Voters, Judges and Clerks Will Be Protected

The question has been brought up by the voters of the north end of the county, and in fact all over the county, "Will we be liable to contempt of court, if we go to the polls on next Tuesday, November 10, and express ourselves on this question by ballot." The voters, judges and clerks will be protected by the executive committee of the DeKalb side of the question. This, they pledge themselves to, knowing that the people of Genoa and the north end of the county and of the whole county have a right to go to the polls and vote and participate in this election. The doors of the polls will be open at 8 o'clock in the morning and will remain open until 6 o'clock in the evening. During this time the clerks and judges of election will receive the ballot of the day. On this day and during the hours above mentioned, the common people of Genoa, will cast their ballot as they choose. In reference to the phrase, the common people of Genoa, this the term used or words to that effect and with that meaning, were used at the Sycamore mass meeting held at the opera house Wednesday evening.

On November 10, the taxpayers of DeKalb County will express themselves as to who or what body of men will spend their money.

WM. MEYER IS STABBED

Farmer Living Near Burlington Stabbed at Hallowe'en Dance

THREE SYCAMORE BOYS IN JAIL

At Geneva to Await Preliminary Examination—Physicians Say that Injured Man will Recover

At a public dance in Burlington last Saturday night, Wm. Meyers, a young farmer of that vicinity, was stabbed twice in the abdomen by John Byers of Sycamore.

Byers said he did the stabbing in self defense. Meyer, he says, called him a liar because he denied stepping on a lady's foot and a general fight ensued with the above result. Byers, and his companions, Burton Deacon and Lee Johnson of Sycamore, were arrested in Sycamore early Sunday morning by Sheriff Burke of Kane county and landed them in jail at Geneva.

The story of the Sycamore side is that the boys were quiet until the Burlington boys said, "They could lick any old bunch of Sycamore fighters." From this time on no holds were barred and no referee to call time. It was simply a case of hit, bite and slash, an event which will go down in history as having happened on Hallowe'en.

The physicians in attendance say that Meyers has a good chance of recovery.

TO RUN FASTER

Much Better Schedule Arranged Between Aurora and Chicago.

On Monday, the third rail cars from Aurora to Chicago were changed to a higher gear and lopped ten minutes from their running time, scooting from Aurora to Chicago in one hour and five minutes. The schedule of the Metropolitan elevated cars in Chicago will also be reduced five minutes so that Aurora passengers will be landed in State street or Wabash avenue in just one hour and thirty minutes after leaving Aurora.

This running time will put the road in much greater favor with the traveling public, as it competes very closely with the best time made by trains on the C. B. & Q. If the cars are able to make the schedule as easily as is expected it will be only a short time before another five minutes is cut from the schedule and the run from Aurora to 52nd avenue will be made in an hour flat.

WORDS HAD WEIGHT

H. V. Messenger Talks to People of Morgan Park in Time of Need

H. V. Messenger, secretary of the Eureka Electric company, on Sunday last figured in the riot which took place at Morgan Park which had been placed before every reader through the city papers.

Mr. Messenger is a member of the village board of that place, and while out for a walk Sunday morning, he learned of the trouble of the night before. He was at once taken in charge by Mayor George Prentice, and informed that his assistance was needed in the quieting of the mob; the words of Mr. Messenger, who is very popular in his home town, weighed with the citizens.

The start of the trouble was in the early evening of Saturday when a number of colored people were tearing up the sidewalk. These persons, with distrustful intent, were caught by Chief of Police Airey and two policemen. The chief, who did not know that one of the party was a lady, struck her and fled. Later in the evening, the party laid in waiting for the chief, and in the fight which followed, Airey was killed.

The people of the town learned of the murder, and set out after the murderer. It was early in the morning when he was captured and brought to the Morgan Park station. The news of the capture rapidly spread over the suburb, and the enraged citizens hurried to the station, attempting to take the murderer. It was during this siege which lasted until noon, that Mr. Messenger assisted in preserving peace by talking to his fellow citizens.

Card of Thanks

The Best Remedy for Croup

(From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.)

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by F. T. Robinson.

Illinois Central Railroad Ran Fine Train to New Orleans for Competitor's Benefit

The novel project of running a palatial special train from Chicago to New Orleans and return, a distance of nearly 2,000 miles, for the sole benefit of competitors was successfully carried out by the officials of the Illinois Central railroad last week.

Nearly 100 general passenger agents and members of their families were the guests of the Illinois Central during the trip, everything including musical entertainments in the observation car, being provided by the company. Had anyone undertaken to purchase the service and entertainment provided, the cost would not have been far from $10,000. The train was, so to speak, an edition de luxe, the Pullman company certifying that the new cars furnished were the finest ever manufactured by them, and the engineers and train crew were the most expert in the employ of the railroad company.

The novelty of the affair consists largely in the fact that a few years ago railroad companies strove to keep from competitors accurate knowledge of conditions along their lines of railroad. Excluding the complimentary feature, the main purpose of the Illinois Central expedition was to educate competing lines regarding the unexcelled transportation facilities possessed by that company, and the possibilities which lie in the development of the south. Although progressive men, the general passenger agents who were on the trip, were amazed to learn that the Illinois Central now practically has a double track system all the way between Chicago and New Orleans and a rock ballasted roadbed with few grades and curves, which is capable of accommodating an enormous volume of traffic. They were also surprised at the phenomenal commercial and industrial awakening which the south is experiencing, and they will spread the news regarding both facts for months to come. In doing this they will be advertising the south most effectively and promoting travel there from every quarter of the country.

Naturally the Illinois Central will get the benefit of this, for in short it has recruited a force of 100 live advertising agents from among the ranks of its active competitors. Under railroad methods in vogue prior to the era of "community of interests" such an undertaking would have been hailed as suicidal.

The Truth About Coffee

An interesting explanation of the five essential steps necessary to produce that rich aroma and flavor so delicious in good coffee, without any of the harmful effects.

SELECTION OF BERRY.

It is not generally known by the average coffee consumer that these new possessions of ours can produce coffees which cannot be excelled by Arabian, Brazilian or Java growths. Owing, however, to the different nature of the rich soil, the coffee grown on these islands possesses a peculiarly palatable flavor, not to be found in coffee berries grown elsewhere. It will be noted by the purchaser of a package of Dudley Coffee that the berry is of an unusual shape. The utmost care is used by our buyers in selecting coffee berries to maintain a uniform quality.

MIXING AND CURING.

After the coffee berries reach our warehouse they are carefully tested and blended while still green in the correct proportions to produce that delicious flavor and aroma which have made Dudley's Coffees famous. This blending is a delicate process, for no two lots can be blended in like proportions to produce the same results. After this blending they are aged and cured by our special process, which insures the consumer against harmful effects which follow excessive use of the average brand of coffee.

BLENDING AND ROASTING.

When the berry is properly aged and cured it is ready for roasting. We have perfected a process of roasting which produces remarkable results and as our coffees have been blended before roasting they flavor perfectly during this process. There is a big difference between "Mixers" of coffees and "Blenders" of coffees. Anyone can mix coffees, but blending coffees is an art and a life-long study. The Blender of Dudley's Coffees has a national reputation. In fact, he has received his fourth appointment as Inspector of coffees for the United States Government. "It's all in the Blend."

CLEANING.

After roasting, our coffees are thoroughly freed from all dust and impurities by special machinery and are then subjected to a process no other coffees ever were.

Every ounce is picked over by hand and every berry that is the least off color or shape is thrown out.

This is one of the secrets of the health-giving properties of our coffees, for it is these bad berries that produce the bad effects of drinking some coffees.

PACKING.

All Dudley Coffees in the various kinds are put up in one-pound packages, either in cans, cartons or parchment-lined bags. Each of these packages is hermetically sealed. Coffee put up in this way will retain its flavor and aroma indefinitely. In order to still further insure the retention of the delightful flavor and aroma which we work so hard to obtain, we refrain from grinding and put up all Dudley's Coffees unground.

RESULTS.

Richest aroma and flavor.
Absolute uniformity in quality.
Rich coffee color in cup
Freedom from harmful effects.
Yet withal cost no more than inferior brands.

DUDLEY'S FAMOUS COFFEES

Put up in 1-lb. Cans, Cartons or Parchment-Lined Bags with the Dudley name on each. As they cost you no more than ordinary Coffees, why not try them? It will be a revelation. You have never really known how delicious Coffee can be till you have tried Dudley's. We vouch for this.

Next Tuesday will be a lively day for Genoa, and in fact the whole county, as on this day the special ballots on the court house question will be cast.

What appears below will clear any doubt in the minds of the voters of this section as to whether DeKalb's offer to the county will ever be paid if the voters so vote to accept.

The heretofore affixed affidavit is a copy of the original one signed by these gentlemen whom the voters can depend on to cause to be erected this building which if not voted to DeKalb will be at the cost of the taxpayer.

Would it appear reasonable for these men, who are known all over the county as men of their word, and men who would be worthless if their word was not good, to sign this affidavit that they will see that the taxpayer does not have to stand the cost of a court-house? The following is their guarantee:

To the voters of DeKalb County:

We, the undersigned, do hereby guarantee that in the event the election to be held on the 10th day of November, 1903, results in the removal of the county-seat from the city of Sycamore to the city of DeKalb, a suitable site will be furnished and a building erected thereon, and all given to the County of DeKalb, said building to be equal in value to the county building in Lee County, Illinois, without taxation, or cost to the County of DeKalb.

Dated this 2nd day of November, A. D., 1903.

Sycamore's Wish Father of her thought
According to the Sycamore newspapers and Sycamore canvassers there will be no election this fall. They base their claim upon the opinion of Judge Brown.

If they have the law on their side, they are acting strangely. If this matter is settled, and there is no question about its legality, the Sycamoreites can proceed to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. If they have the law on their side they need not spend a cent to keep the people from the polls. If they are correct legally they can sit by their firesides instead of facing the storm and driving to every part of the county and trying to prove to the people that the Sycamore people are correct. If they know that their legal reasoning will be sustained they can forego the expense of sending out sample copies of their newspapers. If their legal stand is correct they need send no more money to the saloons. If legally they are safe they need not worry about the statements made by the DeKalb press, no matter how hard they may hit, or convincing they may be. If their legal foundation is solid what need they fear about even anarchy? If the election is illegally called they need not worry over the banquet that will be held in DeKalb.

If the supreme court will sustain the remonstrance, it will not matter if 6,000 of the DeKalb county voters vote for removal. If Sycamore has proceeded according to law she need not lift a finger, she has what the boys term a "cinch."

The fact that in each instance named Sycamore is doing the reverse of what she would do if she was sure of her ground, is proof conclusive that her contentions of two year claim that DeKalb had laid down—it is a bluff. The fact that the Sycamore papers positively settled the question legally in their issue of several days ago and seem to take the ground that they must settle it in each subsequent issue, ought to convince any thinking mind that Sycamore is all at sea, that her legal anchor does not touch bottom and that she is hopelessly drifting.

The best legal evidence seems to indicate that Judge Pond acted legally and called the election as provided by law. That it is questionable if courts will hold that the circuit court is a superior tribunal to the county court in cases that the statute gives the county court final jurisdiction. That if a majority of the voters of the county go to the polls and vote for DeKalb the supreme court will undoubtedly decide that the election is legally held and the county seat legally removed.—DeKalb Review.

Court House Contest.

Sycamore has been active in her endeavor to keep voters from going to the polls, thinking thereby to prevent a general participation in the election and get another year in which to build her court house at public expense.

For the last few days she has been changing her tactics. She is talking about election and voters. She is holding meetings; in fact, the old girl thinks there is going to be an election. She has been reading a little law. In fact, a clause or two in the state constitution is making her a little nervous. If DeKalb only needs a majority vote, which is probable, she has got the election won hands down, and no one need be surprised to see a scramble to get voters to the polls who a few days ago were threatened with arrest if they did go.

A Sycamore man said recently that the following clause in the state constitution had been the occasion for several mysterious conferences lately:

"ARTICLE X. COUNTY SEATS.
"Removal—Section 4. No county seat shall be removed until the point to which it is proposed to be removed shall be fixed in pursuance of law, and three fifths of the voters of the county, to be ascertained in such manner as shall be provided by general law, shall have voted in favor of its removal to such point; and no person shall vote on such question who has not resided in the county six months and in the election precinct ninety days next preceding such election. The question of the removal of a county seat shall not be oftener submitted than once in ten years to a vote of the people. But when an attempt is made to remove a county seat to a point nearer to the center of the county than a majority vote only shall be necessary."

If a majority vote only is necessary, and the best constitutional lawyer in the state has so expressed himself, we wonder if Sycamore will still circulate that bogus writ?—DeKalb Evening Chronicle.

Appoint a Committee.

If there is any honest man who still doubts whether DeKalb will pay the money offered or build a court house free, let him come to DeKalb next Thursday. If there is any town where there is a bank let them go and get their bankers or a committee of business men from every town and come to DeKalb next Thursday. Mr. Ellwood will be here, Mr. Haish will be here, Mr. Glidden will be here and the officials of the Commercial bank will be here. Let them come here and examine the securities in the possession of that bank. Let them bring a lawyer and prepare a bond; fix it any way you please that will satisfy you that DeKalb will make good. Why not come to DeKalb and do this? If the court house goes to Sycamore and you hear the war of the taxpayers for the next ten years, you will wish you had. It is a question of an absolutely free court house or be taxed for a court house, and every time that tax is collected somebody will be asking uncomfortable questions.—DeKalb Evening Chronicle.

Pedestrian Peters Out.

Robert Wilson, the pedestrian editor, who started from Chicago on August 2 to make a walk of 8,000 miles to Alaska and thence across the continent to Hudson bay, has returned to his home at Durand, and the trip is given up.

Wilson was injured in the Cascade mountains, and this was the primary reason for his return home. He was making his way through a long tunnel where running water drowned the noise of an approaching train till it was nearly upon him, when he was forced to jump, and in doing so he wrenched his ankle and knee so badly that he was in bed some days. Residents of that section told him that his plan for making his way along the coast exposed him to constant danger of death, stamping his scheme as impossible. Owing to weakness and the advice of physicians, he returned. He will now go to work at a trade. He says that he has made up his mind that his proposed trip is impossible for a lone man on foot.

What It Costs.

The tax which will be levied to build the court house in Sycamore, and which will all be saved if the people accept DeKalb's offer of a free court house, will build six miles of hard road in every township in DeKalb county.

Voters, which would you rather have—a free court house in DeKalb and six miles of hard road in your town or bury your money in a court house at Sycamore? It will cost every town in the county at least $8,000 in taxes to build the house now under way in Sycamore. This amount of money will build a good hard road across the county and will be the means of making more good roads. Think of this. Good roads and a free court house or pay for the court house and no roads.—DeKalb Evening Chronicle.

Initiated One.

On Monday evening Genoa lodge, No. 768, I. O. O. F., met in regular session in their hall. One application for membership was received and a new member was initiated.

During the winter the lodge expects to give a series of entertainments for the benefit of the members and their families and friends. The committee in charge is J. E. Stott, A. V. Pierce and W. F. Kingston M. E. Church Notes

A mission study class is being organized in the Epworth League for the coming year with a good showing in membership already. Anyone desiring to unite is cordially invited to make his requests known, and the necessary information will be given whereby one may enter the class.

The social committee is planning something for the near future.

The season sale of tickets for the course of entertainments is going on splendidly, over 100 tickets being sold and many more to follow. Unusual interest is manifested by people around Kingston, and it is believed that the course of lectures will be a success. The first number of the course takes place Saturday evening, November 14, at 8:30 p. m.

The usual services both morning and evening will be held in the church, preaching by the pastor.

A number of the Leaguers attended a lecture in Kirkland last week, the Rev. H. M. Bannen delivering a fine lecture on "Getting married, or How to Keep the Heart Young."

Reception for Rev. and Mrs. Ream
Last Tuesday evening, members and friends of the M. E. church extended to Rev. and Mrs. Ream a very cordial greeting upon their return to Genoa for another year.

The church parlors were crowded with happy people and a very interesting and enjoyable social hour was realized by all. A short program was given, consisting of singing, instrumental music and short addresses.

E. H. Olmsted, in behalf of the assembled company, made a short address in which he presented Rev. and Mrs. Ream a substantial present in the way of a purse of silver, and assured them of their hearty welcome.

Rev. T. E. Ream responded, thanking the people for this expression of good will and their assurance of hearty co operation for the coming year.

THE COOKBOOK.

Dip sliced onions in milk before frying.

Use bacon fat for frying chicken, game, oysters and clams.

A ham is greatly improved if, after being boiled, it is wrapped in buttered paper and baked for an hour.

In making sauces always dissolve the butter in the saucepan, add the flour first and after that the water or stock.

A mingling of clove and lemon flavors in the afternoon tea is delightful. Drop a whole clove in each cup just before serving.

In taking a pie with a meringue from the oven, if it is left in the warm kitchen the meringue will remain fluffy, but if taken into the cold it falls.

If turnips are parboiled twenty minutes in water to which a little baking soda has been added and then this water is thrown off and fresh water used to finish cooking, they will cook more tender and be of much better flavor.

The Bite of the Sea Lion.

The bite of the sea lion is poisonous; besides, it is an ugly wound from the manner in which it is inflicted. Although the creature moves painfully and slowly on land, the motion of its head and neck is extremely quick. The neck seems to have an almost elastic quality. One is surprised at its reach. The sea lion is like a bulldog. When he has caught hold, he does not let go at once, but sets his teeth firmly in the flesh. Then he twists his head, the teeth being still embedded in the flesh, and, without relinquishing his grip, he gives a quick jerk. The result is to pull out a ragged piece of flesh if the animal has taken a deep hold.—Leslie's Weekly.

Marbles Support a State.

It is said that the making of marbles, so dear to the heart of the small boy, is the main support of the poor in the state of Thuringia, Germany. They gather small square stones and grind them in machines similar to coffee mills until they are rounded. "Commies," agates and "bullseyes" are made in that way.

Glass alleys with the varicolored streaks in them are blown by the glass blowers of Lanscha. They take bits of white, red and blue glass and blow them together into a twist.

A Dangerous Toy.

"My boy Sammy," said the neighbor, "worries me almost to death with his somnambulism."

"You ought to take it away from him," said Mrs. Lapsling. "He'll kill himself with it some day."—Chicago Tribune.

Haish's Offer a Business Proposition.

A straw that the drowning partisans of Sycamore are catching at is the alleged fact that the Dixon court house cannot be duplicated for $103,000, and that Mr. Haish's $100,000 offer doesn't fill the bill. This is only another quibble.

Mr. Haish and his backers, among whom is Col. Ellwood, either of who's word is good for at least a million, have promised, upon a certain well-known condition, that they will pay for out of their private means a court house equal in every respect to the Lee county court house at Dixon.

There are no ifs or ands about it. If a duplication of the Lee county court house shall cost $125,000 or $150,000, that duplication will be realized without a cent of cost to the taxpayers of DeKalb county.

On the contrary, if the people by default or through the ballot reject the magnificent offer of Mr. Haish and his backers, and the emsulated contact made by a rump board of supervisors is forced through to its conclusion, there is no telling how much it will cost the tax-payers.—DeKalb Review.

Want to Vote

Hiram Kirkpatrick, Esq., of Clinton township was a visitor in our village last Friday, and made our office an esteemed call. He, too, thinks the county seat question will never be settled for keeps till the people locate it, and his head is long, level and hard. He caills down anybody's rights to get between the people and their constitutional and statutory privileges.—Hinckley Review.

Disastrous Wreck

Carlessness is responsible for many a railroad wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of suffers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by F. T. Robinson druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Good Advice from the South

The question of a vote on the county seat is now squarely before the people. The election will be held November 10, 1903. According to the best legal authorities, Judge Brown of the circuit court has no jurisdiction. The law is mandatory as regards the action of Judge Pond. The supreme court refused to take the matter up on the ground that it was a local question. If local to the supreme court, the best legal talent says it stands in the same light as regards the circuit court. Come out to the polls and assert your rights as American citizens. It is the people against the court house clique. Are you, fellow-citizens, of the stuff to become the willing slave of professional politicians, who have been feeding at the public crib and dictating to the people for decades, or do you prefer your constitutional rights? Which? The question is up to us as free men.—Hinckley Review.

Doesn't Respect Old Age

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, jaundice, fever, contipation all yeild to this perfect pill. 25c, at F. T. Robinson's drug store.

You have a right to vote.

A One-Sided Story

If Judge Brown has the authority to order all proceedings stopped in the court house matter, it might occur to some people that Sycamore is guilty of considerable activity herself. It is rumored that a man or two are working on the court house. Sycamore is quite active serving bogus subpoenas or notices, and her papers are falsely assuming that the supreme court has decided in their favor on the court house matter. Perhaps, however, they have a new kind of a super-sedias that will prevent DeKalb from taking any active part in the court house fight, but will allow Sycamore to proceed at will. If DeKalb is stopped, why not Sycamore?—DeKalb Review.

Not a Sick Day Since

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and thereafter was entirely cured, and have not been sick a day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Kidney and Liver troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at F. T. Robinson's drug store.

Your Own Boss.

Every voter of DeKalb county who believes in the right and the ability of the people to manage their own affairs in their own way, regardless of the mandates issued by a little bunch of would-be dictators and the outside political judges who would aid them, should be on hand next Tuesday to aid in administering a scathing rebuke to them and to the un-American proposition for which they stand. The vote should be so decisive there should be no doubt—no peg left upon which to hang a contest—thus serving notice that the most important proposition ever before the people of DeKalb county shall not be juggled and hung up by mere legal quibble.

The protest against such methods should be so emphatic that never again in this county will anything of the kind be attempted. Get your neighbor and go out next Tuesday and vote for the town whose people are leading the fight against this dangerous precedent.

Truth Is Mighty and Will Prevail

If some advertisers were compelled to establish the truth of their statements it would ruin many of them, since it would force them to be honest. No store can afford to give you something for nothing or two dollars for one. Yet you find stores advertising to do this very thing. We pride ourselves on never advertising something we can not back up. It is easy to distinguish between our values and false values. That is what has made our great business. How else could we sell more clothing than any other concern in DeKalb county? Wise people buy where they get the most for their money and are certain of satisfaction. The success of a store depends on what it does, not what it promises to do. Now is the time to get "rigged up" for winter, as every department is full of good values.

Cut its Bindings

One of the pranks of novel interest Hallowe'en night is that tendered John Kirk. In the early afternoon, Mr. Kirk retired to the rear of his premises, where he set at work binding up an old wagon with barb wire, and when asked the cause of this by a passer-by, he responded that he did not propose to have his vehicle meddled with. When dusk had partly spread over the surroundings, a party of the coming generation quietly crept down the alley at the rear of Mr. Kirk's home, and with a well-ground pair of clippers, they severed the bindings of barb-wire and quietly rolled the wagon to a place of safety near the water works. The affair, while not distrustful, has caused the many friends of Mr. Kirk to comment on the good joke the youngsters had the pleasure of participating in.
