling to utter such reasonable words.

"I reckon, Anse," he suggested, "ye wouldn't hardly hev asked a thing like that afore"—there was a hesitating halt before he went on—"an'ore a furrin' woman changed yore fashion of lookin' at things."

Anse Havey felt his face redden, and an angry retort rose to his lips. But the charge was true.

He went on as though Jeb had not spoken.

"All I ask is that when that man comes ye'll hold your hand until the cote has acted."

"Does ye reckon Milt McBriar aims ter let Sidering try kin of his?" was the next incredulous question.

Anse Havey's voice broke out of its quiet tones and his eyes woke to a fire that was convincing.

"By heavens, I aims ter have him do it! I ain't askin' leave of Milt McBriar." Then he added: "I aims ter hang the man that killt yore daddy in the jail house yard at Peril, an' if the McBriars get him they've got to kill me first. Will you hold your hand till I'm through?"

The boy stood there, his fingers slowly clenching and opening. Finally he said: "Hit ain't a-goin' ter satisfy me ter penitentiary that feller. He's got ter die."

"He's goin' to die. If I fail, then—" the clansman raised his hands in a gesture of concession—"then he's yours. Will you wait?"

"I don't hardly believe," said Jeb McNash with conviction, "any man livin' kin keep Milt's hired assassin in no jail house long enough ter try an' hang him. But I'm willing ter see. I'll hold my hand ther long, Anse, but—"

Once more a spasmodic tautening of muscles convulsed the boy's frame and his voice took on its excited note of shrillness: "But I warns ye, I'm goin' ter die."

Juanita Holland stood looking at the door he had closed behind him, a wild sense of tumult and uneasiness in her heart.

"That's the sort of friend I am," she repeated to herself.

CHAPTER XX.

There still remained the task of winning young Jeb's assent to his plan, and Anse Havey foresaw a stubborn battle there. Jeb had been reading law that winter; reading by the light of a log fire through long and lonely evenings in a smoke-darkened cabin.

When Anse Havey called from the stilt one night, the boy laid a battered Blackstone on his thin knee and called out: "Come in, Anse, and pull up a cheer!"

Anse had been rehearsing his arguments as he rode through the sleet-lashed hills, and he was deeply troubled.

The man and the boy sat on either side of the fireplace. Penetrating gusts swept in at the broken chinking and up through the warped floor until old Beardog, lying at their feet, shivered as he slept with his forepaws stretched on the hearth and the two men hitched their chairs nearer to the blaze. By the bed still stood the rifle that had been Fletch's; the rifle upon which the boy's eyes always fell and which to him was the symbol of his duty.

As Bad Anse Havey talked of the future with all the instinctive forcefulness that he could command, the boy's set face relaxed, and into his eyes came a glint of eagerness, because he himself was to play no small part in these affairs.

Into his heart crept the first burning of ambition, the first reaching out after a career. He saw a future opening before him, and his grave eyes were drinking in pictures in the live embers.

Then, when ambition had been kindled, the older man broached the topic which was the crux of his plea.

"The man that can do things for the mountains must be willin' to make a heap of sacrifices, Jeb," he said.

Jeb laughed, looking about the bare room of his cabin.

"Mek sacrifices?" he repeated. "I hain't never knowed nothin' else but that. I reckon I hain't skeered of it."

"I didn't mean that way, Jeb," Anse spoke slowly, holding the boy with his eyes, and something of his meaning sank in so that the lad's lean face again hardened.

"Nothin' kaint stand between me an' what I've got ter do, Anse," he said slowly. He did not speak now with wild passion, but calm finality. "I've done took ther oath."

For a while Anse Havey did not reply. At last he said quietly: "I reckon ye've got rid of the idea that I was aimin' to deceive ye, Jeb. I told ye that when Fletch's assassin came back to the mountains I'd let ye know. I'm goin' to keep my word."

Jeb rose suddenly from his chair and stood with the fire lighting up his ragged trousers and the frayed sleeves of his coat.

"Air he back now?" he demanded.

Anse shook his head.

"Not yet, Jeb; but he's comin'." He saw the twitch that went across the tight-closed lips which made no comment.

"Jeb," he continued, "I want ye to help me. I want ye to be big enough to put by things that it's hard to put by."

The boy shook his head.

"Anse," he replied slowly, "ask me ter do anything else in God Almighty's world, but don't ask me that, 'cause if ye does I've got ter deny ye."

"I ain't askin' ye to let the man go unpunished. I'm only askin' you to let me punish him with the law."

Astonishment was writ large in every feature of Jeb's face. He stood in the wavering circle of light while the shadows swallowed the corners of the cabin, and wondered if he had heard rightly. At last his voice carried a note of deep disappointment, and he spoke as though unwilling to utter such reasonable words.

"I reckon, Anse," he suggested, "ye wouldn't hardly hev asked a thing like that afore"—there was a hesitating halt before he went on—"an'ore a furrin' woman changed yore fashion of lookin' at things."

Anse Havey felt his face redden, and an angry retort rose to his lips. But the charge was true.

He went on as though Jeb had not spoken.

"All I ask is that when that man comes ye'll hold your hand until the cote has acted."

"Does ye reckon Milt McBriar aims ter let Sidering try kin of his?" was the next incredulous question.

Anse Havey's voice broke out of its quiet tones and his eyes woke to a fire that was convincing.

"By heavens, I aims ter have him do it! I ain't askin' leave of Milt McBriar." Then he added: "I aims ter hang the man that killt yore daddy in the jail house yard at Peril, an' if the McBriars get him they've got to kill me first. Will you hold your hand till I'm through?"

The boy stood there, his fingers slowly clenching and opening. Finally he said: "Hit ain't a-goin' ter satisfy me ter penitentiary that feller. He's got ter die."

"He's goin' to die. If I fail, then—" the clansman raised his hands in a gesture of concession—"then he's yours. Will you wait?"

"I don't hardly believe," said Jeb McNash with conviction, "any man livin' kin keep Milt's hired assassin in no jail house long enough ter try an' hang him. But I'm willing ter see. I'll hold my hand ther long, Anse, but—"

Once more a spasmodic tautening of muscles convulsed the boy's frame and his voice took on its excited note of shrillness: "But I warns ye, I'm goin' ter die."

Juanita Holland stood looking at the door he had closed behind him, a wild sense of tumult and uneasiness in her heart.

"That's the sort of friend I am," she repeated to herself.

CHAPTER XX.

There still remained the task of winning young Jeb's assent to his plan, and Anse Havey foresaw a stubborn battle there. Jeb had been reading law that winter; reading by the light of a log fire through long and lonely evenings in a smoke-darkened cabin.

When Anse Havey called from the stilt one night, the boy laid a battered Blackstone on his thin knee and called out: "Come in, Anse, and pull up a cheer!"

Anse had been rehearsing his arguments as he rode through the sleet-lashed hills, and he was deeply troubled.

The man and the boy sat on either side of the fireplace. Penetrating gusts swept in at the broken chinking and up through the warped floor until old Beardog, lying at their feet, shivered as he slept with his forepaws stretched on the hearth and the two men hitched their chairs nearer to the blaze. By the bed still stood the rifle that had been Fletch's; the rifle upon which the boy's eyes always fell and which to him was the symbol of his duty.

As Bad Anse Havey talked of the future with all the instinctive forcefulness that he could command, the boy's set face relaxed, and into his eyes came a glint of eagerness, because he himself was to play no small part in these affairs.

Into his heart crept the first burning of ambition, the first reaching out after a career. He saw a future opening before him, and his grave eyes were drinking in pictures in the live embers.

Then, when ambition had been kindled, the older man broached the topic which was the crux of his plea.

"The man that can do things for the mountains must be willin' to make a heap of sacrifices, Jeb," he said.

Jeb laughed, looking about the bare room of his cabin.

"Mek sacrifices?" he repeated. "I hain't never knowed nothin' else but that. I reckon I hain't skeered of it."

"I didn't mean that way, Jeb," Anse spoke slowly, holding the boy with his eyes, and something of his meaning sank in so that the lad's lean face again hardened.

"Nothin' kaint stand between me an' what I've got ter do, Anse," he said slowly. He did not speak now with wild passion, but calm finality. "I've done took ther oath."

For a while Anse Havey did not reply. At last he said quietly: "I reckon ye've got rid of the idea that I was aimin' to deceive ye, Jeb. I told ye that when Fletch's assassin came back to the mountains I'd let ye know. I'm goin' to keep my word."

Jeb rose suddenly from his chair and stood with the fire lighting up his ragged trousers and the frayed sleeves of his coat.

"Air he back now?" he demanded.

Anse shook his head.

"Not yet, Jeb; but he's comin'." He saw the twitch that went across the tight-closed lips which made no comment.

"Jeb," he continued, "I want ye to help me. I want ye to be big enough to put by things that it's hard to put by."

The boy shook his head.

"Anse," he replied slowly, "ask me ter do anything else in God Almighty's world, but don't ask me that, 'cause if ye does I've got ter deny ye."

"I ain't askin' ye to let the man go unpunished. I'm only askin' you to let me punish him with the law."

Astonishment was writ large in every feature of Jeb's face. He stood in the wavering circle of light while the shadows swallowed the corners of the cabin, and wondered if he had heard rightly. At last his voice carried a note of deep disappointment, and he spoke as though unwilling to utter such reasonable words.

"I reckon, Anse," he suggested, "ye wouldn't hardly hev asked a thing like that afore"—there was a hesitating halt before he went on—"an'ore a furrin' woman changed yore fashion of lookin' at things."

Anse Havey felt his face redden, and an angry retort rose to his lips. But the charge was true.

He went on as though Jeb had not spoken.

"All I ask is that when that man comes ye'll hold your hand until the cote has acted."

"Does ye reckon Milt McBriar aims ter let Sidering try kin of his?" was the next incredulous question.

Anse Havey's voice broke out of its quiet tones and his eyes woke to a fire that was convincing.

"By heavens, I aims ter have him do it! I ain't askin' leave of Milt McBriar." Then he added: "I aims ter hang the man that killt yore daddy in the jail house yard at Peril, an' if the McBriars get him they've got to kill me first. Will you hold your hand till I'm through?"

The boy stood there, his fingers slowly clenching and opening. Finally he said: "Hit ain't a-goin' ter satisfy me ter penitentiary that feller. He's got ter die."

"He's goin' to die. If I fail, then—" the clansman raised his hands in a gesture of concession—"then he's yours. Will you wait?"

"I don't hardly believe," said Jeb McNash with conviction, "any man livin' kin keep Milt's hired assassin in no jail house long enough ter try an' hang him. But I'm willing ter see. I'll hold my hand ther long, Anse, but—"

Once more a spasmodic tautening of muscles convulsed the boy's frame and his voice took on its excited note of shrillness: "But I warns ye, I'm goin' ter die."

Juanita Holland stood looking at the door he had closed behind him, a wild sense of tumult and uneasiness in her heart.

"That's the sort of friend I am," she repeated to herself.

CHAPTER XX.

There still remained the task of winning young Jeb's assent to his plan, and Anse Havey foresaw a stubborn battle there. Jeb had been reading law that winter; reading by the light of a log fire through long and lonely evenings in a smoke-darkened cabin.

When Anse Havey called from the stilt one night, the boy laid a battered Blackstone on his thin knee and called out: "Come in, Anse, and pull up a cheer!"

Anse had been rehearsing his arguments as he rode through the sleet-lashed hills, and he was deeply troubled.

The man and the boy sat on either side of the fireplace. Penetrating gusts swept in at the broken chinking and up through the warped floor until old Beardog, lying at their feet, shivered as he slept with his forepaws stretched on the hearth and the two men hitched their chairs nearer to the blaze. By the bed still stood the rifle that had been Fletch's; the rifle upon which the boy's eyes always fell and which to him was the symbol of his duty.

As Bad Anse Havey talked of the future with all the instinctive forcefulness that he could command, the boy's set face relaxed, and into his eyes came a glint of eagerness, because he himself was to play no small part in these affairs.

Into his heart crept the first burning of ambition, the first reaching out after a career. He saw a future opening before him, and his grave eyes were drinking in pictures in the live embers.

Then, when ambition had been kindled, the older man broached the topic which was the crux of his plea.

"The man that can do things for the mountains must be willin' to make a heap of sacrifices, Jeb," he said.

Jeb laughed, looking about the bare room of his cabin.

"Mek sacrifices?" he repeated. "I hain't never knowed nothin' else but that. I reckon I hain't skeered of it."

"I didn't mean that way, Jeb," Anse spoke slowly, holding the boy with his eyes, and something of his meaning sank in so that the lad's lean face again hardened.

"Nothin' kaint stand between me an' what I've got ter do, Anse," he said slowly. He did not speak now with wild passion, but calm finality. "I've done took ther oath."

For a while Anse Havey did not reply. At last he said quietly: "I reckon ye've got rid of the idea that I was aimin' to deceive ye, Jeb. I told ye that when Fletch's assassin came back to the mountains I'd let ye know. I'm goin' to keep my word."

Jeb rose suddenly from his chair and stood with the fire lighting up his ragged trousers and the frayed sleeves of his coat.

"Air he back now?" he demanded.

Anse shook his head.

"Not yet, Jeb; but he's comin'." He saw the twitch that went across the tight-closed lips which made no comment.

"Jeb," he continued, "I want ye to help me. I want ye to be big enough to

$875.00

The New Reo "The Fifth"

Will Any Other Car Stand This Usage?

ONE REO DEALER habitually pulls off this stunt in demonstrating a Reo car to a prospective buyer.

HE DRIVES 15 MILES per hour ahead—then shifts in his reverse gears!

DOES THE REO STAND IT? Well he says he has used the same demonstrating car for a year now—done the trick hundreds (he estimates thousands) of times—and gears are today just as silent and apparently just as good as ever. So is the clutch.

BUT AFTER ALL it isn't so wonderful when you consider how Reo cars are made.

"50 PER CENT OVERSIZE" in all vital parts—that includes shafts and gears of course—makes the feat possible. Would, even if he hadn't the velvety Reo clutch.

THAT DOUBLES the factor of safety, for though you drop the Reo clutch in instantly, still there's no jerk. It takes hold softly—but holds when once fully engaged.

SO IF YOU ARE the one to whom he is demonstrating the Reo car, sitting beside him, you are surprised to find there's no jerk, no apparent strain when he does it.

CAR SEEMES TO come to a gradual, though a quick, stop; then as softly reverses.

BUT WE DON'T believe there is another automobile on earth that will stand it—none but Reo.

AND THE REASON is in Reo design, Reo material and Reo construction.

BY THE WAY—let us remind you that the appreciation of Reo quality—Reo value—is so general, the factory is always away behind orders. So it is necessary to place your order long before you want a delivery.

DON'T DELAY—TODAY won't be a minute too soon.

D. B. RYKERT

South California St., Sycamore, Ill.

The New Reo "Six" $1,250

Reo Motor Trucks

Model J. Two Chassis $1,650

Model F. 3-4 Ton Light Delivery, with Express Body, Top, Windshield, Speedometer, Electric Starter

$1,075

Taxes! Taxes! Taxes!

The tax books for the township of Genoa are now open at the Farmers' State Bank every day during banking hours. This is a matter which should receive your prompt attention. To delay may mean to forget.

L. ROBINSON, Collector

For Tax Collector.

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of collector for the township of Genoa and will appreciate your vote at the coming election.

L. ROBINSON.

For Township Collector

I am a candidate for the office of collector for the township of Genoa and will greatly appreciate your vote at the election to be held on the 4th of April, and any support that may be given my candidacy otherwise.

18-1f CHRIS SCHREFF

SWANSON BROS. ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS

AUTO BATTERIES CHARGED AND REPAIRED. EDISON FARM LIGHTING PLANTS A SPECIALTY.

Phone 240 DeKalb and Sycamore

HIGH GRADE PIANOS AND PLAYER PIANOS

LEWIS & PALMER PIANO CO. Stores at Sycamore and DeKalb. Expert Piano tuning and repairing.

Phone Sycamore 234-1 DeKalb 338

—SEND ORDERS—
Pianos and Victrolas
T. H. GILL, Marengo, Ill.
Selling Goods in This Vicinity Over Forty Years

C. A. Patterson
DENTIST
Hours: 8:30 to 12:00 a. m. 1:00 to 5:00 p. m.
Office in Exchange Bank Building

Phone No. 38
Dr. Byron G. S. Gronlund
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Office Hours: 1:30 to 12 a. m. 2:10 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.
Mordoff Building, Genoa, Ill.

Dr. J. W. Owitz
Physician and Surgeon
Office over Cooper's Store.
Hours: 10:00 to 12:00 a. m. 2:00 to 4:30 p. m.
Phone No. 11 7:00 to 8:30 p. m.

GENOA LODGE NO. 288 A. F. & A. M.
Meets second and fourth Tuesdays of each month
C. HOLMES, W. M. T. M. Frazier Sec.
Master Masons Welcome

EVALINE LODGE
No. 344
2nd & 4th Tuesday of each month in I. O. O. F. Hall
A. R. Slater, Prefect
Fannie M. Heed, Secy

GENOA LODGE
No. 768
I. O. O. F.
Meets every Monday evening in Odd Fellow Hall.
T. E. GIBBS, J. W. Sowers, Sec. N. G.

Genoa Nest No. 1017
Order of Owls
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesdays Each Month
W. E. JAMES, Pres.
J. J. RYAN, Sec.

Genoa Camp No. 163
M. W. A.
Meets second and fourth Thursdays of each month.
Visiting neighbors welcome
Wm. James, V. C. R. H. Browe, Clerk

Della Rebeckah Lodge
No. 330
Meets 1st and 3rd Friday of Each Month. Odd Fellow Hall.
Mrs. Ayle Hasler, Pearl Chapman, N. G. Secy.

CURIOUS CHINESE FOODS.

And Yet the Idea is Perfectly Simple When You Grasp It.

"One time I entered a Chinese medical restaurant with my interpreter. This was in Canton, and doctors sent patients there to eat food which would cure them of certain illnesses. All around were live animals and dead ones—monkeys, owls, cats, lizards, snakes, deer and so on. I paused to glance in a glass case filled with live snakes when another patron came up, a Chinese, who carefully picked out a certain snake, which an attendant then took from the cage, and which was at once killed and cooked.

"I asked my interpreter what on earth that Chinese gentleman wanted to eat snake meat for, and the interpreter replied: 'You know, sir, how fast a snake can travel on the ground, notwithstanding the fact he has no legs? Well, sir, try to imagine how fast a snake could travel if he did have legs. The gentleman who is now consuming that snake is troubled with rheumatism in his knees, which prevents him from walking fast or far. Therefore, he eats snake to get strength in his legs.'

"Perfectly simple!" Mr. Uhrlaub continued, laughing. "It's a wonder I hadn't thought of it myself. As for monkeys, you know that a monkey has extraordinary strength in his hands, wrists and arms; that is why he can swing from limb to limb of a tree, the ablest of living gymnasts. Well, lots of people in that medical restaurant were eating monkey steak and chops. My interpreter pointed out several who had gouty affections of the finger joints, and so on, according to his statements.

"Another kind of restaurant which I certainly did enjoy was a tea house of several stories. If you sit down on the ground floor you pay a fraction of a cent for your tea, and all the patrons here were coolies. The price of tea increases the higher you go, and on the very top floor each patron pays about 20 cents in American money for his tea.

"Here I found the guests to be the very best classes of Chinese society. Many brought with them their favorite pet birds in cages, and these cages were hung up on hooks provided for the purpose while the guests were sipping tea and chatting. There was a constant ripple of joyous bird music all through that uppermost floor, and it was a scene long to be remembered."—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

The Art of Writing.

Writing began with the rude picture writing on bone and rock and passed slowly by a natural and inevitable transition from the literal representations of the objects to a word alphabet and then to pure sound signs. The whole process is manifest from the very infancy of Egyptian picture writing, as crude as that with which the savage peoples still record their deeds. From these crude signs the process went on in its slow transformation to the phonetic writing typified in the Rosetta stone to the Phoenician, Greek and Roman modifications which brought us to the arbitrary sound symbols which the voice combines into articulate speech.

When Immigrants Were Sold.

It is pointed out by the London Chronicle that, although the modern immigrant to American ports may be "sold" in a way, he is never sold in the same sense as were those emigrants of the eighteenth century whose fate one gathers from an advertisement in a New York paper of 1774. The advertisement runs: "Servants just arrived from Scotland, to be sold on board the Commerce, Captain Ferguson master, lying at the ferry stairs, among which are a number of weavers, taylor, blacksmiths, nailers, shoemakers, butchers, hatters and spinners fourteen to thirty-five years of age. For terms apply to Henry White or said master on board."

The "Gold Snake."

A Mexican superstition, very common among miners in that country, relates to the "gold snake." This species of serpent is perfectly harmless and very handsome, being green in color and with a golden iridescence in its scales. Faith is entertained that wherever a gold snake makes its nest there is a ledge containing the precious metal, and there are many miners who will locate a claim at once if they find a gold snake.

It Makes Perfect, Though.

"Excuse me," said the caller, "but do you practice medicine?"
"Yes," said the doctor.
"Then I must apologize for having intruded. I want somebody who knows his business. I can't let anybody practice on me," said the visitor.—Harper's Weekly.

NEW CONFIDENCE GAME

Woman of Prepossessing Appearance Lands in Genoa, Tells Plausible Story and Gets Money

Mrs. Geo. Evans and Frank Carlson of this city and the former's sister, Mrs. McBride, of Elgin are looking for a neatly dressed woman of mature years who worked a slick confidence game on them the first of the week. The police of both the cities named are also looking for the woman. She came to Genoa the first of the week and going to the Carlson home gave a plausible story about being an old, old friend of the late Andrew Swanson. The story sounded good and the Carlson's took her in for the day and night. The woman later called on Mrs. Geo. Evans and with another tale of old times in Europe placed Mrs. Evans' mother among her friends of years ago. While conversing with Mrs. Evans, telling of being on her way to Sycamore to see a specialist, etc. she mentioned that she intended to purchase a present for Mrs. Austin, mother of Mrs. Evans. It was at this opportune moment that the woman discovered the loss of her pocket book. Her grief and chagrin were so apparently genuine that it did not require much persuasion to induce Mrs. Evans to loan her mother's "old friend" three dollars. That was the last seen of the she crook in Genoa. Later in the day Mrs. McBride of Elgin called her sister up over the phone and stated that she had just loaned her mother's "old friend" five dollars. It was at this time that the sisters woke up to the fact that they had been stung and the police were notified.

While at the Carlson home the stranger made tentative arrangements to purchase the Swanson house, now owned by Henry Wilke, the consideration to be $2100. By the way, Mrs. Wilke still has the house for sale.

Optimistic Thought.
The greatest man is he who has deserved most of his fellow creatures.

Our facilities for handling and showing wall papers are unexcelled anywhere and this spring we have made a special effort to place before the trade a line of stock papers and samples which will appeal to all tastes. You can repaper that living room, dining room, kitchen or bed room at a price which will be within your means and at the same time give entire satisfaction. We want you to call at any time and look over this beautiful and comprehensive line. Our time is yours, whether you buy at once or later.

S. S. SLATER & SON
FURNITURE DEALERS AND UNDERTAKERS
DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE ONLY

NOTICE
Special Six Week's Offer of Magazines
$1.50 $1.50

Our Paper and Any of These Clubs

To all who subscribe to our paper within the next six weeks we will give a year's subscription to any of these splendid magazine clubs for only 25c more than the cost of your paper alone. You save from $1.00 to $1.50 on each club.

This offer is open to everybody—to new and old subscribers alike. If you are a Subscriber to any of these magazines we will extend your subscription for a year from date of expiration.

The magazines are on display at our office. Call and see them. They are the biggest, best and cleanest publication on the market. Pick out your favorite club and give your order to one of the contestants in our Automobile prize contest.

Club 1	Club 2	Club 3	Club 4
Today's (with free pattern)	Womans World	Boys Magazine	Better Farming
Home Life	Home Life	Home Life	Home Life
American Farming	Household	Happy Hours	Happy Hours
Successful Poultry Farming	Happy Hours	Farm Life	Housewife

Extra Special for Six Weeks
Pictorial Review and This Paper, each for one year, Price $2.00 paid in advance.

These clubs contain a wealth of good reading for every member of the family.

Tell your friends and neighbors about this big offer. If you want one or more magazines sent to different addresses just mention it.

Magazines will stop promptly at expiration of subscription period.

Your Insurance Question

If you have not insured yourself or your belongings against what may happen any hour of the day—today, you are a bad business man and a worse relative. You owe protection not only to yourself but to THOSE DEPENDING ON YOU.

Come in here today for rates.

Farmers' State Bank

"Stingaree."

What is it?

Mass will be celebrated at St. Catherine's church next Sunday morning at nine o'clock.

Diamonds and wedding rings at Martin's for less money than you can buy elsewhere.

The watch factory at Elgin will work five and a half days a week beginning this week.

Thirty Brown Leghorn hens owned by Mrs. M. B. Otto of Lake Villa laid 575 eggs during the month of January.

The March lion came promptly on the first of the month, a blizzard marking the date. It is the hope of all that the little fable of the lamb will materialize this year.

The Cozy Lunch offers the best in the market either for a short order or a full meal. The service is always the best and the cooking the result of the work of an expert chef.

Right now is a good time to have your house wired for electric lights, just before spring house cleaning. Talk to H. J. Glass about the job. His prices are right.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. James Hutchison, Jr. on Tuesday afternoon, March 7. Let all members try to be present. Secy.

Mr. Howard Storm and Miss Louis Frazee, daughter of Wm. Frazee, were married at Rockford on Wednesday, March 1. They will make their home on the Walter Buck farm, north of Genoa.

One of the Webb brothers who have been conducting a confectionery store at Marengo will soon open a store of similar character in the Mordoff building in this city.

The Priscilla Club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Tischler today. This club is composed of young women who devote their time to sewing while enjoying each other's society.

Properly adjusted glasses cure many forms of headache and also cure many nervous derangements. Dr. Barber, registered optometrist, is in Genoa every two weeks at Dr. Gronlund's office. His next date is March 8.

L. J. Kiernan has installed an electric range in his beautiful new home on Emmett street, the first of the kind in Genoa. The electric range is not an experiment, but a household equipment that is here to stay.

No petitions have been filed for the city primary election which will be held in Genoa and Kingston on the 14th of March. In spite of this fact, the law provides that the election must be held, blank ballots being used.

C. P. Filmore, who for over fifty years has been connected with the Marengo Republican as printer and editor, has retired. His place will be filled by L. P. Hix, former editor of the old Sycamore City Weekly.

The DeKalb county grand jury, which meets three times a year in regular session at the court house, met Monday morning, but

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

having nothing to do returned to their homes. This probably never has happened before in twenty years, if ever.

Don't miss that sensation of all sensations, The Mystery of Room 13," at the Pety Wales show next Wednesday night. It will keep you guessing during the entire production. One of the best features ever put on in Genoa. Next Wednesday night, March 8.

Singer & Nelson of Sycamore were awarded the contract for building the new high school building in that city. Their bid for the job was $58,782. Swanson Bros., the Sycamore electrical contractors, were awarded the wiring contract.

The DeKalb County Telephone Co. is preparing to do considerable repairing on the lines this spring. A car of poles is being unloaded this week and scattered along the lines in the country. Several tons of new wire will also be used.

Elmer Harshman will start the erection of a cottage for John Richter, in the Eureka Park addition, in the near future. Mr. Richter has taken advantage of the offer which is being made in Mr. Harshman's adv. in the "Want Column."

Never before have there been so many changes among farmers as this year. During the past two or three days there has been an endless procession of wagons, farm implements and live stock on the highways. The weather and roads have been anything but fit for moving either.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hewitt and F. W. Olmsted desire to thank the many friends for their kind offices during the sickness and after the death of their loved one, and express their sincere appreciation for the friendship evidenced in the beautiful floral offerings.

There is one sure way of getting the full value for your money in buying jewelry or silverware and that is by buying it of Martin, the Genoa jeweler. If you are not absolutely satisfied with any purchase made there he will be the first to talk about making it right. A dollar buys a dollar's worth at Martin's every time or you get the dollar back. Could one ask for a better guarantee?

March 7 is Shrove Tuesday in the biblical calendar, and is the last day on which couples of the Catholic faith may be married until after Lent. On the evening of the 7th a Parish Social will be held at St. Catherine's hall at eight o'clock, to which everyone is invited. The heating apparatus for the hall has now been so arranged that the place can be made comfortable at all times.

A blaze in the roof of the Teyler flat at the corner of Sycamore and Railroad streets Tuesday morning, threatened to cause considerable damage, but prompt action on the part of the tenants, with the assistance of L. M. Doty and W. H. Jackman, prevented a spread of the flames. A large hole was burned in the roof. The women of the building fought the fire from the inside.

Dr. C. A. Patterson was called to Lincoln, Neb., Monday morning by the death of his brother, Charles. The body was brought to Genoa Wednesday where funeral services were held. The deceased moved to the West many years ago, but has been a frequent visitor in Genoa of late years. Full particulars will be published next week.

As will be noted in a publication notice in another part of this paper, Karl Wetschok of this city has started proceedings to change his name. For a long time he has been known as Charles Witt by his friends and acquaintances. The appellation suits Mr. Wetschok and he will officially bear the name, Charles Witt, after the June term of court, if the proceedings have no hitch.

The hard time social given by the Eastern Stars at Masonic hall Tuesday evening was well attended and everyone sure did have a good time. Altho a hard time social is an old stunt, it took better than the new ideas of entertainment. There is something about an entertainment or social of that nature that brings the people closer together in social harmony. More events of such nature and more of the old time house parties would be a blessing for any community.

THEY GET TOGETHER

Odd Fellows of Several Lodges Meet at Sycamore and Organize

There was an enthusiastic meeting of Odd Fellows at Sycamore last Thursday. The meeting was called for the purpose of getting closer together also to do better degree work. In order to do this it was designed to hold an annual picnic.

Delegates from eight lodges were present—Elburn, DeKalb, Rochelle, Sycamore, Stillman Valley, Lindenwood, Genoa and Hampshire.

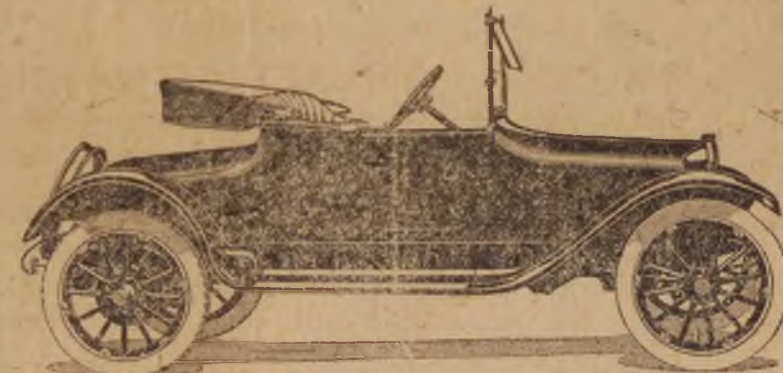

On Friday of this week representatives from these lodges will meet to put their plans together. The delegates are: Sycamore, William Wallmark; DeKalb, Henry Peterson; Rochelle, John Luxton; Elburn, Charles Monroe; Genoa, Henry Olmstead; Linden-wood, J. F. Bailey and Hampshire, Mr. Crane. W. H. Campbell was elected chairman and Carl Heideklang secretary.

Mrs. Howard Crawford's Sunday School class was entertained at the home of Miss Meredith Taylor last Saturday afternoon. The few hours were pleasantly passed at various games and a fine lunch served.

DODGE BROTHERS ROADSTER

Road Comfort, Beauty Business and Pleasure
Own Motor Design - 30 35 Horse Power Motor.
A High Tension Water Proof Eisenmann Magneto.
Durable Leather Upholstery - Genuine Leather.
Streamline Steel Body High Temperature Enamel Finish
Timken Roller Bearings - Chrome Vanadium Steel Gears.
Telectric Lighting and Starting System.
Rear Spacious Carrying Compartment.

T. J. HOOVER
Salesman

GENOA ILLINOIS

Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago; Paris Exposition, France, March, 1912.

Prince Albert fits your taste!

Meets the fondest wishes of any man who likes to smoke because it has the right flavor and aroma and coolness. It's the most cheerful tobacco you ever did pack in a jimmy pipe or roll into a cigarette. And it's so good you just feel you never can get enough. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch!

When you fire up your first smoke you'll decide that you never did taste tobacco that hits your fancy like the national joy smoke

PRINCE ALBERT

For it exceeds in goodness and satisfaction the kindest word we ever printed about it!

Men, we tell you this tobacco will be a revelation to you. So, take this information at 100%, get out the old jimmy pipe from its hiding place or locate the makin's papers—and fall-to!

Your wishes will be gratified at the nearest store that sells tobacco, for Prince Albert is in universal demand. It can be bought all over the states and all over the world! Tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—that fine pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such excellent trim.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

LISTEN PEOPLE!

I am now preparing to make some radical changes in the arrangement of my store, not only for my own advantage but for the better advantage of the trade. When all the plans are carried out my customers will find this the easiest place to trade in this community. Each department will be separate and distinct and goods arranged for the best display. Show cases will be kept clear—the center aisle open.

New Spring Goods

will soon be arriving to take the place of the merchandise which has been disposed of during the recent sale. You will find here all the latest novelties and staples in dry goods of a high grade and efficient clerks to wait on you. This space in The Republican Journal will be used weekly in telling you of the new goods as they arrive. Watch adv. and profit thereby.

F. W. OLMSTED

SAY, MEN, THE NEW SPRING HATS ARE HERE

A little richer in color, a little better in shape and more substantial than they have been during the past few seasons. The styles are more conservative, they still have the snap that appeals to the young man and the man who wants to remain young. Call and see the new ones which are arriving daily. We can please you.

Made-to-Measure Clothing

F. O. HOLTGREN, Genoa

Boys' Ready-Made Clothing

Why Be a Wallflower?

Learn to Dance the Waltz and Two-Step for

ONE $ ONE

Send One Dollar and State Whether Lady's or Gentleman's Course Desired

Peck's Correspondence School

DeKalb of Dancing Illinois

PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Gladys Kellogg was a week end visitor in Elgin

Mrs. C. A. Brown was an Elgin visitor last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kiernan and daughter were in Elgin over Sunday.

F. H. Jackman visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. G. Whitright, in Winnetka last week.

Miss Ruth Slater of Chicago Heights spent Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. Wm. Clausen and Mrs. Andrew Johnson were Elgin visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller and daughter visited relatives at Fairdale over Sunday.

Don't forget how to spell "Stingaree."

Earl and Miss Pyrl Renn were Elgin visitors the last of the week.

Miss Ruth Morgan visited her mother in Evanston over Sunday.

E. H. Griggs came out from Chicago last Saturday to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin of Rockford visited home folks over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Rockford were Sunday visitors in Genoa.

Mrs. Anna Boots, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Dean, returned to her home in Central City, Iowa, Thursday.

"Stingaree."

Mrs. F. W. Duval of Fairdale was a Genoa caller Tuesday.

Mrs. Jas. Hutchison, Sr. is visiting at the home of her son, T. J., in Maywood.

Miss June Hammond, who is attending the DeKalb Normal, spent Sunday with her parents.

Several from Genoa are enjoying the motion picture "The Birth of a Nation" at Rockford today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dean of Rockford were guests at the home of Will Parker last week.

Misses Ida and Mabel Anderson of Rockford were guests the first of the week at the home of their uncle, F. O. Holtgren.

Frank Waite arrived here from the state of Washington last week and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Waite.

Howard Stanley of Chicago University spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Green arrived here from Kansas City, Mo., Sunday and are now keeping house in the Henry Holroyd residence on Sycamore street. Mrs. F. M. Worcester is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Green who resided in this vicinity years ago.

Miss Mabel Brown of Belvidere visited with Gepoa relatives last Saturday and Sunday.

J. P. Evans and Dr. A. M. Hill are confined to their beds on account of illness.

Dr. J. H. Danforth was called to Rexburg, Idaho, the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his mother, there being little hopes of her recovery at the time the message was received.

Wants, For Sale, Etc.

Ads in this column 25c each week for five lines or less; over five lines, 5c per line.

Lands, City Property

WHY PAY RENT? Own your own home! I have several choice locations in Morningside and Citizens' additions and 1 1/2 acre piece in Eureka Park addition. I will build you a home on one of these lots you can make a small cash advance payment, move in it at once when completed, and pay the balance by small monthly installments. If interested call and talk it over. Elmer Harshman, Genoa. 16-1f

FOR SALE—Five lots in Eureka Park addition in Genoa. Will be sold cheap and on easy terms. Inquire of W. W. Cooper. 4-1f

FOR SALE—Vacant lots and improved city property in Genoa in all parts of town. Lots from $200 up to $5000, according to location and improvements. Some ought to suit you. Now is the time to buy. D. S. Brown, Genoa. 31-1f

FOR SALE—The Albert Shurtleff property on Jackson street, Genoa, consisting of a fine residence with electric lights, city water and sewer connections and other modern improvements, good barn and a little over eight acres of land. Inquire of E. C. Crawford, Genoa, Ill. 6-1f

FOR SALE OR RENT—House in Citizens' addition, Genoa. Address A. Frederick, 321 Douglass Ave., Elgin, Ill. 18-1f

FOR RENT—155 acre farm, near Plato Center, Ill., known as the Herman Holtz farm. Will rent for cash only. Inquire of Geithman & Hammond Land Agency, Genoa. 20-2f

Seed

YELLOW SEED CORN—1914 crop "World's Fair" corn, grown on my farm for 20 years or more. Tests almost perfect. Call on Zeller & Son for samples. H. N. Olmsted, Genoa, Ill. 19-1f

SEED CORN—A small quantity of DeKalb county 1914 Gold Mine seed corn for sale. Guaranteed germination 94 to 98 per cent. Price, $5.50 per bu. F. O. B. Henrietta. Bags free. Address Ralph E. White, Kingston, Ill. R. R. 1. Phone Kingston 907-22. 18-4f

OATS—I have about 800 bushels of good oats for sale, free from fowl weeds and treated for smut. Will make excellent seed. Inquire of John Gray, Kingston, Ill. 18-1f

SEED GRAIN—I have 1000 bu Gold Mine oats, a quantity of beardless barley & blue-stem wheat for sale. All was treated for smut before seeding last spring and is free from fowl weeds. B. C. Awe, Genoa, Ill. Phone 87. 19-1f

FOR SALE—1914 seed corn at $2.50 per bushel if taken within the next 30 days. Guaranteed. A. B. Crawford, Genoa, Ill. 20-4f

Live Stock

REGISTERED HOLSTEIN BULL, average official test for two nearest stands is 4.15 per cent fat—both heavy milk producers. Bull ready for service at very low price. Stevens Stock Farm, Sycamore, Ill. 13-1f

EGGS for sale—From my heavy laying strain of S. C. White Orpingtons. My flock of hens average an egg every other day per bird during the past winter season. They do not only lay and pay, but win at national shows such as Chicago, Detroit, Jackson and others. Eggs, $1.50 to $2.00 per setting of 15; $5.00 per 100. Write or phone Guy Brown, Genoa, Ill. 20-1f

Miscellaneous

CORD WOOD for sale at $3.00 per cord. Geithman & Hammond. 13-1f

INSURANCE—Call on C. A. Brown Genoa, Ill., for insurance. Surety and indemnity bonds. City Lots for sale, large and small. 30-1f

DEAD ANIMALS removed free of charge if the hides are left on. The Genoa Rendering Plant. Telephone No. 909-14 or 37. 1f

MONEY TO LOAN—on farm lands at 5 per cent. Optional pre-payment privileges. Loans closed without delay. Dutton-Becker Loan & Investment Co., Sycamore, Ill. Phone 91. 11-1f

WANTED—Men who desire to earn over $125.00 per month write us today for position as salesman; every opportunity for advancement. Central Petroleum Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

BARRED ROCKS—The "Farmers' Friend" strain are bred to lay and bound to pay. Eggs, 75c and $1.50 per 15. Frank Stanley, Genoa, Ill. 21-12f

BULLS FOR SALE—Three well bred and well marked bulls, ready for service. M. J. Corson, Genoa, Ill. 21-3f

House for rent—On Hadsall avenue 8 room house, hard wood floors, electric lights and furnace. Garage and barn. Inquire of H. W. Wilke. *

LOST—Lady's gold watch and chain, in or near Kingston. Watch has monogram "E. M. B." on face. Will the finder please return to M. Brooks, Kingston, Ill.?

FOR SALE—80 acres of land, situated 3 miles east and 1/2 mile north of Genoa, known as the "Abbie Patterson 80;" house, barn and 2 lots on Sycamore street, Genoa; 7 1/2 acres timber land, 1/2 mile south of Genoa; furnished cottage at Camp Epworth. Having power of attorney, we offer the above property, either as a whole or separately, for sale. J. A. Patterson, G. J. Patterson, agents, Genoa, Ill. 21-1f

Miss Marion Brown, who is attending Normal school at DeKalb, spent the week end at her home in Genoa.

Mrs. Wm. Snyder and Mrs. W. M. Jordan of Maple Park were visiting at S. B. Mohler's last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Duval and daughter, Mildred, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simmons at Kingston.

Frank Fischbach has moved from the old Millard house on First street to the Frederick house on East Main, recently vacated by Homer Glass.

Several Genoa people witnessed the "Birth of a Nation" in Elgin last week, and not one of them will ever regret having done so.

Mrs. George Tower moved to Genoa this week and will occupy the Tower residence on State street. Mr. Tower will remain on the farm for another month as he has several head of cattle to finish feeding.

Edwin Cooper of Chicago was here the first of the week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cooper. Mr. Cooper, who is a graduate of the Genoa high school, is now in the employ of Morris & Co, having charge of one of the branch city houses.

F. F. Hammill of Chicago was in Genoa the first of the week, a guest at the home of Charles Corson. Mr. Hammill has been out with Mr. Corson in picking up horses and is considered "some horse buyer" by those who know him.

Rev. R. I. Pierce, pastor of the M. E. church, fell Tuesday evening, sustaining injuries which will confine him to his bed for several days. In falling he struck his side, causing a painful tho not serious injury.

Orrin Merritt, manager of the opera house, went to Chicago Thursday morning to purchase new supplies, among them being a new lens for the motion picture machine. The projection will be so arranged that a picture twelve feet high can be shown on the screen.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room"

"Ten nights in a Bar Room" was presented at the Genoa opera house last Thursday evening by Kingston talent. The audience was not large but it was an appreciative one. The weather was anything but pleasant and not favorable for the event. The cast was good and the play worth a large audience. As Joe Morgan, Mr. Holvenstor made a decided hit, while Banker Branch as Simon Slade could not have been better. Our own "Sod" Patterson was right there with the goods, portraying the happy go lucky character of Simon Switchel faithfully. Without any special effort at make-up John O'Brien in a truly boisterous manner acted the villain to perfection. As Mr.

Romaine, the hotel guest, Mr. Tazewell fitted in nicely and Ralph G. Ort made an ideal Willie Hammond. Mrs. Schmeltzer, in her interpretation of the old maid role, filled the audience with mirth. As the patient and long suffering wife of Joe Morgan, and mother of little Mary, the management made a wide choice in selecting Mrs. Branch. Little Zaida Knappenberger won the hearts of everyone. She was not only brave behind the foot lights, but put real feeling in the part. If Miss Zaida is given a chance with elocution lessons she will be heard from some day. We regret that a larger audience did not see this production. It is one of the best lectures on the results of "booze" fighting ever placed before the public.

For Tax Collector

C. D. SCHOONMAKER

Rice - Rice

7c Pound. 25c for 4 Pounds

This is the best Rice that was ever sold and is equal in every way to the grade that sells everywhere for 10 cents. It is a snap. Call and get a few pounds before it is all sold.

Big Juicy Grapesfruits

5c Each This Week

Genoa Cash Grocery

Brazil and Java

furnish the whole world with its breakfast, dinner and supper coffee. There is nothing more appetizing than a cup of steaming coffee brewed from well roasted and properly cured kernels.

Coffee we Sell Will Satisfy the most discriminating taste because it is carefully selected both for quality and flavor. Always come to us for the best staple and fancy groceries. Our motto: Courtesy--Cleanliness--Honesty--Service

I. W. DOUGLASS
Phone 67 GENOA

The Bank of North America in Philadelphia Penn. Authorized by Congress 1791

☞ The modest building pictured here housed the first bank with which the American government had any official connection, and from this small beginning has grown up the vast system of banking in this country.

☞ Of that system this bank is a part, and it is that part which best represents the banking facilities of this community. It offers to our people the same opportunities that larger institutions offer the people of larger communities.

☞ A savings deposit with us means a safe, money-earning investment for you. It means the beginning of a habit that will become a pleasure as you watch your account grow.

☞ Start a bank account with us today.

The Exchange Bank, Genoa, Ill.

Fresh Green Vegetables

The season of the year is at hand for the first arrival of fresh green vegetables and you will find this store one of the first to cater to your desire for these delicacies. From this time on we will have in nearly every day a tempting display of

Tomatoes, Radishes, Lettuce, Onions and Celery

and others as they appear on the market. We always have on hand a fine display of old vegetables such as parsnips, cabbage, carrots and turnips.

E. J. TISCHLER

You Must Be Careful

Accidents will occur. When they do, you must be sure to dress the wounds carefully. Not to do so may mean blood poison and death. We carry a full line of first-aid supplies such as

Bandages Adhesive Plaster
Salves Liniments
Disinfectants Medicated Cotton

All of them simple, effective helps which you should keep on hand for emergencies in your home.

Phone 83, L. E. CARMICHAEL, Druggist

Special Prize Offer in $1,000 Auto Contest

In order to stimulate interest in the Contest and arouse enthusiasm for still further effort The Republican Journal will offer as a Special Prize a $25.00 Merchandise Order, good at either Olmsted's Dry Goods Store or Slater's Furniture Store for New Subscriptions Only.

THE OFFER

To the contestant who turns in the most money in New Subscriptions between Thursday, March 2nd, and Wednesday, March 22nd at 6 o'clock p. m., we will award a Merchandise Order good for $25.00. AND LISTEN--In connection with the $25.00 Merchandise Order, will be made a still further inducement in the form of Extra Votes as follows: During the first week, starting Thursday, March 2nd and closing Wednesday, March 8th at six o'clock, we will give 100,000 Extra Votes on each and every club of $20.00 in New Subscriptions to the Republican-Journal. SECOND PERIOD--Starting Thursday, March 9th, and closing Wednesday, March 15th, we will give 60,000 Extra Votes on each and every club of $15.00 in New Subscriptions to the Republican-Journal. THIRD PERIOD--During the third week, from Thursday, March 16th, and closing Wednesday, March 22, at six o'clock, we will give 30,000 Extra Votes on each club of $10.00 in New Subscriptions turned in for the Republican-Journal--Magazine Clubs do not count for extra votes.

SPECIAL

One half the above number of votes will be allowed on clubs of old subscriptions during each period as noted, but NEW Subscriptions only will count toward winning the $25 Merchandise Order. This is your opportunity to roll up votes. If in doubt about the offer or any of its details call up contest manager.

 Second Capital Prize Purchased from S. S. Slater & Son.	Vote Schedule <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>TIME</th> <th>PRICE</th> <th>NEW Subs.</th> <th>OLD Subs.</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr><td>1 Year</td><td>$1.25</td><td>1,000</td><td>500</td></tr> <tr><td>2 "</td><td>2.50</td><td>2,500</td><td>1,250</td></tr> <tr><td>3 "</td><td>3.75</td><td>5,000</td><td>2,500</td></tr> <tr><td>4 "</td><td>5.00</td><td>8,000</td><td>4,000</td></tr> <tr><td>5 "</td><td>6.25</td><td>11,000</td><td>5,500</td></tr> <tr><td>6 "</td><td>7.50</td><td>15,000</td><td>7,500</td></tr> <tr><td>7 "</td><td>8.75</td><td>20,000</td><td>10,000</td></tr> <tr><td>8 "</td><td>10.00</td><td>30,000</td><td>15,000</td></tr> <tr><td>9 "</td><td>11.25</td><td>45,000</td><td>22,500</td></tr> <tr><td>10 "</td><td>12.50</td><td>75,000</td><td>37,500</td></tr> </tbody> </table>	TIME	PRICE	NEW Subs.	OLD Subs.	1 Year	$1.25	1,000	500	2 "	2.50	2,500	1,250	3 "	3.75	5,000	2,500	4 "	5.00	8,000	4,000	5 "	6.25	11,000	5,500	6 "	7.50	15,000	7,500	7 "	8.75	20,000	10,000	8 "	10.00	30,000	15,000	9 "	11.25	45,000	22,500	10 "	12.50	75,000	37,500	 First Capital Prize Purchased from T. J. Hoover.
TIME	PRICE	NEW Subs.	OLD Subs.
1 Year	$1.25	1,000	500
2 "	2.50	2,500	1,250
3 "	3.75	5,000	2,500
4 "	5.00	8,000	4,000
5 "	6.25	11,000	5,500
6 "	7.50	15,000	7,500
7 "	8.75	20,000	10,000
8 "	10.00	30,000	15,000
9 "	11.25	45,000	22,500
10 "	12.50	75,000	37,500

For Full Details
Call or Write

The Genoa Republican-Journal

Telephone No 1781
Genoa, Illinois

H. D. ANDRUS, Contest Manager

ON RIGHT TRACK

Congressman Fuller Asks that President Warn Citizens of Danger

Congressman Charles E. Fuller has introduced in the lower house of congress a concurrent resolution authorizing and requesting the president to issue to the American people a proclamation warning them of the great danger of traveling on armed ships of the belligerent nations or on ships carrying munitions, and asking them to refrain from doing so. The congressman chose February 22, Washington's birthday on which to present the resolution to congress, the full text of which is given below.

Whereas, It is manifestly unsafe, owing to the unusual conditions prevailing throughout the world, for American citizens to take passage on belligerent ships that are armed or that carry war munitions; and,

Whereas, The taking of such chances at this time may involve this country in serious trouble in its efforts to protect American lives and interests; and,

Whereas, It is the earnest desire of all our people that this country shall remain absolutely neutral as between the warring nations of Europe; therefore be it Resolved, By the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the President of the United States be authorized and requested to issue a proclamation warning all American citizens of the great danger of taking passage on any belligerent ship that is armed or that carries munitions of war, and requesting them, for their own safety and in the interest of this country's neutrality, to refrain from so doing.

The Old, Old Story

"Put an apple on top of your head and I will shoot it off." Andrew Knaar 18 years old, told his brother, Arthur, 12 years old, as he pointed a shotgun at his younger brother late last Tuesday afternoon. He pulled the trigger. Arthur was killed instantly. Andrew, panic stricken, picked up the body and carried it home, a distance of a quarter of a mile. Then he fled back into a dense grove and hid. Discovered by the police, he said he did not know the gun was loaded.—Aurora Beacon.

MARRIED AT PARSONAGE

Miss Frieda Wolter Becomes Bride of Henry G. J. Rosslein on the 26th

At the German Lutheran parsonage in this city on Saturday, Feb. 26, at ten a. m., the marriage of Mr. Henry G. J. Rosslein and Miss Frieda A. Wolter was solemnized, Rev. J. Molthan officiating. The couple were attended by Messrs. Carl Rosslein and Albert Furch and Misses Bertha and Emma Wolter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosslein will reside on a farm north of New Lebanon. The groom is a son of H. G. J. Rosslein who resides north of New Lebanon and the bride is a daughter of John Wolter, of Genoa. Both are favorably known in this community and have a host of friends who will be pleased to wish them all the joys incident to the establishment of a new home.

For Tax Collector

To my many friends and old customers of Genoa and vicinity, I announce myself as candidate for tax collector. Many of you know that over a year ago I suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which I have not fully recovered, and am not able to do much. I would greatly appreciate your support. Give Hutch a boost

Yours sincerely

H. A. Kellogg.

NOTICE

State of Illinois, ss Estate of Henry County of DeKalb. Patterson, deceased. To the Heirs, legatees, devisees and creditors of said Estate: You are hereby notified that on Monday, the 27th day of March, 1916, the Executor of the Last Will and Testament of said deceased will present to the County Court of DeKalb County, at Sycamore, Illinois, his final report of his acts and doings as such Executor, and ask the Court to be discharged from any and all further duties and responsibilities connected with said estate, and his administration thereof, at which time and place you may be present and resist such application, if you choose so to do. CLAYTON A. PATTERSON, Executor.

Can you pronounce it correctly --"Stingaree."

Velvitina Beauty Culture

There is no reason why the ladies of Genoa should not be at their best in beauty these days, for we now have a resident "Beauty doctor," Mrs. Wm. Seymour having taken up the work as a regular vocation. Mrs. Seymour will use the much advertised "Velvitina" products, acknowledged to be among the best manufactured. She will go into the homes to do her work, a feature that will be appreciated by her patrons, and make prices as follows: shampoo, complete, 50 and 75c; scalp treatment, 35c; steam facial, complete, 50c or 12 for $5.00; plain facial, 40c; manicuring, 35c. Where ladies furnish their own materials the work will be cheaper. If any desire Mrs. Seymour's services she may be reached by calling phone No. 8 between the hours of 12 and for 6 and 7. Velvitina products are now being advertised by John Lembke and L. E. Carmichael, the local agents. See his adv. on another page and ask for literature.

SEED

The seed problem is one to be reckoned with this spring and one that is attracting the attention of every farmer at the present time. We have made special arrangements to take the best possible care of your wants and feel that you can place confidence in our judgment of selection. We have that tests almost perfect. Corn that has been grown right in this neighborhood for twenty years and therefore thoroughly fitted for the climate. This corn is of the 1914 crop, has been tipped and the price is right for seed of this grade. Call and see samples and talk over the seed situation with us.

Seed Corn

Zeller & Son
Genoa, Ill.

Petey Wales Presents in Motion Pictures

The great four-reel EDISON DRAMA, featuring the two favorites Lillian Herbert and Marc MacDermott in

THE MYSTERY OF ROOM 13

Two Comedies

"UP AGAINST IT"

The Experience of a Small Time Vaudeville Team

"SIS"

A Novelty Comedy

Genoa Opera House
NEXT WEDNESDAY

March 8th

Admission, 10c

We sell the Best
Builders
Hardware
that's made

WHEN YOU PUT YOUR GOOD MONEY INTO BUILDERS' HARDWARE, YOU WANT THE RIGHT STYLE, THE RIGHT QUALITY, AND THE RIGHT PRICE.

THEN BUY YOUR BUILDERS' HARDWARE FROM US. WE WILL GIVE THE RIGHT STYLE, QUALITY AND PRICE, AND ALSO A SQUARE DEAL. LET'S DO BUSINESS WITH EACH OTHER!

PERKINS & ROSENFELD

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria Always Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co. In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria Always Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co. In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA

SUPERVISORS' PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of DeKalb County, Illinois, Adjourned Meeting, Friday, Dec. 17th, 1915.

Pursuant to adjournment of Dec. 8th, 1915, the board of supervisors of DeKalb county, Illinois, met in the supervisors' room in the court house at Genoa, Ill., at 10 a. m., and was called to order by Chairman Warren.

and consulting the people generally, we are of the opinion that there is considerable uncertainty as to the durability of the different kinds of roads and as to the question of bonding the county at this time for the construction of roads, and that a large majority of the people do not seem to desire that this question should be submitted to the voters at this time.

Mr. Jarboe presented and read the following minority report of the special road committee and moved that it be a substitute to the report offered by Mr. Bell.

MINORITY COMMITTEE REPORT - BOND ISSUE. To the Chairman and Board of Supervisors of DeKalb County, Illinois.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water. Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and toxic.

MEAT CLOGS KIDNEYS THEN YOUR BACK HURTS. Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You - Drink Lots of Water.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick.

It was at a social gathering in a mountain settlement of Tennessee, and the schoolteacher was there and wanted to show off her learning to the company. She selected a long, lank, red necked young fellow for her target and lit in:

FREE Color Plans for Your Spring Decorating

Madam - The Alabastine staff of interior decorators is at your disposal - to assist you with your spring decorating.

Alabastine Co. 325 Grandville Rd. Grand Rapids, Mich.

It may console the self-confessed coward to realize that he is still in a position to admit it.

SUFFERED FOR FOUR YEARS.

Mr. J. M. Sinclair of Olivehill, Tenn., writes: "I strained my back, which weakened my kidneys and caused an awful bad backache and inflammation of the bladder. Later I became so much worse that I consulted a doctor, who said that I had Diabetes and that my heart was affected. I suffered for four years and was in a nervous state and very much depressed. The doctor's medicine didn't help me, so I decided to try Dodds Kidney Pills, and I cannot say enough to express my relief and thankfulness, as they cured me. Diamond Dinner Pills cured me of constipation."

Dodds Kidney Pills, 50c. per box at your dealer or Dodds Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Dodds Dyspepsia Tablets for indigestion have been proved, 50c. per box - Adv.

In states where beauty is taxable no woman ever tries to dodge the assessor.

Not Gray Hair but Tired Eyes make us look older than we are. Keep your eyes young and you will look young. After the Mervine Eye Remedy. Don't tell your age. Mervine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago, Sends Eye Book on request.

Somehow an old man on a motorcycle looks out of place.

A New Remedy for Kidney, Bladder and all Uric Acid Troubles

Dear Readers: I appeal to those of you who are bothered with kidney and bladder trouble, that you give up the use of harsh salts or alcoholic medicines and in their place take a short treatment of "Anuric." I have taken many of Dr. Pierce's medicines for the past twenty-five years with good results. I suffered with kidney trouble for some years. I recently heard of the newest discovery of Dr. Pierce, namely, his "Anuric" Tablets. After using same I am completely cured of my kidney trouble. A doctor pronounced me a well preserved woman for my age, all due, I believe, to Dr. Pierce's aid. MRS. MELINDA E. MILLER.

If you suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism, get "Anuric" now.

Hostilities Brewing. "That broker's wife looked very black at him when she told him to get ready to come home."

"Yes; looked rather like her preparing to place some war orders."

NEW TREATMENT FOR SWOLLEN VEINS

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) at any pharmacist and start to reduce the veins and blemishes at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated. Apply night and morning with the soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal.

It is so marvelously powerful that swollen glands, and even goiter disappear when used steadily.

Thoroughly Natural. "Did he die a natural death?" "Yes, so I understand. He was run over in the streets of New York." - Life.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and remove dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. - Adv.

Another of Them. "I suppose you have put away some thing for a rainy day?" "Not I. I don't believe in preparedness."

After Grip - Winter Colds - Bad Blood

You are pale, thin, weak - with little vitality. Your liver is sluggish and the bad blood causes your stomach muscles to lose their elasticity and become flabby - then indigestion.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics, is the great and powerful blood purifier of today. Extracted from American forest herbs and roots. Contains no alcohol. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Taken as directed it will search out impure and poisonous matter throughout the system and eliminate it.

Mr. Horan moved to allow the claim of Eliand Bros for painting county buildings at $233. Motion carried.

Mr. Warren stated that the object of the bill was to consider the matter of issuing bonds for making state aid roads.

Mr. White stated that the people of his town were opposed to issuing bonds.

Mr. Jarboe stated that members of the state highway commission were present and suggested that they be given the privilege of presenting plans and estimates of costs of construction of state aid roads.

Mr. Bradt was called on and explained charts showing location of different types of roads and stated that the cost to complete the entire system of state aid roads in the county was estimated at about $200,000.

Mr. Marr was called upon and explained the construction of the different types of roads.

After further discussion by Messrs. Raymond, Bell, Hay and others, Mr. Jarboe moved that there be a committee of seven appointed by the board to consider the present highway commission and four others to be appointed by the chair, to issue into separate bills the different plans and roads presented and to consult the people of each township and report the results of such consultation at an adjourned meeting to be held on Jan. 24th, 1916, at 2:00 o'clock p. m. Motion carried.

The chair appointed as members of the above named committee, Messrs. Townsend, Jarboe, Bell, Hay, Stewart, and White. Mr. Jarboe moved to adjourn to Jan. 24th, 1916, at 2:00 o'clock p. m. Motion carried.

SUPERVISORS' PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of DeKalb County, Illinois, Adjourned Session, January 24th, 1916.

Pursuant to adjournment of Dec. 17th, 1915, the board of supervisors of DeKalb County, Illinois, met in the supervisors' room in the court house at Genoa, Ill., at 10 a. m., and was called to order by Alvin Warren, chairman.

The roll being called, the following named supervisors were found present: Messrs. Anderson, Bell, Bell, Burton, Conrad, Dodge, Hay, Jarboe, Kellam, Raymond, Stewart, Townsend, White, Wright and Chairman Warren.

The minutes of the proceedings of Dec. 17th, 1915, were read and approved.

The following resolution of the public utilities commission of Illinois requesting that some one be appointed to represent DeKalb county at a meeting of said commission to be held in Chicago, Jan. 26th, was presented and read by the clerk.

RAILROAD CROSSING - FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP. Before the state public utilities commission of Illinois, Highway Commissioners of Franklin Township, DeKalb County vs. Illinois Central Railroad company - No. 442.

To the County of DeKalb, State of Illinois, County Clerk, Genoa, Illinois: Whereas, there is now pending before this commission a certain case based upon the petition against the above named respondent; and,

Whereas, it appears that you may be a necessary and property party to said case; and,

Whereas, said case will be heard in the City of Chicago, Illinois, on the 26th day of January, 1916, at the hour of 10 a. m. on said day in the office of the state public utilities commission, 125 West Jackson boulevard, Chicago, Illinois; now, therefore, notice is hereby given to you to appear at the time and place of said hearing as above mentioned and to present such pleadings, evidence and arguments touching the matters in issue in said cause as you may deem proper in the premises. A copy of the petition of the said highway commissioners of Franklin township and a copy of a cross petition of the said defendant, Illinois Central Railroad company in the above entitled cause, attached hereto, are being served by the order of the state public utilities commission of Illinois this 18th day of December, 1915. Dated at Springfield, Illinois. (L. S.) R. V. PRATHER, Secretary.

Mr. Raymond moved that L. B. Smith, state's attorney, be appointed to attend the above named meeting of the utilities commission. Motion carried.

Mr. Bell presented the bill of W. C. Miller, county superintendent of roads, for $125 for expenses in making survey for state aid roads to be made in 1916, and moved that it be allowed at $102.40. Motion carried.

Mr. Jarboe presented the following resolution for the appointment of a special road committee and moved that it be accepted and adopted.

RESOLUTION - ROAD COMMITTEE. Resolved, That the chairman appoint a special committee of seven to continue an investigation of a system of roads to be built in the county, with a view to report at the next September session.

The question being upon the resolution offered by Mr. Jarboe, the roll call being taken, the vote was as follows: Those voting in favor were Messrs. Anderson, Bell, Burton, Dodge, Hay, Jarboe, Kellam, Raymond, Stewart, Townsend, White, Wright and Chairman Warren. Those voting nay were Messrs. Conrad, Dodge, Hyde, Jarboe, Kellam, Lattimer, Stewart, Stewart, Stewart, Townsend, White and Chairman Warren. Total - Ayes, 15; nays, 7. Motion declared carried.

The clerk presented the bond of Charles C. Bond, county collector, for $25,000, which was approved by the motion of Mr. Townsend.

Mr. Jarboe moved that the clerk be authorized to draw orders for per diem and mileage due members for attendance at the session of Dec. 17th, 1915, and for Jan. 24th, 1916, and to the clerk for his per diem, recording minutes and making copy for publication. Motion carried.

Mr. Jarboe moved that we do now adjourn. Motion carried.

ALVIN WARREN, Chairman. Attest: S. M. HENDERSON, Clerk.

Manuscripts of Copernicus. Until recently the number of known books containing manuscript notes by Copernicus was fifteen. This number has now been increased through the researches of a committee of the Academy of Sciences of Cracow, which has been at work in the archives and libraries of Sweden since 1911, and has found, among other treasures, no less than 30 books containing notes to the handwriting of Copernicus. Details on this subject have not yet been published. - Scientific American.

Alarming Symptoms. "I'm greatly worried about my wife," said Gadsdon.

"Why so?" said Dubwaite.

"When I got home this morning about 2:30, instead of the usual lecture, she merely opened the door and said, 'Come in.'"

"That's curious."

"Very. And I don't know whether she's sick or figuring on getting a divorce."

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription which - double strength - is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of ointment - double strength - from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. - Adv.

Didn't Make Good. "I hear Yorick Hump has left vaudeville."

"Yep; to its fate." - Louisville Courier-Journal.

Unnecessary. "Do you tell your wife everything?" "It isn't necessary. She knows everything." - Detroit Free Press.

Throw Off Colds and Prevent Grip. When you feel a cold coming on, take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. It removes cause of colds and grip. Only One - BROMO QUININE. It is W. H. HILL'S signature on box.

According to Her Cook Book. Bride - Merciful heavens! That pie is burning and I can't take it out for ten minutes yet! - Life.

CLEANSE THE PORES

Of Your Skin and Make It Fresh and Clear by Using Cuticura. Trial Free.

When suffering from pimples, blackheads, redness or roughness, smear the skin with Cuticura Ointment. Then wash off with Cuticura Soap and hot water. These super-creamy emollients do much for the skin because they prevent pore clogging.

Free sample each by mail with Book. Address postcard, Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston. Sold everywhere. - Adv.

In every man there is a little of the instinct of a slave; the instinct to cringe before power.

This Will Interest Mothers. Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children for Feverishness, Headache, Bad Stomach, Teething Disorders, more and regulate the bowels and destroy worms. They break up Colic and griping. They are so pleasant to take children like them. Used by Mothers for 23 years. All Druggists, Etc. Sample FREE. Address, Mother Gray Co., Le Roy, N. Y.

After working hard to get money a man has to work twice as hard to keep it.

RENEW DEVONSHIRE CLOTH

Supremely suited to garments that get unusual wear and washing - house dresses, picnic frocks, youngsters' play suits, rompers, school dresses, etc.

Cuts to best advantage on account of unusual width.

"RENEW DEVONSHIRE CLOTH" is stamped on every yard of fabric.

Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it, write us. RENEW MFG. CO. Incorporated 1867 Adams, Mass.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on - castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. Their children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

No Hurry. "When are you going to tell the people just where you stand on this important question?"

"Not till I have to," replied Senator Sorghum. "I'm going to let everybody express opinions before I do, and then select the one that seems most popular."

To keep clean and healthy take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate liver, bowels and stomach. - Adv.

The Difficult Part. She - What do you think of Mrs. Howell's idea of getting up a dinner for six persons at a cost of only one dollar.

He - Well, I've no doubt she could get the dinner up all right, but the trouble would be in finding six persons who would be willing to get it down.

The Other Way About. "Wonder how old Roxleigh came to select such a young wife?" "He didn't. She selected him."

To have what you want is wealth; to do without is power.

RENEW DEVONSHIRE CLOTH

Supremely suited to garments that get unusual wear and washing - house dresses, picnic frocks, youngsters' play suits, rompers, school dresses, etc.

Cuts to best advantage on account of unusual width.

"RENEW DEVONSHIRE CLOTH" is stamped on every yard of fabric.

Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it, write us. RENEW MFG. CO. Incorporated 1867 Adams, Mass.

Don't Neglect a Cold - It's Serious

The old standard remedy - In tablet form - No unpleasant after effects - No opiate - Cures colds in 24 hours - La Grippe in days - Admits back if it fails - Insist on genuine - Box with red top - Mrs. Hill's picture on box - Any Drug Store.

W. H. Hill Company - Detroit

ABSORBINE STOPS LAMENESS

from a Bone Spavin, Ring Bone, Splint, Curb, Side Bone, or similar trouble and gets horse going sound. It acts mildly but quickly and good results are lasting. Does not blister or remove the hair and horse can be worked. Page 17 in pamphlet with delivered. Horse Book 9 M free.

ABSORBINE, JR., the antiseptic liniment for marking, reduces Painful Swellings, Enlarged Glands, Wens, Bruises, Varicose Veins, heals Sores, Allis Pain. Will tell you more if you write. $1 and $2 a bottle at dealers or delivered. Liberal trial bottle for 3c. W. F. YOUNG, P. O. F., 310 Temple St., Springfield, Mass.

A WOMAN KNOWS WHAT WOMEN WANT - Buy flower and vegetable seed from a woman. "Little Gardens for Little Homes" tells how to get seeds free. Alice Folsom, Flor., Dept. D. Glendale, Prince Georges Co., Md.

W. N. U., CHICAGO, NO. 10-1916.

FREE FILM AND FAVORITES

A NEW BOOK CONTAINING AUTOGRAPHED PHOTOGRAPHS and brief biographies of 72 leading photoplay stars FREE if you will send us the names and addresses of parents of orphans, deformed and paralyzed children in your community. If you favor, will send autographed photo pillow top made on gold satin. List in choice of following players: Alice Joyce, Mary Pickford, Anita Stewart, Pearl White, Francis Bushman or Jack Korrigan. Write names plainly.

THE MCCLAIN ORTHOPEDIC SANITARIUM, 237 E. Aubert Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

The Wheat Yield Tells the Story of Western Canada's Rapid Progress. The heavy crops in Western Canada have caused new records to be made in the handling of grains by railroads. For, while the movement of these heavy shipments has been wonderfully rapid, the resources of the different roads, despite enlarged equipments and increased facilities, have been strained as never before, and previous records have thus been broken in all directions.

160 ACRE FARMERS' WESTERN CAMERA FREE. The heavy crops in Western Canada have caused new records to be made in the handling of grains by railroads. For, while the movement of these heavy shipments has been wonderfully rapid, the resources of the different roads, despite enlarged equipments and increased facilities, have been strained as never before, and previous records have thus been broken in all directions.

TOBACCO. Reform in Tobacco, No Mysterious Compounds to Chew. MAIL POUCH TOBACCO. A Clean, Lasting Chew. A Cool, Sweet Smoke.

TOBACCO. Reform in Tobacco, No Mysterious Compounds to Chew. MAIL POUCH TOBACCO. A Clean, Lasting Chew. A Cool, Sweet Smoke.

TOBACCO. Reform in Tobacco, No Mysterious Compounds to Chew. MAIL POUCH TOBACCO. A Clean, Lasting Chew. A Cool, Sweet Smoke.

TOBACCO. Reform in Tobacco, No Mysterious Compounds to Chew. MAIL POUCH TOBACCO. A Clean, Lasting Chew. A Cool, Sweet Smoke.

Your Attention, Please

Lots of cold weather in this month. Take advantage of the 25 per cent discount on Mackinaws, Overcoats, Winter Underwear, Caps, Woolen Goods, Mittens and Sweaters. We offer you this inducement to make room for our big variety of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishing Goods and Shoes.

Bixby-Hughes Clothing Co.

Walk Over Shoes Successor to A. E. Pickett GENOA, ILL.
Agent for International Tailoring Co. The Best Tailor Made Clothes.

New Lebanon News

Mr. and John Bottcher were at Will Japp's Monday.
John Bottcher and family visited at Henry Koerner's Tuesday.
Mr. Glidden of Hampshire is filling oil orders here at present.
Lem Gray moved onto Mrs. Louis Hartman's farm Wednesday.
Henry Koerner and Chas. Brendemuhl called at Chas. Coon's Monday.

Herman Hartman and family were at Arthur Hartman's Tuesday.
Paul Lehman of Earlville moved onto the Chas. Coon farm Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Alden Kiner saw the "Birth of a Nation" in Elgin Friday.
Mrs. Chas. Coon went to see the "Birth of a Nation" at Elgin at the Grand Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kiner of Marilles are visiting their son, Alden Kiner, this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koerner and family called at Alden Kiner's Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Otto Gray entertained the H. O. A. club Thursday. All had a merry time. The afternoon was spent at tying a comforter. A delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Gray's guests were Mrs. Louis Hartman and son, Vernon, of Hampshire and Mrs. T. B. Gray. The club meets at Mrs. Alden Kiner's the 9th of March.

SALE OF RED CROSS STAMPS

In its Class Kingston Stands Tenth in the Number of Sales Last Year

Red cross Christmas seals were sold in DeKalb county last December as follows:
Cortland, $5.00; Clare, $1.50; DeKalb, $249.48; Elva, $5.00; Esmond, $2.50; Fairdale, $4.41; Genoa, $5.00; Hinckley, $6.40; Kingston, $8.66; Kirkland, $6.00; Lee, $5.60; Malta, $25.50; Rollo, $3.50; Sycamore, $38.37; Sandwich, $92.06; Shabbona, $21.14; Somonauk, $7.73; Sterling Woman's Club, $9.10; Waterman, $11.22; Total, $507.88.

In the report of the state association for towns winning high per capita sales in the class of three to six hundred population, Malta stands second, Shabbona fifth, Kingston tenth and Waterman eleventh. In the class of two to six thousand Sandwich stands fourth. In the class of eight to twenty-five thousand DeKalb is fourth.

Henry Wallace Dead

Henry Wallace, who has several times addressed the farmers of DeKalb county at Sycamore, editor of Wallace's Farmer, published at Des Moines, Iowa, dropped dead from apoplexy, on Tuesday night while he was waiting for the Laymen's Missionary convention to open at Des Moines. He was noted for his religious and social betterment work particularly pertaining to farm life. Mr. Wallace was 80 years of age.

Kirkland Stock Yards Company

"The Kirkland Stock Yards Company" filed articles of incorporation in the recorder's office on Thursday. The capital stock is $50,000. The incorporators are John MacQueen, David Kyles and A. C. Cliffe.

KINGSTON NEWS

—MISS EDITH MOORE, CORRESPONDENT—
—F. P. SMITH, BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVE—

F. P. Smith was a Sycamore caller Monday.
Miss Doris Sherman spent last Friday in Elgin.
Mrs. E. McCollom spent Monday in DeKalb.
Miss Edith Bell was home from Chicago Sunday.
Robert Helsdon was home from Belvidere over Sunday.
Benj. Knappenberger was a Sycamore caller Monday.
Mrs. Ed. Schmeltzer visited relatives in Sycamore Monday.
R. A. Graham visited with relatives in Belvidere over Sunday.
L. C. Shafer of Sycamore was calling on friends here Tuesday.
Ed. Schmeltzer is entertaining his brother, George, of Dakota Illinois.

Mrs. W. H. Locke entertained her brother, Lincoln Watson, of DeKalb Tuesday.
Mrs. G. D. Wyllys is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Mattie Sisson of DeKalb.
Mrs. Grace Baker and son of Hampshire have been guests at the Rev. W. H. Locke home.
Mrs. Gertrude Dunbar and Mrs. Lottie Whitney of Belvidere were calling on relatives and friends here Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Baars have moved from the A. L. Lettow farm west of town to the George Tower farm south of town C. A. Johnson of Genoa has moved to the A. L. Lettow farm.

Miss Irene Ackerman of Chicago is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ackerman, east of town.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Worden of Kirkland visited with relatives and friends here Tuesday.
Mrs. Lily Powers and daughter, Marjorie, of Chicago are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ball over Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foster of Kingston moved their house hold goods to Irene. They expect to make their home in Rockford soon.

The "Busy Bees", a Sunday school class of the M. E. church, will meet with Lila Locke Saturday afternoon. The girls are looking forward to a jolly time.
Special services will be held at the Kingston Baptist church March 5. Evangelist Chester Kern will speak. Services will be as follows: 11:00 a. m., "The Authority of the Scripture;" 2:30 p. m., "The Manifestation of God's Glory;" 7:30 p. m., The big "sing" conducted by Rev. Green; 8:00 p. m., Kern will speak on the "National Condition of Man." J. W. Green, pastor.

STALKED BY VULTURES.

While a Man Trilled a Buck the Birds Followed the Man.

"I met with a curious and not altogether pleasant experience," writes an Anglo-Indian correspondent who had done a good deal of large and small game shooting in India, "when I was one day stalking a black buck. Between me and my quarry lay a large flat field of black cotton soil bordered by a very low, straggling and thinly growing hedge of small babul trees.

"My only way to get a shot was to cross this, keeping the bushiest tree between me and the buck, which had not much to browse on and was therefore seldom motionless. I proceeded to do the hundred yards on the flat of my stomach. This on loose, hard baked black cotton soil was no joke. I pushed my rifle on ahead; then, wriggling past it until the muzzle was near my knee, I would pass it on in front again, and so on.

"Progress was slow, and I was so absorbed that I failed to observe shadows crossing and recrossing my path and circling around until I had gone some fifty yards. Then the whirring of wings attracted my ears, and almost at the same moment a vulture landed on the ground not twenty yards away. I looked up. The air was alive with these repulsive looking birds.

"Then it flashed across me that I was being stalked! Doubtless these birds were attracted by my extraordinary method of procedure and mistook me for a wounded or dying man making a final effort to reach some shady spot. This was especially possible, as the experience occurred in a famine district where deaths by the wayside were not infrequent.

"By looking up I had evidently shown myself to the buck, for he was now off at full tilt. I therefore took pot shot at the vulture at twenty yards, but did not allow for the sighting sufficiently and missed him. The thought of being waited for by a flock of vultures while very much alive and well was, to say the least, uncanny."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Notice

To whom it may concern:
Public notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply at the June term A. D. 1916, of the Circuit Court of DeKalb County, Illinois, for the change of his name, and that the name sought to be assumed is Charles Witt.
Karl Wetschock,
Dated this 24th day of February A. D. 1916.

Test of Bananas.
Bananas are fit to eat as soon as they have lost all their green color, and remain fit, no matter how black they may be, as long as the skin is unbroken.

A RECORD BREAKING INCREASE!

FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMPANY AS OF JANUARY 1, 1916

Cash Capital, Surplus and Legal Reserve held for protection of Policy Holders... $1,323,154.68
Assets, Dec. 31, 1915... 1,338,716.55
Insurance Paid for in 1915... 2,097,500.00
Insurance in Force, Dec. 31, 1915... 7,649,000.00
Gain in Insurance in Force, Dec. 31, 1915... 1,397,500.00

The year just passed shows not only an increase over the preceding year, but also a handsome increase over any year in the history of the company. Each department shows a most satisfactory progress. It has been the greatest year of this lusty Wisconsin company.

During 1915 the company recorded more insurance written and paid for than in any previous year in its history.

The insurance in force showed a net gain of 22% over the preceding year.

Over 10,000 people are now financially interested in the company.

Since its organization the company has paid over $120,000 to policy holders.

Rupert J. Fry
President

LIFE, ACCIDENT AND HEALTH INSURANCE

J. C. WRIGHT, District Superintendent
DE KALB, ILLINOIS
WM. H. LEONARD, Local Agent
GENOA, ILLINOIS

The Old Line Life Insurance Co. of America
Home Office, 1st National Bank Bldg., Milwaukee, Wis.

Rugs and Carpets

You will find an unusually varied supply of floor coverings in all grades at our store. If you want one of the rich, soft, beautifully colored Oriental rugs for your parlor or hall we can put it there.

And quite as readily we can give you the simpler weaves in rugs or carpets—strong, elegant, long-wearing goods of American manufacture. In fact, we specialize in domestic materials of medium price and highest quality.

Our Word Is a Guaranty of Honest Values

W. W. Cooper

"The Face In The Moonlight"

FIVE REEL FEATURE

WITH ROBERT WARWICK

AT

Opera House Saturday Night

Also

A Good Reel of Comedy

Lester Barber Dead

Lester Barber, a resident of McHenry county for sixty-six years, former county superintendent of schools and former county surveyor, died at his home in Marengo last week Wednesday morning following an illness of several months. Since early December Mr. Barber's condition had been critical and his death had been expected at any time within the past few weeks.

Notice

The undersigned have been given power of attorney in settling the estate of the late Abbie J. Patterson, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same at once. Persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate settlement.
J. A. Patterson } Agents,
G. J. Patterson }

Administrator's Notice

Estate of Harriet E. Whitney Deceased.
The undersigned, having been appointed Administrator with will annexed of the estate of Harriet E. Whitney, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will appear before the County Court of DeKalb County at the Court House in Sycamore at the May Term, on the first Monday in May next, at which time all persons having claims against said estate are notified and requested to attend for the purpose of having the same adjusted. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the undersigned.
Dated this 28th day of February, A. D. 1916.
L. C. Shaffer
213 Administrator with will annexed.
G. E. Stott, Attorney.

Good Cheer

Rooms that are thrown together have a cheerful appearance—there's a homelike "get together" atmosphere about them.
The picture at the left shows how a bookcase colonnade can be used to good effect between two rooms. It fills the opening acceptably and provides two bookcases. The bookcase colonnade makes good use of space that would otherwise be useless. A colonnade costs very little, if any, more than lath, plaster and a door for the same space. It's an economical way to improve the interior appearance of the home.
The design shown in this picture is only one of many. Come in and let us show you other designs equally beautiful.

Tibbits, Cameron Lumber Co

VELVETINA TOILET SPECIALTIES

Where is the woman to be found who does not long, deep down in her heart, to be beautiful? There is not a man, woman or child who does not gaze in rapture on the woman with flawless skin, pearl white teeth, glorious hair, beautifully groomed hands, and a shapely figure. They are God's gift to womankind. The young should begin at once to preserve their freshness; the so-called plain and homely should learn how to make themselves attractive; the elderly should take advantage of the opportunity to regain their youth.

...Velvetina System Shows the Way...

Every lady can easily care for her own complexion with the velvetina System and Velvetina Toilet Goods in combinations. It will only take a little time at night before retiring and in the morning on arising to follow the Velvetina System and nothing should hinder, as it is a duty she owes to herself, her family and her friends.

For Sale By

JOHN LEMBKE