TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson Entertain Members of Immediate Family Sunday

Last Sunday at their home on Sycamore street, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson entertained a party of twenty-five in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. The day was spent in an enjoyable manner. A sumptuous dinner was one of the pleasing features of the occasion. Those present were:

Mrs. Abbie Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Griggs Leslie, John and Miss Jessie, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Corson, Miss Zada, John and Mainard Corson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevens, Miss Abbie and Floyd Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Patterson and Miss Irene, and Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson.

Many presents, which were of tin, were received appropriate to the occasion.

M. E. Church Notes

Rev. John DeLong will preach at the Charter Grove church next Sunday afternoon.

Rev. T. E. Ream will preach at the Ney M. E. church next Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m.

Last Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stout joined the M. E. church in full connection by letters.

Choir rehearsal will be held next Saturday evening at 7:45. All members are especially invited to be present.

A very enthusiastic Epworth League service will be held next Sunday evening at 6:30. Rev. J. E. DeLong will lead.

Services will be held next Sunday morning and evening at the usual time. Rev. T. E. Ream will preach. Special singing will be an important feature of the evening service.

The "Old People's Thanksgiving Service" held at the M. E. church last Sunday morning was very largely attended. There were a great many of Genoa's old citizens present to take part in the service.

The community at Charter Grove will soon gather at their "Annual Holiday Sociable" at the Charter Grove M. E. church. The date has been fixed for Thursday, December 3. Every effort has been made to make the re-union this year the best and most enjoyable that has ever been held. At noon, a splendid dinner will be served, consisting of the best things that can be found in the state of Illinois. A display of the ladies' handiwork, which has been gathered for a whole year, will be on exhibition. You are invited.

International Live Stock Exposition

The entire west is interested in the occasion of the Live Stock exposition from the fact that such an enterprise is in the nature of a fitting recognition of the importance of the work done by the breeder and feeder of live stock and gives well deserved encouragement to their efforts.

The International Exposition has become a permanent feature in the progress of live stock exhibits and is, in the language of Prof. Liggert, Dean of the Minnesota Agricultural Experiment Station, "The great tribunal where the leading herds and flocks are brought for final judgment. It is the annual round-up for breed improvement, where the interested breeder can mark the progress and the changes made in the public standard of such breeds. It is of more than passing interest and more importance than other shows for the reason that it is the only place where all prominent breeders meet in the show ring." The attendance from the west has in the past been excellent, but the management anticipate for 1903 an outpour of stock men and others interested in the improvement of western herds such as has never been equalled in the history of the exposition.

None of us live for ourselves alone.

Luck is only grasping opportunity when it comes.

The First National bank of Dundee, with a capital stock of $50,000 and deposits of $150,000, is in the hands of a bank examiner, and until alleged discrepancies in the books are untangled the business of the institution will be suspended. The notice of the temporary closing of the bank was posted on the doors last Sunday evening.

What conditions brought about the closing none of the officials would say. Sunday night there was a meeting of the directors, and a telegram was sent to the comptroller of the currency in Washington, who ordered that the doors remain closed until the arrival of the bank examiner from Chicago.

ELIZA R. STEWARTA Century's History of a Useful Life Departed

The departure of this grand old lady recalls a life's history which dates back a century, and these last words in memory recall incidents in life that today represents American history.

The deceased, Mrs. Eliza R. Stewart, was born in Fleming, Cayuga county, New York, on the 28th day of April in the year 1812, being 91 years, 6 months and 20 days of age. Death came after a long illness, and this loved one passed serenely from this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Hewitt, on November 18, 1903.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bunker and a descendent of the people of Bunker Hill fame. It will be remembered that Bunker Hill now stands as a historical landmark, and it is historically recorded that the father of the deceased was at one time owner of this precious spot.

In the year 1828, she was united in marriage to Wm. H. Vaughan, and in the year 1837 they moved from New York state to Illinois, where she resided until the time of her death, having been counted among the oldest settlers.

She experienced religion in the year 1839 and joined the Methodist Episcopal church. In the year 1845, she joined the Wesleyan Methodist church to which she belonged at Wheaton, Illinois, at the time of her death.

Her first husband died in 1870 and in 1876, she was united in marriage to her last husband, W. M. Stewart, a Wesleyan Methodist clergyman.

In the year 1882, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart retired and settled at Wheaton, Illinois. Soon after this her husband died and she continued to reside at Wheaton until about five years ago when she came to Genoa, Ill., and made her home with her daughter.

She was a remarkable Christian woman, having been a confessed Christian for more than sixty-four years and a member of some church. For sixteen years, she was an agent for the American Bible Society. Her heart and hand was in every good work in which she could help others. She held many official positions in the church of which she was a member, being a Sunday school superintendent and president of the W. C. T. U.

Of her father's family, there is but one surviving brother, Dr. L. C. Bunker, of Greensburg, Ind.

Of her immediate family, she leaves seven children—two sons and five daughters. They are: Dr. Charles and Henry Vaughan of Coon Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. Rosetta Lee of Belvidere, Ill., Mrs. Lyda Ketchum of Lincoln, Nebr., Mrs. Nellie Ryder of Harvard, Ill., Mrs. Elvira Shipe of Irene, Ill., and Mrs. Sadie Hewitt of Genoa, Ill. Besides she leaves grandchildren, great grand-children and great great grand-children. While alive she stood at the head of five generations.

She was a true "Mother in Israel," strong in her Christian faith, a firm believer in the Holy Bible and sympathetic to help the sick and the unfortunate.

About one year ago, Mrs. Stewart became entirely helpless, but in all her helplessness she was cared for by that loving ministrations of a christian daughter and a sympathetic family which is only possible where the love of Christ reigns.

This saint of God now rests from her labors, her works do follow her and her memory will ever be cherished by those whom she has blessed.

The funeral service was held at the Flora church, near Irene, Ill. last Friday.

Rev. T. E. Ream officiated and took for his text, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age like as a shock of corn cometh in his season."

RECEIVES COMMENTMiss Flossie Kellogg Entertains Delegates
at New Thought Convention

The following of interest appeared in the Chicago American of a recent date:

"One of the entertaining features of the New Thought convention, which is in progress at the Fine Arts building, was the whistling of Miss Flossie Pearl Kellogg, 4742 Champlain avenue, who appeared before the convention yesterday afternoon and scored a big hit. She will appear again on Saturday.

"When Miss Kellogg was between the ages of five and seven, she suffered from a throat disease which resulted in her losing her voice. From that time on she was able to indicate, however, by means of whistling signs her desires, and this, coupled with the throat treatment of a specislist, who gradually succeeded in restoring her voice, led her to become quite proficient in this new musical art which has become very popular of late years, and has appeared at various entertainments with great success.

"She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kellogg, and is twenty years of age."

THE QUAIL SEASON

It Opened November 10 and Closes December 25.—Other Game

The quail season opened November 10 and continues until December 25, but as far as quail shooting around here is concerned, the law cuts little figure. Hunters, who have been out after ducks, rabbits and squirrels, and who have tramped mile after mile in search of game, say that they have failed to see a single covey of "bob whites."

In fact quail are less numerous than prairie chickens, and as the latter are protected for a period of four years, it is hard to understand why the law did not include quail. They are considered the finest table delicacy of any game bird that flies, and had four years elapsed before it was legal to kill them, the hedges and brush piles of Illinois would again have been the home of countless numbers of the pretty and toothsome birds.

Many of the local hunters express themselves as being in favor of a law that would restrict the slaughter of chickens when they can again be killed, making it a penalty for any hunter to kill over ten or twelve in one day. This would prevent those who make a business of hunting for the markets from bagging several dozen chickens in a very few hours, and the only result would be that those who hunt for the pleasure of hunting would always have sufficient game left.

The Best Remedy for Croup

[From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.]

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu. but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by F. T. Robinson.

RABBITS PROTECTED

Attorney General Makes Interpretation of the Game Law

It has been the impression among hunters that rabbits were not protected by the new game law. This came from the fact that an attache of the attorney general's office so stated to Game Commissioner Lovejoy.

Under date of November 9, Attorney General Hamlin has issued a circular stating that rabbits are protected and come under the provisions applying to the hunting of other game. Mr. Lovejoy has just sent out 500 letters of instruction to game wardens about the state in accord with this interpretation.

THE RURAL ROUTE

The Work will Be Harder and the Rural Carriers will Be Slower

Now that the winter is coming, the rural carrier will not be as prompt in his deliveries—mails are delayed, and because farmers are not able to come to town as frequently, they often expect more of the rural carrier.

Rural carriers are not required to deliver mail to houses standing back from the main road except in cases of registered mail, special delivery and pension letters.

The patrons are expected to meet the department half way by providing the carriers every facility for the performance of their duties by keeping the roads open after heavy snowfalls, and by using their influence with the proper authority to maintain them in good repair at all seasons of the year and under all sorts of weather conditions.

Rural carriers must not act as agents, salesmen or solicitors for express companies, wholesale houses, corporations or firms, but the law provides that the carrier shall not be prohibited doing an express package business, providing it does not interfere with the discharge of its social duties.

Section 214 of the postal laws and regulations prohibits them from holding any county or municipal office. They may act as agents for newspaper publishers, sell newspapers or periodicals on their own account, or accept and collect subscriptions for the same.

Rural carriers are required to take with them on their trips, for the accommodation of the patrons, a supply of stamps, envelopes, postal cards and newspaper wrappers.

If a carrier finds an unstamped letter in a letter box and the requisite amount of money also deposited, he is to affix the necessary stamp. Patrons depositing money in boxes should wrap it securely in paper.

The carrier is empowered to register letters or packages and to deliver the same, giving and taking the proper receipts on forms provided. He is also authorized to accept money for money orders, giving receipts therefor, and if patrons of the delivery desire to make him their agent for this purpose, he may enclose the orders when issued in addressed envelopes confided to his care and mail them without returning them to the sender.

Each rural mail carrier in the United States will be required to take a careful census of his route and write the names in a book supplied for that purpose. Slips are prepared for the carriers, and these will be left with the families to be filled out, each slip to contain the names of all parties, even to the servants.

In this manner, names of every person along the route will be before the postmaster, and he will have no trouble in forwarding the mail.

Disastrous Wreck

Carlessness is responsible for many a railroad wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by F. T. Robinson druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Low Rates from Sycamore. Ill.

Via Chicago Great Western Railway. $22.80 to Billings, Mont.; $25.80 to Livingstone or Hinsdale, Mont.; $27.80 to Helena or Butte, Mont.; $29.30 to Spokane, Wash.; $31.80 to Portland, Ore., Seattle and Tacoma, Wash.; $31.80 to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. Tickets on sale daily up to November 30, inclusive. Superior service and unequalled equipment. Full information on application to any Chicago Great Western agent, or to J. P. Elmer, G. P. A., Chicago.

Hunters Will Be Out

With the first fall of snow hundreds of hunters will be out after rabbits, and never before, at least not for a good many years, have rabbits been so numerous. Every hedge, fence, every cornfield, every pile of brush and every piece of swamp land furnishes a home just now for the fleet-footed "cotton tails." When the cold weather settles in, they will take to the burrows in the ground and will come out only when compelled to do so by hunger or their most deadly enemy—the hunter with a ferret.

Not a Sick Day Since

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and thereafter was entirely cured, and have not been sick a day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Kidney and Liver troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at F. T. Robinson's drug store.

PLATO FARMER INJURED

Fred Weston Was Thrown on his Head in Exciting Runaway in Elgin

Last Thursday evening, Fred Weston, a wealthy farmer of East Plato, was thrown from his wagon in an exciting runaway at Elgin and sustained injuries which will keep him at the hospital for some time to come.

The accident took place on Highland avenue about 6 o'clock. Weston was lying in the wagon in a drowsy condition, and it was due to this that he was injured for his horses had their heads and when the Highland avenue car came in sight, the animals became frightened at the electric light and broke into a run. The motorman stopped the car and at the same time the horses ran into it, breaking the front step and throwing the farmer out of the wagon, and badly injuring his head and body.

The horses ran home, leaving the wagon and grain upon the street.

A few days later Weston made settlement with the Elgin Traction company in the sum of $50 as damages to the Highland avenue car.

Kingston is looking forward to a rare treat when Dr. Thompkins will give his popular lecture on "The Wreck of the Tasmania." This lecture has been given in many of the larger cities, and all unite in the high appreciation it well deserves.

The lecturer is a very pleasing speaker, who will intensely interest his hearers in the above lecture. None should fail to hear it for you will be more than pleased with the eloquence, wit and wisdom of the lecturer.

You can secure single admission tickets at Fred Smith's, where you can select your seat. The seats are rapidly being sold—you will need to come early to get a good seat.

THE REIGN OF FLINCH

New Game Has Rapidly Become Popular—But Few Play the Game Here

Below will be found an article from the Elgin Evening Press on the new and contagious game of finch.

If this is the case, Genoa is also behind the times for little is heard of finch this year, although the game was introduced in Genoa last year.

"Do you play finch? If you do not you are behind the times. For the finch fever has struck Elgin and is as contagious as other fevers have been in the past, so much so that everybody is playing the game, and the dealers have had trouble in supplying the demand for sets of cards which constitute it.

"There are probably few games in which so much excitement is created and in which the interest is more keen, than in playing finch. The fear of being finched keeps every player interested in the progress of the game, and at no time dare the player relax his watchfulness. That there is a great charm about the game is evidenced by the fact that at the present time finch is the rage throughout the entire country.

"The following simple rules govern the play, one of the virtues of the game being the manner in which it is readily understood:

"A finch deck shall consist of ten sets of cards, numbered from one to fifteen inclusive. The dealer shall deal to each person ten cards for a finch pile which shall be placed face upward in a pile exposing the the top card only; five cards placed in a row upwards on the table for a widow and five for a hand.

"Beginning at the right of the dealer the players who have a figure one, either in their hands or in their "widow" shall deposit the same in the center of the table. A player may continue playing as long as he can build up on the piles in the center of the table from his hand, his "widow" or his finch pile.

"Whenever a player is unable to play from his hand, widow or finch pile, he shall deposit a card from his hand in the widow and the play goes on to the next player. Whenever a player shall have played all the cards in his hand the dealer shall at once deal him five more.

"The object of the game is to play out the ten cards of the finch pile, the player or side first doing this being the winner. If a player fails to play from his finch pile when the opportunity offers, and another player notices the misplay, the latter may take a card from his own finch pile and put it in the finch pile of the one making the misplay."
