That Mr. Sunday's preaching has been exceedingly beneficial to Genoa is beyond question and many regret that it was impossible for him to remain longer, but the arduous work compelled him to take a rest at once. He will be long remembered by many of our people.

Shirt Waists?

This is what Charley says about the shirt waist on a man.

"It makes me feel like saying D-n, with a capital D when I see a man in a shirt waist. A shirt waist on a feminine form is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. On a man it is an abomination and a terror to snakes. Just imagine yourself done up in a shirt waist and waiting in a shady nook for a fair friend. Along comes another bloke in a shirt waist to meet a lady friend in the same place. Each feels the presence of a shirt waist in the darkness before him and each falls into each others arms in silent adoration just as the moon comes over the hill and your lady friends appear on the scene. Or maybe you brush against a shirt waist in a dark hotel corridor lock it in a fond embrace thinking it contains the chambermaid only to get biffed in the gib for hugging the land-lord. Wouldn't that make you lay awake all night and listen to the night mare crunching the straw in your mattress?"

A Confidence Game.

He Scores Money Out of War Pensioners.

A pretending government officer has been squeezing money out of some of the war pensioners on the alleged ground that they were drawing a pension under a false claim. At New Lebanon this week he practiced it upon an old veteran of the war who is nearly 84 years old, telling him that his neighbors had reported to the pension department that his deafness upon which he based his claim was not satisfactory as there were several other members of his family who are afflicted with the same complaint and showed that the deafness was hereditary. That the fellow was a swindler is evident from the fact that he settled with the old soldier for a dollar and thirty five cents. Another man is said to have made a settlement of a similar nature for a dollar and fifty cents.

Why is it that some men can be scared into such things when their honesty would forbid them taking a pension unless it was just and right. It would appear by such doings that their claims were a little crooked, hence their willingness to be hoodoed out of their shillings.

New Revenue Law.

The stamp taxes imposed upon bank checks, promissory notes, telegrams, telephone messages, mortgages, leases, express receipts, money orders, proprietary medicines, etc. have all been repealed. Perfumery, cosmetics and chewing gum have also been released from the bondage of war taxation, while $10,000,000 have been cut off of beer.

Bank checks have yielded an annual revenue of $7,000,000, promissory notes almost $4,000,000. Telegrams at one cent each, have paid tribute to the extent of 750,000 dollars a year, and money orders a little more than 600,000 dollars a year. These two items give some idea of the business done by the country by wire and mail. Patent medicines have supplied almost 400,000 dollars a year of the war tax. Insurance, leases and mortgages have furnished another 400,000, and the extra tax on cigars and tobacco 10,000,000 dollars.

Having begun July 1st, some of these taxes will be collected in modified form. Beer drops from 2 dollars a barrel to 1.60, without the usual 7 1/2 per cent. discount. The special tax on cigars and cigarettes is reduced and the tax on legacies amended so as to not include legacies of charitable, religious, literary and educational institutions. Notwithstanding, these and lightening off of the millions, there still remain about 90,000,000 dollars a year which was imposed during the days when revenues were being provided with which to prosecute the war.

Here and There.

There are 805 Woodmen in Elgin.

The Woodmen of Hinckley are holding their annual picnic today.

The annual Farmer's Picnic at Burlington will be held August 17.

The Sycamore Advertiser last week was enlarged to a seven column quarto and in other ways shows good signs of progression. Great boys them: "Harvey and Rap."

The Genoa Camp of Woodmen have a committee at work trying to perfect an excursion from here to Rock Island. An exceedingly low rate has been obtained from the rail road company and the matter will be brought up before the camp tonight for further action.

Locomotive No. 1999 on the Pennsylvania division of the New York Central has been taken out of commission, after nearly forty years of constant service. The engine is famous because it drew the funeral train of Abraham Lincoln over the Cumberland railroad in 1864.

Stillman Valley has a woman so tender hearted she could not kill a chicken but being in a hurry she plucked it alive and when her husband came home had him cut its head off. Another lady who found a piece of bark in the sausage went to the butcher shop to ascertain what had become of the dog but the boss was unable to give any account of the animal further than the tale.

A letter was recently received in the postoffice of a neighboring town direct to the biggest fool in town. The postmaster was absent and on his return one of the clerks informed him of the receipt of the letter. The clerk told him he didn't know who was the biggest fool in town, so the postmaster opened it himself and written therein nothing but these words: "Thou art the man."

Aged Ones of Italy.
The recent Italian census records the fact that there are 392 persons in Italy over 100 years old; among them are sixteen monks and nuns.

Collecting Butterflies Alive.
In Japan they have a very simple way of collecting butterflies alive. They streak trees with phosphorous and saccharine matter, and then the butterflies in the night time are attracted, stick fast and are taken off.

Malaga Raisins.
Malaga raisins are famous all over the world. At present the production, which had grown smaller some years ago because of the ravages of the phylloxera, is on the increase. A good average crop would mean about one million two hundred boxes.

Hannis Taylor's Boom.
Three-fourths of the membership of the constitutional convention of Alabama have petitioned the board of trustees of the University of Alabama to elect Hannis Taylor its next president, "by reason of his prestige as a scholar at home and abroad, and his experience as a man of affairs."

Principal in Forty-Three Duels.
Mr. Laberdesque, who fought a duel with Max Regis in Paris recently, is only 27, but has seen many adventures.
He was born in Cuba, has fought several Central American revolutions and served with the Spahis in Algeria under the French flag. He has been a principal in forty-three duels with sword, yaghatan or pistol.

Familiar with European Statecraft.
The new Italian Ambassador to London, Sig. Alberto Panza, possesses an intimate knowledge of European statecraft. He graduated as a doctor of laws and entered upon a diplomatic course at once. He has filled junior appointments at the embassies of Athens, Bucharest, Berlin, Belgrade and Constantinople.

Marking Mason and Dixon Line.
The monuments of the famous Mason and Dixon boundary line between Pennsylvania and Maryland have suffered severely from the attacks of vandals, and they will soon be replaced with cast iron markers. Rapid progress is now being made on the relocation of the line. The eastern portion of the line was originally marked by stone monuments at equal distances of one mile. Twenty per cent of these stones have been removed or destroyed.

Courtesy of Dr. Parkhurst.
The well known Rev. Charles H.
Parkhurst of New York, makes a point of being very courteous to newspaper men and is always willing to be interviewed. He sets aside one hour each day to be at home to callers in general; but to newspaper men he is at home at nearly all times—except on Saturday night. That night he devotes to final preparation and thought for his work of the next morning, and his rule has been never to be at home after six o'clock on Saturday evening.

Mats Under Horses' Feet.
Frank Steltzmler, the driver of an express wagon in Denver, began the practice about two years ago of placing mats under the feet of his horses when they stood. He was actuated by a feeling of kindness to the animals, but it has brought him considerable business, and there is talk of the local expressmen's union asking all members to adopt the practice.

Goodwin Changed His Name.
Nat Goodwin, the comedian, has a brother who is known as J. A. Carson. He travels for a machinery house. He changed his surname, "because," says he, "if I traveled under my own I would be unable to transact any business. Nat has swarms of friends all over the country, and whenever one of them finds me out it's good-by to business for the day." Before becoming a drummer he was on the stage with his brother.

St. Dunstan and the Horseshoe.
The notion that the horseshoe is a protection against evil is as old as the hills. There is a legend that the devil one day asked St. Dunstan, who was noted for his skill in shoeing horses, to shoe his "single hoof." Dunstan, knowing who his customer was, tied him tightly to the wall and proceeded with his job, but purposely put the devil to so much pain that he roared for mercy. The saint at last consented to release him on condition that he never would enter a place where he saw a horseshoe displayed.

Noses—Handsome and Otherwise.
The value of a nose is a queer item to assess, but the Paris tribunal has performed the task. Mme. Nitod is to get 7,000 francs for the loss of hers, but we doubt if it is a fair compensation. She lost it last year in an accident to her cab. The horse took fright and Mme. Nitod jumped out, fell and literally broke her nose, and the cab company is condemned to pay. Does a schedule of rates exist for regulating the value of various noses? If so, it must be a ponderous tome. Their variety is so infinite. If it be true that no two blades of grass are alike, surely the same may be said of noses. The subject is pregnant with interest. Some noses one meets—take that, for instance, worn by the Venus de Milo, in the Louvre—are a "joy forever," while others, take, for instance, that of Coquelin in "Cyrano de Bergerac," are, well, not quite what one would like to live with, "at breakfast and always."
Paris.

Examine Many Ears.
The systematic examination of more than 40,000 pairs of human ears in England and France has resulted in some interesting conclusions. For one thing, it is ascertained that the ear continues to grow in the later decades of life; in fact, it appears never to stop growing until death.

Indians of the United States.
In the United States there are 268,- 000 Indians. Of this number 45,250 draw rations regularly, while 12,600 more are provided for at various times when unable to work or do not feel like it. In the latter class are included most of the Indians who have grown old and are deserted by their young relatives.

No Bullied Better Than He Knows.
The lesson had been about the prodigal son, and the entire Sunday school had been properly impressed. The superintendent rose at the close and, with a view of inculcating a highly moral lesson, asked: "Now, my little friends, who stood by objecting to this proposed banquet to the prodigal?" And a voice in a far corner answered, "The calf."—Philadelphia Press.

Young Women Walk Gracefully.
An eminent illustrator for the magazines claims that the fashionably walk of the young woman of the present is the most beautiful gait that has ever been devised. "Of course," he says, "you know the walk I mean? Chin in, chest out, stomach in, and shoulders, not thrown back, which is hideous but drooped forward, which is the height of graces."

Polish for Brown Shoes.
Lemon juice and milk well rubbed in make an excellent polish for brown shoes. Afterward rub with a soft duster. Stains may be removed by rubbing with methylated spirit. Polish afterward either with the lemon juice and milk or with the following cream: One ounce of muriatic acid, half an ounce of alum, half an ounce of spirits of lavender, half an ounce of gum arabic and half an ounce of skim milk.

Shipment of Mosquitoes.
A box addressed to the Academy of Natural Science in Washington and shipped from a small station in South Carolina was covered with gauze and was billed, "Four hundred mosquitos." The insects were quite lively when they arrived, and were apparently in as good health as when they started on their journey from South Carolina, where they were captured. The mosquitoes are, of course, for scientific investigation.

Fastest Boat in the World.
The Russian submarine boat designed by the engineer, Sakovenko, which expects to be able to cross the Atlantic from England to America in two and a half days, is being built, with the utmost secrecy, in a French port, says a St. Petersburg correspondent. The secret of the extraordinary speed of this boat lies in its peculiarity-constructed screw. The boat itself is in the shape of a double-pointed cigar.
It is expected that she will be ready in August next.

Japanese Emperor's Income.
The emperor of Japan has an allowance of something like $2,000,000 a year to keep up the imperial establishment. He has also a large private fortune, having invested in stocks and a great deal of wealth in land. At the close of the Chinese-Japanese war parliament voted his majesty 20,000,000 yen, an amount equal to 10,000,000 gold dollars, out of the indemnity paid by the Chinese as a mark of gratitude for his directing the naval and military operations.

Economic Value of Birds.
It is averred that the destruction of birds in France has produced disastrous effects upon agriculture, horticulture and the grape industry. In the Department of Herault alone, it has been calculated, the destruction of birds accustomed to feed upon insects costs a loss of more than 2,000,000 gallons of wine every year. Some birds consume about 600 insects each day, and a single insect-eating species, Monsieur Levat estimates, may be the means of saving 3,200 grains of wheat and 1,150 grapes per day.

No More Tips to Croupiers.
The tip question bothers Monte Carlo, too, and as a result of the laxity due to giving and taking tips eight croupiers have been dismissed and other employees of the gambling establishment have been disciplined. It all came about through the dispute which invariably arises when winnings are made by persons other than those connected with the "house." When the wheel stops on a winning number argument begins as to who really put his money on that number, and the croupiers naturally have been disin-clined to side against those who have tipped them liberally. The same is the case when the dispute is left with the presiding croupier. Of course the aggrieved player could go up higher and appeal to officers superior to the croup-ier, but this course usually is distasteful to gamblers. The spirit of dissatisfaction grows so strong that something radical had to be done, for the bank wins from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 a year from the players, besides what the players win from one another. Naturally enough, the managers of the bank have decided to allow the croupiers to take no tips whatever from any of the customers.—New York Press.

McCormick Harvesting Machine Co

The McCormick Right-Hand Binder

The Prosperous Farmer always has a has these Leading Points, Light Draft, Perfect Work, Simplicity, Durability.

The MAIN WHEEL although the strongest ever put on a harvesting machine, is lighter than the main wheels on other binders.

Three years ago a European Government tested the McCormick binder in the field for two weeks, with seven other American machines, to determine which used the least twine in binding a given amount of grain. After the most painstaking measurements it was found that nineteen balls of twine on the McCormick bound more grain than twenty balls on any other binder.

The McCormick New 4 Mower

Every Prosperous Farmer has a
McCORMICK

Is the only mower that gets all the grass. It is a very easy matter for a poorly constructed machine to run over a dollar's worth of grass on an acre, leaving it in stubble where it is lost. It is the only mower with a draft rod extending from the inner shoe to the shifting doubletrees.

The McCormick Corn Binder

has the greatest success from the fact that it cuts and binds in the vertical position the only practical way to handle big corn that grows in fertile spots in every field, also because of our "locked joint" conveyor chain, the only chain ever made that will handle the stiff and stubborn corn stalks.

The McCormick is the only machine that makes a square butted bundle. Corn stands on a level floor while the bundle is being shaped and bound. Square butted bundles stand up well in the shock, a great advantage in curing the fodder.

English Hold Foreign Mortgages.

Club the Oldest Weapon.

The oldest known weapon was the club. The clubs of the lake dwellers of Switzerland, studded with stones in default of nails, and thus making formidable weapons, have been recovered from their habitations.

Oil in Place of Coal.

Seven of the largest sugar refineries on Bayou Teche in St. Mary parish, near New Orleans, have decided to discontinue the use of coal in the manufacture of sugar and sent to New Orleans an agent to contract for the erection of the necessary oil tanks.

Wanted No Gloomy Mourning.

On learning of Adelbert Hay's melancholy fate the class to which he belonged decided to abandon an elaborate programme which had been arranged in connection with the university exercises. Secretary Hay heard of this intention and insisted that everything should go as had been intended, saying his son would so desire. The class consented and only one or two minor changes were made.

Lights for Westminster Abbey.

Westminster Abbey is to be lighted by electricity as soon as a plant can be erected. This, it is said, is chiefly because the continual use of gas has produced a chemical disintegration of the limestone walls, which resulted lately in the fall of several shafts.

Writers Are Poor Paymasters.

Mme. Robin's "Word of honor Free Loan Office" for literary men has come to grief. No interest was charged and no security required. Writers were ready enough to borrow, but the repayments were so small that after two years' experience Mme. Robin has closed the office.—London Letter.

Climbing the Jungfrau.

A newly wed pair named Hardy went from England to Switzerland and as a part of their wedding tour climbed the Jungfrau. The young bride did not complete the journey, for a heavy snowstorm overtook the party, and she, accompanied by one of the guides, retraced her steps. The groom persevered until he reached the top.

To Produce Anesthesia.

A new method for producing anesthesia was discussed at a recent meeting of the Medical Society of Berlin. Dr. Wohlgenuth has constructed an apparatus by which patients inhale chloroform mixed with oxygen. ### Poet May Become Oil Magnate.

Joaquin Miller is likely to become an oil magnate within the next few months. A few years ago, while lecturing in Texas, the poet made a good deal of money and invested it in a tract of 700 acres. He let the land alone and is now told that oil has been found on all sides of his property and that his tract of 700 acres is supposed to be in the best part of the oil belt.

England Loses Her Greatest Publisher.

By the death of George M. Smith at the ripe age of 77 England has lost the greatest of her publishers. Mr. Smith was a link between the great writers of nineteenth century authors and the people. Mr. Smith had been the publisher and personal friend of Darwin, Ruskin, Thackeray, Charlotte Bronte, Matthew Arnold, Mrs. Gaskell, Anthony Trollope, George Meredith, Thomas Hardy and Frank T. Bullen.

Bishop of London's Salary.

The bishop of London's salary is $50,000 a year, and the rates, taxes, insurance and maintenance of his two large residences can scarcely be less than 15 per cent on that sum, so that his income is at once reduced to $42,500. Few probably realize the expense of a bishop of London in the first year. Fees, payments for the furniture of the palace and a variety of other costs and charges leave a comparatively small margin for other expenses.

Gown.

The Comtesse de Castellane wore an amazing costume the other day at the salon. Her dress was of periwinkle blue and it had decided paniers on the hips and a straight skirt falling on very high-heeled shoes, so high, indeed, that the coquettish canne a bequille in tortoise shell, which she carried in her hand, looked absolutely necessary to enable her to stand and walk. Her head dress was a tricorn, made entirely of periwinkles and foliage.

Will Keep Mum Hereafter.

A farmer named Kropff, in Dickinson county, Kansas, declared early in the spring that God informed him that the wheat crop this year would be a failure, and to prove his belief in the revelation he sold his own wheat crop for $1 an acre. The crop having turned out to be phenomenally large, he was asked the other day to say something in regard to the matter, and replied: "I take it as a dispensation from the Lord not to talk so much, and to keep to myself hereafter what He tells me."

Big Tips Demoralize Waiters.

There is one form of wealth which is distinctly reprehensible, the kind that distributes big tips along the summer routes of travel. It is done for display. The man who has made a strike wants to show off and his way of doing it is with five-dollar gold pieces, or manificence of that common sort. The extravagance simply demoralizes waiters. It is no good to the hotels or restaurants, and it makes everybody else who has not five-dollar gratuities to distribute less comfortable.—Philadelphia Times.
