CHORUS OF MEN IS FAMOUS IN NATION

Lindsborg, Kan., Sends Out an Organization Widely Known For Musical Excellence.

AN EVENT EXTRAORDINARY.

Out in Kansas there are wolves, prairie dogs, owls, hot nights, hot winds—and a colony of Swedes, who constitute a center of social, educational, economic and musical interest. The name of this Swedish town is Lindsborg.

Now when these people give their festival of music, including some of the famous repertoires in which Schumann-Heink and others of wide fame take leading parts, all the celebrated folk are gathered together to hear them. Every big magazine has its representative there. Every great newspaper reports the occasion. All musical critics and devotees of music who merely want to hear the best music ever composed, rendered in incomparable manner and spirit, gather at Lindsborg to spend the holidays annually.

From out this colony and from the chorus which has distinguished these occasions in this vicinity the Lincoln Chautauques have brought fifteen young men who compose the Lindsborg Male Chorus. When you hear them you will know what the words, dash, spirit and timbre of voice and humor mean when applied to music. It makes no difference what you are doing now, there will be just one thing you will want to do while you are listening to these young men. You will want to get a place and sing with them; you will want to sing just as they sing and be as happy as they are, and you will want to leave everything and practice vocal exercises.

A season ticket entitles you to enter the big tent before this program begins and to stay until the last syllable has been sung. After that, other days, you can hear eleven other great programs. You may feel as if you have too much for your money before you get through, but never mind—you will have the whole year to divide what you have learned and what you have thought and what you have enjoyed with your neighbors in some other town not so fortunate. Get out your magazine files—the Outlook, Collier's, Cosmopolitan, Etude, or what not—and read about this Lindsborg music and then come over to the tent and hear it.

She Was Too Careless.

According to a Kansas paper a man in that state bought his wife a revolver with which to defend herself, but after a bullet had been dug out of his leg and the cow had been buried he decided she had better do her defending with an ax.—Kansas City (Mo.) Journal.

Knew Dr. Bigbill.

"Well, well," said Dr. Bigbill, as he met a former patient on the street, "I'm glad to see you again, Mr. Brown. How are you this morning?" "First, doctor," said Mr. Brown, cautiously, "does it cost anything to tell you?"

The Great Majority.
Any approximate estimate of the number of persons who have died since the beginning of the human race is out of the question; but there is no doubt that their number far exceeds that of the present population of the world, as expressed in the saying, "to go over to the great majority," i. e., to die.
