DELLA KIERNAN IN LEAD

Leading Candidates Change Places Once More.

MISS GIBBS STILL GAINING

The Prize, a Beautiful Diamond Ring, Is Again on Exhibition in the Exchange Bank Window.

When the judges met on Wednesday evening for the fifth official count in the REPUBLICAN'S Ladies' Diamond Ring contest, it was found that Miss Kiernan had again distanced her competitors.

The close rivalry between the two leaders renders any guess as to the outcome out of the question, while there is of course the chance that some third contestant may yet distance both of them.

One warning should be heeded by the friends of all parties—be sure to mark your coupons. Five coupons were thrown out this week because there was no name on them.

One contestant, Miss Libbie Brown, has requested that her name be withdrawn.

The prize, which has been on exhibition in M. W. Cole's bank in Kingston, once more occupies its old place in the window of the Exchange bank.

Undoubtedly it is the finest prize ever offered in the vicinity in a contest of this sort, and anyone can see at a glance that the stone is a valuable one. The offer of the publishers to give in its stead, its cash value of fifty-five dollars, should the winner so desire, is additional proof of its merit. All interested should take a look at it in the window of the bank.

The official count is as follows:

Della Kiernan	6452
Flora Buck	6378
Mildred Gibbs, Kingston	2270
Edyth Carpenter	1518
Della Geithman	200
Ella Hines	26
Total	16,844

RURAL CARRIER APPOINTED.

George G. DeWolf Received the Appointment as Carrier on Rural Free Delivery Route Number Two.

The Genoa Postmaster received word last Friday from the post-office department at Washington, announcing the appointment of Geo. DeWolf as carrier of Rural Free Delivery Number 2.

Mr. DeWolf will succeed J. H. Danforth, who has filled the position for over a year.

Dr. Danforth resigned on account of his duties and his large practice as veterinary surgeon. Mr. Danforth will be greatly missed on the route, but the pleasing ways of Mr. DeWolf will win the confidence of his patrons.

On the Move.

Mr. and Mrs. August Frederick last week moved their household effects to Genoa where they will make their future home. Mr. Frederick still retains the foremanship of the section here and will do so until a successor is appointed.—Kirkland Enterprise

Thanksgiving Day.

President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation declaring Thursday, November 27, to be Thanksgiving Day.

BUYS CREAMERY.

Ira J. Mix Dairy Company Has Bought the Clare Creamery.—Possession Was Given Tuesday.

The Clare creamery at Clare Station became the property of the Ira J. Mix Dairy company on Saturday of last week and possession was given by the former owner, Chas. Haunn, on Tuesday.

The factory receives the milk produce of seventy-four of the farmers of the vicinity and it is expected this number will be increased under the new management.

At one time the factory was receiving 2000 pounds of milk per day and it is hoped that this level may be reached again.

Jas. Hutchison of Genoa will have the factory in his charge.

DID NOT TAKE WOOD.

J. P. Brown Is Still the Possessor of Many Cords of Wood.—If You Want Wood See Him.

If part of your wood was carried off Hallowe'en night, J. P. Brown still has a large quantity. Inquire of him.

Fooled Again.

A Wauconda woman suspected that her husband was in the habit of kissing the hired girl and resolved to detect him in the act. Saturday night she saw him pass into the kitchen. The hired girl was out and the kitchen dark. The jealous wife took a few matches in her hand, and hastily placing a shawl over her head, as the hired girl often did, entered the back door, and immediately she was seized and kissed and embraced in an ardent manner. With heart almost bursting, the wife prepared to administer a terrible rebuke to the faithless spouse, and tearing herself away from his fond embrace, she struck a match, and stood face to face with—the hired man.—Ex.

The GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH Was Dedicated in Genoa, Illinois in 1895

The German Lutheran church and school are institutions dear to the hearts of the many German Americans in this vicinity. Rev. Molthan has made a very efficient pastor and teacher, and the church is in a flourishing condition. The services are well attended, and the good influences of the church are help to the religious life of the community.

The history of the German Lutheran congregation dates back to the time when Genoa's most substantial growth began, about the year 1878. Even at this time there were a goodly number of Germans living in this vicinity, some of whom had already embraced the doctrines of some church and some had not, as is the case everywhere.

The Christian Germans were obliged to go to Belvidere, Hampshire and Sycamore in order to hear the word of God discoursed from a Lutheran pulpit. This was very difficult on account of the long distance and the bad roads, especially in the severe winters. Therefore a num-a member of the Lutheran church at Seward, Neb. These men called the Hon. Prof. C. A. Selle, teacher in the seminary at Addison, DuPage Co., to preach, services then being held at the Advent church. In the autumn of 1880, Prof. Selle resigned his duties here on account of old age and engaged in his place Prof. J. Merkel, of Addison. In November 1880, he was properly installed as pastor. But the next year he accepted a call to Chicago, and, though the little flock was again left without a pastor and the future looked very dark for them, they did not despair, but resolved to build a church of their own. For this purpose they bought two lots, on one of which was a house which they decided to use as a parsonage as such a building was needed, they having decided to have a resident pastor who could devote his whole time here.

Therefore the Rev. J. W. Stiffen, at that time pastor at Clayton, Adams Co., was called here and installed as pastor by Rev. M. Grosse, of Harlem, Ill., in February, 1882. During his ten years here the congregation more than doubled, numbering at least fifty families. March 5, 1882, was a day of great rejoicing, for on that day the new church was dedicated to the holy Trinity, by the former pastor, Prof. Selle. The size of the new church was thirty-six feet long and twenty-four feet wide.

March 10, the congregation resolved to become incorporated. Articles of incorporation were filed, with John Lembke, August Teyler and Chris Awe named as trustees and Rev. J. W. Stiffen as secretary. The articles were recorded at Sycamore on May 18, 1882. On July 2, 1880, the present constitution and by-laws of the congregation were adopted, but Rev. Stiffen accepted a call to Algonquin and left here after ten years of most successful work, much to the regret of the congregation. The then vacant pulpit was filled by various neighboring ministers until a call to Genoa was accepted by Rev. Charles Ponitz of Sterling, Illinois.

REV. J. MOLTHAN, Pastor of German Lutheran Church.

Rev. Ponitz was installed as pastor by Rev. C. Cohn, of Belvidere, in May 1892. January 20, 1893, Rev. Ponitz resigned and his resignation was immediately accepted by the congregation. Soon after R. Piehler, then a student at the theological college at Springfield, this state, was sent here to take charge of the church until another local pastor could be secured. Rev. Sievers, of Rosedale, this state, received a call but on account of certain circumstances he failed to respond. A special meeting was held on February 19, 1893. The result was that R. Piehler was chosen pastor and although he could not accept until he had passed his examinations at Springfield, he preached here every alternate Sunday in the meantime. On July 2nd, 1893, Rev. Piehler was ordained and installed as minister here by the Hon. Prof. R. Peiper, of the Springfield Theological College. The congregation now rapidly increased in numbers and a new organ was purchased by the young people on December 10, 1894.

The present church building now being too small and the seating capacity entirely insufficient, a meeting was held on July 7, 1895, when it was unanimously decided to erect a new building which was to be fifty-six feet long, thirty-eight feet wide and twenty-two feet high, with a tower ninety feet high and galleries on three sides. For that purpose an acre of land was purchased of A. L. Holroyd for a consideration of $500. The building committee was composed of H. Stregle, W. Teyler, W. Schmidt, F. Ollman and H. Becker. Plans were drawn by Architect C. F. Dutton, of Genoa, and were accepted by the committee. After advertising for sealed bids, four were received, and the bid of C. F. Dutton, for $3,090, was accepted. Not included in this contract were the altar, pulpit, seats, bell, pinnacle on spire, window glass and all inside decorations, those articles being purchased outside of the contract.

The ground was broken on August 26, 1895, and the corner stone laid on September 3rd. The building was finished completely on December 12, 1895, and dedicated on December 15, the total cost of the structure being $4,390.

In July, 1901, Rev. R. Piehler accepted the call which was extended to him by the Evangelical Lutheran church of Fairbank, Ia. and left here after eight years of successful work and much to the regret of the congregation.

A call was extended to a pastor in Iowa but was not accepted. The congregation then unanimously voted to call Rev. J. Molthan, at that time pastor at Hinsdale, DuPage Co., Illinois. He had preached at Hinsdale for twelve years, and came here highly recommended. The installation took place on the second Sunday in September, 1901.

AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE

Two DeKalb County Ladies In North Dakota.

BRAVERY ON THE FRONTIER

Miss Jennie Beardsley, of Genoa, and Miss Bertha Nilson, of Sycamore, Frightened in Dakota.

Miss Bertha Nilson returned last week from Harvey, N. D. Out of Harvey about sixteen miles, Miss Nilson has a homestead claim and the law requires that she shall spend a certain portion of the year upon it. The nearest house is about a mile away. On the claim is a "shack" and there Miss Nilson and her friend, Miss Jennie Beardsley, of Genoa, spent six weeks together. One night they were awakened at a late hour by two men who asked for something to eat. The men hung on, likely for another purpose, but after they were told repeatedly that there was nothing in the house prepared they went away. Another night one or two men were prowling about outside. They were heard at the window. "What do you want?" Miss Beardsley called out. They still remained. The young ladies were armed with revolvers and finally Miss Nilson brought hers from under the pillow. Although the bullet she aimed at the window went through the roof, letting the Dakota starlight inside it had the desired effect as retreating footsteps could be heard after she fired. From that time on they were not molested, but it required a good deal of pluck to remain there after those experiences.—Sycamore City Weekly.

A BARN RAISING.

Many Gather Saturday Afternoon to Assist A. G. Stewart in Raising the Frame Work of a Large Barn.

Saturday afternoon on the Hewitt farm north of town were gathered over 100 men to assist A. G. Stewart in the raising and pinning together of the large timbers of a large barn in which stock will be fattened for the Chicago market.

The structure is of large dimensions and is in the form of a triangle.

When all the timbers of the frame work were placed in their proper places, two bushels of apples, two bunches of bananas, other fruits and cigars in abundance satisfied the participants.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING.

Held Monthly Meeting in Parlors of the M. E. Church Last Saturday Night. A Large Attendance Noted.
