ON THE LONG HIKE

Roll Stott Tells Of The Trip From San Antonio To Austin

MANY FALL BY THE WAYSIDE

Hospitality of Austin People Makes up for Tired Feeling—Boys Eat Texas Soil

Austin, Texas, Sept. 26, 1916.

Dear brother:—
Well, we arrived here on Saturday at noon and are now encamped at Camp Moberly, about four miles from the Capitol building. The hike was supposed to be 83 miles, but the speedometer on the machines read 115 miles. During the first three days of the hike great numbers of the boys lay down by the roadside from fatigue as well as illness. But when the slackers found out that the march to Austin had to be taken there was little falling from the ranks except from sickness. It sure seems exceedingly unjust that the smaller men in the ranks must carry the same equipment as the larger ones. On the occasion of our march the combined weight of our equipment was about 65 pounds.

The hardest day's hike was on the day we marched from Comal to New Braunfels and made a detour of the city. There was supposed to be a sham battle in progress but all we heard was a few shots from the 3 inch guns. We started marching at 7 a. m. and went into camp at 7 p. m., having had one hour's rest in the afternoon, in addition to having a ten minute rest each hour. The wagon train was with the rear guard and as I had to march with the wagons you can imagine the amount of Texas soil I ate that day, as the immense clouds of dust raised by our column could be plainly seen for miles. At night at stopping places all along the hike there were nearly always refreshment canteens outside the grounds selling soft drinks, etc. But our camp was so large that yours truly very seldom rambled very far from his little tent for fear of being lost. We were each issued 2 lbs. bacon (sow belly) and four of hard tack before we left San Antonio to be used as our emergency ration. Hardtack is mighty tasteless but quite filling, as is the army bacon, as I found out when I had to use mine a couple of times on the hike.

The latter part of our hike was without untoward incident and we arrived at St. Elmo, just outside the city limits, on Friday soon after noon. Quite a number of civilians visited camp that day. On Saturday morning at 8 o'clock we were on the march to Camp Moberly, and our trip across the city was one triumphal procession. The city was in gala attire, bedecked with the Lone Star and Confederate flags in addition to our own national emblem. An immense crowd of civilians turned out to welcome us, as well as numbers of the old Confederate soldiers who met us near the Capitol at which place we were reviewed by General Funston.

Since our arrival at camp our town leave and privileges have been extended and many of the boys are obtaining their first taste of southern hospitality. As for myself, I went with two of our Co.'s non-com's to the home of a civilian friend on Sunday and spent the day, and with all the rest of the boys who were likewise entertained I can say that the reports of hospitality of the southern people have been amply sustained by the Austin people.

We leave for our camp at San Antonio tomorrow in light marching order to make the trip in 5 days. Hate to leave here as folks are much more sociable than at S. A. as regulars are not stationed here. Conflicting reports as to future disposition of the troops. Hope all are well. I am feeling very fit as are the rest of the Genoa boys. 'Spouse Doc tells some pretty tall yarns about Texas. Regards to all. Write when you have time.

BUTTER STILL GOING UP

Sales at 34 Cents on the Board of Trade to Boost Retail Price

With bread going up all over the country, says the Elgin News, and butter continuing a regular climb, the staff of life is getting higher every week. The latest boost in butter came on the Elgin board of trade Saturday when fifty tubs were sold by Boss to Somerville at thirty-four cents a pound. The price a week previous was thirty-three cents.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Facts and Figures Clipped from Columns of "Manufacturers News"

There are 263,315 girl stenographers in the United States. It costs $7,000,000 to supply American players with golf balls.

Western Union is said to be earning nearly three times its dividend. Holland's mines are now producing coal at the rate of 2,000,000 tons a year.

Half a dozen of the largest fruit packing companies in California have merged.

Peace also comes high. Expenses to date for the Mexican middle—$130,000,000.

The world's product of lead pencils probably amounts to nearly 2,000,000,000 a year.

Missouri shoe factories employ 15,477 persons. Output in 1915-16 valued at $55,148,000.

Forty-two per cent of all railroad mileage in the United States terminates in Chicago.

Maine has passed a 9-hour-a-day law for women and minors in factories, laundries and mercantile establishments.

Exports of cotton since August 1 have been 62,000 bales, which is more than double those in the same period last year.

Spain is considering the nationalizing of the railroads in an effort to guarantee the public against the inconvenience of strikes.

About 4,000,000 tons of herring are caught in Japan every year, and the greater part of the catch is used for fertilizing the rice fields.

California shipped 44,537 cars of citrus fruit during the year ended August 31, 1916—37,279 cars of oranges and 7,258 cars of lemons.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad will erect a third ore dock of 50,000 tons capacity at Ashland, Wis., to cost between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, including power plant and trackage.

The Boss Mfg. Co., Inc., Kewanee, Ill., has incorporated with an authorized capital of $1,750,000 to manufacture machinery, agricultural implements, clothing, gloves, notions, etc. The company maintains an office in Brooklyn.

According to New York the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company has on its books orders for electrical equipment amounting to approximately $35,000,000. This is the largest volume of such orders ever enjoyed by the company.

TO SAVE THE BIRDS

Treaty Between United States and Canada Will Help Some

A treaty for the protection of migratory birds in the United States and Canada was recently signed by the secretary of state and the British ambassador. As soon as it is ratified by the Canadian parliament, of which there is no doubt, the birds become the subject of international law and are assured the protection which alone can save them from destruction. The treaty marks the greatest and most important step ever taken in the direction of bird protection. It means a victory for every man and woman, girl or boy, in the United States, to whom the birds are friends and helpers that cannot be spared.

The necessity of an international law has been apparent for several years, owing to the differences and inconsistencies in the laws of the states. To protect a bird's life while it winters in Louisiana and to abandon it to the tender mercies of a hundred or more Michigan hunters in summer, meant little progress in bird life conservation. It is said that the treaty now signed meets all the conditions that could be desired. At no very distant time it is to be hoped that all North America will be included in a like treaty.

German Toys

Perhaps no single industry in Germany has suffered from the war as that of toy making. In the last peace year Germany's toy trade aggregated 140,000,000 marks or $35,000,000, of which more than twenty-five millions was exported, and the larger part to America. Since the war this figure has dropped nearly two-thirds. What is worse still for the German manufacturers is the fact that other countries have taken up the industry and the Germans will find it very hard to recover their lost markets.

HOSPITAL PAYS OUT

SEVENTY PATIENTS IN ONE YEAR

Remarkable and Gratifying Showing for Such an Institution in City the Size of Genoa

While the Ovitz Hospital in this city is owned by an individual, in view of the fact that no doctor is barred from taking patients there, it takes on the nature of a public institution and as such should be a source of pride to Genoa people. There are very few if any cities the size of Genoa that can boast any kind of a hospital. When the hospital opened on the first of September last year there were many predictions regarding the life of the institution, and that most freely circulated was not of an encouraging nature. Dr. Ovitz was optimistic, of course knew that he was taking a chance. The doctor desires that the hospital be considered as public to the extent that any reputable doctor may bring his cases there, and also desires that the public know just what the institution has been doing. During the twelve month beginning September 1, 1915, and ending on the 1st of September, 1916, seventy patients were cared for, the revenue derived amounting to $2100.00. The expenses during the same period of time were $2160.00, leaving a deficit of only sixty dollars. This is a remarkable showing for the first year and a record that any hospital would be glad to acknowledge.

The record proves that a hospital in Genoa is a sure thing for all time, either as a private institution or one fostered by some society or the city. Under the present financial conditions it would be useless to suggest that the city take up the matter of providing a building and equipment for a hospital—there could be no more noble work for some society or club. If some individual would start a foundation fund of a few thousand dollars the balance of the work would be easy. The history of the Ovitz hospital proves that the upkeep of one of a public nature would not be a financial burden.

In the mean time new equipment will be added to the hospital. Plans are now being made for the installation of a large X-Ray machine, such as are used in the larger hospitals of the country. There are now five beds and more could be added in case of emergency. The sanitary conditions are ideal, the rooms beautifully clean, well ventilated and neatly furnished. The head nurse, Miss Deschner, has made a friend of every one of the seventy patients she has had under her charge, her pleasing personality never failing to find the hearts of the afflicted.

WARNING TO DRIVERS

Illinois Central Asks Co-operation to Prevent Accidents

T. J. Foley, general manager of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., admonishes auto drivers as follows in a circular recently issued from his office, and it is advice that all should heed:

"The constantly increasing number of automobile accidents at grade crossings prompts the issuance of this warning to all who own, drive or ride in automobiles to stop, look and listen before passing over any rail way grade crossing:

"Crossing gates, warning bells, electric headlights and engine signals, if not heeded by those for whose protection they are intended, are unavailing.

I will be glad to receive and consider suggestions intended to reduce automobile accidents at grade crossings, for the railroad is anxious to do its full part. However, if any person who owns, drives or rides in an automobile will stop, look and listen at grade crossings, the danger will be entirely eliminated."

Infantile Paralysis at Marengo
Marengo has a case of infantile paralysis, the patient being the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kerwin who live about five miles north-east of the city. According to the Marengo Republican the child has recovered from the disease and from the paralysis succeeding it there is a notable improvement.

FRENCH FARMERS AND FLIES

Discovered Years ago that the Pests Show Aversion to Blue

An article recently appearing in the organ of the Humane Society of Massachusetts, "Our Dumb Animals," says that according to an eminent French scientist, flies show a marked aversion to things that are blue. This fact was first discovered by a French farmer, who kept a number of cows distributed in several herds. The interior of one of these sheds had, purely by accident, been colored blue. The other stables had white interiors. The farmer soon noticed that, while the cows in the sheds with white walls were driven to the point of frenzy with flies, the cattle housed in the shed with the blue interior were not bothered. The little pests hovered outside the shed; only a stray one, whose sense of color perhaps was not strongly developed, every now and again would be tempted to enter.

The farmer told of his observation and soon other farmers took to painting their sheds blue, with gratifying results. Now it is a general custom among the cattle owners of France to tint the interior of their sheds with a solution made by mixing ten pounds of slacked lime with twenty gallons of water, and then adding one pound of ultramarine. The sheds are tinted with this solution twice during the summer months, with the result that the cattle are pretty generally free from annoyance.

It might be a good plan for horse and cattle owners in this country to give this scheme a trial. The cost of an experiment would be little.

STEALS CAR SENDS CHECK

Texas Man Takes Chances in Getting Dodge Brothers Car

Dodge Brothers motor cars are in great demand, to say the least, down in Texas. In Panhandle, for instance, they steal them, if they can't get the cars by other means. An Amarillo paper tells it:

"In the midst of prosperity many are unable to get cars even after they have been ordered for several weeks. Every shipment of cars unloaded in Amarillo finds many buyers ready with hard cash and eager to drive away. Last week, according to W. E. Groendycke, a Dodge Brothers customer from Panhandle wanted a Dodge Brothers car badly but could find none in stock except Groendycke's demonstration car. He watched his chance. While the dealer wasn't looking he drove away with the only car remaining in the place. Officers were scouring the country but no trace of the car was discovered until the anxious buyer called by long distance (telephone and informed Groendycke that he had 'bought' the car and was sending the check for it.

"What else could I do?" asked the purchaser. "I had to have that car."

"What else could I do?" asked the dealer. "I had to let him keep it."

IN DARKNESS AGAIN

Arc Lights not to be Turned on Until System is Rebuilt

ARE ORDERS OF THE COMMISSION

Telegrams from Chief Engineer States that Lines are Unsafe and Must be Rehabilitated

From present indications Genoa will be without street lights in the residential districts until spring or late in the winter, all depending on the ability of the Illinois Northern Utilities Co. to secure material and labor for rebuilding the system.

After several nights of darkness the lights were turned on again last Wednesday night, but later the officials telegraphed the State Utilities Commission to send a man to inspect the system, just to make sure that the city would be safe in keeping the lights burning. The chief engineer of the commission, J. H. Prior, immediately wired an answer, stating that there could be nothing doing until the Illinois Northern Utilities Co. had rebuilt or rehabilitated the entire system. The telegram from Mr. Prior, dated September 29, reads as follows:

"Letter from Utilities Co. September 8, states arranging to go ahead and reconstruct distribution system and street lighting circuits and will rush matters to completion as rapidly as possible. Unless extensive rehabilitation has been carried out since this letter would not judge condition reasonably safe. Will appreciate any information as to extent of work already done. We will inspect system whenever rehabilitation is complete."

The above telegram fully explains itself. On the occasion of the engineer's visit some time ago he found the system in bad shape, but at that time did not offer any suggestion or warning to the city. In fact he was here in the interests of the telephone company at the time and only noted the condition of the electric light wiring in so far as it conflicted with the telephone system. Shortly after the death of George Niss by electrocution the arc lights were ordered turned off by the city council and the commission requested to send a man to inspect conditions. The request was not complied with, but a tentative report made from information gleaned during the visit made as noted above.

Now that the question has been put squarely up to the engineer he comes back with an emphatic answer regarding the conditions. It might be that if he would call (provided that he is thoroughly familiar with the electrical problem) there might be some means of providing temporary relief, but without the sanction of the commission the light committee does not feel like taking the responsibility of ordering the lights turned on again. The engineer states that he will not call and give the system an examination, to say nothing of approval, until rehabilitation is complete. This may mean several months.

In an interview, Mr. Caid, the district superintendent of the Illinois Northern Utilities Co., states that every effort is being made to push matters, and the time of having the system in condition for service will depend entirely upon his ability to secure supplies and labor.

If the engineer would come to Genoa and make a thorough examination he would find that the part of the system which is now out of service is in no worse condition than that portion which is in daily use at the present time. The cutting out of the arc light circuits is only eliminating a part of the danger. The only advantage in security is in giving the local manager less wiring to look after.

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR

Designates Monday, Oct. 9, as Fire Prevention Day

The conservation of human life is the noblest work of man. Every agency directed along this avenue of activity should receive constant and loyal support of every member of this commonwealth.

Next important is the conservation of our property assets from destruction by fire. There is entirely too much death and devastation in this country directly traceable to the carelessness and negligence of our people. There is entirely too much destruction of property by fire chargeable to preventable causes.

The daily press is constantly recording deaths and injuries by accident and fire, and the destruction of valuable property through the ravages of the flames. The losses thus occasioned constitute an absolute waste and a destruction of the resources of our people such as no state or nation can long endure; and the fact that these losses are largely preventable, is a reproach to our citizenship and calls for immediate remedy.

Because of this fact and in order to arouse the people to a vivid sense of fire and accident dangers, and to induce them to take a more active interest in the subject, I hereby proclaim that Monday, the Ninth Day of October, 1916 the forty-fifth anniversary of the great Chicago fire be known as Fire and Accident Prevention Day and I earnestly recommend that our people observe it by the holding of special exercises or events of a character to impress upon their minds lessons of prevention.

Let educational public exercises be held that will induce the people to refrain from exposing themselves to unnecessary dangers which are liable to cause injury and death.

Let the people reduce the fire hazards and promote the general health by cleaning up rubbish, trash and waste from their premises.

Let all heating apparatus, electric wiring and chimneys be carefully inspected and placed in a proper condition for winter use.

Let all public and private institutions, hotels, asylums, factories and theatres be carefully looked over on that day, and let necessary changes be made that will further safeguard the lives of the occupants.

Let local authorities give attention to the matter of better building regulations, the consideration of fire prevention ordinances, and let them furnish to the fire department adequate and up-to-date apparatus for fire fighting.

Let our people lend impetus to this movement by attending on that day civic and public gatherings which may be called for the purpose of devising means to prevent accident and fire.

Let the press aid in the work by timely publications pertaining to fire and accident prevention and protection.

Lastly, let fire drills be held on that day in institutions, factories, in public, parochial and private schools, and I earnestly recommend that teachers instruct their pupils in short talks and proper programs, on the dangers of fire and accidents and the simpler means of fire and accident prevention.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Illinois, at the Capitol, in the city of Springfield, this ninth day of September, A. D. 1916.

E. F. Dunne, Governor.

CATHOLICS TO CELEBRATE

Seventy-fifth Anniversary of St. Patrick's Parish at McHenry

The seventy-fifth anniversary and diamond jubilee of the founding of St. Patrick's parish at McHenry, Ill., will be celebrated on Sunday, Oct. 29. An all day celebration is being planned by the pastor, Rev. M. J. McEvoy. Bishop P. J. Muldoon of Rockford will be present and Pontifical high mass will be celebrated.

St. Patrick's is the oldest parish in the state outside of Chicago and was established in McHenry when there were but three or four families. John and Michael Sutton, George Frisby and Jim Gibbs are said to be the pioneer founders. Many of their descendants are now members of the parish.

TALM "MILK STRIKE"

Officials of Milk Producers' Association in Sympathy with East

BORDEN SHIPPING TO NEW YORK

Fifteen Car Loads Sent Into "Strike" Territory—Association May Co-operate With League

Elgin News: Talk of a "milk strike," believed to have been averted by the surrender of distributors to price demands of the Milk Producers' association is being revived by officials of the dairymen's organization.

After winning their fight in the middle west, securing a decided advance for the farmers, directors of the association have turned their attention to the battle which is being waged between producers and buyers in the east. The eastern deadlock has been brought to the attention of these officials thru reports that the Borden company of Chicago has been shipping considerable milk to New York to relieve the shortage there. It has been reported to the association that fifteen carloads of milk left Chicago yesterday.

May Cut Off Big Plants.

Directors at once started the investigation of the reports and were busy today in an effort to verify them. If they are true, one of the officials said it will mean the reopening of the controversy between the Borden people and the association with the probable result that the supply will be cut off from any firms who are found to be shipping milk into "strike" territory. The association intends to co-operate with the Dairymen's league, a similar organization which controls the situation in states which supply New York city with milk.

The city of New York is receiving only about one half of its normal supply of milk and the shortage is approaching a famine stage. Farmers in the dairy sections of New York state and northern New Jersey continue to turn their product into butter or cheese or to dump it along side the roads rather than lift the boycott. They are demanding a considerable price advance.

Invade Wisconsin Territory

Secretary W. J. Kittle and Director C. H. Potter were out yesterday near Burlington, Wis., where they turned several small producers to the side of the association. These farmers had refused to ask for any price increases and had been selling their milk at the old figure. Producers in Cook county who have stated that they are satisfied with the old prices were being met today.

Mr. Kittle predicts a slight advance in prices next spring over the schedule of last year.

NEW FACTORY FOR DUNDEE

Cheese Will Be Made at Plant to Open October First.

Dundee is to have a new industry, Bays Bros. & Stephenson having rented the Arndt building on East Main street, to be used as a cheese factory.

They will make what is known as "Teleme" quality cheese, for which there is a big demand. This brand of cheese has been manufactured for several months at their Leaf River creamery, but not being able to fill the orders as fast as received, the firm decided to establish a factory in Dundee.

They propose to contract for about 10,000 pounds of milk daily, for which they offer an average of $2.05 for the coming six months, 5 cents per hundred above the price fixed by the Milk Producers' association.—Hawkeye.

SAUER KRAUT DAY

Burlington to Celebrate on Saturday of this week

Burlington's third annual sauer kraut day will be held Saturday, Oct. 7. There will be a plowing match at 10 o'clock on the A. J. Mann farm. Sauer kraut and wienies will be served free to all at noon by the J. G. C. girls. Speaking at 1 o'clock by Congressman Copley, Attorney Abbott and others. At 2:30 there will be a ball game between Bartlett and the Burlington Grays. After the game there will be games and contests, including a tug of war between the two ball teams. The Burlington band will furnish music during the day. In the evening there will be a dance for which a four-piece orchestra will supply the inspiration.

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa. "Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound." - Mrs. BLANCHETTE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice - it will be confidential.

WIFE IN PATHETIC PLAINT

Evidently Good Lady Was Not a Strong Believer in the Principle of Reciprocity.

"Oh, George," said Mrs. Bridge, "on your way downtown this morning will you stop at the grocer's and order two pounds of butter and a half pound of tea and some crackers?"

"Yes, my dear."

"And would you mind leaving my skirt at the tailor's as you go by?"

"Yes, my dear."

"And then go to the milkman's and tell him to leave an extra quart of cream to-morrow?"

"Yes, my dear."

"And when you get to your office will you call up my sister and tell her I'll be over Tuesday? They don't charge you for calls there."

"Yes, my dear, and say, will you mind sewing up this little rip in my coat before I start?"

"Good land, aren't you men terrible! You're always wanting something done." - Exchange.

SPECIAL ROAD COMMITTEE REPORT
Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board of Supervisors:

Your committee to whom was referred by the board, would beg leave to submit the following report on the matters before them:

We have made certain investigations in this, and the adjoining state of Wisconsin, but find that there is a demand for a change in the system originally adopted by this board, which changes cannot be made by the board of supervisors of December session, and your committee would therefore recommend that it be referred to the next session of the board. All of which is respectfully submitted.

CLINTON BRIDGE PETITION.
To the Board of Supervisors of the County of DeKalb, State of Illinois:

The undersigned, commissioners of highways of the Township of Clinton, in said county, respectfully represent that the Fuller bridge needs to be replaced over Somonauk creek, where the same is crossed by the highway leading from DeKalb to Waterman in said township, for which said work the Township of Clinton is wholly responsible, that the estimated cost of said work will be $1,200, which sum will be more than 12 cents on the one hundred dollars on the latest assessment roll of said township, and that the levy of the road and bridge tax for the two preceding years in said township is sufficient to meet one-half the expenses of said work.

Dated at Waterman this 14th day of September, A. D. 1916.

W. REID,
Commissioner of Highways.

The State of Illinois, DeKalb County, Township of Clinton, Board of Commissioners of Highways.

We, the undersigned, commissioners of highways of the Township of Clinton, hereby petition you for aid, and for an appropriation from the county treasury for the full amount of one-half the expenses of said work.

Dated at Waterman this 14th day of September, A. D. 1916.

"Swissam"

Closed Crotch

For many years I have been selling men's and boys' furnishings. At times I have been "stung" on certain lines of goods and there is no line that requires more care and knowledge of goods than the underwear line. In past years it has been my fortune to offer to the trade some excellent goods in this line and then again there were goods that were not just what they should have been. This is the experience of all merchants. But I can truthfully state that the "Swissam" Underwear is the best that I know of on the market today. These goods embody all the good points of the others without the faults. The workmanship is perfect, the material is the best possible for the money and the "closed crotch" feature of the union suits can not be found in any other garment. Try Swissam and know underwear comfort.

Men's Cotton Union Suits.....$1.00 to $1.50
Men's Wool Union Suits.....$2.00 to $3.00
Boys' Wool and Cotton Union Suits...50c to $1.25
Cotton one-piece Underwear, per garment.....50c
Wool 1-piece Underwear, per garment $1.00 to $2.00

Mrs. J. L. Patterson and Mrs. Will Furr, as delegates of the Eastern Star of Genoa, left for Springfield to attend the meeting of the Grand Chapter that was in session from Monday until Thursday of this week.

E. B. Arnold, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. S. Matteson, returned to his home in South Dakota on Monday of this week after a visit of several months with the latter in this city. Mrs. Matteson expects to be gone about three weeks.

Mrs. W. Gnekow, Sr. of Elgin and Mrs. Wm. Duval were called to Chicago Saturday by the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. G. Biedler, who passed away Sunday. Wm. Duval and daughter, Agnes, and Andrew Lietzow attended the funeral in Chicago Tuesday.

For Safety.
A man in the West was saved from death when a shot fired at him struck a silver dollar in his vest pocket. The moral of this is always to carry money in one's vest pocket. If one has no money, then the safety first movement suggests the prompt borrowing of it from the nearest easy friend.

Perseverance Has Won.
In the past the nation has made many blunders and has been guilty of many shortcomings, and yet in the end we have always come out victorious, because we have refused to be daunted by blunders and defeats—have recognized them, but have persevered in spite of them.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Ready With Purchase Price.
While a dog show was in progress, a friend took her little boy to see the dogs. He immediately fell in love with a small Boston bull, and couldn't be lured away. His mother said: "Well, if you can buy him, you may have him." Whereupon he produced four pennies from his overcoat pocket, reached up to the dog's owner, and said: "Wrap up the dog. I'll take him."

In the Days of Superstition.
The earliest record of a witch being burned to death is dated 1275, the witch confessing that she fed her offspring the flesh of babies. At Toulouse, in 1335, 63 persons were accused of being witches, eight of whom were burned and the others imprisoned for life. In 1324 Petronilla de Midia was burned at Kilkenny, Ireland, by orders of the bishop of Ossory. Some 75 years later there were wholesale witch prosecutions at Bern, Switzerland.

Using Old Bottles.
A bottle may be cut off by wrapping a cord saturated in coal oil around it several times, then setting fire to the cord, and just when it has finished burning plunging the bottle into cold water and tapping the end you wish to break off. Oddly shaped or prettily colored bottles make good vases. The top of a large bottle having a small neck makes a good funnel. Large round bottles make good jelly glasses.

Merely a Matter of Choice.
"Bobby," said the teacher sternly, "do you know that you have broken the eighth commandment by stealing James' apple?" "Well," explained Bobby, "I thought I might just as well break the eighth and have the apple as to break the tenth and only covet it."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

The Republican-Journal
Genoa, Ill.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 THE YEAR

By C. D. Schoonmaker

By the way, where is Mr. Bryan?

Don't try to make your wife believe that you are going to Burlington Saturday to eat sauer kraut. Insist that you have a great desire to hear Col. Copley, "Pauly" and other speakers.

That seventy-five mile hike made by the national guard in Texas did not make many Democrats. But Wilson is not losing any sleep over the fact. There are mighty few in the states.

The Illinois Northern Utilities Co. has made no apparent move toward rebuilding the system in Genoa, but Mr. Caird, the district manager, assures the Republican-Journal that the work will begin just as soon as material is available and considerable red tape is unwound.

At least President Wilson will have no trouble in ascertaining his standing with Mr. Roosevelt. If the former has a weakness that Teddy did not show up in a recent speech, it is not worth mentioning. There is a vast difference between Wilson and Roosevelt in the manner of doing things, a difference that the latter could not behold without exploding.

The Republican-Journal predicted at the opening of the school year that the Genoa schools would be on par with the best in the state this year, and from present indications that prediction will not be far from the truth. Everything at the school is moving smoothly. Prof. Taylor having an organization that is bound to get results. The fourth teacher in high school has been a necessity for years, and the best man obtainable could not obtain the proper results without that addition to the teaching staff.

Hull, Deneen, West, et al are proving their true calibre in refusing to enter into the Republican state campaign. Col. Smith was a good loser and immediately after it became evident that Lowden was the nominee, wired his congratulations and assurance of support. The Deneen crowd has not refused in so many words, but their expressive silence since the primary is sufficient evidence of the stand they have taken.

With Germany still intent in bringing England to her knees and England still of the mind that Germany must be put entirely out of business, there is little chance for an early termination of the war. In the meantime France is fighting for her own existence and will never quit until assured of the complete defeat of her enemy. Without doubt in considering peace terms the latter country would concede more than England, but at the present time England will state the terms.

Do not start a fire in the furnace or stove without first making sure that the pipes and the flues are in perfect condition. During the next few weeks there will be thousands of destructive fires thruout the country and in most cases these fires are preventable. Furnace pipes rust during the summer months and are always in worse condition than the exterior shows. Chimneys that have been out of use during the summer months may be clogged with birds nests or some of the mortar may have become loosened. Safety First.

Funny, isn't it? Four years ago some of our friends of the Bull Moose party were loud in their cry of "support the right man and we'll with the party." Still some of these same fellows are now hanging onto the hide of the dead moose despite the fact that "the man" for whom they battled four years ago has opened up an avenue of escape. Come on, fellows, support "the man." He is right this time and no mistake. In Charles Evans Hughes you have a real man and he is with the right party. Roosevelt knows this and you know that Teddy is always right.

It is sickening to hear the other fellows howl about Lowden being a tool of the "interests." Perhaps those who are so free with the criticism of Lowden do not know that both Smith and Hull are millionaires. It is stated that Hull's income is something like $500,000.00 a year. Can anyone imagine that he would have been an enemy of capital? We want no enemies of capital in office no more than we want enemies of labor. Rather, we want men who are endeavoring to bring the two together and the past record of Col. Lowden proves him to be a man who thinks wisely and consistently. And consistency is a mighty good thing in politics.

"The independence of the farmer," has been a favorite expression of every one but a farmer during these many generations, but it has only been within the past six months that it has become a reality, and now only in part. The dairy farmer has at last, thru co-operation, been able to demand his own price for milk and in that respect is independent. But the board of trade still dictates the price for which he must sell his grain and the packers state the price of live stock. Right at the present time the board of trade and packers are not doing the farmers any particular damage, however. There may come a time when co-operation may be necessary to demand the right price for grain. Will the producers be equal to the occasion as they have in the milk war?

Osteopathy Promotes Kidney Activity

While drug medication is able to do very little for Bright's disease beyond regulating diet and flushing the kidneys freely by drinking water, osteopathy has a practical and successful method of lifting the embargo laid on kidneys in acute cases and enabling them to resume normal elimination. It promotes kidney activity and secures the due discharge of urea from the system. It accomplishes this by adjusting all the body's structures related to the kidneys so that they come to enjoy natural unimpeded nerve control and blood supply. What is all important to the sick is that it is wonderfully potent in preventing the kidneys from getting inflamed; and it actually heals them after inflammation has developed; therefore it is preventive of that dread chain of evils whose last links are coma and death.

Of course, in advanced stages of Bright's disease, either of the "chronic parenchymatous" or "interstitial" types, where kidney tissues have been largely destroyed, very little can be done to help the patient. Good treatment helps somewhat, and delays the end, but uremic poisoning, alas! is the certain issue. The moral is not to neglect osteopathic adjustment of the tissues regulating the urinary system until too late. It is highly economical to stop the course of disease before organs are destroyed, for a destroyed organ cannot be replaced.—advertisement

Burr Now Gets Breath Easier

TANLAC RELIEVED HIM

After suffering for years from a malady and finding no relief from various treatments, some persons apparently resign themselves to their fate and make no further effort to find their way back to health. Frederick Burr, who is employed at 108 North Glenwood, Springfield, Ill., had almost reached that state when his friends persuaded him to try Tanlac, the "Master Medicine" now being introduced in Kingston and Genoa. Mr. Burr in discussing the benefits he had derived from the use of Tanlac, said:

"Before I began taking Tanlac, I had suffered intensely with catarrh for a number of years. It was difficult for me to breathe when I was asleep and when I would get up in the morning my nose would be all closed up. I tried several remedies but nothing seemed to do me any permanent good. I became nervous, run down because of the little rest which I was getting and had about given up hope of obtaining relief. I heard about Tanlac and the good it was doing so decided to try a bottle.

"I am glad to say my catarrh is nearly gone. My nose does not close up like it used to, and I can breathe much easier. I get a good rest every night which makes me feel like a new man. I've told a great many of my friends how much good Tanlac did me but I want them all to know about it, and I am glad to say this publicly because they may benefit as much as I have if they are in bad health."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine" is now being sold in Kingston and Genoa at the drug stores of I. W. Douglass.

THE DOG AND CAT MENACE

Chicago Health Officer Advises Following New York

Beware of disease that lurks unseen in the home, ready to claim a victim with fatal suddenness.

"Banish the cat and dog," is the advice of Dr. Robertson, who declares the household animal pets are a menace to the health of not only the family, but of the whole community. "Cats and dogs, the most common of household pets, gather infectious germs in their hair and so are easy carriers of diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and other serious contagions," declares the health commissioner.

Little do children realize that when they playfully fondle their pets, the danger that lurks there. When they bury their faces in the fur of the animals they are courting disease which may prove fatal.

"In keeping the dog and cat in the house we are constantly harboring carriers for communicable diseases, including infantile paralysis, and it would be wise for all Chicagoans to sacrifice their pets rather than endanger the lives of themselves and the children."

Dr. Robertson declared that during the recent epidemic of infantile paralysis in New York 175,000 cats and dogs were destroyed. In one week 72,000 cats and 8,000 dogs were killed. Altho in many cases the children were extremely fond of the pets, the parents requested that the animals be destroyed.

"Chicago parents should make a similar sacrifice now before cold weather drives children and the pets indoors for closer contact," said the health commissioner.

Foolish Believers in Luck.

Shallow men believe in luck, believe in circumstances. It was somebody's name, or he happened to be there at the time, or it was so then, and another day it would have been otherwise. Strong men believe in cause and effect. The man was born to do it, and his father was born to be the father of him and of this deed, and by looking narrowly, you shall see there was no luck in the matter, but it was all a problem in arithmetic, or an experiment in chemistry.—Emerson.

Youth.

Youth is not a time of life. It is not a matter of ripe cheeks, red lips and supple knees; it is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions. It is the freshness of the deep springs of life. Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old only by deserting their ideals. Years wrinkle the skin; but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul.—Dr. Frank Crane.

Of Deceptive Value.

The deceptive value of drawings or paintings over photography is recognized by no one more fully than by the great catalog houses, hence their adoption of the most expensive method of displaying their goods to the public, well knowing that photographs tell the truth, so far as correct pictorial reproduction is concerned, and would not be conducive to good business methods when the goods offered are faulty.

How many people would think of buying a cow from a picture in a newspaper or catalog, with just a name and description under it? Of course the description would say that the cow was a fine black and white cow, weight 800 pounds and so many hands high, free from blemishes and offered at the reduced price of $39.97 because of a spot cash deal with a stock farm which failed.

There is as much sense in a purchase of that nature as there is for a person to buy a buggy, "our own brand," at $24.70 when he can get the real article from his home dealer for $25 and have the privilege of inspecting it before buying. And no freight to pay.

Did Consumer Consider Everything?

While talking to a consumer the following was gleaned: "Farmers, as a rule, do not like to send their money to Chicago or any other place for their goods. They would rather buy of their local merchants if their prices are not out of reason. Merchants generally buy their goods where they can get them the cheapest, whether in Chicago, New York or Asia, no matter how much of the same goods the consumer has to sell. The price is the first and last consideration. They fix the price of what he sells as well as what he buys. Can the consumer be blamed for buying where he can get the best bargains? He wants to enjoy the same privilege as the merchants do. Fair play is all he wants."

A Business Injustice.

But did the consumer who made the above remarks take everything into consideration? Did he remember that while the local business men are maintaining markets for the consumer, assisting in making roads to these markets and doing all they can to help the farmer, the mail order houses that have not a cent invested in this vicinity do not buy a dollar's worth of the farmer's crops nor contribute a cent to the welfare of the community? Yet they are getting a goodly portion of the local trade, and business men naturally feel that it is an injustice. It is, and the only way to overcome it is by ADVERTISING.

Visit a Country Town.

Merchants should publish a comparison of their prices with those of the retail catalog houses—fight them with their own weapons. While visiting a country town recently the writer made some investigations and discoveries. For example, a Chicago mail order house was selling 100 pound grindstones mounted for $3.10. The local merchant sold the same article for $3.25; freight from Chicago, 55 cents, making the mail order article cost $3.65; seam roofing, $2.85 in Chicago and $2.90 from the local merchant, freight 15 cents per square to be added to the $2.85, making it $3 delivered; washing machines, $3.85 against $3.75, freight 25 cents to be added to the $3.85. These are facts which every merchant can prove and keep right on proving all the time. Cash at Home Too.

Local merchants will quote prices on goods so low that catalog and mail order houses cannot duplicate them. But you must pay cash. Mail order houses demand the cash in advance. Why not pay the local merchant in advance?

Our city, our state and our country—to these be loyal—it means prosperity to yourself and your neighbor. Bank here and check out to home merchants. Exchange Bank.

Did you ever hear of mail order houses selling nationally advertised goods? Sure not. They could not quote those "flashy" prices on furniture of that kind. We guarantee full value. Do they? S. S. Slater & Son.

Eat Butter-Krust Bread, 5c a loaf. Household Tin at 10c a loaf. Kind's cakes, 10c in boxes. At the Evans Restaurant. The Kind Bakery Goods are unequalled.

The mail order house will not look after your sole, but I will. Shoes repaired promptly and satisfaction guaranteed. I use the best of leathers and always finish the job. Thod. Cornwell.

We know that it will pay you to come to us for your winter's coal. Unlike mail order merchants, it is where you can see it before buying. Zeller & Son.

No job of teaming too large nor too small for me to handle. Your phone order to No. 24 will receive prompt attention. Planas carefully handled. Mail orders would be too slow and unreliable. J. L. Patterson.

You would not buy bread of a mail order house if you could, would you? You would not bake bread if you knew just how good the Genoa Bakery goods are. Eating it is the proof thereof. Try it. Duncan, the Baker.

WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

MRS. HELEN SEYMOUR, Editor

"Get Together" Social

The "Get Together" social given in the M. E. church parlors Friday evening was very well attended there being about two hundred present. A short program including a piano duet by Gladys Brown and Beth Scott; vocal solo by Mabel Pierce; piano solo by Klea Schoonmaker and a cornet solo by Mr. McClure, accompanied by Helen Ibbotson, was thoroughly enjoyed in the early evening after which every one made merry. The parlors were prettily decorated in corn stalks and pumpkins. Supper was served and the choosing of partners afforded great amusement. Rev. R. E. Pierce, John Pratt, A. C. Reid, C. J. Bevan, D. C. Morehouse and O. E. Taylor gave some splendid toasts, the latter acting as toast master. This social was given for the purpose of working up interest among the young people in organizing a Sunday school class of members over twenty-three years of age. There will be more of these social gatherings during the winter.

Wisman-Layton

Mr. Elva M. Wisman and Miss Myrtle Adaline Layton were united in marriage at the residence of Rev. I. H. Littell, 423 East 45th street, Chicago, Saturday evening, Sept. 30, at 6:30 o'clock. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wisman of Chicago. He came to Genoa a few years ago as an agent for the Illinois Northern Utilities Co. and has proven himself to be a man of excellent character. At present he is manager of the electric light plant at Hampshire where the bride and groom will make their home. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Layton of Genoa and has many friends who will wish the couple many years of conjugal bliss.

Supper at Oak Park

Plenic days will soon be over so the teachers of the local schools are taking advantage of these pleasant days and get into the open as much as possible. Wednesday afternoon after the school session they went to Oak Park and enjoyed one of their "Weenie Roasts." There was also hot chocolate for this feast. The party numbered nine.

Party at Rev. Pierce's

The official board of the M. E. church had a meeting at the parsonage Monday evening. The members had invited their wives and after the business had been transacted a social hour was enjoyed. The ladies served ice cream and cake. There were twenty-five present.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Corson of Leaf River announce the birth of a baby girl, born, Thursday, Oct. 5.

Jas. R. Kiernan and John Gahl were in Kansas City last week and purchased 133 head of fine white face cattle. The stock arrived in Genoa Sunday morning, five cars being required to carry them. The cattle averaged 800 pounds each and made as pretty a bunch as ever arrived in this city.

Word has been received from Edwin Cooper, son of C. J. Cooper, who left Chicago some time ago for New York to the effect that he is now on the stage with one of the Frohman companies. At the present time his company is playing in Boston.

Eight thousand bushels of cucumbers were received at the local plant of the Squire Dingee Pickle Co. this fall, the tanks being filled to capacity. This means that nearly eight thousand dollars were distributed among the farmers of this vicinity as a little side money. The small pickles brought a dollar a bushel, the highest price ever paid.

Dewitt C. Green passed away at his home in this city Wednesday morning, Oct. 4, at four o'clock, of paralysis. Mr. Green was taken ill with a light attack of la grippe on the Sunday previous but was able to be about, even the day before his death. Mrs. F. M. Worcester is a daughter of the deceased. Obituary will appear next week.

The Geithman & Hammond Land Agency has made the following sales during the past week: The Joseph H. Stumm 160 acre farm near Rockford to John McQueen of Kirkland; the John Gray 133 acre farm west of Genoa to the Thurlby Brothers of Belvidere; the Jas. J. Hammond 40 acre farm east of Genoa to John Gray; a brick store building in Kirkland, owned by John McQueen to Joseph H. Stumm of Yorkville, Ill.

Daily Thought.

Every day is a little life, and one whole life is but a day repeated. Those, therefore, that dare lose a day are dangerously prodigal; those that dare misspend it, desperate.—Hall.

The Misses Vandresser Entertain

The H. E. Vandresser home north of the city was the scene of a merry party Tuesday evening when Misses Ideena and Grace Vandresser entertained a number of their friends. Music, both vocal and instrumental, was enjoyed thruout the evening. A three course luncheon was served. A large bouquet of American Beauties made a very pretty center piece for the table. Jack-o'-lanterns could be seen here and there and gave the party a touch of the Halloween season. The following were present: Misses Mabel Wilson, Myrtle Geithman and Ethel Lanan, Harold Graves, Donald McKibbin and Lee Kramer of Belvidere and Vern Geithman.

Euchre Party

Mrs. Carrie Oursler entertained a number of ladies at her home on Friday evening of last week. Part of the time was spent in playing euchre, the first prize being won by Mrs. Will Jeffery, second by Mrs. Harry Whipple and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Frank Rudolph. After the euchre game the party enjoyed a pleasant hour of playing and singing.

Thimble Club

The Thimble Club was very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. E. W. Brown and Mrs. C. A. Stewart at the former's home last Thursday afternoon. The ladies occupied their time with various kinds of needle work and crocheting. A dainty two course luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Birthday Dinner

Kenneth Furr entertained at a six o'clock dinner last Friday in honor of his nineteenth birthday. A delightful evening was spent with music as the principal entertainment. The guests present, Misses Irene Patterson, Florence Rogers and Meredith Taylor, Walter Albertson and Horatio Perkins.

Household Science Club

The Household Science Club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Floyd Rowen Wednesday afternoon. The work for the coming year was planned and refreshments served.

Jolly Diners

Mrs. T. M. Frazier was hostess at a one o'clock dinner Friday afternoon, at which the members of the Jolly Diners and Mrs. J. W. Wylde, Mrs. Geo. Loptien, Mrs. T. N. Austin and Mrs. C. A. Patterson were guests. A social afternoon was enjoyed.

Aged Eighty-four Years

F. N. Oriol died at his home in this city Saturday, Sept. 30, at the advanced age of eighty-four. Mr. Oriol with his wife had been a resident of Genoa for the past five years, being previously a successful business man in Rochester, N. Y. Short services were read at the home Sunday, the body was then shipped to Rochester for burial. Mrs. Oriol accompanied the remains to Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. H. McCaffery and several other relatives of Chicago were at the home Sunday.

W. H. Waite Dead

William H. Waite, who had been making his home in Fort Dodge, Iowa, died Wednesday, Sept. 27. The deceased was born in Spring, Boone, Co., Ill., September 15, 1876, and was very well known in this city. His widow and one son, William, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, two sisters, Mrs. Grace Hoof, of Chicago and Mrs. M. McDougal of Belvidere, two brothers, Judson, of Shell Rock, Iowa and S. A. Waite of Genoa, survive him. The body was brought to Genoa last Thursday, burial taking place in North Kingston cemetery.

Pathetic Request.

Mabel was unfortunate at her dancing class. She is really a popular girl, but it so happened the whole afternoon that when little boys and girls danced together she was left out. At last she could stand it no longer. "Please, Miss Katherine," she said, "if there is any little boy left over next time may I have him?"

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The county convention of the W. C. T. U. was held in the city of DeKalb September 23 and 29. Our local Union was represented by the following representatives: Mesdames A. C. Reid, L. G. Hemenway, E. H. Olmstead, John Pratt, G. C. Rowen. The Union meets October 12 at the home of Mrs. H. P. Edsall.

Easily Explained.

Just before little Edna started to school her mother married for the second time. Later, when Edna's mother had to write excuses for her little girl, the teacher asked Edna how it happened that her mother's name was not the same as hers. Edna was quite puzzled, and after a pause replied, "Well, you see, mother got married and I didn't."

Not as He Imagined It.

"When you bought your motor car I dare say you thought it would give you a great deal of pleasure?" "Oh, yes," replied the unhappy motorist. "I was deceived by a smooth-tongued salesman. I have since discovered that it forces me to contribute generously to the incomes of a large number of people for whom I have no affection whatever."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

No story is the same to us after the lapse of time, or, rather, we who read it are no longer the same interpreters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gnekow, Sr. of Elgin spent the last of the week at the Wm. Duval home.

He Can't Afford It

Unless he is independently wealthy, there is not a man in this country who can afford to be careless about his clothes.

Clothes mean such a lot and cost so little that every man should—and can—be well dressed.

No trouble at all, to you or us, to fit you—perfectly—in a Michaels-Stern Fall Suit or Overcoat. And, likewise, to fit your purse.

Michaels, Stern & Co.

Did you ever notice how much better men dress now than the did ten, or even five, years ago?

That's because they realize more and more that good clothes mean a big lift on the road to success.

And we'll prove that statement at very small expense when you come to see our new Michaels-Stern Fall Clothes.

How will Tomorrow suit you?

Uniting the Family.

How many households have a family hour—a definite time in the week when all the members of the family gather in perfect serenity for an interval of genuine communion? Although civilization brings many advantages in its train, it has the great fault of tending to disrupt family intercourse. Each member has too many individual activities. Fathers have their business; sons, their business or education; mothers, their domestic duties or social occupations; daughters, their business, their education or their social life.

All these things are right and worthy in themselves, but they do not tend to weld the family. If members of a family will make it a rule to devote themselves for one hour in the week wholly to one another the spirit of family life will be quickened and strengthened. Often the members of a family pursue parallel courses that do not intersect. It is mere platitudes to point out that great events—travel, marriage, death and the like—must inevitably cause disintegration. But so long as the family is together under one roof the spirit of union and common interests should be fostered.—Youth's Companion.

A Bird's Barbed Wire Fences.

There is in Central America a brown wren about the size of a canary which builds a curious nest. It selects a small tree with horizontal branches growing close together. Across two of the branches it lays sticks fastened together with tough fiber until a platform about six feet long by two feet wide has been constructed. On the end of this platform nearest the tree trunk it then builds a huge dome shaped nest a foot or so high with thick sides of interwoven thorns. A covered passageway is then made from the nest to the end of the platform in as crooked a manner as possible. Across the outer end as well as at short intervals along the inside of this tunnel are placed cunning little fences of thorns with just space enough for the owners to pass through. On going out this opening is closed by the owner by placing thorns across the gateway, and thus the safety of the eggs or young is assured.

How Chalk is Formed.

Deposits of chalk are found on some shores of the sea. A piece of chalk, such as the teacher uses to illustrate something on the blackboard at school, consists of the remains of thousands of tiny creatures that at one time lived in the sea. All of their bodies, excepting the chalk—called carbonate of lime in scientific language—has disappeared and the chalk that was left was piled up where it fell at the bottom of the ocean, each particle pressing over it all until it became almost solid. It took thousands of years to make these chalk deposits of the thickness in which they are found. Later on, through changes in the earth's surface, the mountain of chalk was raised until it stood out of the water and thus became accessible to man and school-teachers.

Not Afraid of Cold Steel.

In her younger days Eugenie, when empress of the French nation, was noted for her great courage, as the following incident proves.
At a brilliant dinner party a somewhat facetious general told her majesty that women should not meddle in politics.
"You know, madame," he said, "that politics lead to war, and if the worse came to the worst you would not have the nerve to face cold steel."
"Wouldn't it?" cried the empress, "I'll show you!" And, snatching a large knife from the table, she inflicted a deep stab on her arm.
After that the general never broached the subject of woman's lack of nerves again.

Sharpening a Pocketknife.

Cutlery have certain rules for sharpening razors, pocketknives, etc. "A razor," said one of the craft quoted by the Scientific American, "must be laid flat on the hone, because it is hollow ground and requires a fine edge. But a pocketknife requires a stiff edge, and the moment you lay it flat on a stone, so as to touch the polished side, you injure the edge. It must be held at an angle of twenty to twenty-five degrees and have an edge similar to a chisel."

Ups and Downs.

Lady (who was on a visit to her native town)—How is Mrs. Gabbie? I haven't seen her for a long time? Hostess—She is having her usual ups and downs. Lady Visitor—And what may that be, I pray? Hostess—Oh, running up bills and running down her neighbors.—Buffalo News.

A Rise.

"The automatic force of inanimate objects is sometimes a wonderful thing," said the professor.
"Yes," agreed the imperious man; "even the humble cake of yeast can always raise the dough."—New York Mail.

His Wisdom.

Judge—How long have you owned a car? Motorist (charged with speeding)—One week, your honor. Judge—Um; then you can still afford to pay a fine Twenty dollars!—Puck.

Not What He Meant.

Diner (in swell cafe)—I suppose people who dine here carry off quite a lot of silver. Waiter—Yes, sir; we can't get all their loose change.—Boston Transcript.

The very best way to get ability is to do thoroughly whatever you do. Master every detail of work that falls to your lot.—Selected.

Truly Disappointed.
The minister hurried down the aisle and grasped the stranger's hand. "I am glad to see you with us tonight," he said. "I can see by the expression in your face that you are laboring under some deep sorrow, some great disappointment." "You're right; I came in here thinking this was a movie, and, having got in, I didn't have the nerve to get up and walk out."

Honey Vinegar.
Vinegar made from honey has an exceptionally fine flavor and is not expensive. A small amount of vinegar furnishes a large amount of honey. Follow these directions: Dissolve thoroughly in two gallons of warm, soft water one quart jar of extracted honey. Give it air and keep it in a warm place where it will ferment and make excellent vinegar.

Bad Outlook for the Angels.
Grandma was very strict with little Neil, making him pick up his playthings and put them away when he was through with them. He was going out to see his dog one day and when grandma called him back he said: "I'll bet the angels will be sorry when you get to heaven, grandma."

Cure for Rheumatism.
Rheumatism is nothing to a man who will find a church spire in which bees have a hive, suspend himself near the entrance and submit to a good, generous stinging, says the Indianapolis News. A Minnesota man underwent this heroic treatment recently, and now says that others may get stung by the patent medicine route if they wish, but he will collect his stingers at the source.
