J. M. Harvey, agt. Chicago, Ill.—December 1, 2 and 3, good to return until December 8, on account of Live Stock exposition. Fare and one-third.

A Magazine Thirty Years Old.

To do justice to this magazine, which for beauty and utility touches the highest mark, it would be necessary to print the entire list of contents. It is sufficient to state that in it the best modern writers and artists are generously represented. The book contains over 230 pages, with thirty-four full-page illustrations, of which twenty are in two or more colors. The magnitude of this December number, for which 728 tons of paper and six tons of ink have been used, may be understood from the fact that ninety-one presses running fourteen hours a day, have been required to print it; the binding alone of the edition of 915,000 copies representing over 200,000,000 sections which had to be gathered individually by human hands.
