LECTURE COURSE

Kingston to Have Another Fine Course of Entertainments

Because of the universal satisfaction that was given in last year's course of entertainments the Epworth League of this place has been urged by the patrons of last year's course to put on one for this year, resulting in a movement in that direction. The entertainments this year will constitute five numbers and will be of the best material obtainable.

The opening number will be Prof. G. E. Weaver, professor of art, of Mt. Morris College, who will give one of his unique and very pleasing entertainments with the crayon. He is noted for being one of the very best penmen in the world and his skill in cartooning with the crayon is unrivaled. He draws with both hands at the same time, backwards, forwards, inverted, and brings down the house with his ludicrous cartoons. It will be an entertainment everybody will want to see. He has a unique manner of entertainment with his jokes as well as with the crayon. This opening number will take place Friday, Nov. 18, in the M. E. church.

Wednesday, Dec. 14 the second number will occur with the celebrated Troubadours, giving one of their grand concerts. Every musician in this strong company is an artist of rare ability, evoking highest applause in their solo and concert work. This company carries the especial distinction of producing the very best harp and violin work, the violinist being the celebrated Michael Briglia of Chicago and the harpist being the renowned Michael Verrallo who is said to be without a peer in his work on the harp. Miss Emily Murray is the reader who accompanies them.

The third number will occur Friday, Jan. 20, with a lecture by Dr. H. M. Bannan, who will give his entertaining lecture, "Our Pilgrimage to Palestine," a descriptive lecture of the trip taken by Dr. Bannan last summer. This number will be especially pleasing to the people in general, as Dr. Bannan has many admirers here, he appearing in the course last year.

Feb. 17 Dr. Theodore Clifton of Chicago will give a patriotic lecture on "Our Country, its safeguards and perils." This lecturer is a stranger to Kingston, but by no means to the educated world. He is a lecturer of recognized ability, recommended to us by Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus. We shall anticipate a rare treat in this number.

The final number will be given March 9 in a concert given by the Glazier Carolinians, who last year were cheered to the echo in their concert with us and will be gratifying to the people of this community.

The tickets are on sale at O'Brien's barber shop, Fred Smith's bakery and Prentiss' store. The reserved seat plat will be opened Tuesday, Nov. 8, at noon in the Wyllis building at the ladies bazaar. The price of the full course with reserved seat is only $1.00. Get your seat early as they will go rapidly.

A Collection of Curios

St. Charles Chronicle: Charles Sibley of this city says the Journal, has the finest collection of Indian relics in Kane county. He has over 1200 varieties of spear heads, most of which were found along Fox River near St. Charles. Besides these he has a general collection of sea shells and mineral specimens. His collection of stone axes now number 17. Last Sunday he found a nice one just north of St. Charles along the river bank. He has his collection in a fine case made especially for it. Two old guns and an old fashioned brass mounted pistol are among his curiosities. Recently he picked up a large spear head canary yellow in color with a pearl white streak which he prizes highly. His largest spear head is 5 3/8 inches in length and 4 inches broad. The largest collection in DeKalb county is owned by M. W. Cole, a Kingston banker, and Mr. Sibley expects soon to make a trip there and exchange ideas with the banker collector.

A hay rack load of our young people left town Monday evening bound for Wm. Armbruster's where a Halloween party was billed to take place. They were all accounted for Tuesday morning and said they had a good time. One thing is sure, very little mischief was done in town, but how it was out that way we have not received full returns as yet.

Indoor Rifle Range

Local members of the militia are looking forward anxiously to the time when they will be in possession of an indoor rifle range in the new armory.

Col. H. S. Deitrich, state inspector of rifle practice, is at the head of the movement to provide all militia companies in the state with indoor ranges. These ranges are to be installed at the expense of the government.

They will be installed in order to familiarize the militia with the new Krag-Jorgensen rifles. The Krag is to be fitted with a supplementary chamber, using a light charge of powder and a smaller bullet than is used in field work. Each man is to receive 500 rounds of cartridges and it is hoped to perfect the national guardsmen in their marksmanship.

Death of Mrs. Martha Countryman

Mrs. Martha Countryman died at her home near Henrietta Monday, October 25, 1904, of consumption.

Mrs. Countryman was born in Kirkimer county, New York, Nov. 7, 1844. She was married to Chas. Countryman, Oct. 30, 1884. To this union six children were born, three of whom survive. They are Charles F., Mrs. Carrie Rote and Myrtle Colson, also three children from a former marriage. She leaves to mourn her loss besides the above mentioned children the husband and twenty grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The funeral was held at Fairdale, interment at that place.

FIRST WOODMAN PICNIC

Held in Grove North of Town in the Year 1886

The organization now widely known as the northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin picnic association has grown from the first picnic held by the Modern Woodmen of America in 1886 on the banks of the Kishwaukee river just north of town. In regard to the matter, the editor of the Modern Woodman in the November issue said:

"In the Woodmen's Echo for October, 1886, we find an account of what we believe to have been the first Modern Woodmen picnic ever held. The paper says that in response to an invitation from Kingston Camp of Modern Woodmen, the Woodmen from that section turned out to attend a picnic held in a beautiful grove just north of Kingston, Ill., on the banks of the Kishwaukee creek. Members from the camps at Genoa, Sycamore and Kirkland joined with the Kingston camp in the celebration of the event. Johnson I. Woodworth, then a member of Sycamore Camp, now of Colorado Springs, Colo., was the speaker of the day.

"The item which leads us to believe it was the first picnic held says there was a large gathering and no accident happened to mar the pleasure, but all voted it a success and desire that this, the first Woodmen picnic, might be only the beginning of a series of such gatherings that might stretch out into the future indefinitely.

"On June 1, 1904, the picnic of the northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin Woodmen picnic association held at Madison, Wis., was attended by fully 35,000 people. This picnic is the legitimate descendent of the Kingston picnic, as an association was formed from this picnic which finally became known as this great picnic association; and from this little beginning in the woods north of Kingston in 1886 has come forth thousands of Modern Woodmen picnics which are now being held all over the country."

Illinois Game Law Is All Right

The Illinois game law passed by the legislature two years ago was affirmed in a decision handed down by the supreme court Tuesday in the suit of Henry J. Cummings of St. Louis against the people. Cummings was arrested and fined $25 on the charge of hunting upon a Green county game reserve without having a nonresident hunter's license. An appeal was taken on the ground that the law discriminated between resident and nonresident land owners. The court denied the appeal, holding the law was not invalid because it provides greater restriction and severe penalties against nonresidents than against residents.

B

Dried and powdered Glauber, pure
Powdered Willow Charcoal
Powdered Gentian Root
Ground Flaxseed (not oil cake)

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by G. H. Hunt.

Negro Preacher Wanted to Buy a Much Delivered Sermon.

Bishop Whitaker of Philadelphia, one of the best story tellers a man could wish to listen to, recently told of a young clergyman whose pastoral charge had fallen to him out in the thinly populated end of a western state. Riding the circuit of his tiny churches, he never imagined that the auditors of one town ever sat under him in another, and so he had been delivering everywhere the same sermon, and it seemed to take well. Just how well that young preacher never guessed until one Sunday he was stopped at the church door by an old negro.

"PARDON ME, SUH, FER A MOMENT."
"Pardon me, suh, fer a moment," he said, with a most respectful bow. "I jus' wan' to say that I sutinly have enjoyed dat sermon. De first time I heard it, suh, I liked it, and de secon' time I liked it better, an' as I been follerin' you aroun' it jus' keep growin' on me like. Now, suh, I's sorter in de preachin' business my own self, an' it jus' occurred to me dat you gwine to wear out dat sermon some fine day, an' den I wants to buy it. When you git ready to sell it, suh, I stan' to give you 50 cents."
To Keep Out Insects.
Cereals should be emptied in their proper receptacles of tin or glass and closely covered to prevent insects getting in. Coffee should go immediately into an airtight canister in order to keep its aroma. Olive oil should be put into a cool, dark place and salt, soap and cheese in dry places.

Parents should caution their children regarding the railroad tracks. It is a common occurrence to see the little tots loitering about the tracks after school hours. The teachers do all in their power to overcome this tendency on the part of the children, but it is impossible to watch them after leaving the school grounds. They should be taught by parents to be afraid of anything that looks like a steel rail or car and to waste no time in getting away from them.

Many People

Are willing to pay $10.00 for a winter coat, many people wont pay more because the change of style is so marked each season that they prefer to buy a stylish coat each season than to buy a very expensive coat and then be obliged to wear it several seasons after it is passe. The result is reflected in the assortment of garments we offer at this price. Butcher, Garrick and Tourist styles of mixtures. Mannish suitings, kerseys, meltons, etc. We guarantee to please you with our $9.98 line. Theo. F. Swan, Elgin.

PREVALENCE OF SMALL-POX

State Board of Health Sends Out Warning to Authorities

The state board of health has sent out circular letters to the local authorities of the state, pertaining to small-pox. People can not be too cautious in the handling and prevention of this disease, and for the benefit of the people as a whole the following extract from the letter is published:

"Small-pox, the prevalence of which has occasioned repeated warnings on the part of the State Board of Health, is still to be found in many parts of Illinois. In some places the disease has become epidemic. Unless every effort is now made to check the spread of this disease, it will prevail throughout the winter to a frightful extent and with great mortality.

"In 1900, 1901 and 1902 the State Board of Health called the attention of the people and of the health officers of the State of the immense number of cases and to the probability that the mild type then prevailing would, sooner or later, return to the old, malignant type. By constant agitation during those years, the State Board of Health was able to secure such general vaccination throughout the State that the disease was largely checked and the number of cases in 1903 was, consequently, quite small.

"The mild type of the disease and the decrease in the number of cases have led to carelessness as to vaccination and other sanitary precautions. Now small-pox is appearing in many parts of the State and hundreds are being stricken.

"As foretold by the State Board of health in its warnings, the virulent type of the disease has returned. During the month of September, in one infected district, ten patients among fifty afflicted died in a period of four days—one death in every five! In another, twenty-five among two hundred—one death in every eight!

"During August a few cases of smallpox, improperly diagnosed as some harmless disease, were found in a certain town of Illinois. No precautions were taken to prevent contagion. Vaccination was neglected. In a few weeks contagion had spread into five adjoining counties and the malignant type of the disease appeared. Panic reigned, travelers avoided the town and business was practically suspended. Human lives were sacrificed to pay for the failure of the local authorities to appreciate and act upon the repeated warnings of the State Board of Health.

"There is no excuse for an epidemic of small-pox. That vaccination, properly performed, will absolutely prevent the disease, is known to every health officer in the country. That general vaccination now, with careful isolation and quarantine of every case of small-pox or suspected small-pox coming to the vicinity, will entirely remove the danger of an epidemic, is too well known to require repetition.

"The knowledge of the certainty of the means of prevention places a responsibility upon health officers which they cannot ignore."

Not a Sick Day Since

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at Hunt's Pharmacy.

Wire Fences and Lightning.

Since the use of wire fences has become so extensive the number of cattle killed each year by lightning has greatly increased. Farmers' insurance companies have investigated the matter and now come forward with a warning to policy holders. Nearly all of the cattle killed by lightning have met their death in open fields, where, in many instances, there was not even a tree to attract the electric fluid. As many dead cattle were found near wire fences, this led to the discovery that the lightning was carried along the wires composing the fences. During a severe storm cattle are liable to run until stopped by a fence. Here they stand huddled together, ready for the bolt. A remedy is suggested in running a ground wire every ten rods several feet into the earth.

Proof Against Irony.

Lord Bowen, an English judge of renown, was trying a case of burglary with a Welsh jury, and it was argued by the defense that the prisoner was in the habit of walking on the housetops at midnight and had merely taken off his boots and dropped into the house out of curiosity. In summing up Bowen said to the jury, "If you believe that the prisoner considers the housetops the proper place for an evening stroll, that the desire to inspect the inside of the house was but a natural and excusable curiosity, you will acquit him and will approve his conduct in showing so much consideration as to take off his boots for fear of disturbing the sleepers." The irony was lost on the jury. They took him seriously and acquitted the prisoner.

TIMEKEEPERS

"The Way of a Watch"

All American movements of good grade are well made, accurately assembled, rigidly inspected, carefully lined and put on the market, supposedly in fine shape, but—there are many ways in which they can get out of order before they finally reach the user.

THE SUPREME TEST

Lies in the "fitting up" process. The extreme care we use in fitting each movement in the cases, testing every vital part to see that it is properly oiled and adjusted, is what insures its being a good timekeeper—this is what makes the name "Rovelstad" synonymous with "good watches" for miles around.

IN THESE TIMES of keen competition, when dealers are trying to undersell one another, there is one thing that has to suffer--that one is quality. We look after the quality first and fix the price afterward. Which is cheapest--to pay from $5.00 to $10 for a Suit of Clothes and have it lose its shape after you have worn it once and break down completely after a few times wear, or pay from $15 to $20 for a Suit that will wear from one to two seasons or more and hold its shape as long as you wear it? We know what your answer will be. When it comes to cheap Suits, we have them as well as other dealers, but we also have better Suits than most dealers dare to buy. These are the ones we want to get you interested in. Good goods make friends, poor goods don't. You will number us among your best friends after you have bought some of our good Clothes.

Our many years of experience in the Clothing business enables us to judge on qualities and the large amount of merchandise bought and sold by us every year is the reason why we can sell you a better grade of goods for the same price that smaller dealers charge you for inferior goods. It will pay you to come and take a look at our immense stock of Suits, Overcoats, Fur Coats, Boots and Shoes, Rubber Goods, Underwear, Hats and Caps, etc.
