BIG MUSCALLENGE

G. E. Stott Returns from North With Two Fine Specimens

G. E. Stott, who accompanied the party to the lakes of Northern Wisconsin two weeks ago, returned last week, not laden with big stories of the ones that got away, but with the real goods to show all Missourians. He had two of the finest specimens of muscallonge that ever was caught with the alluring spoon. Mr. Stott had the two fish cut up into steaks and delivered them to his friends about town.

One was caught by the judge and the other by E. C. Crawford. The monsters measured forty-eight inches in length, twenty-two inches around and four inches between the eyes, weighing thirty two pounds each.

NAMED AS DELEGATE

Schweinfurth, the Former Rockford Merchant, Picked by Governor Deneen

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 28.—Governor Deneen yesterday appointed Geo. F. Schweinfurth of Rockford, Illinois, delegate to the American mining congress to be held October 16, in Denver.

The First Frost

The first frost of the season visited Genoa Sunday night, and it was a bumper for a starter, following four inches of rain which fell during the two days previous. If it had frozen everything stiff little damage would have resulted as corn is nearly if not all out of the way. By the way, the corn crop is a hummer, the entire season having been in its favor. Pastures during the past month have been done to that brown which is not beautiful in the eyes of the farmer, but the recent rain has done wonders in starting the grass again. If no severe cold weather comes cattle can graze to their hearts' content for some time.

Blind Pigs at Sandwich

Two interesting liquor cases from Sandwich will come up for hearing in the county court next Monday. The city of Sandwich went dry in the spring election and a little later two citizens of that place were brought before the city court charged with selling intoxicants under a soft drink label. There was a long trial, many witnesses being examined on both sides. One of the cases resulted in conviction and the other in a hung jury. The states attorney is now bringing action in the county court.

ALL MUST REGISTER

See that Your Name is on the List if You Wish to Vote in November

The board of registration will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 16, and make a list of persons qualified and entitled to vote at the election in November. The board will enter in the list the names of all persons residing in Genoa township, whose names appear on the poll list kept in the district at the last preceding election. The board will also enter in addition to the names on the poll list the names of all other persons who are well known to them to be electors in the district. The names of those who have died or removed from the township will be omitted from the register.

The board will meet again one week before election, Tuesday, Oct. 30, and be in session from nine o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon. The proceedings of the board shall be open, and all persons residing and entitled to vote in the district shall be entitled to be heard by the board in relation to corrections or additions. Those persons who did not vote in Genoa at the last general or state election should call on the board and have their names registered if they wish to vote in November. It would behoove all voters to make sure their names are on the list. Do not fail to give the matter attention on Tuesday, Oct. 30.

They Are Grateful

The officers of the local W. C. T. U. wish to express their thanks to all who so kindly helped in entertaining the convention last week. To all of the committees who worked so faithfully to provide refreshments for the delegates and visitors and to the kind friends who do not belong to our society for their offered hospitality and help in entertaining delegates and visitors and especially did we appreciate the words of welcome given our convention. The suggestions by Mr. Stout that we make our work practical was well received by the convention and we will try and act upon it. Many thanks are also due Mr. Schoonmaker for his kindness in printing the notices and other matter for us which he has always done so kindly and freely. Thank you one and all. THE OFFICERS.

A High Building

The 41-story sky-scraper now being built in New York is supposed to be the limit for the present. It will be 625 feet high, or 70 feet higher than the Washington monument; the Eiffel tower in Paris being the only construction of greater height. New York has bed rock for foundations, an advantage not enjoyed by all building locations. In most countries public policy would run against such altitudes business construction, so that it is likely to be some time before the New York Singer building has a rival.

Butter 24 and Half

Windsor offered 23 tubs of butter on the board of trade Monday, and the lot was bought by Wood at 25 cents per pound. The output for this district was reported as 691,000 pounds, and the market was declared firm at 24½ cents. Former markets:

Sales.	Price
Sept. 24, 1906.....	50 24½c.
Oct. 2, 1905.....	0 21c.
Oct. 2, 1904.....	50 20c.
Oct. 5, 1903.....	95 20½c.
Oct. 6, 1902.....	40 22½c.

The New York market was reported steady at 25 cents. Oil stoves and heaters, all sizes and all prices at Perkins & Rosenfeld's.

CABBAGE CROP A FAILURE

Large Number of Butterflies are Destroying the Crop in Southern Wisconsin

The cabbage crops of Racine and Kenosha counties are doomed to destruction this year on account of the millions of butterflies that have swarmed through the counties during the last few days. They are fast destroying the cabbage. Every patch is literally covered with the pest and there is no way to prevent the destruction of the plants.

It is said that a girl over at Richmond is so modest that she always turns her head when she sees the salad dressing.

There is a man out of town that has a self binder that runs without horses. All he has to do is to hitch on a team of mules.

Praise be. It is said the apple crop is going to be so large it will be next to impossible for any speculative sharks to corner it.

Tom Hart, T. J. Brannen's bartender at Sycamore, was fined $20 and costs last week for selling liquor to an habitual drunkard.

Burke, two well known Elgin men, are facing the penitentiary, as a result of an assault upon Alburina Ingman, a Swede girl, employed as a domestic at the Northern Illinois hospital for the insane. WILL ENLARGE STORE

John Lembke to Make More Room for Growing Business

Despite the fact that John Lembke has been in his new building less than two years, he finds that he now lacks room to transact his growing business with entire satisfaction to himself and customers. To overcome the difficulty he has decided to enlarge his store room. To do this he will utilize the rear rooms on the second floor which have been occupied by J. E. and G. E. Stott as real estate and law offices. The Messrs Stott now have fine quarters in the rooms over F. E. Wells store.

An open stairway will lead from the first floor in Mr. Lembke's store to the rooms above where he will keep his stock of dishes, ladies' cloaks and skirts.

In the spring an addition may be built to the rear of the second story to correspond with the first which extends about twenty feet further toward the alley.

SEVERELY INJURED

Chas. Duval Falls onto Handle of Pitch Fork Friday

Chas. Duval met with an accident last Friday evening which, altho not resulting fatally, will lay him up for some time.

In falling from the hay mow he landed on a pitch fork, the handle striking him in the abdomen. The bruise alone would have been painful, but he fell with such force as to cause a rupture. Dr. Austin was called and found it necessary to take several stitches in closing the wound. At this time Duval is confined to his bed and must remain quiet while the healing process is going on.

Sensation at Hinckley

According to the Hinckley Review a pathetic little tragedy was enacted in that town recently. Robert Combs, a young man who had been working at the carpenter trade about there for six months became intoxicated and was taken to his room in the hotel. Thursday morning he was found dead from strangulation by accident. It was found he came from a prominent family of Glasgow, Kentucky, had received a college education, having graduated from three different colleges, and was private secretary to Chief Justice J. P. Hodson, of Kentucky, after which he became a lawyer of uncommon ability. Drink blighted his career and brought him to an untimely end.

Nunda gets One

Citizens of Nunda and Crystal Lake are enthusiastic over the prospect of lagging a big factory. George Bonnell, industrial agent of the Northwestern road, conferred with leading citizens a few days ago on the proposition. The factory wants about 65 acres within the corporate limits of Crystal Lake, but will not ask a bonus.

THE PURE FOOD LAW

ILLINOIS STATE FOOD COMMISSION GETTING BUSY

DEKALB COUNTY MERCHANTS

Are Unintentional Violators of the New Law—Wholesalers Should Suffer

Sycamore Tribune: On Monday State's Attorney Burst filed in the County Court some 14 cases of information against various dealers in food products in DeKalb, Sycamore and Genoa. This action is taken at the option of the State Food Commission, which is enforcing the food law throughout the state in a vigorous manner, actions having been filed against dealers in every county, where inspectors have been at work. The laws are designed to protect the public against adulterated articles of food and drink of all kinds. Of course there is no intent on the part of the dealers to violate the law and as will be seen by the cases which follow the chemical analyses necessary to the detection of goods not up to the required standard, no merchant could well be expected to keep sufficiently posted in regard to the exact requirements of the new law. Undoubtedly the dealer imposed upon, after payment of a nominal fine, will have recourse on the wholesaler who originally furnished the goods. Following are the cases filed in the cities above named:

M. P. Anderson, DeKalb. Sample bought April 2 for lemon extract. Analysis shows "No oil of lemon shown by HCL test; contains less than 25 per cent alcohol. Not legal."

S. Carlson, DeKalb. Sample bought April 2 for pepper. Analysis shows: "Fiber 18.38; ash 7.61; adulterated with fiber, a few olive stones and some sand."

C. S. Brown, Sycamore. Sample bought March 22 for cider vinegar. Analysis shows: "Absolute acetic acid 4.82; total solids 1.421; ash 0.183. Not legal. Low in solids and ash."

Hammond & Son, Sycamore. Sample bought March 22 for cloves. Analysis shows: Ash 12.82; fiber 13.68; foreign fiber. Adulterated." Also sample bought March 21 for pepper. Analysis shows: "Ash 0.9; fiber 19.33. Excessive amount of fiber. Adulterated."

Sivwright, Johnson & Co., Sycamore. Sample bought March 22 for white vinegar. Analysis shows: "Acid 0.3; low in acid."

Sanford & Brown, Sycamore. Sample bought March 22 for lemon extract. Analysis shows: "0.41 oil of lemon. Not legal."

T. M. Frazier, Genoa. Sample bought August 14 for pepper. Analysis shows: Ash 7.32; fiber 21.78. Contaminated with foreign fiber and tissue. Not legal."

Sample bought August 14 for lemon extract. Analysis shows: "No lemon oil."

F. E. Wells, Genoa. Sample bought August 14 for black pepper. Analysis shows: "Ash 5.64; fiber 20.60. Contaminated with foreign fiber and tissue." Sample bought August 14 for lemon extract. Analysis shows: "No oil."

Oleson, Whittemore & Walrod, Sycamore. Sample bought March 22 for cider vinegar. Analysis shows: Low in solids and ash—solids 1.115; ash 0.165. Not legal."

Sivwright, Johnson & Co., Sycamore. Sample bought March 22 for cider vinegar. Analysis shows: "Low in solids and ash—solids 1.203; ash 0.150. Not legal."

S. Carlson, DeKalb. Selling illegal cloves, Selling illegal vinegar.

George Cheney, DeKalb. Selling illegal extract.

Leslie Department store, DeKalb. Selling illegal vinegar.

M. Anderson, DeKalb. Selling illegal extract.

As stated above, the retail merchants are innocent of intentions to violate the law. They buy the goods of the wholesaler in good faith and the latter should be made to pay dearly for the deception. The merchants mentioned above are not the only violators in the county. In doing its work the commission simply picks out places at random as object lessons to others.

Information was filed in the county court at Geneva last week by State's Attorney Frank Reid against nine grocers in the county charging them with the sale of impure food. Four of the alleged violators of the pure food law are from Elgin. All the cases will be prosecuted within a few days.

THE CONVENTION

Large Number of W. C. T. U. Members in Genoa Last Week

The W. C. T. U. county convention which was held here last week was well attended, about 50 delegates and visitors from other places being present, besides a good attendance from Genoa and vicinity. The program as printed was carried out with some few additions and alterations.

The address of welcome the first afternoon from our school superintendent and others cheered us and made us feel that it was a grand thing to belong to an organization that could be welcomed in so hearty a manner by the one person in Genoa who has the moulding of our children's lives more than any other one person except the parents. The welcome from E. H. Olmsted, representing the Sabbath schools, the churches and the mayor, was also very cheering to all present as well as the welcome given by our local president, Mrs. Susie Holroyd. The responses were all hearty and given in a happy manner.

The contests held Wednesday evening were both good and considering the time the contestants had to prepare for the silver medal, it was exceedingly good. Some of those who were to play in the musical contest being unable to be here, the oratorical was substituted, and the girls deserve great praise. Lewis McGirr of DeKalb won the gold medal and Miss Alice Fryberg of DeKalb won the silver.

Mrs. Lake was an inspiration to us after her arrival Thursday morning, helping in the convention in the forenoon and in the afternoon speaking to the scholars. Her grand lecture in the evening dealt fairly and fearlessly with the great problems of the day with which we are confronted and yet in such a manner that it could not offend anyone whether they agreed with her or not.

Nearly all the old officers were re-elected, showing that good work had been done the past year, which was also shown by the reports of the superintendents of the different departments.—Contributed.

Will Sell Cows

In addition to the stock for sale in H. H. Shurtleff's auction bill, he will put up seven milk cows and one bull. Sale takes place Wednesday, Oct. 10.

W. D. Eppstein, one of the proprietors of the Arlington Hotel at DeKalb has leased the vacant store room next to the National bank and is having it fitted up for a vaudeville theater. The stage is to be 14 x 21 and there is to be a small gallery in the north end.

APPOINTMENTS MADE

REV. T. E. REAM RETURNS TO GENOA FOR FIFTH YEAR

ELGIN IN JOLIET DISTRICT

Made Necessary by Growth of Rockford District—Rev. J. E. DeLong Goes to Greenwood, McHenry Co.

The Rock River conference of 1906 has ended and, as near as can be ascertained, with satisfaction to all. This year the bishop has given all preachers a hearing and as near as possible, without injury to the cause, tried to make all appointments agreeable to the minister as well as the congregations. The fact that Rev. Ream comes back to serve his fifth year is pleasing to the official board of the church as the request was made unanimously. The congregation as a whole will also be pleased.

Rev. J. E. DeLong who has been the assistant in Genoa for the past two years has been appointed to Greenwood, McHenry County. Greenwood is a small hamlet located north-east of Woodstock, but it has a large congregation, it being a great Methodist community.

Rev. C. A. Briggs goes to Blaine up near the Wisconsin line. It is a good field and one which Rev. Briggs will more than fill.

Compared with some previous sessions the conference this year was conducted with marked harmony.

Owing to the fact that the Rockford district has grown so rapidly of late years there have been some changes made to balance up the work between the presiding elders. The most important change was made in placing Elgin in the Joliet district.

In a discussion relative to the pay of preachers, Rev. W. B. Leach said:

"The so-called first grade preachers are almost over-well paid. I refer to grade as represented by churches. The first grade preachers as to usefulness or talent are underpaid. Their pay for Christ's work is not here, but yonder. As to preachers as a whole they are well paid. They have the best job in the world and ought to be thankful."

Following is a list of appointments of particular interest to Genoa people:

Samuel Earny, Presiding Elder. Genoa, T. E. Ream and G. W. Tyler.

Kingston and Davis, W. H. Tuttle.

Kirkland, J. E. Anderson. Sycamore, E. D. Hull.

Hampshire, B. W. Ward. Belvidere, Claude S. Moore.

Capron, M. S. Freeman. Marengo, C. G. Schutz.

Fairdale, C. E. Coon. Harvard, E. K. D. Hester.

Plato Center, Thos. Gee. Rockford Winnebago street, F. B. Hardin.

Rockford Epworth, C. A. Briggs. Union and Franklinville, Jonathan Thompson.

Shirland, J. M. Cormack. Lighthouse and Chana, A. W. Hetrick.

Sterlin, First Church, E. J. Rose. Cortland, R. C. Doenges.

DeKalb, D. M. Thompkins. Oakland, A. T. Horn.

Downers Grove, F. F. Earmiloe.

In a dying condition, with his pockets turned inside out, and evidently felled with a heavy club, Albert C. Adams, chief electrician of the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago railroad, was discovered behind a clump of bushes near the Northwestern railroad station in Elgin Friday. He is expected to recover.

SCHOOL VISITATION.

During the year beginning July 1, 1905, and ending June 30, 1906, he has visited every graded school in the county, and every ungraded school, except District No. 143. Number of schools visited more than once during the year, 15; number of schools visited more than twice during the year, 12.

Out of 8,338 persons in De Kalb county under 21 years of age, 6,886 were enrolled in the public schools, of which 4,288 were in graded schools and 2,598 were in ungraded schools.

This shows an increase of number of pupils in graded schools over the preceding year of 161 and a decrease in the number of pupils in the ungraded schools of 69.

Number of school districts having libraries 140
Number of school districts having no libraries 23
Number of volumes in school libraries 19,250

This shows an increase of 4,494 volumes in school libraries during the past year.

Total value of libraries... $11,000 00
There are 152 comfortable and fairly well furnished school houses in De Kalb county and 11 that are unsanitary and otherwise unfit for school use.

There are only two school districts that find it difficult to maintain a six months school.

Your committee further find that the county superintendent since the June report has spent five days in school visitation, seven days in examinations, six days in teacher's institute and 58 days in office work, and that there is now due him from the state treasury three hundred and nine dollars ($309) in lieu of services for the same.

Your committee recommend that this board audit said account and that it be certified by the county clerk.

We further find that there is due the said county superintendent for expenditures as follows:

June 19, 1906, Houghton, Mifflin & Co., merchandise	$12 00
July 16, 1906, Miller & Curran, office supplies	75
July 1, 1906, M. A. Donohue, merchandise	2 00
Ellen W. Hopkins, 72 days office work	180 00
Jennie E. Little, stenography	25 00
C. M. Parker, course of study	3 75
Pantagraph Pub. Co., certificates	3 00
W. M. Welch & Co., mdse.	4 50
Book account	39 16
Making a total of	$270 16

We recommend that the said amount be allowed and that an order be drawn in favor of Lewis M. Gross upon the county treasurer for two hundred and seventy dollars and sixteen cents ($270.16).

After examining vouchers, books and papers in the county superintendent's office we find the same correct. Respectfully submitted,

WM. VON OHLEN,
Chairman.
R. F. HAMPTON,
Chairman.
J. E. STOTT,
Chairman.

Report accepted and adopted on motion of Mr. Von Ohlen.

Mr. Winne presented and read the following report:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board of Supervisors.

Your committee on poor farm beg leave to submit the following report:

That they have visited the poor farm and find matters in good condition under the management of Mr. Frank Bastian.

From the report of Superintendent Holland, which is herewith submitted and found correct.

There has been received from all sources since our last report $4,513 14

And expended $4,190 51

Leaving a balance in the hands of the superintendent $322 63

There is considerable land partly on the old farm and partly on the land last purchased that is wet and cannot be used until tilled, and your committee would recommend that the superintendent be instructed to tile out that part of the land in order to have it cultivated, as we consider land at $150 per acre too valuable to lie idle.

Your committee would further recommend that about 300 rods of new fence, woven wire with barbed wire on top, be built to make the farm available in good shape. The cost of said fence will be approximately $125.

Respectfully submitted,

C. WINNE,
Chairman.
J. E. STOTT,

THE BOOK THAT PLEASED.

Papa Plays a Low Down Literary Trick on Mamma.

"Boys will be boys, but some of us have been on earth so long that we forget the pleasures that appealed to us in the days of our youth," observed a well known public official in the federal building recently.

"I think I can best illustrate the truth of this fact by relating a story of what happened in a family of my friends.

"When little Willie went to bed the other night he was careful to hang up his juvenile pants so that the pockets would be turned to the wall. The action caught the eye of his fond mother and she proceeded to investigate as soon as Morpheus had lulled the youngster to sweet and gentle dreams.

"Instead of finding a deck of cards, a cornucopia or real revolver, as she had fearfully anticipated, the good woman found, to her mind, something a whole lot worse—a blood and thunder novel, one of the kind that deals in daring adventures, mushy love and heroes by the peck. But you know the style. You have read them. So have I, 10,000 or more.

"The horrified mother made no attempt to hide the awful pain that flickered around her beating heart, and flying downstairs three steps at a time dashed into the library.

"Oh, Harry," she cried in a tone of pure anguish to her husband, "look at this awful thing I found in the pocket of Willie's trousers!" "That won't hurt him," said Harry without going into the spell of spasms seemingly necessary on such occasions.

"But still," he added reflectively, "I guess I had better take care of it." Papa stuck the obnoxious novel in his pocket, and then followed a long parental discourse on the ethics of training the rising generation in the way it should grow. A few evenings later, after little Willie had been put to bed, the husband turned to his wife with a cheery smile.

"Minnie," said he, "I picked up a rare piece of literature today, and thought perhaps if you had nothing else on hand I would read it to you." "All right, I don't mind," replied the wife, who probably thought she had no alternative.

"So papa began to read and mamma became intensely interested. The clock struck midnight, and papa dropped the book with a sigh.

"It's getting late, dear. We will finish the book tomorrow night."

"There are only a few more chapters, Harry," pleaded the wife, "and I really can't sleep until I know how the story turns out."

"Thus encouraged papa continued reading, and did not stop until the end was reached.

"Well, Minnie, what do you think of it?" he asked as he laid the work aside.

"Fine," answered Minnie. "Where did you ever get it?" "It's the book you found in the pocket of Willie's pants," was the smiling rejoinder.—Indianapolis Star.

THE WORD "FEMALE."

Why Should It Be Contemptuously Turned Out of Doors?

The fortunes of words, indeed, are subject to as many vicissitudes as the fortunes of individuals. But there is perhaps no one term which just now deserves more commiseration for the hard fate which has befallen it than the substantive "female" used as a synonym for "woman." It is turned out of doors by every corrector of the press. It is contemptuously spoken of as a vulgarism. Modern ignorance has sometimes styled it a modern vulgarism.

Both as a substantive and as an adjective "female" goes back to the fourteenth century, but though then occasionally employed as a synonym for "woman," such usage can hardly be called common. Still it is found. The Wycliffe translation of the Bible, for illustration, reads in the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew that two women shall be grinding at a quern, the one to be taken, the other left. But in the polemic treatise Wycliffe wrote, expounding this same chapter, the two "women" of the gospel appear as two "females." The word turns up occasionally from that time during the three centuries that follow.

It is clear that the elder writers, born and brought up amid the linguistic traditions of the earlier half of the nineteenth century, were not in the slightest degree under the influences now prevalent and that the disrepute into which the word has fallen is mainly the work of the last thirty years. It is hard to tell under what circumstances the feeling of dislike to it arose or what were the main determining agencies that brought about the existing today. If the remark will not seem invidious, I am inclined to attribute the disfavor in which it is now held to the ill will entertained and expressed toward it by the members of the sex it denotes. It may be said that they ought to have a determining voice in choosing the appellations by which they are designated.—Thomas R. Lounsbury in Harper's for August.

Furriers' Signs.

Nine furriers out of ten use a big, black stuffed bear for an advertising sign. "It is because the bears last longer than anything else," explained one dealer. "Of all the animals in New York I don't know of any that have a harder time than those that stand outside furriers' stores, winter and summer, and try to drum up trade for their employers. It doesn't make any difference what kind of weather comes along, whether it blows hot or blows cold, those fellows have to stand at their post and swelter or freeze as the case may be. Naturally all these changes are pretty hard on their hide and none but bears can stand the strain. Some furriers have tried the fox, lynx and other animals as a venture, but they have come back to the bear as the most satisfactory of the lot. They cost more too. A good stuffed bear comes as high as $75, but if he is treated right he will last for twenty-five years, so that brings him down to a comparatively low price after all."—New York Post.

No New Thing.

The tendency of some women to ape men in their dress, far from being modern, is as old as the Sphex at least, if not older, and Addison in an essay comments upon it with gentle humor.

A lady dressed according to the fashion of the advanced woman of the time, in a man's hat, periwig and riding coat met a tenant of Sir Roger de Coverley. She asked whether a house near at hand were not Coverley Hall.

The man, seeing only the male part of his querist, replied, "Yes, sir."

But upon the further question, whether Sir Roger was a married man, chancing to drop his eye to the lady's skirt, the embarrassed man changed his note to "No, madam."—London Spectator.

He Objected.

A worthy man who was very sensitive and retiring, having lost his wife, privately requested that he might be remembered in the minister's morning prayer from the pulpit, but asked that his name might not be mentioned. On Sunday morning the good minister prayed most eloquently for "our aged brother upon whom the heavy hand of sore affliction has so lately fallen."

At this point an elderly man, whom the minister had married to a very young wife during the week, rose with a bounce and stamped down the aisle, muttering loud enough to be heard all over the chapel, "It may be an affliction, but I'm blest if I want to be prayed for in that fashion!"—Pearson's Weekly.

LIVE STOCK SHOW

To be Held in Chicago During First Week in December

The International Live Stock Exposition will be held in Chicago this year beginning Saturday, Dec. 1, and ending Saturday, Dec. 8.

The views of agricultural college men and breeders and feeders on live stock subjects are worth reading carefully, especially along educational lines, so that in giving our readers an interview with Prof. G. E. Day of Guelph, Canada, on the great International, it will be appreciated. Prof. Day said:

"One of the most encouraging features of the International is the enthusiasm it inspires in the minds of the young men who attend it, especially the young men from agricultural colleges, whose interest in live stock has already been stimulated by enthusiastic teachers. That which touches the young is a mighty force in the land, and who can estimate the influence the International is bound to exert in years to come, when these young men become leaders in their respective communities. Enthusiasm is infectious; example is greater than precept, and the forces set in motion in Chicago during International week are bound to make themselves felt sooner or later, directly or indirectly, in every stock-raising district on the continent.

"With such magnificent new quarters which it now occupies, and with such efficient management to shape its destiny, the International is bound to pass into history as one of the greatest forces at work in the interests of stock farmers."

Marriage Troubles

Augustana Palmer, of Hinckley, has filed in the circuit court a bill for divorce from Dwight S. Palmer. They were married November 25, 1892, at Minneapolis, and lived together until May 12, 1893, when he deserted her. She asks for the custody of their only child, a son aged 13 years.

Anna Christiansen, of Pierce, says in a bill for divorce filed in the circuit court that she was married April 11, 1898 at Chicago to Nels Christiansen and lived with him until August 12, 1906. She was obliged to leave him because of cruelty, claiming that he even knocked her down and rendered her insensible. She says he has $1,200 in personal property, $300 in cash and earns $75 a month as a ditcher and she asks that herself and their child three years old, of which she asks the custody, be provided for out of his property.—True Republican.

Woodmen Lose Suit

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a decision handed down last week in Sioux City, Ia., in which Judge Reed of the United States court sustained a demurrer which prevents the head banker of the Modern Woodmen of America from collecting $100,000 and interest from E. H. McCutcheon & Co., or their bondsmen.

The McCutcheon bank failure at Holstein, Ia., four years ago was a great sensation. E. H. McCutcheon was a northwest Iowa political leader, and prominent in business. He died, it is thought, from worry, and his bank closed the day after his death. It was shown that A. N. Bort, then head banker of the Modern Woodmen of America, had deposited $100,000 with McCutcheon, a strong lodge man.

The head lodge has been fighting for this money ever since, sensational charges of fraud being made by both the bondsmen and Woodmen.

Those Malta Girls

Ash Taylor is becoming a full-fledged tourist Tuesday he took advantage of the excursion to Clinton, Iowa, and on returning his attention became centered on a fair damsel from Malta, evidently, for he got off the train at Malta thinking it was DeKalb, and he calmly watched the train depart as a red-necked swain walked off with the girl. A kind liveryman finally brought him back to Sycamore—Sycamore True Republican.

A cold is much more easily cured when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold out of the system in young or old. Sold by Hunt's Pharmacy.

Plans for a big increase in membership and the erection of a home of its own, are the ambition of Silver Leaf camp 60, Modern Woodmen, of Elgin. The meeting Friday night was in many ways the most important which has been held in a long time. The quarterly report of the managing committee showed the lodge to be in a flourishing condition. At present there are 922 members, all but 20 of whom are entirely paid up.

Congressman Charles E. Fuller of Belvidere, representative of the district including Winnebago county, has nominated Lucien Byron Green, of Rockford, as a midshipman cadet at the United States Naval academy at Annapolis, to succeed Damon E. Cummings, of Belvidere, who has just graduated.

Mrs. Carteret was propped among the cushions of a divan with a book. Her daughter occupied the undivided half of a tete-a-tete chair with a blonde athlete in a clerical coat and a reversed collar. Miss Virginia was sitting alone at a window, but she rose and came to greet the visitor.

"How good of you to take pity on us," she said, giving him her hand. Then she put him at one with the others: "Aunt Martha you have met; also Cousin Bessie. Let me present you to Mr. Calvert, Cousin Billy, this is Mr. Adams, who is responsible in a way for many of my Boston-learned gauderies."

Aunt Martha closed the book on her finger. "My dear Virginia!" she protested in mild deprecation; and Adams laughed and shook hands with Rev. William Calvert and made Virginia's peace all in the same breath.

"Don't apologize for Miss Virginia, Mrs. Carteret. We were very good friends in Boston, chiefly, I think, because I never objected when she wanted to—er—to take a rise out of me." Then to Virginia: "I hope I don't intrude?"

"Not in the least. Didn't I just say you were good to come? Uncle Somerville tells us we are passing through the famous Golden Belt, whatever that may be—and recommends an easy chair and a window. But I haven't seen anything but stubble-fields—dis- tantly wet stubble-fields at that. Won't you sit down and help me watch them go by?"

Adams placed a chair for her, and found one for himself.

"Uncle Somerville—am I to have the pleasure of meeting Mr. Somerville Darrah?"

Miss Virginia's look was non-committal.

"Quien sabe?" she queried, ailing her one westernism before she was fairly in the longitude of it. "Uncle Somerville is a law unto himself. He had a lot of telegrams and things at Kansas City, and he is locked in his den with Mr. Jastrow, dictating answers by the dozen, I suppose."

"Oh, these industry colonels!" said Adams. "Don't their tollings make you ache in sheer sympathy sometimes?"

"No, indeed," was the prompt rejoinder; "I envy them. It must be fine to have large things to do, and to be able to do them."

"Degenerate scion of a noble race!" jested Adams. "What ancient Carteret of them all would have compromised with the necessities by becoming a captain of industry?"

She broke him with a mocking laugh. "You were born a good many centuries too late, Mr. Adams; you would have fitted so beautifully into decadent Rome."

"No—thanks. Twentieth-century America, with the commercial frenzy taken out of it, is good enough for me. I was telling Winton a little while ago—"

"Your friend of the Kansas City station platform?" she interrupted. "Mightn't you introduce us a little less informally?"

"Beg pardon, I'm sure—yours and Jack's: Mr. John Winton, of New York and the world at large, familiarly known to his intimates—and they are precious few—as 'Jack W.' As I was about to say—"

But she seemed to find a malicious satisfaction in breaking in upon him.

"Mr. John Winton; it's a pretty name, as names go, but it isn't as strong as he is. He is an 'industry colonel,' isn't he? He looks it."

The Bostonian avenged himself for the interruption at Winton's expense. "So much for your woman's intuition," he laughed. "Speaking of idlers, there is your man to the dotting of the 'i,' a dilettante raised to the nth power."

Miss Carteret's short upper lip curled in undisguised scorn.

"I like men who do things," she asserted, with pointed emphasis; where- upon the talk drifted eastward to Boston, and Winton was ignored until Virginia, having exhausted the reminis- cent vein, said: "You are going on through to Denver?"

"To Denver and beyond," was the reply. "Winton has a notion of hibernating in the mountains—fancy it; in the dead of winter!—and he has persuaded me to go along. He sketches a little, you know."

"Oh, so he is an artist?" said Vir- ginia, with interest newly aroused. "No," said Adams, gloomily, "he isn't an artist— isn't much of anything, I'm sorry to say. Worse than all, he doesn't know his grandfather's middle name. Told me so himself."

"That is inexcusable—in a dilettante," said Miss Virginia, mockingly. "Don't you think so?"

"It is inexcusable in anyone," said the technologist, rising to take his leave. Then, as a parting word: "Does the Rosemary set its own table? or do you dine in the dining car?"

"In the dining car, if we have one. Uncle Somerville lets us dodge the Rosemary's cook whenever we can," was the answer; and with this bit of information Adams went his way to the Denver sleeper.

Finding Winton in his section, poring over a blue-print map and making notes thereon after the manner of a man hard at work, Adams turned back to the smoking compartment.

Now for Mr. Morton P. Adams the salt of life was a joke, harmless or otherwise, as the tree might fall. So, during the long afternoon which he wore out in solitude there grew up in him a keen desire to see what would befall if these two whom he had so prospectively misrepresented each to the other should come together in the pathway of acquaintanceship.

But how to bring them together was a problem which refused to be solved until chance pointed the way. Since the "Limited" had lost another hour during the day, there was a rush for the dining car as soon as the announce- ment of its taking on had gone through the train. Adams and Winton were of this rush, and so were the mem- bers of Mr. Somerville Darrah's party. In the seating the party was separ- ated, as room at the crowded tables could be found; and Miss Virginia's fate gave her the unoccupied seat at one of the duet tables, opposite a young man with steadfast gray eyes and a Van Dyck beard.

Winton was equal to the emergency, or thought he was. Adams was still within call, and he beckoned him, meaning to propose an exchange of seats. But the Bostonian misunder- stood willfully.

"Most happy, I'm sure," he said, coming instantly to the rescue. "Miss Carteret, my friend signals his dilem- ma. May I present him?"

Virginia smiled and gave the re- quired permission in a word. But for Winton self-possession flew shrieking. "Ah—er—I hope you know Mr. Adams well enough to make allow- ances for his—for his—" He broke down piteously and she had to come to his assistance.

"For his imagination?" she suggest- ed. "I do, indeed; we are quite old friends."

Here was "well enough," but Wil- ton was a man and could not let it alone.

"I should be very sorry to have you

Miss Virginia was happy. Dilettante he might be, and an unhumiliated man of the world as well; but, to use Reverend Billy's phrase, she could make him "sit up."

"I beg yours, I'm sure," she said, demurely. "I didn't know it was a craft secret."

Winton looked across the aisle to the table where the technologist was sitting opposite a square-shouldered, ruddy-faced gentleman with fiery eyes and fierce white mustache, and shook a figurative fist.

"I'd like to know what Adams has been telling you," he said. "Sketch- ing in the mountains in midwinter! that would be decidedly original, to say the least of it. And I think I have never done an original thing in all my life."

For a single instant the brown eyes looked their pity for him; generic pity it was, of the kind that mounting souls bestow upon the stagnant. But the subconscious lover in Winton made it personal to him, and it was the lover who spoke when he went on.

"That is a damaging admission, is it not? I am sorry to have to make it—to have to confirm your poor opinion of me."

"Did I say anything like that?" she protested.

"Not in words; but your eyes said it, and I know you have been think- ing it all along. Don't ask me how I know it; I couldn't explain it if I should try. But you have been pity- ing me, in a way—you know you have."

The brown eyes were downcast. Frank and free-hearted after her kind as she was, Virginia Carteret was finding it a new and singular experi- ence to have a man tell her baldly at their first meeting that he had read her inmost thought of him. Yet she would not flinch or go back.

"There is so much to be done in the world, and so few to do the work," she pleaded in extenuation.

"And Adams has told you that I am not one of the few? It is true enough to hurt."

She looked him fairly in the eyes. "What is lacking, Mr. Winton—the spur?"

"Possibly," he rejoined. "There is no

PENSACOLA ARISING FROM STORM BLOW

WORK OF REBUILDING FLORIDA CITY AND CARING FOR VIC- TIMS IS RESUMED.

People Hope to Pull Through With- out Calling for Outside Assistance—Five Raving Maniacs at Fort McRae Chained in Hospital.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 3.—After a restless night Pensacola awoke Tues- day morning to renew the work of rescue and rebuilding. Realizing the condition of the city, Gov. Broward of Florida wired the mayor of Pen- sacola, Charles H. Bliss, extending through him the sympathy of the peo- ple of the state to those in Pensacola over the devastation and wreck wrought by the hurricane, and in his telegram stated that if the citizens desired he would immediately issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the state and the outside world for assistance. As yet the offer has not been accepted, the city believing it can pull through without help from outside.

Money and Food Given. The chamber of commerce and city officials have jointly formed a relief committee and have raised thousands of dollars for the care of the needy. In addition the citizens have donated food and clothing. The poor of the city are being well cared for under the cir- cumstances.

Probably at no time since the hurri- cane have the people been given such a fright as Tuesday morning, when official news came from Washington of the appearance of another storm disturbance off Cuba. Special weather bulletins were posted, advising vessels not to venture out in the gulf, but there were none to leave except a few steamers in the middle of the har- bor.

Five Men Become Maniacs. No move has been made by the army to rehabilitate the deserted forts across the bay. Fort McRae has been swept almost off the earth with its new and modern batteries and dis- appearing guns, and it was here that five men were drowned and five others underwent such a harrowing ex- perience that they are now chained in the army hospital, raving maniacs.

Fort Pickens has been greatly dam- aged, but not to the extent of Fort Mc- Rae, and although many of the build- ings there have been wrecked, the army has found sufficient room for men to man the batteries. Capt. Broadbelt, in command of the life sav- ing station, of which there is not even a board left, has received ad- vices to care for the life saving crew in the city until Superintendent Hutch- ins can reach here, when temporary quarters will probably be arranged on Santa Rosa island for the men.

Big Storm Swept Lights Away. New Orleans, Oct. 3.—Forty-four lights either swept into the sea and lost or the structures so badly dam- aged that no lights can be shown and four lighthouse keepers drowned dur- ing last week's hurricane is the sum- mary of the report made by United States Lighthouse Inspector Sears, of New Orleans. These lights were lo- cated on the coast and adjacent is- lands between the mouth of the Mis- sissippi river and Mobile. Mr. Sears did not investigate the lighthouse losses between Mobile and Pensacola. He has not yet made public an esti- mate of the money loss involved.

Sues to Oust Two Trusts. Topeka, Kan., Oct. 3.—Suits have been instituted in the supreme court to oust the Standard Oil company and the International Harvester Company of America from Kansas. These suits were prepared and begun by Attorney General Coleman under the Kansas anti-trust act, and they are the result of a long investigation.

NEW RULING ON RAIL RATES

ROADS TO FILE STATE TARIFFS WITH COMMISSION.

Interstate Board Also Intends to Con- stitute Law in Advance, Without Waiting for Formal Complaints. Washington, Oct. 2.—The interstate commerce commission has reached a conclusion with respect to the railway rate law which it has embodied in a general order made public Monday. It holds that where a state rate forms a part of an interstate rate the state rate should be filed with the commis- sion. This is an entirely new feature in connection with the operations of the interstate commerce commission. The further announcement was made that the commission intends, wherever possible, to construe the law in ad- vance without waiting for any particu- lar complaint to be made upon which to base its decision.

Uniform classification formed the subject of a conference by the inter- state commerce commission here Tues- day. The object of the meeting was to ascertain if possible if the railroads cannot be induced to agree to the proposition without the necessity of further legislation by congress.

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—The hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the alleged combination of the Terminal Railway association began Monday before Special Commissioner R. E. Rombauer. The suit is based on the government's allegation that the Sher- man anti-trust law is being violated by the alleged monopoly of carrier and railroad interests among St. Louis railroads. The government expects to complete its case by October 20.

MOB ATTACKS JAIL AT MOBILE

One Man Killed and Several Wounded Before Quiet is Restored.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 3.—Seeking to lynch a negro arrested for attacking a white girl, a mob attacked the jail Tuesday night and in the fighting that ensued one man was killed and several wounded.

Rev. Hoyle, a special officer for the Mobile & Ohio railroad, who assisted in the defense of the jail, was killed. Among the jail defenders wounded was Alderman A. S. Lyons.

News of the negro's crime inflamed a section of the citizens, whose nerves already were on edge as a result of the recent storm experience. The negro, Dick Robinson, who is only 17, and still wearing short trousers, at- tacked Ruth, the 12-year-old daugh- ter of Blount Sossamon, who lives about three miles from here.

The girl was passing a secluded spot not far from her home when she was attacked. Later, she was found lying unconscious by the roadside and was taken to her home.

Detectives were placed on the track of the negro and within three hours he was captured. He was taken be- fore the Sossamon, who, at once identified him. Deputy Sheriff Hatch, knowing that the life of the negro would be taken by a mob if he brought him into this city, caused him to be conveyed to a station several miles up the Mobile & Ohio railroad.

He was not taken to the jail at all and was at least eight miles from the city when the mob which determined to have him, approached the build- ing.

Kills Wife and Himself. Chicago, Sept. 29.—Charles G. Kline, an Evanston coal merchant, well known in the suburb, killed his wife and then instantly killed himself in their home early Friday. He used a shotgun as a weapon. Kline is be- lieved to have been mentally unbal- anced.

BABY'S TORTURING HUMOR. Ears Looked as If They Would Drop Off—Face Mass of Sores—Cured by Cuticura in Two Weeks for 75c.

"I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doc- tors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away; her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dol- lars, instead of seventy-five cents. Mrs. George J. Steese, 701 Colburn St., Akron, Ohio."

Duse Refuses Jubilee. Eleanor Duse, the famous Italian actress, has positively vetoed a plan to celebrate her jubilee as was done in England and France for Ellen Terry and Bernhardt. When the subject was broached to the signora she thanked her friends but declined the honor. She enjoys the distinction—almost unique in her profession—of shunning everything in the shape of publicity. As a general rule she also scorns the usual artifices of her sex on the stage in the matter of paint and powder, ap- pearing almost as nature made her, rapidly graying hair and all.

"Tips" Given by Monarchs. King Edward disburses a good deal of money in tips every year. Each visit to one of his subjects costs him from $1,000 to $3,000. At shooting parties the gamebeaters get $15 each and the gamekeepers $25 or $50 each. When he goes abroad he does still better. On the occasion of his recent visit to the kaiser he gave away nearly $10,000 in this way. When the czar visited England he left behind a check for $15,000 to be distributed among servants who attended him.

Cure For The Blues ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained.

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling, and during her periods she is exceed- ingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up; you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brood- ing, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES. Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege- table Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late Gen- eral Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I do not suffer any longer with despondency, as I did be- fore. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege- table Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

A KENTUCKY WOMAN

How She Gained Fifteen Pounds in Weight and Became Well by Taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Women at forty or thereabouts, have their future in their own hands. There will be a change for the better or worse for the better if the system is purified by such a tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. D. C. Wedding, of Hartford, Ky., writes as follows concerning the difficulties which afflicted her:

"I was seriously ill, and was confined to my bed for six or eight months in all, during two years. I had chills, fever, rheumatism. My stomach seemed all ways too full, my kidneys did not act freely, my liver was inactive, my heart beat was very weak and I had dizziness or swimming in my head and nervous troubles."

"I was under the treatment of several different physicians but they all failed to do me any good. After suffering for two years I learned from an Arkansas friend about the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided that I would try them. The very first box I took made me feel better and when I had taken four boxes more I was entirely well, weighed fifteen pounds more than when I began, resumed my household duties, and have since continued in the best of health. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people on occasions of what they did for me, and I feel that I cannot praise them too strongly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills restored Mrs. Wedding to health because they actually made new blood and when the blood is in full vigor every function of the body is restored, because the blood carries to every organ, every muscle, every nerve, the necessary nourishment. Any woman who is interested in the cure of Mrs. Wedding will want our book, "Plain Talks to Women," which is free on request.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or they will be sent by mail postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Hindu Moon Lore.

The full eclipse of the moon was observed in Singapore on the night of August 4. According to the Hindus this eclipse is the contact between the moon and another planet called Rahoo, but the masses believe that owing to the will of God, Rahoo, or the serpentlike planet, catches hold of the moon by its hideous mouth and releases it after a short time.

At the first contact the Hindus bathe principally in the sea and anxiously await the release. After the contact they take another bath. During the interval they are not allowed to drink a cup of water, as their belief is that all things in the world get polluted during the contact.—Singapore Times.

Pauperism in British Isles.

Indoor pauperism is said, in the British official record, to have grown rapidly in England and Wales since 1900. During the last eleven years the cost of indoor relief has increased 86 per cent., while the increase in the number of paupers has been only 36 per cent. The annual cost of maintenance per head increased from about $65 in 1895 to about $90 in 1905. There had also been a large increase in the average cost of maintenance of workhouse inmates.

Scorpions Cause Disaster.

Scorpions were to a great extent responsible for the recent bursting of the Kamalapuram tank in India. There had been very heavy rains, but when an attempt was made to preserve the bank of the tank scorpions issued from crevices in the earthwork in such numbers that the attempt had to be abandoned. Over 30 laborers were stung.—Shanghai Mercury.

ROBBERS WASH OUT GOLD

NEWS OF SENSATIONAL RAID ON AUSTRALIAN MINE.

Bandits Cut Wires and Escape with $10,000—Seamen Live Many Months on Green Bananas.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 1.—The Orange brings news from Australia of a sensational raid on a mine in the famous Kalgoolie gold fields, recalling the doings of "Captain Starlight" and the Kell bushrangers.

Four masked men with revolvers attacked the mine staff, two binding and gagging the miners at the battery, while the others covered them with revolvers. One of the robbers went for buckets, and the quartet washed out considerable gold from the sluice boxes. To prevent interference the robbers had cut the telephone wires. They took over $10,000 worth of gold and escaped.

H. M. S. Cambrian, which returned to Sydney from a South Sea cruise, reported picking up two American seamen, Charles Green and William Brown, who had lived for seven and a half months on green bananas for the most part. They were cast away from the wrecked Chilean schooner Sarita on Easter Island. The Chileans on the island succored their countrymen, but refused food to the Americans. The two were shown a cave to sleep in, but found in it a number of skeletons and they slept in the open.

PENSION ROLLS DECREASING

Over 12,000 Names Have Been Dropped During the Year.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The net decrease in the pension roll of the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, amounted to 12,470, the largest decrease ever known in the history of the country. These facts are brought out in the annual report of Commissioner of Pensions Warner, which has just been completed. In the report the commissioner expresses the opinion that there will be a still more marked decrease during the present year.

During the year there were added to the roll 33,569 new pensioners and 1,405 restorations and renewals, making a total addition of 34,974. The total number of pensioners on the roll during the year was 1,033,415. The number of pensioners dropped from the roll during the year was 47,444, leaving the number of pensioners June 30, 1906, 985,971.

ARREST ALLEGED DEFAULTER.

E. C. Fox, of Middleport, O., Institution, Taken Into Custody.

Pomeroy, O., Oct. 1.—E. C. Fox, who is charged with wrecking the Middleport, O. bank, returned from eastern Ohio Saturday and landed at Mason, W. Va. Mason is opposite his place, and Marshal Arnold immediately went across the river. An effort was made to induce Fox to come to this side of the river before putting him under arrest. Fox claims that he sold the bank to Vice President Armentrout months ago, and had nothing to do with its failure. Fox came across the river later in the day, and was placed under arrest by Marshal Arnold and taken before the court for preliminary trial.

AMERICANS AHEAD IN BALLOON TEST

LIEUT. LAHM AND COMPANION VICTORS IN RACE FOR THE BENNETT CUP.

One Contestant, the Hon. C. S. Rolls, Sailing the British Airship Britannia is Missing, and He May Prove to Be the Winner.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The Aero club semi-officially announced Monday that Lieut. Frank P. Lahm, of the Sixth United States cavalry, one of the American contestants, was the victor in the first competition for the James Gordon Bennett cup for international aeronautes.

The race was started Sunday afternoon when 15 balloons, representing seven countries, sailed away from the Tuilleries gardens, Paris.

Lieut. Lahm's apparent victory may be changed when the Hon. C. S. Rolls, one of the English contestants, is heard from. Rolls' landing has not yet been recorded and there is some doubt regarding his relative position. Considerable anxiety is felt for his safety, although his experience and caution are regarded as certain to bring him safely to the ground.

Americans' Record Is Best.

Up to the present time, however, the performance of Lahm and Kersey, in the balloon United States, in reaching 75 miles north of Scarborough, England, is the best record attained by any one of the 15 starters. The members of the Aero club are inclined to believe that the United States was only prevented from proceeding farther because a current of air again threatened to carry her over the North sea, with no apparent prospect, unless the direction of the wind changed, of finding land before making the coast of Norway.

Crowds of prominent aeronautes were at the clubhouse all day awaiting telegrams reporting arrivals. The first reports recorded the landing of five balloons in Normandy. It was then considered certain that the remainder would cross the channel and a few hours later came dispatches telling of the landing of the Spanish and one French balloon on the south coast of England, and the report that four others, including the United States, had passed over Hastings, going due north.

Accident to Santos Dumont. In the meantime the news of the accident to Santos Dumont aroused general sympathy, the Brazilian being very popular here. But his subsequent arrival at the Aero club with one arm bandaged relieved the tension regarding the seriousness of his mishap.

The Frenchmen were then aroused to cheerfulness at the report that Count De La Valk in the Walhalla had arrived at Norfolk. Later, however, when the landing at Hull of the Italian contestant, Signor Vonwiller, in the Elre, was announced it was seen that France's chances of winning had gone.

Then the report of Lieut. Lahm showed that he had reached farther north than any other starter, and it was generally thought that he would win.

Uneasy Over British Ship.

Rolls, however, is still to be reckoned with and a definite announcement of the result cannot be made. The absence of the Britannia, Rolls' balloon, from the list of landings, causes increasing disquiet, as the hours go by, some thinking that a current of air must have carried him out to sea, while others believe that he has landed somewhere in England and has not yet been able to get to a telegraph wire. The Britannia was last seen near Hastings, England.

BISHOP WAS WRONGLY QUOTED

Williams, of Michigan, Corrects Report Regarding Sermon on Bible.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 3.—Bishop Charles D. Williams, of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan, Tuesday declared that he had been incorrectly quoted in the published report of his sermon Sunday to the Y. M. C. A. members, in which it was stated he said that the Bible as the word of God is the most prolific source of unbelief the church has to contend with.

"I am neither ultra-conservative, nor yet a Robert Ingersoll and I wish to emphatically deny the report," declared Bishop Williams. "I did say that a certain view of the Bible is a most prolific source of unbelief. To say that the Bible is the most prolific source of belief, I would be the rank kind of a Robert Ingersoll. The Bible must be read thoughtfully and meditatively, and a man with a conscience will find the word of God in it."

CURED OF GRAVEL.

Not a Single Stone Has Formed Since Using Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. D. Daughtrey, music publisher, of Suffolk, Va., says: "During two or three years I had kidney trouble I passed about 2 1/2 pounds of gravel and sandy sediment in the urine. I haven't passed a stone since using Doan's Kidney Pills, however, and that was three years ago. I used to suffer the most acute agony during a gravel attack, and had the other usual symptoms of kidney trouble—jaundice, headache, pain in the back, urinary disorders, rheumatic pain, etc. I have a box containing 14 gravel stones that I passed, but that is not one-quarter of the whole number. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a fine kidney tonic."

WHO PAID FOR THE DRINKS?

Endless Chain Operated by Thirsty Men on the Mexican Border.

"Now, here is the best yarn of the lot and a good puzzle for the Sunday papers to print," said the man with the alkali in his whiskers, when he had settled down in the hotel lobby after a long day on the rubberneck wagon.

"Several years ago American silver coin in Mexico was on the same basis as Mexican silver was at that time and still is in the states; it passed at half its face value. Drinks in El Paso and in Juarez, the Mexican town across the line, were a bit cheaper or 12 1/2 cents, as you easterners would say. "In those palmy days a citizen of El Paso could go into a drinking emporium and buy a drink, paying for it with an American quarter. The bartender would hand him back a Mexican quarter, which was, of course, worth 12 1/2 cents in Texas.

"Then with this Mexican quarter in his hand the citizen could cross the bridge to Juarez and there buy another drink, laying his Mexican quarter on the bar.

"If the greaser barkeep should give him in change an American quarter worth 12 1/2 cents in Mexico the joyous citizen could return to Uncle Sam's back yard and repeat the process.

"Now, the question is: Who paid for those drinks?"—N. Y. Sun.

Bird Breeding Islands.

During the last year the Audubon Society of Louisiana has rented some 17 bird breeding islands, located in the waters of the gulf. Last year the islands were watched by two wardens, whose wages were paid by the national committee of Audubon societies, and although they were not wholly able to prevent trespassing and egg stealing nevertheless the results attained were wellnigh marvellous. On their own and the neighboring islands of Breton reservation, owned by the federal government, by these simple preventive measures, there were hatched and raised all of 40,000 birds, composed of the following species: Common terns, foresters, terns, royal terns, laughing gulls, black skimmers.

Country Life in America.

Aunt Mary's "Quiet" Funeral. A dear old New England spinster, the embodiment of the timid and shrinking, passed away at Carlsbad, where she had gone for her health. Her nearest kinsman, a nephew, ordered the body sent back to be buried—as was her last wish—in the quiet little country churchyard. His surprise can be imagined, when, on opening the casket, he beheld, instead of the placid features of his Aunt Mary, the majestic port of an English general in full regimentals, whom he remembered had chanced to die at the same time and place as his aunt. At once he cabled to the general's heirs, explaining the situation and requesting instructions. They came back as follows: "Give the general quiet funeral. Aunt Mary interred to-day with full military honors, six brass bands, saluting guns."

Doctor Recommends Postum from Personal Test.

No one is better able to realize the injurious action of caffeine—the drug in coffee—on the heart, than the doctor.

When the doctor himself has been relieved by simply leaving off coffee and using Postum, he can refer with full conviction to his own case.

A Mo. physician prescribes Postum for many of his patients because he was benefited by it. He says: "I wish to add my testimony in regard to that excellent preparation—Postum. I have had functional or nervous heart trouble for over 15 years, and part of the time was unable to attend to my business.

"I was a moderate user of coffee and did not think drinking it hurt me. But on stopping it and using Postum instead, my heart has got all right, and I ascribe it to the change from coffee to Postum.

"I am prescribing it now in cases of sickness, especially when coffee does not agree, or affects the heart, nerves or stomach.

"When made right it has a much better flavor than coffee, and is a vital sustainer of the system. I shall continue to recommend it to our people, and I have my own case to refer to." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pgs. "There's a reason."

Drinking Customs.

Society is soaked in drink. The customs of Europeans in India are all anti-teetotal. It is even regarded as unpatriotic to be a total abstainer, because the government has a direct interest in the sale of drink. It is a fact that when Indians become Christians it is necessary to have a temperance society, which as heathens or Mohammedans they did not require. This is due to British drinking customs.—World's Women's Temperance Bulletin.

The Port of Hong-Kong.

Hong-Kong is one of the most active shipping ports in the world, but it is not a market. It is a convenient point for the transfer of cargoes from or intended for the different ports of China, Japan, Korea, the Philippine islands, Siam and other parts of the east, but it is a small island, with a limited population, who produce nothing and consume comparatively little but handle a great deal of trade in transit.

Died in Westminster Abbey.

Henry IV. died in Westminster Abbey in 1413. It is claimed that from that time to this no life has ended there, except that of a minister named Shepherd, who dropped dead in the famous old sanctuary, just as he finished a speech, at a meeting recently held under the charrmanship of the Dean of Westminster.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies: those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers; those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and in order to buy the genuine article and to get its beneficial effects, one has only to note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package. Price, 50c. per bottle. One size only.

A Good Man Taken

Rev. A. C. Brush, an old settler and circuit rider of DeKalb county, died at the home of his daughter, at Essex, Canada, September 29, 1906.

Rev. Brush was born in Essex county, Canada, December 14, 1828, and studied for the ministry when a young man. He was married in Canada in 1866 to Miss Alvia Hosner, and to them were born for children: A. H. Brush, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Gertrude Brush of Essex, Canada; L. D. Brush, of Kingston, and J. C. Brush of Sycamore, all of whom are living.

Mr. Brush came to Kingston from Canada in 1881 and moved from there to Ohio Grove where he preached for 14 years.

Mr. Brush again resided at Kingston for a while and his wife's death occurred there March 26, 1905. About three months ago he returned to his birthplace in Canada where he finally succumbed to stomach trouble from which he suffered for many years.

He was a loyal Mason, an honest, God-fearing man, a respected neighbor and a kind and loving father.

The funeral services were held last Monday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the home of the daughter, where he died. Among those present was the son, J. C. Brush, of this city.—Sycamore True Republican.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by G. H. Hunt.

As a result of a cheese-eating contest held several days ago by Frank Miller, Fred Justen and Jacob Brayfield, in a saloon at Johnsburg, on the line between Lake and McHenry counties, one man is dead and the other two are critically ill, with their recovery in doubt.

Kodol for Dyspepsia contains the digestive juices of a healthy stomach and will put your stomach in shape to perform its important function of supplying the body and brain with strength building blood. Digests what you eat, relieves indigestion. Sold by Hunt's Pharmacy.

FISH IN ITALY.

Octopus, Sea Robin, Sea Spider and Skate Used For Food.

"The fish had a peculiar but agreeable taste," said a globe trotter. "Its flesh was a little tough and elastic. That, though, I didn't mind. I rather like it, as one likes the elastic toughness of a clam."

He was describing a dinner in Rome. He went on:

"Gorgio, I said to the waiter, 'what kind of fish is this?' 'Fried octopus, signor,' Gorgio answered calmly.

"I ate no more. Fried octopus! The idea! I'd as soon have eaten fried rattlesnake.

"I found that in Italy and in southern France the octopus makes a popular dish. And after that, taking a deep interest in the Roman fish stalls, I found on sale a number of sea things that we consider harmful and disgusting.

"The sea robin, for instance. His body is like a catfish's in shape. In color it is speckled and ugly, frog-like, brown and black. And it has a pair of brown wings. Well, this fish, which we always throw overboard, the Roman dealers get 3 cents apiece for.

"The sea spider. It looks like a great spider, and it is covered with black slime. You catch it when you go crabbing, and, with a cry of disgust, you toss it overboard again—a round, black body, from which a dozen jointed, restless tentacles ray. But the sea spider is a cherished dish in Italy.

"Do you know the skate? A flat, round body, with a long, slim tail—one side of the body white, and here a grotesque parody of the human face is seen—two eyes, nose, mouth. The skate is a horror to look at, and an American would as soon eat rat; but in Italy big, pale skates are on sale at every fish stall.

"You will not believe it, but it is a fact that there are even certain types of jelly fish that the Italians eat."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Compulsory Archery.

Archery was once a compulsory exercise in every English parish after Sunday church. "It is a worthy game," preached Bishop Latimer, "a wholesome kind of exercise and much commended in physic." A fine of a halfpenny for abstaining from archery practice on Sunday was enforced in Edward III's reign, and Henry VIII's crack regiment, the yeomen of the guard, was composed entirely of bowmen. Archery flourished some time after the introduction of the hand gun, though this had been used in England as early as 1471. This developed, in James I's time, into the caliver, so called from the English misconception of an order to supply English soldiers with guns of the same "caliber" as the French pattern, and the longbow was finally abandoned in the civil wars.

The Story of a White Lie.

Is a white lie ever justified? That at least some people believe it has no excuse is proved by the following tale: An ancient rabbi came to a city where all the people were truthful, married one of the inhabitants, had two children and prospered. One day a neighbor called when the rabbi's wife was washing her head, and the rabbi, going to the door, was seized by false modesty and said that she had gone out. Thereupon both of his children died, and, as no one died in that city before reaching old age, the neighbors made inquiries, the rabbi confessed what he had done and was ordered to leave the city immediately.

The Benefit.

A well known medical man was attending an old Irish woman who lived in one of the poorer quarters of Edinburgh. She had been ill, but was convalescent, when one day she said to the doctor:

"Will ye tell me, doctor, dear, for certain, whether I'll get well again or no?"

"Oh, yes. I think you'll be all right soon now," was the answer.

"I wanted to know for sure, ye see, doctor, because I'm a lone woman an' I subscribe to a burym' society, an' I just wished to know if I was likely to be gettin' any benefit out of it or no."—Strand Magazine.

Olive Oil.

The bright and limpid appearance of the best olive oil is secured by repeatedly passing it through layers of carded cotton wool as a filter. The clarified oil of Italy is then, until bottled or sold in bulk, kept in cold storage in masonry tanks lined with hard marble and covered. Those who use much oil and have a cold, dark place in which to keep it find it economical to buy a good brand of oil in gallon packages. It can be drawn off into quart or pint bottles for convenient use and also so that the large quantity may not be exposed too frequently to the air.—New York Post.
