Rate War on Between Sycamore and DeKalb—Girl of Rockford Makes a Deposit of 11,700 Pennies

E. H. Griggs has rented his farm near Lily Lake, having sold his stock and machinery at auction yesterday.

A. E. Smith, a farmer living near Caledonia met with a serious accident last Thursday afternoon. A colt which he was leading lunged forward knocking him down and trampling upon him.

The negotiations between the Central Union Telephone Co. and the Boone County Rural Telephone Co. have terminated in the former company turning over all of their rural lines in the county to the latter.

Another whack at the octopus. A bill requiring all kerosene sold in the state to be colored red, has been introduced in the house by a Peoria man. Even at that some of the house girls will probably develop color blindness and keep on blowing the roof off.

William Matthies, formerly in business at Marengo, was moving a barn about a mile and a half west of Kirkland last week and had part of his tackle fastened to a stump. The stump gave way and one of the roots hit him across the leg breaking it between the knee and the ankle.

Inez Gates, daughter of the keeper of a small store in the suburbs, deposited with the Rockford National Bank at one time 11,700 pennies to start a saving account. Her father had been giving her the excess of pennies each night for a long time and she had kept them in a soap box. The mass weighed seventy pounds. Save your pennies, boys.

The interurban and steam lines between DeKalb and Sycamore are engaged in a rate war. The interurban fare has been ten cents between the two towns but recently it has been raised to fifteen cents one way and twenty-five cents round trip. The Northwestern at the same time reduced its fare to ten cents each way in the effort to get back its traffic between the two places.

Kirkland citizens are elated over the future prospects of the town. They believe that with the competition offered by the Milwaukee and St. Paul, the I. I. & M., and the electric line which is building from Anrona to Rockford and will touch their town, that they have excellent opportunities for great growth and progress in the future. They are already talking of forming a citizen's committee with the object of locating some factories in the town.

BUTTER TAKES TUMBLE

Official Price Twenty-five Cents Firm on Board of Trade

Butter took another tumble Monday the official price being twenty-five cents firm. Last week it was thirty cents. New York is twenty-six cents steady.

Mothers' Meeting

In order that the Mothers' Meeting may not conflict with the meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society the next mothers' meeting will be held at 3:30 p. m., Friday March 24 instead of March 17.

The chapter entitled, "What shall our children read?" will be read. The entire program will be of interest to mother. The children will furnish part of the program.

MRS. ANNIE WELCH

Former Resident of Genoa Dies From Effects of Operation

Mrs. Annie Welch, maiden name Nelson, was born in Sweden on the 31st day of December in the year 1866 and died in Chicago at a hospital while there for treatment for appendicitis, March 10, 1905, being 38 years, 2 months and 10 days old at the time of her decease.

She came from Sweden with her parents when a girl about four years old and settled in Sycamore township where she has made her home the greater part of her life.

She was united in marriage to Mr. James Welch in the year 1882 and into their home five children were born, four of whom survive their mother, one having died in infancy.

The surviving children are: Mrs. Frank Munson of DeKalb, Ill., Mrs. Albert Merritt of DeKalb, Ill., and Miss Mabel and Willie Welch also living at DeKalb, Ill. She also leaves her aged father, Mr. Magnus Nelson, and an only sister, Mrs. Ole Peterson of Sycamore township.

In the year 1888, Mrs. Welch's mother died. She was a noble Christian woman, a hard worker and one who lived almost entirely for her family, all of whom mourn her early death.

Mrs. Welch was baptized in the Christian faith when a child and when a girl fourteen years of age she was confirmed in the Swedish-Lutheran church at Sycamore, Ill.

She was reconciled to her death and was perfectly willing to place herself in God's hands and await His blessed will. "She now rests from her labors and her works do follow her."

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Genoa, Monday afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. Reed officiated. Interment took place at the Genoa cemetery.

All the relatives of Mrs. Welch live at Sycamore and DeKalb.

TO EDUCATE DAIRYMEN

Association Organized for the Purpose of Holding Institute

Hundreds of farmers and dairymen who sell milk to the Chicago dealers will receive education in science of producing rich milk and of preparing it for the shipment, if the hopes of the incorporators of the Milk Producers' institute, which was granted a charter last week by the secretary of state, are realized.

The association was organized for the purpose of holding a three days' institute in Chicago every year for a scientific discussion of dairying. It is thought that farmers from a radius of 100 miles of Chicago will attend these meetings. The officers of the association are:

President—Senator Hunt, DeKalb.

Vice president—E. G. Harvey, La Fox.

Secretary—J. M. McVean, Chicago.

"Under the law milk has to test but 3 per cent butter fat, though the dealers insist on buying none that tests less than 3.6 per cent," said E. G. Harvey, one of the incorporators, yesterday. "While the law remains as it is, the poorer quantity of milk can be sold on the streets, and thus the price of good milk is affected injuriously."

Banker Commits Suicide

Miles W. Willis, well known banker and pioneer settler of Elburn, Kane county, Illinois, committed suicide by shooting himself Sunday. It is thought that he was temporarily insane.

ONE ERROR, SAYS BILLY

When He Missed a Dollar Thrown at Him—Meetings Successful

Rev. Billy Sunday is keeping most of them good natured at Dixon though he tears loose every now and then and says things in his usual biting fashion. Reports from Dixon indicates that the meetings there will be his most successful.

Last Sunday evening it was desired to collect about $5.00 and subscriptions were taken from the audience. Sunday was in his best humor, and when a lot of $1 subscriptions came from one corner he said: "That's a good bunch over there. They must be Elks, they always have the goods with them." Then "William Beier, $1," was announced. "Thank you Bill," said Sunday, and then there was a laugh. "Dr. Brown, $1," came from another part of the audience. "Thanks, Doc, I paid you five yesterday," said the evangelist.

When the contributions got down to dollars somebody threw a silver dollar at the evangelist. He caught it with a three-men-out look and it was followed by a shower of other dollars. He grabbed right and left, but the light was poor and he finally missed one. "Seven and one error," shouted Sunday, and there was a roar.

DENTISTS ORGANIZE

Dr. C. A. Patterson of this City Elected Secretary and Treasurer

At a meeting of the dentists held in the Elks club rooms at Elgin last Thursday evening, plans were made to strengthen the state organization, and a subordinate society of this district organized for that purpose.

Forty dentists were present, thirty-seven of whom joined the society. Dr. Gail Elliott of Elgin was elected president, Dr. Logan of Aurora, vice president, and Dr. Patterson of this city secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting will be held at Aurora, June 14th.

Well Received

The Players' Stock Company of Genoa presented the drama "Her Dark Secret" at Kirkland, Saturday evening, March 4. The Enterprise has the following complimentary words regarding the play and players:

"Ed Christman was also one of the principal characters in its presentation and is entitled to much credit for the proficient manner in which he handled his part. The same might be said of most of the of the other members of the cast and especially so of some. The play and players were deserving of a larger attendance than they had. Miss Stott who presided at the piano rendered some inspiring music between acts. Altogether the play was pleasing and attractive. The parts were well chosen and ably handled."

A False Report

Thru false statements on the part of some person many of our old customers have been led to believe that our ice crop this winter was taken from the river below the slaughter house. The story (which is absolutely false) was probably started with the intention of injuring our business. Every pound of ice put up by us this winter was taken from the bayou and is of excellent quality, being clean and clear as crystal. If necessary we will swear to the above before a notary public and bring forth a score of witnesses to prove it.

GENOA WINS ANOTHER

TEAM FROM COUNTY METROPOLIS IS DEFEATED

Genoa Girls Unable to do More than Put up a Weak Defense—DeKalb Girls Much Taller

To the merry tune of 32 to 16 the Genoa high school basket ball team defeated the DeKalb highs last Friday evening. But that tune was not ground out as easily as one would listen to a graphophone. It required the best that Genoa could produce in the way of team work, skill and alertness, for the DeKalb boys were up and coming at all times. In the first half honors were about even and not until the last few minutes of playing did the Genoa team get a decided lead. It was then Harvey broke loose and the rest of the team fell into line. No telling what the score might have been had there been two or three more minutes of play. Evans threw a few nice field goals in the first half and came in for a round of applause. Mackey, Brown and Downing were likewise full of vim and played with the determination that counts.

The Genoa girls were defeated by a score of 25 to 6. We give the Genoa girls credit for working harder than they ever did before but their efforts were of no avail owing to the size of their opponents, all of whom were taller than Genoa's tallest. It was a great battle against heavy and insurmountable odds and the local team did well to keep the score down to 25 points. It was another case of the "fortunes of war." Perhaps Genoa girls may have an opportunity to defeat Belvidere again to gain the lead in the championship race.

Regarding this championship business the Belvidere Republican says:

"The Belvidere high school girls' basket ball team is ready to meet all comers, in fact they invite any team which has a hankering for the championship of this section to meet them. The Belvidere girls have been defeated in just one game this year. That was in the game at Genoa. That is their only defeat, and that by a close margin. They defeated Genoa earlier by a large score and have also defeated the Rockford team by large score which Genoa defeated by a small score."

In mentioning the game at Marengo recently the News had the following complimentary words regarding the Genoa team:

"The Genoa team is fast and composed of some very good players, and only for Harvey, the crack center of Northern Illinois, being a trifle off and up in the air, Marengo might have received a worse defeat. The spectators had the pleasure of witnessing two of the best games ever seen in Marengo."

John Roach

John Roach, an old time resident of this vicinity, living on the Herman Patterson farm until 1866, died on Merch 4th at his home in Plainfield, Iowa. He was a member of Co. B, 8th Illinois Volunteer cavalry in the Civil war. After leaving here he accumulated considerable wealth and was known as the "Father of Plainfield."

FEAR BIG TOWN

Hampshire Merchants Making Every Effort to Prevent New Electric Line

"With Hampshire merchants preparing to fight against the electric line going through their town because they are afraid that it will injure business and the farmers planning to give right of way through their land the question of an electric line from Elgin to Genoa is agitating Hampshire," says the Elgin Press.

"The merchants from the first have been antagonistic to the road, urging that there would be no business in the town if the people could get a car and go to Elgin, do their trading and get back easily. They think that their trade would be ruined and that Elgin would be materially helped by the arrangement, hence they are fighting the project.

"On the other hand the farmers along the proposed route are more anxious than ever for the line. They have at last awakened to the fact that the line means direct intercourse with the outside world, a chance to obtain power, and transportation facilities never before afforded. They will do all they can to further the east and west route.

"Genoa and Sycamore are united in their efforts to get the road, more harmony between the two towns than at any previous time in their history. Once Sycamore endeavored to have the Northern Illinois, running from Spring Valley through Sycamore to Belvidere go by way of Genoa. Genoa merchants objected because they were afraid that Sycamore merchants would get the trade. Genoa merchants do not object now. Their stores are fully as good, and their wares as modish as those of the larger town, eight miles south. They do not fear competition with the county seat town."

LOOKING UP ROUTE

Representatives of Elgin Belvidere Electric Line in Genoa Tuesday

J. J. Wright and J. Graham of Chicago and Judge Eugene Clifford of Elgin were here Tuesday looking up the route for the Elgin Belvidere electric line. These gentlemen are going carefully over both the north and south routes to select that which offers the best inducements, not only at the start but in the business possibilities of the future. At this time these gentlemen can give no definite statement regarding their plans, except that the line will certainly materialize this summer.

Papers Filed

Articles of incorporation were filed Saturday in the office of the Secretary of State for the Elgin-Belvidere Electric Railway company. The offices of the company will be in Chicago and the capital stock will be $25,000. The road is to be built from Elgin to Belvidere.

The incorporators and first board of directors are Hamilton Brown of Geneva, Eugene Clifford of Elgin, J. Joseph Wright, Jacob H. Hopkins and Edward J. Queeny of Chicago.

Uncle Tom's Cabin

M. J. Singer of Sycamore, well known in Genoa, is organizing an Uncle Tom's Cabin Company which will appear during the summer months in a tent with a seating capacity of 2,200. He will have a complete outfit consisting of a band, 25 people, two donkeys, pack of hounds and six ponies. He has engaged a Pullman and baggage car for the season.

TOWNSHIP CAUCUS

THE ANNUAL INTERESTING EVENT OCCURS TOMORROW

Several Candidates for Office of Collector—Rumor that Joshua Siglin Will Have Opponent in Field

The annual town caucus, where the hopes of some aspirants are blasted and others are made happy in victory, takes place tomorrow. There promises to be a hard but apparently good natured fight between the candidates for collector, there being five avowed candidates at this writing and may be more before the caucus is called.

H. A. Perkins is a candidate for renomination to the office of town clerk. He is familiar with every detail of the office. Thos. G. Sager is also a candidate for the same office.

G. E. Stott and L. S. Ellithorpe are candidates for justice of peace. As there are two to be elected no fight will be on for that office.

For assessor J. W. Sowers is the only candidate at this time. The two vacancies in the offices of constable will probably be filled by S. Abraham and Jas. Spence, the only avowed candidates at the this writing.

Wm. Dumolin seeks renomination as highway commissioner. A. L. Corson is also a candidate.

Oscar Davis, who has made a good official as school trustee, will come up for renomination.

Joshua Siglin is the only openly announced candidate for the office of supervisor. There is a rumor afloat that he will have an opponent in the field tomorrow.

Who this opponent is only a few seem to know and they will not tell. If honest work, straight business, good nature and faithful performance count for anything in an official, Mr. Siglin should be renominated by acclamation. He has performed his duties well and deserves the united support of his friends tomorrow. It is usually understood that good work always merits promotion. We cannot promote Mr. Siglin to a higher township office, but it is possible for his townspeople to show their appreciation by returning him to the seat on the county board.

It is a proverb of Japan that a healthy stomach is the basis of all strength. The Japanese as a people are remarkable for their health, endurance, patience and skill.

No man is stronger than his stomach. Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fall. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. It is because Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition that it gives strength to the whole body. When the weak stomach is made strong by "Golden Medical Discovery" then food is perfectly digested and assimilated, the nutrition derived from food is distributed to the several organs of the body, and the "weak" heart which was weak because it was not well fed becomes strong again. So with the weakness of the other organs of the body, it is cured when the stomach is cured.

"I am pleased to tell you that three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured my husband of liver complaint and indigestion," writes Mrs. G. Hall, of Novar, Ontario. "He suffered for a long time with pain in his right side. Tried three doctors here but they did not do any good; also tried several kinds of patent medicines but received no benefit. Then I wrote to you and you advised us to try your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' We got a bottle at once and before my husband had taken all of this one bottle he was feeling ever so much better and able to work again. He continued with the 'Discovery' until he had taken three bottles and is now feeling better than for years. We have got several friends to try your 'Golden Medical Discovery' for different complaints and I am pleased to say that it has never failed."

MARINETTE, WIS., Sept. 25, 1903.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.

DEATH OF J. O. STARK

Able Business Man and Son of One of the First Settlers of Sycamore

Jefferson O. Stark died at his home on DeKalb avenue, in Sycamore, last week. His health until about two years ago had been robust, and not until some three months ago did he begin to lose weight being for many years about 245 pounds. For some three months he had been confined to the house, much of the time in bed. Brights disease made a rapid inroad on his strength, and it was known for several weeks that his end was near.

The father, Marshall Stark, was born in Luzerne county, Penn., August 12 1813, and was a son of Oliver and Betsey (Dixon) Stark, both of whom were natives of Pennsylvania, descendants from old New England stock, springing from the same parent stem as General Stark, of Bennington fame.

To Mr. and Mrs. Stark were born ten large, robust children, all of whom have lived to past the middle age, and of whom Jefferson O. Stark is the first to succumb to the Grim Reaper. The brothers and sisters are: Harmon M., one of the best known men in DeKalb County, residing in Kingston township; Martha S., who married Hosea Atwood, and who lives in Jasper, county, Ia.; Mary E., who married Curtis Harris, of Genoa township, this county; Henry J. and Theron M., stock dealers and capitalists, of Sycamore; Ada A., who married James Maitland, and lives on a farm in Sycamore township; Ella A., who married A. W. Brower, a hardware merchant in Sycamore; Emma J., who married Charles Wiggins, a farmer and stock raiser, of Gothenburg, Neb., and Hattie M., who married Burton W. Lee, a farmer in Sycamore township.

Jefferson O. Stark was born April 4, 1847, in Sycamore township. He grew to manhood on the homestead farm two miles north of this city. He enlisted in Co. F, 147th Ill. Infy. on February 18, 1865, and served one year or until after the war. Upon reaching manhood he engaged in buying and selling livestock. Later his brothers, Henry and Theron, were engaged with him; H. J. and J. O. also engaged in buying, baling and shipping hay, which they continued many years. For some two years Jefferson Stark had not been connected with the business, and for nearly ten years he had been employed by the firm of Shannon Bros., of Chicago, for whom he bought livestock and loaned money, acting as western agent for this wealthy concern, who intrusted him with great amounts of money for investment. He left them about a year ago, against their protests, but the management of his own business required all his time. He then devoted himself exclusively to loaning his own money and buying and selling livestock in Iowa, which he had always done for himself to a considerable extent while employed by Shannon Bros. His headquarters were in Jasper county, Ia., where he was president of a bank. The estate left by Mr. Stark is estimated to over $200,000.

Jefferson O. Stark was married on November 13, 1875, to Lydia Carver, a native of Luzerne county Pa., who is a daughter of Jabez and Ellen (Jackson) Carver. She was born in Lemon, Luzerne county, on August 1 1850. She survives to mourn his death. There are no children surviving.

Mr. Stark was highly regarded by all business associates as a man of ability and acumen. He was companionable and had many friends.

The funeral services were held at the house at 2 o'clock and at the Universalist church Sunday at 2:30 p. m., the pastor, Rev. F. W. Millar, and Rev. C. S. Moore, of the M. E. church, officiating. The remains were interred in Elmwood cemetery.—True Republican.

I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Proper Treatment of Pneumonia

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results. For sale by Hunt's Pharmacy."

The Weekly Fashion Letter

The 1830 poke bonnet will lead in millinery. It is made up in the latest materials, including chiffon, mousseline de sole, milan straw and horse-hair braid, with long flowing strings of chiffon and dainty wreaths of button roses inside the crown resting against the hair.

The colonial or modified Napoleon is to be a favorite shape, also English turbans, and the flat sailor will hold its own.

Ready to wear hats are mostly of chip. A French chip plateau trimmed with roses in mahogany shades is one of the attractive models to be seen.

An odd lingerie hat is in directoire style, with the stiff lines softened by the material it is made of, which is nothing but the finest of frills of airy pink lace. It is trimmed with stiff white camellias.

Irish crochet lace will make many of the summer hats to be worn with thin dresses.

The parasols that have made their appearance are diaphanous affairs, looking as though a breath would blow them away.

China silk petticoats to be worn under lawn and dimities are made very pretty with shirred ruffles, hand embroidered in large dots.

The charming lingerie hat in the cut is of white chiffon, the brim laid in folds of this airy fabric. About the top is a very full ruffling of lace trimmed chiffon. Well toward the front is a chou of ribbon loops.

COATS AND WAISTCOATS.

The new spring coats will have chic little waistcoats, which will make them individual and smart.

With the close fitting jacket waistcoats of linen, plique and duck are very mannish and tailor-like. Most women, though, prefer the soft lingerie shirt waist worn under the coat.

ROSE CASHMERE FROCK.

The new tweeds and chevots come in very light shades. Champagne and mode barred off with invisible checks are favorite designs.

Etamine later on will take the place in coat and skirt gowns of the heavier tweeds.

For all coats reaching below the waist line the tight fitting models will be used in preference to loose sack coats.

Embroideries for summer frocks are more alluring than ever and, unfortunately, very expensive. All the modish thin frocks will have about them somewhere lace and embroidery, and often both will be in evidence.

Irish crochet lace is handsomer than ever. The design most favored has part of the crochet pattern raised and separate from the groundwork.

The costume sketched is of rose cashmere. The full skirt is shirred with a heading in groups of three lines at the knee and a foot higher up the skirt length. The waist has the same shirred treatment at the bust line. Around a chemise of mousseline are a mousseline trimmed collar and small revers.

The buttons on the stole piece are of dull silver. The deep cuffs and the little turnover on the mousseline choker are of lace.

MODES AND FABRICS.

Green, blue and brown are the predominating colors in trimmings, and the newest embroideries show the faintest line of gold thread through them.

The tailored sleeves of the spring will be very full at the top and narrow down gradually at the wrist. For more elaborate frocks the bagging sleeve will hold its own, with a double puff effect gathering into a deep cuff in the lead.

Chiffon serge is a lovely dress material which is both serviceable and inexpensive. Many of the new walking skirts are gored at the top and have a side plaited flounce from the knee.

Fashion authorities say that trimming upon trimming will be a characteristic of the spring styles in dress. It seems hardly possible that the adornment craze of the winter can be carried to a greater extent.

widths. The bouffant skirts have made this extra width a necessity. They have also made a silk dress pattern number at least eighteen yards where formerly fifteen were sufficient.

The draped evening bodice shown in the illustration is of yellow taffeta. This waist needs careful fitting over a boned lining. About the decollete neck are two fitted velvet ruffles overlaid with ruffles of brussels lace. The bodice fastens at one side with large cabochons of silk. The puffed elbow sleeves finish with ruffles of lace and silk.

The Newer Japan.

Pierre Loti thinks, as do many of us when we revisit the scene of our early loves, that Japan has deteriorated. War, even in 1900, he saw to be inevitable, but this saddens him less than the substitution of American bars for the picturesque tea houses and the general spread of drunkenness among the lower orders. Formerly, he says, if you saw a drunken man in Nagasaki he was sure to be an European, but now the sailors as well as the civilians of Nippon are often to be found boozing and quarreling in cabarets.—Pal Mall Gazette.

The Chemist's Discovery.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

SHOOTS TO KILL

Ben Burton Held on Serious Charge at Belvidere

(From the Republican-Northwestern)
Ben Burton was taken before Justice Marean of Belvidere at two o'clock Saturday afternoon charged with shooting Bert Clay with intent to kill. He was granted a postponement and was remanded to the county jail in bonds of $1,000.

Burton shot Clay half an hour after midnight Friday night in the corridor of the notorious "Skinny" Bishop lodging house, known as the old Doty hotel, located on South State street just south of the river. He fired three times with a thirty-two calibre revolver. The first bullet struck him just under the shoulder, passed through in under the joint and is now lodged in his back just under the shoulder blade. The other two bullets went wild.

The only witness to the shooting was C. W. Johnson, who rooms at the place, as do the two men mixed up in the shooting.

Clay is the colored porter at Collier Brothers' barber shop and is ordinarily an inoffensive fellow. He is short, squat, and has heavy stooping shoulders. He is called "Ham" about the city. Burton is a stationary engineer who at one time operated the steam roller on State street when the concrete was being laid for the paving job. Both are well known.

It is said that Clay had gone to bed in his room there and was sleeping peacefully when Burton came pounding up the stairs shortly after midnight. C. W. Johnson was in bed in a room close by and is practically the only witness as to what followed. His story is substantially as follows:

Burton went to Clay's door and pounded, "Go on away and let me alone," said the colored man. "Open this door or I'll bust it in," responded Burton. The next instant there was a crash and Burton was in the room with the colored man. It is said that Clay rose from the bed and was knocked back by a blow from Burton. Clay is an amateur pugilist, having appeared in the ring at Adelphi hall several times against Shine Reed and others and when he landed on Burton, the white man staggered backward through the door. The black was after him and when Johnson leaped out into the hall Clay had Burton on the floor and was pummeling him. Johnson interfered.

"Quit this scrapping," said Johnson, "The rest of us want to sleep," and reaching down he seized the colored man by the shoulder and pulled him from his prostrate opponent. The next instant Burton was on his feet.

"I'll kill you," he is reported to have said, and thrusting a thirty-two calibre revolver so close to the negro's body that the powder burned his shirt, he fired point blank at his breast. Johnson stood directly behind the negro and if Clay had ever dodged that bullet it would have hit Johnson full in the stomach. But it caught Clay in the shoulder and spun him half way round. With a cry he dashed for the stairway. Burton fired twice more but the negro ducked and dodged down the hallway and both bullets went over his head, smashing a window.

He escaped down the stairs and into the room occupied by Bishop who runs the place. Burton followed him downstairs but went out onto the street. Johnson not knowing that Clay had been hit, went to bed.

In the meantime Clay had told Bishop what had happened and a fellow named Brown who helps about the place went post haste after a policeman, and finding Assistant Neily Clark and Officer Blachford. They went to the place with him and found Burton in a street near by. He seemed to have been drinking very heavily. He made no resistance and was placed in jail in the city hall building. He refused to talk about the shooting and was equally as reticent the next morning.

Dr. Hawkey was called and attended to Clay's wound. Monday the bullet was located in the muscles near the shoulder blade and no attempt will be made to remove it unless it begins to make trouble.
