

THE GENOA REPUBLICAN

ENTERED MAY 16, 1902, AT GENOA, ILLINOIS, AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER, UNDER ACT OF CONGRESS OF MARCH 3, 1879.

VOLUME I.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

GENOA, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1902.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

NO. 18.

WEEK'S PRINCIPAL EVENTS

Famous Bartholin Murder Case is Practically Ended.

MURDERER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Body Found in a Flax Field in Iowa—Military Manoeuvres at New York—Other Events of the Week.

[Special to The Republican.]

The suicide of Wm. J. Bartholin closes one of the most sensational murder cases of the new century. The young man led a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde life for some years, being a burden on his widowed mother, who owned the property at 4310 Calumet avenue, Chicago. July 7, Bartholin strangled his mother and buried her in the cellar. He told the boarders at the house that his mother had gone to Milwaukee and would soon return. One month later, August 7, the decomposed nude body of a woman was found on the prairie near Seventy-fourth and State streets. This proved to be Minnie Mitchell, a young lady Bartholin professed to love. She had been enticed away from home July 30, her mother receiving a letter from Bartholin the next day stating that they had eloped and were on the way to California. The police have done splendid work on the case. The country was so thoroughly covered with pictures of the murderer and the offers of rewards for his capture that terror seized him. He could not enter a town or pick up a paper without realizing his crime and the danger he was in. At last the wretch wrote a short confession, dated August 31, and then entered a secluded field near Lowther, Iowa, and shot himself. Some days later the body was found and the coroner notified. It is a noticeable fact that the newspaper men of Chicago discovered the body of Mrs. Bartholin, and were the first to form correct theories about the queer case. The newspapers gave the case publicity and received the first news of the finding of the murderer's body.

September 6 witnessed the close of remarkable military and naval evolutions near New York and Admiral Higginson and Maj. Gen. MacArthur have commended their men for efficient work done. The problem was for the sailors to make an attack on New York city, and the progress of the war game was a good test of the efficiency of our coast defenses. The boats steamed out to sea, and for days the lookouts were busy night and day trying to locate the enemy. The sailors scored a good point by landing at various coast towns and destroying telegraphic communications. The army balanced this by the use of a war balloon, discovering the enemy before it was within striking distance.

The Cuban house of representatives has recently been holding secret sessions, said to be devoted to forming plans for a great state lottery. Cuba is starting out fine. First a loan of $35,000,000 and then a lottery to provide funds to pay the bonds.

German thinkers now advocate plans to encourage the sale of Russian oil in Germany, and slowly freeze out the Standard Oil company because that company is American.

The new cruiser "Des Moines" will be launched at Quincy, Mass., September 20. Miss Elsie Macomber of Des Moines will christen the vessel. The boat has many new features, and promises to be an efficient and beautiful craft.

The German emperor has recently been trying to pacify his Polish subjects, but without any great success. The Poles insist on using their own language and religion, and steadily resist the Germanizing influences of the government.

The Irish nationalists are arranging for an anti British demonstration at Dublin which will be the largest ever held there. The plan is to make Ireland's political situation too hot for the men who are responsible for it.

Twenty-five thousand miners in the West Virginia coal field returned to work September 6 at the old wage scale.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Members of the G. A. R. Will Meet in Washington, D. C., Next Month—Many Special Features.

The national encampment of the G. A. R. at Washington, D. C., October 6 to 11 inclusive, will be one of the greatest reunions ever held. As the years go by those who were comrades during the great struggle are drawn closer together, and the sight of this great army of men now bowed with the weight of years will stir every American heart as the great parade marches through the national capital on the 8th of October. One feature of the encampment will be the reunion of the individual army corps, one of which will be of especial interest to Illinois men, that of the 4th army corps.

The following is the representation of Illinois: Twenty-one regiments; consisting of the twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-fifth, twenty-seventh, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, forty-second, forty-fourth, fifty-first, fifty-ninth, seventy-third, seventy-fourth, seventy-fifth, seventy-ninth, eightieth, eighty-fourth, eighty-eighth, eighty-ninth, ninety-sixth, one hundredth, one hundred and fifteenth, Bridge's battery, and the first Illinois battery M, light artillery.

Another feature will be the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee, consisting of the 13th, 15th, 16th and 17th army corps. Many Illinois men will participate in this reunion of the army from which sprang Grant, Howard, Schofield and other great leaders. Gen. O. O. Howard, the only surviving commander of a union army, will preside over the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee.

The reunions will be held in large tents erected on what is known as the "white lot," directly south of the White House. Unusual efforts are being made to provide every comfort for the old veterans, and an unusually large attendance is expected.

Will Wed This Afternoon.

This afternoon the marriage of Edward G. Dougherty of The Republican and Miss Ida L. Jackman of Elgin will occur at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. C. Jackman of 377 Fulton street, Elgin. Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty will make their home on East Main street, where they will be at home to their friends after October 1.

RT. REV. JOHN LANCASTER SPALDING, Recently appointed Archbishop of Chicago.

ASK AID FOR SPOONER.

Elgin Board of Trade Resolutions Endorse Spooner, Tawney and Henderson—Market Strong at 20 Cents.

On the board of trade J. P. Younger placed one lot of 50 tubs of butter on sale. Bids of 20, 20½ and 21 cents were successively made, the latter by Kilbourne, who made a similar offer for any amount of first-class butter. Younger thereupon withdrew his offering and made a bid of 21½ cents for all butter which might be placed.

The quotation committee reported the market strong at 20c. The sales of the week aggregated 615,000 pounds.

A resolution, which was unanimously passed, recites the services of Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, Representative Henderson of Iowa and Representative Tawney of Minnesota, in helping secure the passage of the oleomargarine law, and calls upon all dairymen of these states to stand by them, now that they are being opposed for re-election.

CAPITAL ONE MILLION.

Rockford and Interurban Railway Organized With a Capitalization of One Million Dollars.

The Rockford and Interurban Railway company has been organized with a capitalization of the immense sum of $1,000,000. The purpose of this company is to unite the interests of the Rockford and Belvidere railway company, the Rockford Railway, Light and Power company, and the proposed Rockford and Freeport electric railroad.

Gold in a Pump.

In making some repairs on a well near Capron last week it was found that no water could be drawn on account of a defect in the pump cylinder. When the cylinder was removed it was found to be carefully packed with gold pieces amounting to $2,380.

The money is supposed to have been hoarded by Mrs. John Stall, who died on the farm a few weeks ago.

Kirkland Chosen.

The DeKalb county Woodmen's picnic for 1903 will be held at Kirkland and Charles Olson, consul of the Kirkland camp was named as the head of the picnic committee. Kirkland celebrated the securing of the annual picnic by defeating the Shabbona ball team at the picnic at Shabbona.

THREATENED WITH LOCKJAW.

Ira J. Mix at Death's Door Last Week—Out of Danger Now, and Will Soon Completely Recover.

Ira J. Mix is recovering from a dangerous illness which nearly ended his life Sept 1. It seems that some time ago Mr. Mix had an ulcerated tooth extracted, and as a result his face and neck became terribly swollen and considerable matter was secreted. Mr. Mix's own physician was absent from the city, and arrived just in time to prevent lockjaw from resulting. At one time it was thought the end was near, but the patient eventually rallied and is now out of danger.

Applies to Genoa.

Here is a little article going the rounds of the country weeklies which indicates the grip the local advertiser has upon the man who moulds public opinion and retails gossip in the four-corners districts:

"Who sympathized with you when your child was sick? Was it your home merchant or was it T. M. Roberts of Minneapolis? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery Ward & Co. of Chicago, or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for the church or for some needy person in town, do you write to the Fair store in Chicago, or do you go to the home merchant? How much does Siegel, Cooper & Co. give toward keeping up the sidewalks of the town or paying the minister's salary? When you were sick how many nights did Sears, Roebuck & Co. sit up with you? When your loved one died was it your home merchant that dropped the tear of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it Marshal Field & Co. of Chicago?"

The country editor cannot be blamed. He carries very little mail order advertising and what he does carry pays neither him nor the advertiser. He looks to the local merchant for his bread and butter and he is loyal enough to stand up for the man who feeds him.—Ex.

An Explanation.

In regard to the Kunzler case of some weeks ago, I wish to have it understood that I was employed by the Woodmen but was not dismissed by them nor by the physician in charge.

M. Helen Cliffe.

He who waits for dead men's shoes is sometimes obliged to go barefoot all his life.

A PIONEER'S BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. K. Jackman, Who Came Here in '76, Celebrates Her Seventy-Fifth Birthday on Thursday Afternoon.

Thursday afternoon many ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. K. Jackman to help her celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of her birth. The occasion was indeed a happy one, as many of those present had been friends since pioneer days.

The reception was held from 2.30 to 5 p. m., the invited guests being: Mesdames S. H. Stiles, G. H. Stanley, Henry Holroyd, Mann, J. P. Brown, A. J. Patterson, A. N. Hollembeak, D. Totten, Ira Netter, Susan Churchill, R. McCormick, E. C. Shippee, Geo. DeWolf, Ann Holroyd, Judith Sowers, E. Corson Kate Waters, Maria Richardson, Susan Mackey, Lizzie Hoffman, E. F. Dusinger, A. H. Olmsted, A. A. Crocker, Cyrus Waite, C. Donahue, Sarah Sumner, Thos. Kitchen.

OLD SOLDIERS MEET.

Thirty-Seventh Annual Reunion of the 95th Illinois Volunteers Held at Belvidere Last Week.

The thirty-seventh annual reunion of the 95th Illinois volunteer infantry was held at Belvidere last week, about 125 of the surviving members being present. The officers elected for the coming year were:

President—Judge Wales W. Wood, Belvidere.

Secretary—C. B. Drake, Belvidere.

Treasurer—Thomas Gilkerson, Marengo.

Belvidere was selected as the next place of meeting.

Special Notice.

The trustees of the village of Genoa will receive bids for the furnishing and laying of 1126 feet of water main, said main to be four inches internal diameter, first class quality cast iron, tested to a pressure of 300 pounds per square inch. Trench to be six feet in depth below the present surface of the street. Also one gate valve three crosses and one reducer, also for the placing of two fire hydrants. All pipes and special casting and the laying thereof shall conform strictly to the plans and specifications in that behalf on file in the office of the village clerk. Said extension to be completed not later than November 15, 1902. Bids will be received not later than 12 o'clock noon Sept. 12, 1902. Thos. M. Frazier, village clerk.

CAME TO BLOWS.

Fred Sell and Wm. Gnakow Have Dispute Which Results in a Short Go with Bare Knuckles—No Rules.

Main street was an exciting scene Monday morning when Fred Sell and Wm. Gnakow exhibited their fistic ability.

The dispute arose over a cow that was purchased at a sale the other day. Each claimed that he owned the cow and after a heated discussion the argument came to blows. Chas. Smith was near by and interfered. Just at this point Sells saw an opening and landed a left hook on Gnakow's nose, scoring first blood.

Gnakow swore out a warrant for Sells who plead guilty to assault and battery.

Sells then brought suit against Gnakow to replevin the cow. The case was set for Monday.

HAD IMMENSE AUDIENCE.

Hon. A. J. Hopkins Speaks at the Belvidere Fair.

COMPLIMENTS JUDGE FULLER.

Ten Thousand People Listen to a Thoughtful Argument by Our Next Senator—Speech Pleased Audience.

Hon. A. J. Hopkins' speech was easily the leading feature of republican day at the Boone county fair last week, his speech pleasing an immense audience. As usual, Mr. Hopkins went at once to the heart of the questions at issue and showed the wonderful progress made under republican administration, contrasting these periods with democratic hard times.

HON. A. J. HOPKINS.

He was glad to know that Judge Fuller will be sent to congress from his old district and a part of his present district and predicted a brilliant future for the jurist.

The speaker followed the general lines of public policy of the two dominant parties and said that while democrats make good citizens, good husbands, and good fathers, that in the aggregate and as a political party he would defy anyone to point out any good they have done for the past forty years. Nothing have they done tending to the greatness of the nation during that time and every piece of legislation working great benefit to any large class of people will be found to bear the impress of republican statesmanship; this applying particularly to the laboring man and the farmer. One thing which has been done for the farmer recently has been in the institution of 10,000 rural mail routes which leave the daily papers and the letters from loved ones at the door of the farm homes throughout the land. It should be remembered that two democratic postmaster generals refused to start the rural mail routes even after a republican congress had appropriated the money for that purpose. The speaker was a member of the committee which forced this matter through to success.

The speaker dwelt briefly upon the well remembered hard times of the last democratic administration and hoped there would be no repetition of it. While there is a menace of democratic control in state or nation, he said, republicans should stand together shoulder to shoulder, not giving up the party principles in which they believe for a whim, but should stand in support of their candidate.

Every man must be either a hammer or an anvil, but some people get between them.

A good many people become near-sighted when they are looking for cases needing help.

About Folks You Know

Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to People Coming and Going in and About Genoa & Local Notes

J. D. Brown is still very low. Fall millinery at Mrs. Bagley's. The "Osborne" at K. Jackman & Son's. Mrs. E. M. Bagley is in Chicago today. Mrs. Frank Olmsted is visiting in Iowa. Mrs. Beck is visiting here from Chicago. Mrs. F. O. Swan was in Chicago Tuesday. Fall styles—Genoa Dry Goods Company. E. H. Brone was in Chicago on Monday. Mrs. Jas. Kiernan was at Belvidere Monday. Mark Smith of DeKalb visited here Sunday. E. H. Richardson was at Menango Monday. H. F. Witt was here from Sycamore Monday. E. C. Dougherty was here from Elgin on Tuesday. D. H. Prince was here from Kingston Monday. Jas. Hutchinson, sr., was in Chicago over Sunday. H. S. Heckman was here from Kingston on Monday. Mrs. E. H. Richardson spent Thursday in Chicago. Wm. Wyles, jr., was here from Belvidere on Tuesday. Mrs. Bagley's for fall millinery. New stock received Saturday. Style, or you are not in it. Your next hat—Mrs. Bagley's. Edward Holmes was here from Charter Grove on Wednesday. Our ad. will tell you all about it—Genoa Dry Goods Company. Don't wear out your hands, J. R. Kiernan has the Husker for sale. Mrs. Saunders of Elgin is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clark Strong. C. H. Buel of Sycamore spent Tuesday here the guest of L. M. Olmsted. Mark Young left Wednesday for Rock Island where he has secured a position. Ed Nutt and daughter of Elgin spent Sunday here the guest of his brother, H. S. Nutt. Mrs. S. R. Crawford was called to Apple River last week, to attend her father, who is thought to be dying. Wanted—Factory girls. Steady work at highest wages. Apply at once. Chicago Insulated Wire Company, Sycamore, Ill. Lost—Near New Lebanon, a pointer dog, white and brown spots, answers name "Start." Liberal reward if returned to G. E. Stott, Genoa. The man who said "Make Hay While the Sun Shines" wasn't such a wise guy, after all. What we needed this season was someone to tell us how to make hay when the rain fell. Miss Jennie Beardsley left last Thursday for Harvey, N. D., in company with Miss Bertha Nilson of Sycamore, who will spend some time there as it was her former home. J. E. Stott left Wednesday for Fargo, N. D. He took with him Geo. Burton of Elgin, Will Hill and A. W. Stott of Genoa, Fred McDonald and Mr. Powers of Charter Grove. Notice—A gang of boys in the north part of town are given notice to keep better order as their conduct has become a nuisance. Many windows have been broken in vacant houses. The names of the lads have been mentioned to the authorities, and if these outrages continue, action will be taken.

F. H. Jackman was at Sycamore Tuesday. Miss Flora Buck visited at Ney Tuesday. D. S. Bowers was in Chicago on Thursday. W. H. Jackman spent Sunday in Chicago. Dr. Danforth was at Burlington on Wednesday. H. Gilkerson was here Monday from Champlain. Getting married has spoiled more than one friendship. A. H. Olmsted visited at Monroe, Wisconsin, last week. The landlord can often raise the rent easier than the tenant can. The ugly girl always likes the man who tells her she isn't homely. Don't get up in the world so far that everybody people can't see you. Some people paddle their own canoe by appropriating some one else's paddles. It's lots easier to win a man's or woman's love than to keep it after it is won. F. H. Smock and grandson were here from Monroe, Wisconsin, the first of the week. A love match will burn all the brighter if there is some hard cash to strike on. K. Jackman & Son have some last winter's coal bills that must be settled at once. Miss Eva Whitright returned to Chicago last Saturday, after visiting here several weeks. Mrs. H. Q. Guest returned to Chicago today, after a two weeks' visit here with relatives. U. G. Roberts and wife returned to their home in Iowa on Wednesday, after a short visit here. W. M. Stevens returned to his home at Miller, South Dakota, on Monday, after spending a week here with relatives. It would be cheaper for a farmer to spend a few dollars for medicine than to lose all his hogs from cholera. K. Jackman & Son handle Haas hog remedies.

DECISION POSTPONED.

Judge Pond Will Render Decision on Courthouse Case Monday.

Court Met Tuesday But No Decision Was Rendered—Session Was Spent in Argument by Counsel.

As stated in the Republican of last week there will probably be no vote on the removal of the courthouse this fall on account of the error made in not publishing the petition for special election within the time specified by law. Tuesday's session of county court was spent in argument by McEwen for DeKalb and Botsford for Sycamore. Court adjourned in the afternoon until Monday when Judge Pond will hand down his decision.

Broke His Collar Bone.

Chas. Senska while wrestling with a friend on Main street Tuesday evening fell to the sidewalk and broke his collarbone. He was somewhat improved today, but it will be some time before he will be able to be out.

McHenry Man Suicides.

Chas. J. Jaynes, aged 69 years, one of the early settlers of McHenry county, shot himself in the head last Friday morning. Heavy losses to his barn and crops by wind and rain are said to have prompted the deed.

FRACTURED HIS JAW.

Alvin Loomis Breaks Henry Beebe's Jaw in Two Places.

Loomis Claims Beebe Insulted His Sister and Hands Him a Bunch—Both are Prominent Sycamore People.

Sycamore is well worked up over an occurrence of Saturday evening in which Henry Beebe and Alvin Loomis were the principals. The mix-up occurred on one of the main streets of Sycamore. Loomis landed a right swing on Beebe's jaw and he went down for the count. He was carried home and medical aid was summoned when it was found that the jaw was broken in two places.

It was reported Wednesday evening that Beebe was dead but a later report contradicted this. Loomis admits that he was angry at Beebe for insulting his sister and intended to punish him severely.

THEO. SWAN ELOPES

Theodore I. Swan and Miss Della Wahl Wed.

Bride Was Engaged to Geo. Gronberg of Elgin and Was to Have Been Married Thursday—Big Surprise.

The following is a neat little scoop scored by the Elgin Evening Press:

A romantic wedding, the termination of an elopement, angry parents of the bride and a disappointed would-be groom, are the features of the marriage of Theo. I. Swan and Miss Della Wahl, both of Elgin, which was solemnized at Springfield Wednesday morning.

The courtship was carried on under adverse circumstances as it did not meet the approval of the Wahl family, but secret meetings kept up the courtship to the climax.

The wedding of Miss Wahl and George Gronberg was to have taken place Sept. 3, but the affair was postponed until Sept. 11, the bride-to-be making the excuse that the preparations had not been completed.

Gronberg was an employe of Theo. F. Swan's department store until last fall when he accepted a position with Marshall Field & Company in Chicago.

The bride-elect, upon knowing the last date, told Swan and the elopement was at once planned.

C. M. & St. P. R. R. Excursions

Excursion tickets on sale daily to St. Paul and Minneapolis. Special excursions to Colorado, Utah and South Dakota points July 14 to 31; Aug. 15 to 22 and 25 to 29 and Sept. 11 to 15, good to return until Oct. 31; very low rates.

Special second class low rate tickets, during September and October to important points west of Missouri river, including Pacific coast points.

Des Moines, Ia. Sept. 12 to 15 good to return until Sept. 22, extension can be obtained until Oct. 15. One fare for round trip.

Washington, D. C. Oct. 2, 3, 4 and 5; Grand Army encampment, tickets good to return until Oct. 14, extension of limit can be obtained until Nov. 3; $18.09 for round trip.

Omaha, Neb. Oct. 15, 16 and 18 good to return until Oct. 24. One fare for round trip.

Kansas City. Oct. 18 to 22, good to return until Oct. 27; one fare plus $2 for the round trip.

Numerous excursions to various places on account of meetings of different societies, and to which tickets are sold on the certificate plan, will not be advertised but tickets can be obtained in the regular way on dates authorized for their sale. J. M. Harvey, agt.

SWITCH-BACK TUNNELS ON THE OROYA RAILWAY.

Peru now has the distinction of possessing a railroad which climbs higher than any other on the globe. It reaches, in fact, an altitude 14,455 feet higher than the summit of Pike's Peak. The line is 138 miles in length and cost $12,000,000, in a country where labor costs next to nothing. The picture shows one of the famous double tunnels in use on the road, where the train passes into the lower tunnel, drawn by the engine, and is backed out of the upper tunnel almost exactly above. The highest point reached by the Oroya railroad is 15,066 feet above its starting point.

Gainsborough and His Carrier.

One of the earliest members of the Royal academy, it was Gainsborough's custom to have his pictures conveyed to the metropolis by a prosperous London carrier, a Mr. Wiltshire of Shockewick, near Bath. This man refused to accept payment on the ground that he loved pictures too well. He was not, however, allowed to go unrewarded, for Gainsborough presented him with six of his best works, and some idea of their ultimate value may be gained from the fact that when at length they were sold the National gallery secured two, "The Parish Clerk of Bradford-on-Avon," for 500 guineas, and "The Harvest Wagon," for £2,500, these prices being considered low. Later "The Sisters" from another gallery realized close upon £10,000.

Nature and Poetry.

Environment aids poetry, but does not create it. Nature is the grand agent in making poetry, and poetry is present wherever nature is. It sparkles on the sea, glows in the rainbow, flashes from the lightning and the star, peals in thunder, roars in the cataract and sings on the winds. Poetry is God's image reflected in nature, as in a mirror, and nature is present wherever man is.

The Boston Boy.

"Lookin' for a bird's nest, sonny?" asked the good natured westerner of a seven-year-old boy whom he met in Boston Common.

"No, sir," replied the intellectual prodigy as he continued to gaze up into the tree. "I am merely endeavoring to correctly classify this tree as a botanical product."—Columbus State Journal.

Where Her Hopes Centered.

"I have a surprise in store for you, dear," he said, seating himself at the supper table.

"Well, darling, I hope it's a millinery store," she responded quickly.—Chicago News.

And They Are Obeyed.

"What are unwritten laws, pa?" "Your mother's, my son; she always speaks them."—New York Press.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Pure water is more essential than clean grass.

Even though turkeys are good foragers it will not pay to let them go without proper feeding.

Everything in the rearing of young poultry depends upon their care and management at least until well feathered.

Fowls inclined to fatten too easily are not good layers. The flesh they carry makes them lazy, and this never promotes laying.

Middlings make a good food for poultry, but if wet up alone it is too sticky. The better plan is to mix with bran or corn and wet with milk or scalding water.

Whitewash is better than paint on the poultry houses, for the reason that it costs less and has a purifying influence. It may be applied as often as once a month to advantage.

The properties of sunflower seed are peculiar, and a small quantity fed at the proper time will essentially aid in imparting to the plumage of adult fowls a gloss that no other grain will produce.

J. H. DANFORTH, M. D. V.
Livery and Feed Stable

Veterinary Hospital

Dr. Danforth is a graduate of McKillip's Veterinary College, Chicago. Best attention given in all cases.

GENOA, ILLINOIS.

CLOTHING

A full line of

Men's & Boy's & Children's SUITS AND OVERCOATS

NEW FALL STYLES are now on display and include all the newest imported and domestic patterns and fabrics.

GENTS FURNISHINGS The neatness in all the latest patterns. Neckwear, hosiery, and other furnishings for the young men.

SEE OUR LINE of NEW HATS The latest fall styles and the newest shapes.

F. O. HOLTGREN
GENOA ILLINOIS

SUBSCRIPTION COUPON

SEND...

The Genoa Republican

TO...

Name

Town

For

Year

State

Amount Enclosed

Signed

