BYRON WILL REMAIN DRY

Petition of the Wets is Void—Man Near St. Charles Meets With Painful Accident, but Escapes Death

Byron will remain dry and the question of saloons will not be an issue at the town election this spring. The "wets" circulated the required petition, secured signers and filed it within the required time. Later it was found that the petition was not certified, the circulators omitting to make affidavit of the genuineness of the signatures. This has thrown it out and the question cannot be submitted at this election.

Olaf Swanson, a farmer living at Little Wood, a hamlet between DeKalb and St. Charles, was the victim of a terrible accident Sunday when he fell from the top of a windmill almost to the ground below and was spitted on the protruding bar of a pump which ran through his leg, held him impaled and screaming in agony until help came. Altho his leg was badly lacerated, the fact that he struck the pump, breaking the fall, saved his life.

J. B. Babcock, forty years editor of the Republican at Marengo, died at his home in that city Tuesday afternoon, March 15, after many months of suffering. He was eighty years of age.

Janesville, Wis., after two months hard work on the part of those interested, has secured the location of the Monitor Automobile works of Chicago. Final papers were signed last Saturday and the factory will soon be moved to Janesville.

Ed Miller of Belvidere grabbed the piscatorial belt Thursday, getting a pickerel weighing nine and a half pounds down the Kishwaukee. The big fish looks like a grandpa of them all, and it took the cigar maker only a little while to capture him; he went right down and caught the fish and came right back again, only spending about a half hour at the river.

ENUMERATORS APPOINTED

List of Persons Who Will Ask Questions in DeKalb County

Fred A. Schlick, supervisor of the census for the twelfth congressional district, has announced the list of enumerators appointed to take the census in DeKalb county and the names of the successful applicants are given in the letter below. All of the appointees passed the civil service examination with high markings. Naturally, Mr. Schlick had to turn down a lot of applicants who would have made excellent enumerators, but he did the very best he could under the circumstances and the list announced is a good one.

The appointments were made regardless of political affiliations. The list after being made up by Mr. Schlick was forwarded to Washington and received the approval of the census department there.

The enumerators will begin their work April 15. They will be sent a badge, certificate and supplies soon. The head office will be in the Lewis building on West State street, Rockford.

"I take pleasure in handing you herewith a list of enumerators that have been recommended by me and approved by the Bureau of Census at Washington for your county."

When the census enumerator calls on you be ready and willing to answer truthfully all the questions he asks. Some of the questions, it is true, may seem extremely personal to you and none of the enumerator's business. As a matter of fact it is none of the latter's business, but the business of your Uncle Samuel. The enumerator has certain questions that he will ask in every home in this township and in every township in this land. The enumerators are under oath to keep secret all answers to their questions, as are all employees of the census department. A heavy fine and dishonor hangs over the employe in any capacity who violates the rules. Don't be backward about giving the desired information.

For Sheriff

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of sheriff of DeKalb county subject to the action of the republican primaries and respectfully solicit the support of the republican voters of the county. Frank C. Poust, 24-tf*

Appreciation.

"I was strongly tempted when we were in the conservatory alone to take you in my arms and kiss you. Would you have been very angry with me if I had done so?" "Yes—very. But thank you for the compliment."

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

HENRY PATTERSON ANSWERS THE FINAL SUMMONS

WAS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

One of the First Settlers of this Part of DeKalb County—Funeral Services Held Sunday, March 20

Henry Patterson passed away at his home in this city last Thursday afternoon, March 17, at about three o'clock, after a few days' illness. Mr. Patterson was down town the Saturday previous and seemed to be in as good health as he had been at any time during the past year, the infirmities due to advanced years being the only evident cause for his feebleness. It was not long after however that he contracted a severe cold which later developed into pneumonia. The attack was severe and owing to his years he was unable to successfully battle the ravages of the disease. He was conscious almost to the last, and just before passing away stated that he was not in pain.

The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, March 20, at 1:30 o'clock and at the M. E. church at two o'clock, Rev. J. T. McMullen officiating. Music was furnished by a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. F. W. Marquart, Mrs. D. E. Campbell, C. D. Schoonmaker of Genoa and Mr. Esterbrook of Elgin, Mrs. Arthur Eiklor of Genoa was accompanist. The pall bearers were all nephews of the deceased: Messrs. Ralph Patterson, Arthur Patterson, J. A. Patterson and Joe Patterson of Genoa, H. Patterson of Marengo and John Patterson of Rochelle, Ill. The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous. Interment took place at the Genoa cemetery, the body being laid beside the wife who preceded Mr. Patterson in death.

Henry Patterson, carpenter and joiner, also a contractor, was born December 20, 1829, in Meadville, Pa., and was the son of Joseph and Eleanor (Compton) Patterson. He came from his native state to McHenry county, Ill., in 1845 when he was sixteen years of age, and was a member of his father's family four years after their location in Illinois. In 1850 he went to Chicago for the purpose of acquiring a knowledge of the business of a carpenter and joiner, there he stayed three years until the time of his apprenticeship was completed. He came to Genoa in 1856 and established himself in the business which he had chosen and continued at the work until failing health compelled him to cease his active labors and enjoy a long well earned rest.

Mr. Patterson was one of the best mechanics in this section of the country, having built some of the best houses in Genoa and surrounding country.

He was the owner of a farm in the corporation of Genoa, which at different times has been laid out into lots known as Patterson's 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th additions to Genoa.

Mr. Patterson was always interested in the growth and progress of Genoa, giving his influence and money for the same. He has held the position of Village Trustee and has also been a member of the board of education.

He was married February 16, 1854, in Genoa township to Adelia Crocker, who was the daughter of Elder Allen and Sophronia (Tackles) Crocker. Her father was in the ministry 56 years, preaching in the states of New York, Ohio and Illinois. Mrs. Patterson died December 31, 1893.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson were the parents of six children: Charles F. of Lincoln, Nebr., Edward J. A., Hermon H. of Duluth, Minn., Mary E. and Clayton A. of Genoa. One child died in infancy and Edward J. A. died when four and a half years of age. There is one sister of the deceased, Mrs. M. E. Allen, formerly of DeKalb but now of the state of Washington.

Mr. Patterson was a great lover of music, possessing considerable knowledge of this art himself. When younger his singing was in great demand, and at one time he was musical director in the M. E. church.

In 1858 he attended the Lincoln and Douglas debate at Freeport, Ill., and in 1908, accompanied by his only daughter, attended the fiftieth anniversary of this notable event. He seemed to enjoy living over those times again.

With his own hands he wrote a fine description of that event which was published in the Freeport Daily Journal together with his photograph.

He enjoyed reading The Christian Herald so much, and to read and think on religious subjects. Being unable to attend church he enjoyed reading the sermons which appeared weekly in these papers. The last few years he seemed to be only waiting for the summons. According to his belief he is sweetly sleeping until the resurrection at the last day.

The following hymn was one of his favorites:

I would not live away; I do not ask to stay
Where storm after storm rise dark o'er the way.
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

I would not live away; no, welcome the tomb!
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest till he bids me arise.
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

Mr. Patterson was 80 years, 2 months and 25 days old at the time of his death.

BUILDINGS BURNED

RESULT OF FIRST ELECTRICAL STORM OF THE SEASON

ON ANDREW OLMSTEAD FARM

Six Head of Horses, Three Cows and Grain Owned by the Tenant, Fred Scherf, Destroyed in the Blaze

The first electrical storm of the season passed thru Genoa last Saturday night and again one of the Andrew Olmstead farms was the victim of lightning. Shortly after ten o'clock on that evening one of the barns on the Olmstead homestead was struck and before the blaze could be brought under control seven buildings with practically all the contents, including six horses, three cows, one sow with eight pigs, 5,000 bushels of oats, 1,000 bushels of corn, machinery and harness were destroyed.

The farm is located about one mile north of Genoa and many people from here went out to assist in battling the fire. Fire Marshal Danforth with several men and the chemical engine were present and assisted in keeping the blaze away from the house, which with one small building by were the only property saved.

Lightning struck the large horse barn and before Mr. Scherf fully realized the fact, the fire was beyond control. He made an effort to save the horses, but they pulled back on the halters, making it impossible for him to untie the ropes. He went to the house for a knife to cut the ropes but when he returned the flames had gained so much headway that he could not enter the barn. One horse was turned loose, it sustained a broken leg in some manner during the night and was killed the next morning, bringing the loss in horses up to seven head.

In the granary were 5,000 bushels of oats and 1,000 bushels of corn, all of which was consumed. The live stock, with the exception of the hogs, was the property of the tenant as was also the corn, while the oats were owned jointly by Mrs. Olmstead and Mr. Scherf.

Mr. Scherf had some insurance on his share of the property, but he stands to lose about $1,000. The buildings were valued at about $6,000, and were insured for about half that amount.

The Olmstead farms have sustained several losses during the past few years, all due to wind and electrical storms. Last year the house on the west farm was destroyed by fire and previous to that the large hay barn on the same farm was razed in a wind storm.

MISS KEPPLE HONORED

Former Kingston Girl Chosen as Soloist at Cleveland

"Miss Pearl Kepple, a local teacher in voice, has been shown a great honor among Cleveland singers. She has been chosen as contralto soloist with the "Singers' Club" of the Forest City for their appearance in Oberlin, March 8, where they are to render one of Brahms' rhapsodies."

The above, clipped from the Conneaut (Ohio) News Herald, will be of a good deal of interest to Genoa and Kingston friends of Miss Pearl Kepple, formerly of Kingston. Conneaut is the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Haines.

Rapid Work of Printers.
To celebrate the advance of the printing art, particularly its increase in speed, a Caxton memorial Bible was wholly printed and bound in 12 hours in 1877. Only 100 copies were struck off.

BOY DROPS DEAD

Son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hopkins Passes Away Wednesday Evening

Albert James, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hopkins, dropped dead at the home of Charles Maderer Wednesday evening, March 22, while there attending a party in honor of his little friend, Ray Maderer.

About two and one-half years ago Albert suffered with whooping cough, the disease leaving him with a weakened heart. Ever since that time he had been in a precarious condition, it being necessary for his parents to take every precaution against excitement or exertion on the boy's part.

At the party Wednesday he did not seem to be in any worse condition than usual, nor had he engaged in any exciting play. Near the hour of five o'clock, while in the house he suddenly fell over, death coming almost instantly after the first symptoms of the attack.

The boy was born at Hebron, Ill., November 2, 1902. He came to Genoa with his parents about three years ago, his father being a mail clerk, running on the Illinois Central.

The grief stricken parents have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

The funeral will be held at the home this (Thursday) afternoon at two o'clock.

Bell is Hustling

W. H. Bell, the Kingston real estate man, has been doing some tall hustling in his line during the past few weeks, clearing up several deals. When it comes to ferreting out a seller or buyer of real estate Bell is on the job all the time and never rests until the parties interested are satisfied. Last week he effected three trades. The A. B. Weaver farm of twenty acres, north of Kirkland, was traded to John Runge of this place for a house and lot east of the telephone factory. The deal in which J. J. Hammond traded his two houses on Genoa street for a farm of 160 acres near Sherburne, Minn., was made thru Bell, and almost in the same breath he sold 80 acres near Belvidere to J. Winsloe for Mr. Co-hoon.

Wet Petition Void?

The dries at Cherry Valley have filed objections to the wet petition there and are seeking to have it thrown out. In the objection it is stated that the petition is faulty in a number of points, among them that it is headed wrong, addresses are not given after the names and it is written on several sheets and not fastened together as the law requires. The action of the dries has stirred up the wets and there is a great deal of discussion about the move.

The contest for highway commissioner was a warm one and not until the last few votes were counted could the winner be named. Time and again during the count the two contestants were tied.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The last sentence in the dispatch from Cairo, Ill., which tells about the recent attempt to lynch negroes confined in jail there, is the most important of the many that it contains. The sentence contains 14 words:

Governor Deneen has ordered all the saloons in Cairo closed until quiet is restored.

Why? Have we not been told that saloons are a good thing in any community; that they help business; that they promote sociability; that they encourage "true temperance;" that they are essential to the enjoyment of life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and that they serve many other good and useful purposes. Then why close them?

The answer is simple. Saloons do not help business; they do not promote desirable sociability; they do not encourage "true temperance;" they are not essential to the enjoyment of life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and they do not serve any other good and useful purpose. On the contrary they are a constant menace to the peace and well-being of the communities in which they exist.

Governor Deneen closes the stable door after the horse has escaped. The saloons are open long enough for mischief to be plotted within them, and then, after the fire which they have kindled has become a conflagration, "they are closed until quiet is restored."

Cairo has been twice disgraced by mobs within the past few weeks. One mob, which met with no resistance, lynched a white man and a negro. The other was met with bullets.

Both mobs came from the same place—the saloon. The dethronement of reason was essential to their organization. Whiskey did the dethroning. In each case the sheriff faced drink-inspired men. And this inspiration is not of the sort that urges men to expose themselves out of doors when the atmosphere is surcharged with leaden hail. Oh, no! A cozy corner in a quiet saloon is much preferable!

Most of the lynchings in the north and many of those that occur in the south of the United States are the direct result of liquor's influence. Mobs are largely recruited from the saloon element. The mob spirit feeds on distilled spirits. Liquor is the murdering mob member's main-spring.

Why not close the saloons BEFORE a city's quiet has been disturbed.

The "Pittsburg Perfect" Fence

The Only Fence for Poultry and Farm. In all Heights.

"Pittsburg Perfect" fencing is differently constructed from any other fence as in other fences the stay wires are either wrapped, clamped or tied to the line wires, which not only breaks the galvanizing, injuring the wire, allowing the stays to be shoved apart but holds moisture and soon causes the fence to rust at the joint. These defects are entirely eliminated in "Pittsburg Perfect" fence by electric weld, which makes our fence the only fence that is as strong at the joint as any other point. This one feature alone aside from the heavier stay wire makes our fence the strongest and most durable on the market.

CANNON LOSES FIGHT

HOUSE VOTES TO OUST HIM FROM RULES COMMITTEE.

HIS DEFEAT IS DECISIVE

Insurgents Back Norris in Appeal from Adverse Decision from Chair—Speaker's Offer to Resign Is Rejected by Party Vote.

Washington, Mar. 21.—The three days' battle for supremacy in the national house of representatives ended with Cannonism crushed.

With a determination that gave no quarter, the insurgent Republicans, aided by their Democratic allies, shattered the speaker's power, and then turned in and helped the regular Republicans give "Uncle Joe" a rousing and affecting vote of personal confidence.

By a vote of 191 to 155 the house doubled the size of the present rules committee, made it an elective body, and eliminated the speaker from its membership. Then, likewise by a vote of 191 to 155, the house refused to dethrone Mr. Cannon from the speakership.

Cannon Stakes Speakership. When he had seen himself hopelessly beaten on the question of reorganizing the rules committee, which controls the house, Mr. Cannon offered to yield up also the office of speaker, which he occupies, and permit the election of a successor.

But the enemies of Cannonism had fought the system and not especially the man, and they would have none of the proffered sacrifice.

The majority of the insurgents at this juncture parted ways with their Democratic allies, and, joining hands with the standpatters, refused to declare the chair of the speaker vacant. Forty-three Republican insurgents voted for the new rule. Only nine went on record to oust the speaker.

Finale Is Dramatic.

After five hours of turbulent and relentless onslaught, which the combined insurgents and Democrats led with invariable success against Mr. Cannon and the standpatters, the finale was dramatic in the extreme. Mr. Cannon, confessing his defeat, read a statement in which he defended his course, contended that he had done no political wrong, and offered to entertain a motion to declare the chair vacant and the election of a successor in order.

In accordance with a prearranged plan, which by chance had become known to the speaker's friends, Mr. Burleson, a Texas Democrat, offered a resolution declaring the speaker's chair vacant and amid scenes of wild disorder, "Uncle Joe" turned over the gavel to Representative Payne and retired to his room to await the outcome. The Democrats voted solidly to depose the speaker, while all the regulars and most of the insurgents voted against it.

Nine Insurgents Hold Out.

The nine insurgents who voted to oust the speaker from the chair were: Cary (Wis.), Cooper (Wis.), Davis (Minn.), Gronne (N. D.), Lenroot (Wis.), Lindbergh (Minn.), Murdock (Kan.), Nelson (Wis.), Poindexter (Wash.).

With announcement of the vote of personal confidence in "Uncle Joe," a wild whoop went up from the floor and swept the galleries. When the speaker reappeared from his room and resumed the gavel the enthusiasm grew.

"Uncle Joe" Gazes Unmoved.

Mr. Cannon looked out upon this scene with a solemn and unmoved countenance. Three Republican members went weaving their way down the crowded aisle, waving aloft a huge American flag, and the members proceeded to go into another series of jubilant antics.

Forty-Three in Insurgent List.

The progressive Republicans who voted against the present rules committee and for the substitute committee are:

Ames (Mass.), Barnard (Ia.), Cary (Wis.), Cooper (Wis.), Davidson (Wis.), Dawson (Ia.), Davis (Minn.), Fish (N. Y.), Foelker (N. Y.), Fowler (N. Y.), Gardner (Mass.), Good (Ia.), Gronne (N. D.), Haugen (Ia.), Hay, (Cal.), Hinshaw (Neb.), Hollingsworth (O.), Howland (O.), Hubbard (Ia.), Johnson (O.), Kendall (Ia.), Kinkaid (Neb.), Kopp (Wis.), Kustermann (Wis.), Lenroot (Wis.), Lindbergh (Minn.), Madison (Kan.), Martin (S. D.), McLaughlin (Mich.), Miller (Minn.), Morse (Wis.), Murdock (Kan.), Nelson (Wis.), Norris (Neb.), Packett (Ia.), Parsons (N. Y.), Poindexter (Wash.), Plumley (Vt.), Taylor (O.), Townsend (Mich.), Steenerson (Minn.), Volstead (Minn.), Woods (Ia.).

Fruits of the Victory.

Under the terms of the new order of things, the house must, within ten days, proceed to the organization of a new rules committee of ten members, six of whom shall be Republicans and four Democrats, and to which body the speaker is not eligible. These members will be nominated in the Republican and Democratic caucuses and elected by resolution in the house.

ROOSEVELT SUMMONS PINCHOT TO EUROPE

Former Forester Slips Away and News Causes Sensation in Washington.

Washington, Mar. 23.—Theodore Roosevelt has cabled Gifford Pinchot to meet him in Europe, and the fact that Mr. Pinchot sailed last Friday on a Hamburg-American liner, ostensibly for Copenhagen, Denmark, has set all Washington agog. This is the first move made by the former president with respect to things political in the United States since his return to civilization from the African wilderness. Incidentally no one is more concerned over the news than are the close friends of the Taft administration.

According to the understanding of the situation here, Mr. Roosevelt upon his arrival in Khartoum received such a mass of conflicting mail and so many contrary reports from American tourists with whom he talked that he decided the best way to get at the situation would be to talk it over with a tried and true friend.

Consequently Mr. Pinchot received a cablegram from the former president, it is asserted on excellent authority, and, having finished his testimony before the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee, he slipped away to Europe last Friday, leaving word that to rest after the strain he had undergone he was about to visit his sister, Lady Alan Johnston, wife of the British ambassador to Denmark. It is understood here that Mr. Pinchot will join Mr. Roosevelt in southern Europe, probably at Naples.

It has been strongly suspected for the last two months that extraordinary arrangements were being made by friends of the president, as well as by his Republican enemies, to get the ear of Mr. Roosevelt first when he reached civilization.

ELKINS DEFENDS RATE BILL

Replies to Assault Made by Senator Cummins—Declares Measure Responds to Public Interests.

Washington, Mar. 22.—Senator Elkins made a strong speech in reply to the four days' assault on the railroad bill last week by Senator Cummins.

Referring to the criticism that the jurisdiction of the proposed new court had been enlarged, Senator Elkins pointed out that the exact language upon which the supreme court had made its decision defining the power of the court had been re-enacted into the law.

Senator Elkins laid stress on the fact that the approval of the commission with regard to traffic agreements had been provided for in the bill, in accordance with what the committee believed to be the interpretation of the platform and the pledges of the president.

Senator Cummins asked Senator Elkins if he did not remember that President Roosevelt three times had urged absolute control of railroad rates by the commission.

"Oh," retorted Senator Elkins amid laughter, "no man can remember all that Mr. Roosevelt has ever said, but what I say is that this bill does respond to the public interests. If it does not, let us get together and make it right."

CATTLE EXPORTS FALL OFF

Drop from 2,986 to 262 Head in a Year—Prices Still Are Soaring.

Chicago, Mar. 21.—The extinction of Chicago's export business in live cattle and higher prices than ever for meats sold to local consumers are threatening, as the result of insufficient supplies of live cattle in the United States.

All cattle on the Chicago market last week sold at the highest price of the year thus far. The cost of dressed beef cuts was raised one to 1½ cents during the week.

Prices of live cattle at the stock yards have climbed to such a high plane that the exporters did not dare operate with their usual freedom, and the total number of cattle sent to foreign markets was only 262 head. In the week a year ago exports aggregated 2,986 head.

GIRL CONFESSES TO MURDER

Catherine Manz, Aged 16, Says She Gave Sister Poison in Cup of Coffee.

Toledo, O., Mar. 22.—Catherine Manz, the 16-year-old sister of Elizabeth Manz, who was found dead, presumably from strychnine poisoning, at her home in Massillon, was placed under arrest as she was attempting to obtain employment at the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company's factory at Akron.

In the presence of three Akron officers, Miss Manz confessed to poisoning her sister.

Suffragists Win Victory.

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 22.—Gov. Wilson approved of the bill providing that the mother shall have equal right under the law with the father in selecting the guardian for their children. This bill was pushed by the Woman's Equal Rights society, and its passage and approval is a great victory for the suffragettes.

Doctor Puts Haskell to Bed.

Guthrie, Okla., Mar. 21.—Worn by the strain upon him caused by the 59 days of the special session of the legislature, Gov. Haskell is a sick man. His physician, fearing serious consequences, ordered the governor to go to bed, and he obeyed.

IT MAY COME TO THIS IF THE PRICE OF HOGS CONTINUES UPWARD.

BEEF POOL INDICTED

TRUE BILLS FOR NATIONAL COMPANY AND TEN OTHERS RETURNED.

CIVIL ACTION THEN FOLLOWS

Leading Men in Industry in Chicago Are Defendants in Document Designed to End Combine—What Bill Sets Forth.

Chicago, Mar. 22.—Indictments were returned against the National Packing Company and ten subsidiary concerns by the federal grand jury which has been investigating for the last three months alleged violations of the Sherman anti-trust law. The indictments were returned before Judge Kenesaw M. Landis.

Others That Were Indicted. Besides the National Packing Company the following concerns, all branches of the National Packing Company, were indicted:

G. H. Hammond Company, Michigan; Anglo-American Provision Company, Illinois; Omaha Packing Company, Illinois; Fowler Packing Company; United Dressed Beef Company, New York; St. Louis Dressed Beef and Provision Company; Western Packing Company, Denver; New York Butchers' Dressed Meat Company, New York; Hammond Packing Company, Illinois.

Big Suit Is Filed in Probe.

Simultaneous with the announcement of the indictments came the filing of a suit by the government seeking the dissolution of the National Packing Company. The action is known as a suit in equity and is believed to mark the beginning of the end of any open combination of the packers under the guise of a single company.

While none of the packers was named in the indictment, they are mentioned in the suit in equity. Those who are made defendants to the suit in equity besides those corporations which were indicted are: Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., Edward Tilden, Louis F. Swift, Edward F. Swift, Charles H. Swift, L. A. Carlton, Frank A. Fowler, J. Ogden Armour, Arthur Meeker, Thomas J. Connors, Edward Morris, Thomas E. Filson, L. H. Heyman, Continental Packing Company.

What Bill Sets Forth.

The indictment sets forth that all of the defendants except the National Packing Company, which, it is claimed, is merely a holding company, are engaged in the beef packing industry; that they buy live cattle at divers points in the United States and slaughter them at the plants of the various concerns located in Chicago, Kansas City, St. Joseph, East St. Louis, Omaha, Denver and New York City; that the beef resulting from the slaughter of cattle is shipped to various markets throughout the United States.

ROOSEVELT PENSION IS LOST

Bill Proposing Ex-President as Army and Navy Head Falls—Widows Given $5,000 Each.

Washington, Mar. 22.—The senate committee on pensions refused to report a bill which would place ex-President Roosevelt on the retired list as commander-in-chief of the army and navy and give him an annuity for the remainder of his life.

At the same time the committee decided to grant pensions of $5,000 a year to Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of ex-President Grover Cleveland, and Mary Lord Harrison, widow of ex-President Benjamin Harrison.

Session Is Stormy.

Budapest, Mar. 22.—Stormy as have been sessions of the Hungarian chamber of deputies, the Magyars outdid themselves. Inkwells, books and other handy missiles were hurled at the heads of the ministers until the latter took refuge in flight.

GRAFTERS ARE GIVEN AN "IMMUNITY BATH"

Many Past and Present Pittsburg Councilmen Confess to Receiving Bribes.

Pittsburg, Pa., Mar. 23.—That the men in high places, as well as the "little fellows," who have been involved as distributors of or sharers in the $100,000 graft fund now under investigation by the grand jury, will be allowed to escape punishment by means of the "immunity-bath" policy of the prosecutor was the fear expressed by those who are watching the inquiry closely.

Accepting the general proposition of District Attorney Blakeley, a dozen or more of the three-score past or present councilmen implicated by "Capt. Johnny" Klien in bribery deals have appeared before Justice Fraser, confessed their little peccadilloes and received a mild slap in the form of "suspended sentences."

Three more former councilmen appeared and pleaded "no defense" to charges of having received money for their votes in the passage of bank and street vacation ordinances and were given similar "punishment."

Meanwhile the grand jury is continuing its investigation of the confession of Klien and the corresponding evidence obtained from accused grafters. That the disclosures of corruption are but started is the prediction of those who profess to know. It is generally believed that Klien's story has not been all told and that its complete telling will still further rip apart city politics and politicians.

SUNDAY LABOR MUST CEASE

President of Carnegie Steel Company Issues Order to Reduce Sabbath Work.

Braddock, Pa., Mar. 21.—President Alvah C. Dinkey of the Carnegie Steel Company does not believe in working on Sunday any more than necessary, and has issued an order to the managements of the mills, blast furnaces, foundries and like plants in western Pennsylvania and Ohio, principally the plants at Youngstown and Lorain, that unnecessary Sabbath labor must cease.

MOB AIMS AT AMERICANS

Colombian Rioters Beat Two English Girls, Mistaking Them for Americans.

Bogota, Colombia, Mar. 23.—The anti-American sentiment here continues to find expression in rioting. Two English girls who were mistaken for Americans were mobbed and beaten. Subsequently President Ramon Gonzalez Valencia made an official call upon American Minister Northcott.

WHERE DID THE MONEY GO?

Cash Paid Out by Insurance Companies Arouses Curiosity of Probers Into Grafting.

New York, Mar. 22.—The big bills paid year after year by fire insurance companies under the comprehensive head of legal expenses, with occasional incidents, again were under examination when Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss continued the investigation he is conducting in connection with legislation at Albany.

Mother, 109, Gave Union 14 Sons.

Moundsville, W. Va., Mar. 23.—Mrs. Sarah Brandon, aged 109, of this city, holds the United States record as the mother of the largest number of civil war soldiers. Sixteen of her boys served in the battles of that war, 14 on the union side and two with the confederates.

Fakers Go to Federal Prison.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Mar. 23.—John C. Mabray and 11 of his associates, who were sentenced to imprisonment in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth for extensive swindling by fraudulent use of the mails, left for that place in charge of United States Marshal Clark.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

A shoe in which had been concealed $500 in money and $1,500 in jewels, belonging to Mrs. Anthony Internate of Brooklyn, N. Y., was sent to a shoemaker by her maid and was recovered only after police had hammered on the cobbler's door half the night.

Republican Congressional District in Massachusetts Shows a Remarkable Change in Voting.

Boston, Mar. 23.—Eugene N. Foss was elected to congress in the Fourteenth district to fill the unexpired term of the late Congressman Loveling, beating William R. Buchanan by a majority estimated at 5,000.

Foss was the Democratic candidate and his remarkable race against the Republican choice in the strongest Republican congressional district in the commonwealth caused a sensation. The district gave 12,000 Republican majority in the last congressional election.

RESULT OF DEFECTIVE RAIL

Scores Are Injured When Coaches Tumble Down Embankment—Cars Telescope—Passengers Are Disemboweled and Disemboweled.

Marshalltown, Ia., Mar. 22.—The lives of 47 people were crushed out and a score or more of others were injured when Rock Island train No. 19, detouring over the Great Western tracks from Cedar Rapids, plunged down an embankment near Green Mountain, 12 miles northeast of here.

Running at High Speed.

The ill-fated train was en route from Chicago via West Liberty and Cedar Rapids to St. Paul. Upon arriving at Cedar Rapids, the train crew learned that a freight wreck had occurred at Shellsburg, a few miles north and that it would be several hours before the tracks could be cleared. Accordingly the train was detoured over the Great Western tracks to Marshalltown.

After leaving Marshalltown the train, which was composed of ten coaches and the two engines, proceeded to make up lost time and was running at the rate of thirty-five or forty miles an hour.

Entire Train Is Derailed.

Four miles north of Green Mountain there was a sudden lurch and a moment later the entire train had left the tracks and lay a splintered mass of wreckage and twisted iron and steel at the bottom of a small embankment. It is believed that a defective rail was the cause of the catastrophe. The sudden impact caused a Pullman sleeper to telescope the smoking car, driving the sleeper clear through the car. The smoker in turn telescoped the woman's day coach. In these two cars the loss of life was appalling, there being 80 passengers in the woman's coach.

The scenes that followed the wreck were awful. As fast as possible the dead were taken from the wreckage by the survivors and laid out in rows close to the track.

Bodies Are Disemboweled. Dr. DeVry of Chicago, a passenger on the ill-fated train, says he was the first man to enter the wrecked cars. He states that a great many of the bodies were disemboweled and disemboweled.

Roosevelts Reach Luxor. American Hunter and His Party Take Regular Train from Assuan—Colonel Given Hearty Welcome.

Luxor, Upper Egypt, Mar. 22.—Col. Roosevelt and his party, which left Shellal for Luxor on the regular express train, arrived here on schedule time.

When the former president's party arrived at Assuan the platform was crowded with tourists, Egyptian officers and officials. The throng greeted the Roosevelts cordially and in turn was addressed briefly by Col. Roosevelt, who repeated in substance what he had said in his speeches to the Egyptian officers.

The express for Luxor was crowded with tourists returning to Europe. A special car had been provided for the Roosevelt party and they dined by themselves during the trip. The journey, which was dusty, was without special incident.

Taft and Fairbanks at Peace Feast.

New York, Mar. 23.—The American Peace and Arbitration league held a big banquet here last evening, the guests of honor being President Taft and former Vice-President Charles Warren Fairbanks. Mr. Fairbanks' address was listened to with great interest because he has just returned from a tour of the world and brings a message of peace, especially from Japan. He thinks there is not the remotest danger of war between the United States and the island empire.

King's Grandmother May Die.

Follow this advice.

Quaker Oats is the best of all foods; it is also the cheapest. When such men as Prof. Fisher of Yale University and Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D., F.R.S. of London spend the best part of their lives in studying the great question of the nourishing and strengthening qualities of different foods, it is certain that their advice is absolutely safe to follow.

Professor Fisher found in his experiments for testing the strength and endurance of athletes that the meat eaters were exhausted long before the men who were fed on such food as Quaker Oats. The powers of endurance of the non-meat eaters were about eight times those of the meat eaters.

Sir James Crichton Browne says—eat more oatmeal, eat plenty of it and eat it frequently. 59

Fighting Disease in Greece.

Consul General George Horton has made a report from Athens on the conspicuous work of Greek physicians in combating the country's chief scourges—malaria fever and tuberculosis. An annual average of 2,000 persons die each year from the former, while in epidemic years, due to excessive rains, the number exceeds 6,000, which was the case in 1905. The population of Greece is 2,433,806. The people have been interested through lectures, pamphlets, etc., to fight the malaria-carrying mosquito by draining stagnant ponds and throwing petroleum on them. A tuberculosis congress will be held in Athens next year, to which will be invited not only physicians, but all the mayors and other prominent people of Greece.

DRY SHAMPOO BETTER THAN SOAP AND WATER.

(From the New York Graphic)

"Once in two or three months is as often as it is advisable to wash the hair with soap and water," says Clarence Montague, the beauty expert. "The rubbing, drying and rinsing, together with the action of the alkali in the soap—especially the alkali—tend to make the hair coarse, hard and brittle. Too much moisture causes the hair to become thin and lose its color."

"A simple and satisfactory dry shampoo is made by mixing four ounces of powdered orris root with four ounces of theriac. Sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture on the head and brush thoroughly through the hair once or twice a week. That is all there is to it. This treatment not only keeps the hair light, fluffy and lustrous, but theriac produces the growth of new hair."

Driven by Hunger to Desperation.

Mrs. Mode had just returned home from the country, to discover her previously well-stocked wardrobe empty. "Good gracious, Herbert," she cried to her husband, "where are all my clothes? And what if the world is that big black patch out on the lawn?" "Nelly," he replied mournfully

Too Marsh.
"Wretched woman! you took advantage of my hospitality to steal my husband." "Pardon me, but is it exactly stealing where a guest, wishing a souvenir of an agreeable visit, carries away with her some trifling thing which her hostess gives every token of caring little for?"—Life.

Neighborly Consideration.
"I heard your baby crying nearly all night. What was the matter with it?" "I think she wanted me to get up and carry her around, but I was afraid if I did you'd be disturbed by hearing me tramping the floor over your head."

Ought to Help Her.
A Pittsburg girl who stole money for her lover offers to work 12 years to pay back the amount. We should think that the lover ought to help some and that she would be able to marry in ten years at least.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Fortune's Whims.
"Where did you get de hand full o' change?" asked Meandering Mike. "It was forced on me," answered Plodding Pete. "A lady up de road sicked de dog on me. I had to steal de pup an' sell 'im in self-defense."
